REPLETE WITH COLLEGE SPIRIT

SIMPLE SIMON SIMPLE FILLED WITH COLLEGE STUDENTS AND PRANKS.

"MRS. TEMPLE'S TELEGRAM"

Billed For Thursday Night at the Gennett-Phillips Bill For Coming Week.

As effective a piece of business as has ever been introduced in the field of musical extravaganza and as bright a specimen of modern stage craft as ever copped from the fertile mind of a stage producer, is the college chorus and ballet of sports in Messrs. Nixon & Zimmermanns musical production, "Simple Simon Simple," the big musical extravaganza, which now owns Philadelphia and which is soon to be here. With the rush of the football eleven, the hurrah of the baseball team, the clash and figure of the fencing girls, the splash and roar of the oarsmen at the coxswain's call, the dainty frocks of the tennis players, the basket ball players, the hunting girls, et al.
There is all the swing and symphony of Terpsichorean art, the wild enthusiasm of the field of sport, the delightful strain of pleasing music, the heart interest of the collegewhoop in reality and the most pleasing spectacle introduced in the musical field for some time, not least among which is the fitting exit when prior to the fray the shot from the starter's gun shows the rival crews in readiness for the great race. The producer has handled the effects in the most commendable manner. It has won merited praise from every source.
"Simple Simon Simple" will be presented at the Gennett theatre Tuesday night, January 30th.

"Mrs. Temple's Telegram."

Were the United States dragged with a fine comb, no more popular or capable comedian than Harry Connor could be found. Mr. Connor has appeared in this city in many comedies in the last fifteen years, chiefly among which are "Hoyt's 'Trip to Chinatown,'" "A Stranger in New York," and those sterling Frohman comedies that have been so successful in late years. Mr. Connor will be seen in the leading comedy character role in "Mrs. Temple's Telegram," the New York and Chicago comedy success, when it is offered at the Gennett theatre for one night, Thursday, February 1st. The great cast supporting Mr. Connor in this snappy and bright comedy farce includes Miss Allison Skipworth, William Lemp, Frank Goldsmith, Antoinette Perry, Carey Hastings, Seth Halsey, Maybelle Cameron and Sidney Lee.
The mounting of this play is adequate from an artistic standpoint, as no expense has been spared to place it at the head of its class. Seat sale will open Tuesday, Jan. 30th.

Next Week at the New Phillips.

One of the best weeks in the history of vaudeville at the New Phillips, the one that will close with the performances of this afternoon and tonight, will be followed by one equally as good if not better, according to the indication furnished by the bill that is announced today.
Manager Murray considers himself especially fortunate in securing the two Rays, who come heralded as the greatest of roller skate dancers, and who are the originators of the one-foot twister and triple-time dancing.
He is also felicitating himself upon securing a distinct novelty in Cameron and Toledo, who present a panto-mimic extravaganza, entitled "The Enchanted Grotto." The full program to be presented next week is as follows:

Miss Grayce Miller, piano overture Marjorie Barrett, juvenile singing and dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Tracy, presenting "Courtship in Cowslip Farm." Frank Hall, eccentric musical comedian.

The Two Rays, roller skate dancers.

Cal Lankert, illustrated songs.

Cameron and Toledo, operatic extravaganza.

The Philoscope, showing three motion pictures.

At the Gennett.

Tonight's vaudeville performance at the Gennett will be the last at this house for a week. Owing to the appearance of four other attractions at the Gennett next week Manager Swisher did not arrange for any vauedeville. This week's bill is unusually strong, so there is no doubt but that it will be witnessed by a large house tonight.

1,000 NAVY YARD WORKMEN OUT

DISCHARGED WHEN CONGRESS FAILS TO PROVIDE $1,000,- 000 FOR REPAIRS.

AT ODDS WITH THE HOUSE

Latter Determined to Curb and Regulate Enormous Expense in "Overhauling" War Vessels.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 26.—There is a serious disagreement between the Navy Department and Congress which began with the refusal of the Appropriations Committee of the House to insert an item of $1,000,000 in the urgent deficiency bill for the Bureau of Steam Engineering and culminated today in orders to dismiss one thousand machinists and other mechanics employed in the various navy yards and in the announcement in the House today of a policy to curb and regulate expenditures in "overhauling" ships.

This announcement of a new House policy toward the Navy Department was made by Mr. Tawney, chairman of the Committee on Appropriations, who declared that under the present practice the Secretary of the Navy could order ships to be practically rebuilt, and incur expenses aggregating millions of dollars without even saying to Congress "by your leave."

Mr. Fitzgerald of New York, offered an amendment providing $500,- 000 for the bureau. He was defeated by 18 ayes and 67 nays.

The effect of the order laying off a thousand mechanics because of the failure of the $1,000,000 appropriation goes further than reducing the force in the various navy yards.

Several ships of the line which are needed in the winter maneuvers will be held up and rendered unable to participate. The list includes the New York, Indiana, Olympia, Columbia, Minneapolis, Solace and Oregon.

It is explained at the bureau that several months ago it became apparent that the bureau was overrunning its appropriation. The Secretary ordered it to go ahead and involve itself in a deficiency of about $1,000,- 000. That was spent in the first five months of the year, and the work necessary to be put the ships of the navy in an efficient condition remained undone.

Convulsion, Fits, then Epilepsy.

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve-ine has been so successful in curing these brain-wrecking diseases that there is every reason to believe that even the most hopeless cases can be benefited, if not fully restored.

We will be pleased to refer any one thus afflicted to many who now enjoy the blessing of health, after years of hopeless suffering.

"I have a son that had brain fever when two years old, followed by fits of the worst type, and he was pronounced incurable. I spent hundreds of dollars for him, without relief. After about fifteen years he became so bad that we sent him to Longhill hospital for the insane, at Logansport, Ind. He was there nearly three years, but he continued to grow worse, so we brought him home July 30, 1902, in an awful condition. He had lost his mind almost entirely. He hardly knew one of the family; could not even find his bed; was a total wreck. He had from 5 to 10 fits a day. We were urged to try Dr. Miles' Nerveine, and before the first bottle was used, we could see a change for the better. We have given it to him ever since, and he has had but two very light spells since last August, 1903, and then he was not well other ways. We pronounce him cured, as he can work and go anywhere. If any one wishes to ask any questions concerning this, they are at liberty to do so."

M. H. BUNNELL, Lincoln, Ind.
Dr. Miles' Nerveine is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails, he will refund your money.

The Palladium wants the news. It will pay one dollar, ($1.) for the best piece of LO-CAL news brought, sent or telephoned EXCLUSIVELY to this paper before February 1.

WOULD HAVE BIG WEDDING CROWD

MISS ROOSEVELT VERY DIPLO-MATIC IN HER IDEA ABOUT NUPTIAL AFFAIR.

THOSE SHE WOULD INVITE

Includes Senators, Representatives, Diplomats, Judges and Many Other State Officials.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 26.—Although Miss Alice Roosevelt is to be married to Congressman Nicholas Longworth in a month, plans for the ceremony are still in a tentative state.

For one thing there is the matter of invitations to consider. Mrs.
Roosevelt believes that the personal friends of the two families should receive recognition and that Miss Roosevelt's hostesses of the past in various cities should not be forgotten. Miss Roosevelt has been so extensively entertained that, were none but these families to be invited, they would fill the allotted space.

Miss Roosevelt's desire is for an official wedding. She is particularly anxious that Mr. Longworth's associates in the house of representatives shall be first considered. She contends that they will be anxious to see their colleague married and that they ought to be asked. She wishes to be courteous to the foreign powers and to ask their representatives in this country to be present, the ambassadors and ministers, with their wives.

She wants the Judges of the Supreme Court also. Of course the members of the senate would be included with those of the house.

Then there is the Philippine party, the members of which Miss Roosevelt and Mr. Longworth naturally want invited for reasons of sentiment.

With a few of the most intimate friends of the bridal couple added, this list would be almost excessive.
Just what decision will be reached is a matter of conjecture, but it is safe to say that the wishes of the bride-elect probably will prevail.

The ceremony will be performed in the middle east window above of the east room. This will afford the best opportunity possible for the guests to see the ceremony. They will assemble not only in the east room, but also in the red corridor, in the green room, and in the main entrance to the white house.

A WORD TO MOTHERS ABOUT THEIR BOYS

No matter how carefully a boy has been trained he is apt to become more or less troublesome when he reaches the age of fifteen years. It is at this time that a mother should do all in her power to make a boy happy at home and give him such interests that he will be happier at home than anywhere else. Study his likes and dislikes, and in so far as it is possible, indulge him in many little whims that are harmless. If he thinks his room would look better if the bed stands in the opposite corner, there will be no harm, but much good done, if he be allowed to make the change. If there is the least taste for decoration, let him decorate his room to suit himself.
Spare a few dollars if possible, to have his room repapered, and be sure to select some paper that will suit his taste, even if it may be at the expense of your own. It is nearly always possible to direct his thoughts in the proper channel if you go about it in the right way. If papering is to be done talk to him about it, and tell him how pretty a room for a boy may be made to look if certain ideas are carried out. By the time the paper is to be selected you will find that he has come around to your way of thinking, and will perhaps suggest to you that you select the paper for him. Be sure to have a picture molding, or if possible, a narrow shelf around his room on which he may display all his cups and other trophies from the races or regattas. His pictures too, will be numerous, if not elegant; so supply him generously with picture wire and hangers. Be sure that he has a bookcase in his room, and see that it is liberally supplied from time to time with books that are wholesome.
If his taste has been trained for good reading, you need not fear that he will ever care for the poor trash that is selected by less fortunate boys. A few books given at Christmas or on his birthday will cost but little, but will go far toward keeping your boy in the house at night, when less fortunate boys are learning much that is deplored by meeting with undesirable acquaintances.
Should your boy show any aptitude for mechanics, fit up a good carpen-ter's bench for him in the cellar or garret, or, better still, in some small room near his own room, where he may feel that it belongs to him. Supply him with tools and material for whatever he desires to make, and be only too thankful that you are able to spend your money for him in such a harmless manner. If he is socially inclined, invite pleasant companions to his home, so that you may become acquainted, and in this manner you may select such young people for his friends as will be advantageous for him to have. Ask his boy friends to spend the evening with him, have them to supper and in the evening; see that there is a generous dish of apples and nuts on the table in his room. A few games will help them spend a pleasant evening, and especially so if you will learn to enter into the pleasure with them. Do not be above enjoying heartily any of the games that boys enjoy. Many of the games are really very instructive, and may be played with benefit to you as well as the boys. If there are other children, let the girls invite their friends, and be sure to so plan the entertainment that the boys will be glad to join in the games.
