ENGAGEMENT IN PROGRESS

ing him a slight superiority in numbers.

The Russian advance had a marked effect on the London stock exchange yesterday. Russian imperial 4s gained one-quarter of 1 per cent., to 92½, while Japanese old 5s went down 1 per cent., at 85¼, and the new 5s at 83½, and 4s are one-half of 1 per cent. lower on reported Russian victories.

St. Petersburg, October 12.—A battle upon which the fate of this year's campaign in Manchuria depends seems only a few days ahead. Advances from the front are meager. All that is positively known officially is that General Kuropatkin has about-faced his army and is marching against the enemy.

According to unofficial reports Field Marshal Oyama, at the first sign of General Kuropatkin taking the offensive, began drawing in his line and concentrating upon fortified positions north of Liao Yang. According to the latest reports from Mukden, dated at 6 o'clock last evening, the Japanese outposts are being driven in all along the line.

All surmises as to where General Kuropatkin intends to strike are mere guesswork. It is not clear whether General Kuropatkin contemplates a blow on the left, or right of the Japanese army, but the fact that stress is laid upon the capture of Bentsiaputze, which opens the road and fords to Bensihu, twenty miles east of Liao Yang, where General Kuroki crossed and that Cossacks are already reported in the neighborhood of the stream, might foreshadow an exact reversal of the battle of Liao Yang this time the Russian commander flanking and turning Liao Yang with his left, as Field Marshal Oyama did with his right.

DR. GOODWIN

Takes Stand in Defense of Christian Science—His Personal Experience.

Indianapolis, Ind., October 12.—The venerable Dr. Thomas A. Goodwin sprang a surprise on the Methodist ministers' meeting yesterday. He was asked to speak in the absence of the person who had been chosen, and though it was announced as he arose that his subject would be "Christian Science," evidently no one was prepared for his treatment of it. "I believe," he said, "in the Christ. Not so much because of the records we have for Him in the scriptures as because of what He stands for yesterday, today and forever. I believe Christ told the truth and that that truth abides; that the changes of years have not made any change in the purpose and the power and the truth of that Saviour. I believe what ever Christ stood for in the first century He stands for in the twentieth century. One of the truths he taught was that those who believed in Him might receive benefits in regard to health. A part of His work was to heal the sick, and He healed them. If it was true, as Paul said, that we should pray for the recovery of the sick it is the same today as it was then.

"My faith in Christian Science is largely the result of my personal experience. About thirty years ago my wife lay at the point of death. She and I prayed together for her recovery. She recovered from that moment, and for thirty years has hardly had a day of sickness.

"Nine years ago she had a severe attack of rheumatism. We said we would try Christian Science, and a Christian Science healer, a woman, to whom she went, cured her, and for nine years she has not suffered a pain from that rheumatism."

The doctor then told how the same healer had cured him of dyspepsia and his wife from the threatened blindness. "The prayer of faith," he said, in conclusion, "will save the sick. It grieves my heart to hear a man speak lightly of the Christ. If He has power to save sinners He has power to save the sick."

Garfield Notes. (Ben Lawrence.)

At the general exercises Monday morning Mr. O. K. Karns gave a talk to the school on the railway postal service of the United States. Having been employed in this branch of government service for eleven years Mr. Karns is well prepared to give his hearers facts at first hand. His talk was much appreciated by the school, all of whom hoped he may be induced to return at some later date to continue the discussion. One point very strongly emphasized by Mr. Karns was the unhesitating and immediate obedience to orders demanded of all employees in the postal service. As he expressed it, "A man is never told twice to do a thing."

The school council met Tuesday evening at the close of school. Their duties were explained to them and topics suggested for future discussion but no action was taken in regard to school matters.
