Alfred Medearis Takes the Premium in the Contest.

In the lot near the street car barns Alfred Medearis planted tomatoes and carefully guarded their growth. He had a special kind he wished to test and his labors have been rewarded by the production of the very kind he had in mind. It is a splendid specimen of a "unique" tomato. One of the tomatoes is on exhibition at the office on South Eighth street.

ANNUAL REUNION

Of The Army of the Society of the Cumberland.

The following invitations have been sent out by the corresponding secretary of the Army of the Cumberland:

Washington, D. C.

August 26th, 1904

Dear Sir:

The thirty-second annual reunion of the Society of the Army of the Cumberland will be held at Indianapolis, Indiana, September 20th and 21st next.

The headquarters will be at the Claypool, where rooms can be had on the American or European plan.

General John Coburn is chairman of the local executive committee.

The business meetings will be held on September the 20th, beginning at 10 o'clock, in the assembly room of the Claypool. The public exercises of the reunion will take place in the auditorium of the Claypool the evening of the 20th, and the annual banquet will be given in that house on the evening of the 21st.

The orators, selected at the last annual meeting, are Honorable Orlando A. Somers, of Indiana, a private soldier of the society, with Charles F. Manderson, of Omaha, as alternate.

There will be prominent speakers at the business meetings, at the public exercises, and at the banquet. Ladies may attend the banquet, the price of tickets being the same as for gentlemen.

These reunions, for the older members of the society, are rapidly near the last. Let us improve them! As Benjamin Franklin once wrote to a friend of forty years:

"The fewer we become, the more let us love one another."

Our Society is made up of both enlisted men and officers. Its annual invitations are not confined to its membership, but all who served either in the ranks, or as officers in the Army of the Cumberland, or the Army of the Ohio, are welcome to all its meetings, and are eligible to membership. The veterans of all other armies are also welcome.

REPAIRS

Of Pavements Along R. S. & I. Co.'s Lines Badly Needed.

Councilman Deuker recommended last night that the bad conditions of the brick pavement between Ninth and Twentieth streets, on Main, along the line of the Richmond Street and Interurban company, be alleviated, and that the block pavement on the Main street bridge, along the line of the company, be changed, that the block pavement in the bridge be taken and iron paving block be placed next to the rail. The city engineer will make plans for the changing of the bridge floor, and the work will be done as soon as is consistent.

A general repair of the condition of the pavements along the street railway company's lines will be made in the spring.

Have your furnace pipes cleaned for winter. See Woodhurst.

BUSINESS MEN HOLD MEETING

AND DISCUSS PLAN OF BUYING HAWKINS PLACE

FOR A CHAUTAUQUA

Meeting Heartily in Favor of the Prospect—Committee Appointed.

The meeting of the citizens interested in the Chautauqua met last evening at the Westcott, with Mr. James A. Shaw, and discussed the plan suggested of securing the Hawkins place for Chautauqua purposes. The water here is just the same as that of Glen Miller and the place could, with considerable expense, be made beautiful. It is the intention to make a large lake, build a pavilion and everything necessary for a Chautauqua. The meeting favored the plan.

A committee consisting of Dr. T. H. Davis, Sharon Jones and Ellwood Morris was appointed to confer with the city engineer as to the probable cost of surveying the place, making blue prints, etc., the committee to report back to a future meeting.

If the plans are adopted a stock company will be organized and the Chautauqua made a permanent feature of Richmond's enterprises.

GYPE HELD

Suspect in the Starbuck Murder Case

Accused of Stealing a Watch.

Newcastle, Ind., September 7.—A charge of larceny now hangs over Harry Gipe, who was arrested some weeks ago as suspect in the murder of Mrs. William Starbuck and baby at Greensboro, on July 9.

This charge was deemed advisable in order to lawfully hold the prisoner. The authorities believe they have evidence sufficient to convict Gipe of stealing a watch from a citizen of Shirley.

It is the general belief that should habeas corpus proceedings have been instituted for Gipe he could have been released in the Starbuck connection, but the charge of larceny holds him.

Although this charge is bailable, it is considered doubtful if Gipe could secure the amount of bond which would be necessary. Prospects are that Gipe will be given a hearing in the near future.

ding the white scourge of much of unknown to our fathers; its horrors and in providing rational and effective methods of cure.

Yet it has never abated one jot or tittle of the ancient law imposed on us by God-fearing ancestors. The Constitution of our fathers has been the light to our feet. Our path is, and will ever remain, that of ordered progress, of liberty under the law.

But we are not daunted by progress. We are not afraid of light!

The fabric our fathers builded will stand all shocks of fate or fortune.

While there will always be a proud pleasure in looking back on the history they made, the coming generation has the right to anticipate work not less important.

We who are passing off the stage bid you, as the children of Israel encamping by the sea were bidden, to go forward. We whose hands can no longer hold the flaming torch pass it on to you that its clear light may show the truth to the ages that are to come.

GOOD ADVICE

Secretary Hay Appeals to Young Men

The following advice is given by Secretary John Hay to young men whose political lives are just beginning:

Any one entering business would be glad of the chance to become one of an established firm with years of success behind it.

Everything great done by this country in the last fifty years has been done under the auspices of the Republican party. Is not this a priceless asset?

Lincoln and Grant, Hayes and Garfield, Harrison and McKinley—names secure in the heaven of fame—they are all gone, leaving small estates in worldly goods, but what vast possessions in principles, memories, sacred associations! It is a start in life to share that wealth.

In our form of government there must be two parties.

But what young man would not rather belong to the party that does things, instead of one that opposes them; to the party that looks up, rather than down; to the party of the dawn, rather than of the sunset?

For fifty years the Republican party has believed in the country and labored for it in hope and joy;

Has revered the flag and followed it;

Has carried it under strange skies and planted it on far-receding horizons;

Has seen the nation grow greater every year and more respected;

Has seen the country extend its intercourse and its influence to regions
