AMERICAN BOYS IN OLD OXFORD

CECIL RHODES SCHOLARSHIP
HOLDERS ASSIGNED

FORTY THREE BRIGHT BOYS

Representing Every State and Territory Except Five—Admitted—
One Note of Discord.

Oxford, Eng., October 12.—The first recipients of the Cecil Rhodes scholarships entered English University life yesterday at the opening of Oxford term. America was represented by forty-three students, every State and Territory being represented except Arizona, Florida, Mississippi, Nevada and New Mexico, whose candidates did not qualify in the American examinations. The Americans are scattered through seventeen colleges. They were generally cordially welcomed, the only discordant note occurring at Kible college, where they refused to receive Mr. Murray, of Kansas, because he was not a member of the church of England. All the Americans are expected to shine in a scholastic way and some of them in athletic life, especially Schutt of Cornell, who is likely to lower the British long distance running records.

Murray a Diligent Student.

Kansas City, Mo., October 12.—Eugene Murray, who has been refused admission to Kible college, at Oxford, on account of non-membership in the Episcopalian church, was a student of Kansas University, giving Bartlesville, Indian Territory, as his home. He never attended church much, a former college chum says, because he devoted all his spare time to tutoring or doing other work to earn his way through college and felt that Sunday should be a day of rest for him.

One of the two Indiana students to whom the Rhodes scholarship was awarded is George E. Hamilton, of this city, a former student at Earlham College.

"To Die At Dawn."

Comes to the Gennett Theatre on next Friday evening. Kentucky has furnished the scenes of a vast number of melodramas some of which have gained no little fame and furnished amusement for an army of theatre goers. "To Die At Dawn," which is the coming attraction at the Gennett Theatre is justly entitled to take its place in the ranks of the many successful plays that are based on material furnished by the Blue Grass state.

The piece is in four acts, and was written by the well known author and actor, E. Lawrence Lee, whose efforts to get away from the usual stereotyped form of melodrama, are plainly visible in the many original and startling novelties, scenically, mechanically and in the lines of the play itself, which are introduced during the progress of the play.

A well constructed plot with just enough pathos and comedy makes the play a highly pleasing one to all classes of theatre goers. The scenes laid in the mountains naturally give a grand opportunity for picturesque scenery, which fact has been taken advantage of, and a scenic equipment lavish in the extreme is shown.

Perhaps the most striking scenes of the production are the old mill in the mountains and the stalactite chambers of the Mammoth cave. The latter, with its great masses of sparkling crystals hanging from roof and wall, being extremely beautiful.

Miss Elsie Cresey, for whom the play was written, is seen in the part of Nellie Milward, the heroine, and is an actress wonderful emotional ability, her interpretation of the exacting and difficult role being splendidly handled. The author herself will be seen as George Drake, the villain, while the supporting company is a large and capable one.

A CASE OF IT

Many More Like It In Richmond.

The following case is but one of many similar occurring daily in Richmond. It is an easy matter to verify its correctness. Surely you can not ask for better proof than such a conclusive evidence.

Elmer O. Hawkins, of 43 North Fifth street, machinist at Gaar, Scott & Co.'s says: "For two or three years I was troubled with a weakened and debilitated condition of the kidneys. There was a steady aching pain through my loins and I could not rest comfortably during the night. The secretions became irregular and unnatural. I tried a great many different remedies, but received no benefit until seeing Doan's Kidney Pills highly recommended I bought a box at A. G. Luken's drug store and used them. They soon fixed me up and I feel confident in saying that they are a permanent cure for kidney troubles."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name, Doan's and take no substitute.

Avoid all drying inhalants and use that which cleanses and heals the membrane. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and cures catarrh easily and pleasantly. Cold in the head vanishes quickly. Price 50 cents at druggists or by mail.

Catarrh caused difficulty in speaking and to a great extent loss of hearing. By the use of Ely's Cream Balm dropping of mucus has ceased, voice and hearing have greatly improved.—J. W. Davidson, Att'y at law, Monmouth, Ill.

Everybody liable to itching piles. Rich and poor, old and young—terrible the tortures they suffer. Only one sure cure. Doan's Ointment. Absolutely safe; can't fail.

No such thing as "summer complaint" when Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry is kept handy. Nature's remedy for looseness of the bowels.

'Tisn't safe to be a day without Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil in the house. Never can tell what moment an accident is going to happen.

A Great Sensation.

There was a big sensation in Leesville, Ind., W. H. Brown of that place, who was expected to die, had his life saved by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. He writes: "I endured indescribable agonies from Asthma, but your New Discovery gave me immediate relief and soon thereafter effected a complete cure. Similar cures of Consumption, Pneumonia, Bronchitis and Grip are numerous. It's the peerless remedy for all throat and lung troubles. Price 50c, and $1.00. Guaranteed by A. G. Luken & Co., druggists. Trial bottle free.

A Chicago mother left her babe to starve in a manger. The judge in sentencing her to the workhouse said: "Work is uplifting and a years over the washtub will do her good." Now if the father of the unfortunate girl could be made to carry the water and run the ringer all would be well!

Maud—Last night Jack told me that he wouldn't marry the best girl living, unless—what—unless she took Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. Bright fellow. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. A. G. Luken & Co.
