Manager Murray Will Give Vaudeville a Rest—Orpheum Stock Company Secured.

Has a Candidate Who Was Beaten by Liberal Representative—Croker Used Automobile.

Harry Conner's fellow players in "Mrs. Temple's Telegram" are telling a story of an unfortunate habit of snoring. One way, Mr. Conner's noisy slumbers, after keeping everyone in the house for hours, suddenly stopped with a little gasp and became silent. A woman in a berth close to the sleeper looked out of her berth and said, "Thank God, he is dead!" she said.

Mr. Conner will be seen in "Mrs. Temple's Telegram" next week when it will be offered at the Gennett Theatre Thursday night, February 1st.

At the New Phillips.

Lovers of vaudeville should take this opportunity to see the bill that is running at the New Phillips this week for next week they will not have an opportunity to see vaudeville at this house. Manager Murray has decided to give next week up to the Orpheum Stock Company in a splendid repertoire at popular prices and vaudeville will be carried over until the succeeding week. The bill now running at the New Phillips is quite a pleasing one and with its varied features affords ample entertainment. Cameron and Toledo have a novelty that has never been duplicated at this house. All the numbers are meritorious. So far the attendance has been splendid and the week, like last, is expected to be one of the very best in this respect.

Draws a Large Audience.

Daily Kentucky New Era, Hopkinsville, Ky.

A large and well pleased audience saw a magnificent production of Goethe's immortal tragedy, "Faust" at Holland's opera house last evening. Porter J. White's capable company redeemed every promise which had been made by the management, giving a performance which for intelligent reading, effective acting and scenic embellishments has rarely been equaled on a stage trod by many illustrious Thespians.

At Gennett Saturday.

Nothing helped me, until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which gave instant relief, and effected a permanent cure." Unequalled quick cure, for Throat and Lung Troubles. At A. G. Lukens & Co.'s drug store, price 50¢ and $1.00, guaranteed.
