

MILLIONS FOR A NEW STOMACH

One of the greatest American millionaires once said to his physician, "A million dollars, Doctor, for a new stomach," and then the sick man groaned and turned away. One of a man's greatest pleasures is that born of a keen appetite, vigorous digestion and a good dinner, and this belongs to many a good fellow who is living on small wages, but the rich man without a stomach has to forego the good things of the table because his stomach rebels. Without a healthy stomach and a good digestion, our blood is thin, watery and poor, our heart action is weak, our liver does not do its duty, and man is miserable and unhappy. In this condition man is prey to the germs of influenza, consumption, malaria and all the ills that he is heir to. Consumption can be treated by natural methods which are as close to nature as possible.

Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, at Buffalo, N. Y., years ago understood this disease, and after a long period of experiment discovered certain roots and herbs which were nature's remedies, and succeeded in putting them up in a form that would be easily procured and ready to use. This he called Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It gives no false stimulation because it contains no alcohol and no narcotic. It helps digestion and the assimilation of such elements in the food as are required for the blood. Instead of a cod liver oil, against which the already sensitive stomach will declare open rebellion, this tonic has a pacifying action upon the sensitive stomach and gives to the blood the food elements the tissues require. It maintains the patient's nutrition by enabling him to eat, retain, digest and assimilate nutritious food. It overcomes gastric irritability and symptoms of indigestion, and in this way fever, night sweats, headaches, etc., are done away with. It fortifies the body against the germs of consumption, grip and malaria, and it builds up the tissues and puts on healthy flesh.

When the druggist says he has something that is "just as good" as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, he says so because he hopes to make a better profit, but his own mixture have not stood the test of long experience nor had the success that Dr. Pierce's medicines have had.

THE ELEVEN GROUPS THAT CONTROL

The control of the immense interests—transportation, finance, and industrial, which center in Wall street, includes eleven groups. These are distinct, because of the methods of their work and because of the properties in which they operate.

These eleven constitute distinct groups, and though interested in a thousand ways, act independently. When, however, it comes to political control and national legislation, they move with rhythmic tread. They may be roughly classified as follows:

1. J. P. Morgan, with his chief lieutenant, Mr. Perkins, and a group of bank presidents, trust officers and railroad heads, as supports. The Vanderbilt interests are in practical harmony with this group.
2. John D. Rockefeller, having as his lieutenants Messrs. Rogers, William Rockefeller and Stillman, each exercising control over a host of officials at the head of banks and industrial corporations; and the astute lawyers who are at their instant beck and call.
3. Belmont—inferior in organization and intellectuality to the preceding groups, but with the Rothschilds standing ever in the background representing unlimited capital for any enterprise.
4. Thomas F. Ryan, with the heads of the great corporations he controls as his business lieutenants; and supported also by his political allies, Murphy, the leaders of Tammany, Grover Cleveland and certain men prominent in the Republican forces.
5. James J. Hill, with his control of the northwest, working out his plans not as speculative, but as industrial successes.
6. Cassatt and the Pennsylvania railway group—Mr. Schiff the financial manager; including also the big banking firms of Philadelphia and New York, who find profit in the connection.

7. Edward H. Harriman, having Frick as counsel and Odell as political lieutenant—controlling the central continental, southwestern, and southern Pacific coast lines of transportation.

8. George Gould, with President Jeffrey, head of the Rio Grande system, as his chief lieutenant; working mainly along lines of railway development, and having the support of the great fortunes of the Gould family.

9. Messrs. Moore, Reid and Leeds—"the Rock Island crowd," with Speyer as the financial ally; a minor influence, barely preserving its independence of the larger forces, but undoubtedly to be reckoned with as an independent bulk sailing the financial seas.

10. The industrial group—Messrs. Westinghouse in control of his extensive electrical and manufacturing interests, the Guggenheims, and the vast industries of the smelter trust, Schwab of the Bethlehem Steel company, and certain other men of high vitality who have to be counted.

11. The independents, who for convenience may be called the marauders—Lawson, Gales, Keene, etc. An attempt is made here to more than broadly indicate the cleavage lines by which the financial world is separated.

No attempted analysis of these groups has been put in print, except in a fragmentary way. It should, therefore be found interesting to the general public to keep these divisions in mind if they are to understand the various operations which are reported in the press from day to day.—Twentieth Century.

Your Life Current.

The power that gives you life and motion is the nerve force, or nerve fluid, located in the nerve cells of the brain, and sent out through the nerves to the various organs.

If you are tired, nervous, irritable, cannot sleep; have headache, feel stuffy, dull and melancholy, or have neuralgia, rheumatism, backache, periodical pains, indigestion, dyspepsia, stomach trouble, or the kidneys and liver are inactive, your life-current is weak.

Power-producing fuel is needed; something to increase nerve energy—strengthen the nerves.

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve is the fuel you need. It feeds the nerves, produces nerve force, and restores vitality.

"When I began taking Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve and Anti-Pain Pills I was confined to my bed. I had severe nervous spells, the result of two years illness with malaria. I gradually grew so weak that I was unable to sit up. The spells would commence with cold chills, and I would become weak and almost helpless. My circulation was poor. I had doctored right along but grew weaker and weaker. The Nerve seemed to strengthen me right away and my circulation was better. I have taken in all seven bottles of the Nerve, and I am entirely well."

ROSA E. WEAVER, Sturtevant, Ia.
Dr. Miles' Nerve is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails, he will refund your money.
