NOT AFTER IT

Congressman Overstreet Cannot Be Drawn Into Senatorial Race.

Indianapolis, Aug. 8.—Some of the loyal friends of Congressman Jesse Overstreet of this district suggested today that he would make a good candidate for the United States senate to succeed Senator Fairbanks, and they said that they will try to draw him into the race. Mr. Overstreet would not be a silent factor if he could enter the lists with the support of his own county, which will control eleven members, that is, of course, if the Republicans win. Mr. Overstreet, however, has no idea of becoming a candidate for the senate, although as a matter of course he is not without full and deep appreciation of the honor. He is just now a candidate for re-election to congress. Although he was not a resident of this district when first elected, and owing to his duties as secretary of the congressional campaign committee, he has always been handicapped in making his canvass, he has generally landed ahead of the ticket. The same forces that have been at work for him are at it again, confident of pulling him through by a big majority. It is evident, however, that the Democrats are going to put up a stiff fight against him, and if their county ticket wins they are confident of taking him down.

Crawford Fairbanks of Terre Haute, proprietor of the largest brewery in the state, informed your correspondent today that the brewers are making no attempt to secure the nomination of men for the legislature who will vote for a repeal or at least a partial repeal of the Nicholson law. The air has been filled with rumors for some time to the effect that the brewers have amassed an immense fund to be used in influencing the legislators in another attempt to repeal the blanket remonstrance clause, but Mr. Fairbanks says that there is nothing to such reports. It does not seem likely from what he said that the brewers will make any attempt to repeal the Nicholson law. Rather it will be their plan to stand pat on what they now have. It is expected, however, that the Prohibitionists will make some attempt to secure a revision, as their leaders are stating that it ought to be changed so the applicant for retail license should be required to file a petition signed by a majority of the voters and that one license in a ward or township should stand for two years against all applicants. In other words, they are after a local option law. From what can be learned from the leaders of the two old parties they will stand against tampering with the temperance laws either by the brewers or the temperance people, so it may be predicted with some assurance that there will be no new temperance legislation at the coming session.

It will be surprising if there is not a bitter fight between the Democratic leaders if they should carry the legislature. There are a number of very aspiring gentlemen who feel that their services since the party has been out of power entitles them to a seat in the United States senate, and they will make a determined demand if there is a Democratic legislature. The report today that Major Menzies of Mt. Vernon has decided to become a candidate for the senate is not surprising, as he has been a diligent worker in the party for many years and has never been rewarded. There is some soreness among his first district friends because he was not given the nomination for governor, and it is said they will go after a place in the senate hot and heavy if there is a chance. It is also expected that Kern and Shively as well as several others will have their lightning rods up, so it will be interesting to see where it will strike.

The Democrats have some young blood at the head of their organization here this time. The chairman, Charles B. Clarke, and Secretary, Charles Pettijohn are both young in years, but of considerable political experience. Clarke is said to have a natural ability for organizing, while Pettijohn learned a lot about the game from W. W. Spencer and other old-time Democratic leaders. Clarke and Pettijohn have been working on the plan of their organization for a long time, and Clarke says they will be ready to enter the campaign in fine shape. They are probably further ahead than the Republicans here, as there has been no strife among them recently as they have had no patronage to divide. The county convention will be held next week, and Chairman Clarke said today that a ticket will be named that will give the Republicans all kinds of trouble.

The Crew Escaped.

Detroit, Aug. 8.—The freighter City of Berlin, with about 3,000 tons of iron ore on board, collided with an unknown boat in the Detroit river, north of Belle Isle, last night, and sunk. The crew was taken ashore. There was no loss of life.

THE FIGURES HURT

The Democratic Campaign Committee Takes Issue With Statistics.

Washington, Aug. 8.—Representative Cowherd of the Democratic campaign committee has issued a statement in refutation of recently published tables prepared by Carol D. Wright of the bureau of labor, relative to the increase in wages and the cost of living. Mr. Cowherd's conclusions are followed out at considerable length and in conclusion he says: "We shall appeal from Colonel Wright and his expert statisticians to one who figures more skillfully than he—the housewife with the market basket, who must make her husband's scanty wage cover the constantly increasing cost of the family's daily needs."

St. Louis, Aug. 8.—When the fiftieth annual convention of the International Typographical Union opened here today, representatives of the printing trades from all sections of the United States, including the new possessions and Canada, were present. Six hundred and fifty delegates have been elected to represent the various printers' unions at the convention which is being held in Convention hall on the World's Fair grounds, and it is estimated that 1,000 visitors will attend. The sessions will extend over the entire week.

Many Knights Will Gather.

Louisville, Ky., Aug. 8.—The twenty-third convention of the supreme lodge Knights of Pythias and the biennial encampment of the uniform rank will begin in this city next Sunday with an attendance that gives promise at this time of surpassing any previous similar event in the history of the order. Official reports made by twenty-six brigadier generals to the biennial association call for accommodations for 15,000 uniformed men.

Women Liked to Vote.

Sydney, N. S. W., Aug. 8.—The general election has resulted in a victory for the opposition party, which advocated reform in extravagance of administration. It is expected that the cabinet will resign. The features of the election were the great exercise of the franchise by women, to whom it was only recently granted, and a large accession to the strength of the labor party.

WAYNE COUNTY FARMERS TALK ABOUT THE PROSPECTS OF CROPS IN COUNTY

RAIN BADLY NEEDED

With Plenty of Moisture Corn Will Again be King—Wheat Very Short.

The sole topic with farmers in this as well as other counties is the crops. This is only natural as at this time of year everything depends on the weather. It has now been several weeks since there has been any rain to speak of and practically none since corn has "eared." Splendid weather was enjoyed during "harvest"—just the kind wanted to gather the golden grain and save the hay. For this the farmers were thankful.

Wheat fell short in every field out, while there is a magnificent crop of oats. With a big yield the price of this staple feed ought to drop in price. But the crop is receiving every attention now. There was abundance of rain at planting and during the first month or so of its growth, but since the corn has "eared" the precious fluid has been decidedly scarce. The Palladium talked to a number of farmers today and the one great hope of all of them is that a copious shower of rain will soon fall. Considerable turnip seed was sown the latter part of July and this also needs rain. It looked last evening as if mother earth would be drenched, but the clouds passed over and only coolness came in stead of that much desired quantity.

HAGERSTOWN GIRL GAINS NOTORIETY

BY WRITING HER NAME ACROSS A NEW $5 BILL

NEW YORK OFFICIAL

Noticed the Same and Wrote to Wayne County Girl—Demand For New Bills.

Hagerstown, Indiana, Wayne County, has had a number of occurrences of late to make it famous, and a recent occurrence brings one of its girls into correspondence with a New York bank official. The dispatch in reference to the affair is as follows:

Hagerstown, Ind., Aug. 8.—Several months ago Miss Rena Replogle, residing near this city, came into possession of a new $5 bill. The thought crossed her mind to write her name and address on the back of the money and see what came of it. She did so and for a long time nothing occurred to indicate that her act had created any stir in the business world.

Finally, after the circumstance had been almost forgotten, the young woman received a letter from an official in a New York bank. It expressed the pleasure of the writer in the opportunity presented of making the acquaintance of the woman whose address was written on the bill.

Miss Replogle replied and a very agreeable correspondence has continued.

The occurrence has caused an unusual demand for new bills at the local bank.

In the market report appear a few prices which are eye-openers to people of this part of the country. ORGANIZED TWELVE YEARS

TRINITY ENGLISH LUTHERAN CHURCH CELEBRATES

291 MEMBERS ON ROLLS

Annual Congregation Meeting Held Yesterday—Debt Reduced Three Hundred Dollars.

At the morning service of Trinity Lutheran church the pastor, Rev. J. Beck, preached from First Samuel, 7: 12, "Hitherto hath the Lord helped us."

Yesterday, twelve years ago, this congregation was organized. In the twelve years 291 communicant members placed their names upon the roll. In this time, fifty names were taken off through death and by dismissal. There were 105 added by rite of confirmation and 111 children were baptized.

In the afternoon the annual congregational meeting was held. The reports of the financial officers were very encouraging. Over $1,700.00 was contributed during the year for congregational and synodical treasures. All obligations were met and a nice little sum left in the treasury.

The debt on the chapel was reduced to a little over $300.00.

The pressing need now is an addition to the church property. It is too small.

The following officers were elected: Elder, Frederick Hasecoeter; deacon, George Sudhoff; trustee, Samuel Garrison; secretary, George W. Deuker; treasurer, John Ackerman.

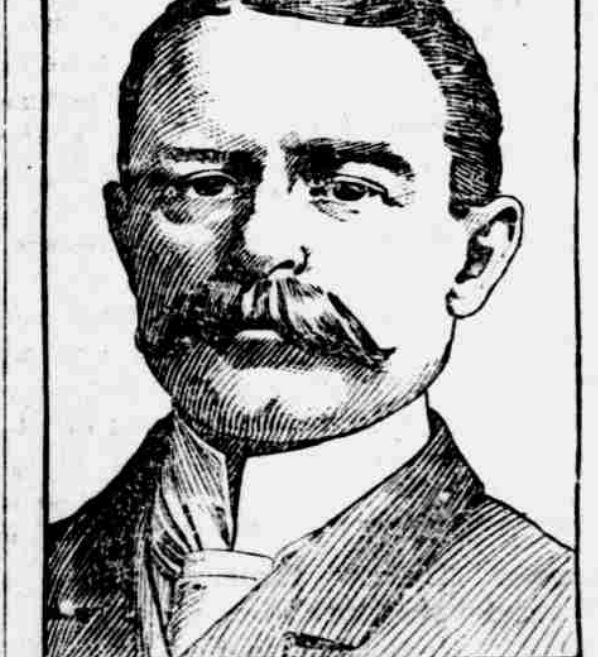

DALIA LAMA FLED

High Functionary of Lassa Refuses to Witness British Invasion.

Lassa, Tibet, Aug. 8.—The British expedition is encamped a mile from the sacred mountain of Potola, on which is situated the Dalia Lama's private gardens.

The Dalia lama fled to a monastery eighteen miles distant. It is reported that he has shut himself up in strict seclusion, refusing to see even the highest state officers, and declaring that he will remain secluded for three years. Colonel Younghusband has received a ceremonial visit from the amban, who promised to assist in arriving at a settlement and made gifts of food to the British troops.

The appearance of the city shows the descriptions of explorers to be extremely accurate. The surroundings are very fertile and the whole place gives evidence of great prosperity. A brilliantly costumed group watched the approach of the expedition from the roof of one of the structures on Potola mountain.

COL. E. P. THAYER

Issued the Call—Chairman Gardner Notified of the Meeting—Opening Date Not Set.

Col. E. P. Thayer, chairman of the Republican sixth district committee, has called a meeting for Thursday of this week at Cambridge City. The meeting will take up routine work and preliminary arrangements for the opening of the campaign. Chairman Gardner of this city will attend, as will also Secretary Converse. The matter of speakers for the district will be taken up and general campaign plans outlined.

The report published last Saturday that the campaign would open September 1 and that Congressman Watson would make the opening speech was news to County Chairman Gardner and Secretary Converse. They were "scooped." There has been no definite arrangements made so far for the opening date and when there is a time set the Palladium will tell about it.
