ORPHEUM COMP'NY AT NEW PHILLIPS

BEGINS WEEK OF REPERTOIRE
AT POPULAR PLAY HOUSE
THIS AFTERNOON.

F. HOLLAND THE LEADING MAN

Was at One Time an Indiana Newspaper Man—"Girls Will Be Girls" Coming Soon.

Patrons of the New Phillips, judging from the advance notices that have been received of the Orpheum Stock Company, have a treat in store. The company has a large repertoire and it is announced the stage settings and costumes are in keeping with the ability of the company, making it possible, all told, to put on complete satisfactory productions. The company will begin a week's engagement at the New Phillips this afternoon. The prices are popular ones, and all the matinees will be played at ten cents. All things considered this is said to be the best repertoire company that Manager Murray has ever booked. The leading man, Frank Holland, was at one time a resident of Indiana and was engaged in newspaper work at Bedford, Doyle and Emerson, hoop jugglers, have an act that is new and probably as good as anything of the kind ever seen at this house. Big business is expected. The play for tonight is "Sergeant Fielding, U. S. A."

At the Gennett.

There is no doubt but that the bill prepared for presentation throughout the present week will prove one of the best and most satisfactory in its entirety that ever has been seen at this house. Every act will be first class and sufficient variety will be afforded by the bill to please all. The appearance of Schepp's troupe of educated ponies and dogs will be the first this "small sized circus" has been seen in this vicinity. It is claimed that in this act are presented more tricks by animals than is afforded by any similar act. The ponies and dogs appear to be "educated" in many ways and the intelligence they display is remarkable.

Art Adair will present a comedy and musical act of a distinctive type and one that is original with this actor.

Ernest Renk will present two songs, "I'll Wed You in the Good Old Summer Time," and "I Wonder if She's Waiting." They will be illustrated by excellent views.

Rice and Adams, the comedy aerobats, the Manning Trio in the Irish comedy sketch, "Troublesome Servants," Frederick Heider the singing and dancing performer, and the motion pictures are the other numbers on the bill that is expected to prove unusually good.

Much as the theatre goer affects to belittle low comedy in histrionic art, the fact remains, that as much thought may be expended on a funny fall or an absurd bit of "business," as upon an epigram or a paradox. In the last act of "Girls Will Be Girls," which is soon to be seen at the Gennett, Al Leach, who appears as the professor of dead languages, has a bit of purely acrobatic comicality, which is sufficiently ingenious to have won praise wherever seen. The setting in this act represents the interior of an astronomical observatory. Mr. Leach, who has accidentally acquired a very considerable "jag" attempted to climb a spiral staircase to a huge telescope. Spiral staircases are sufficiently difficult to ordinary persons, but to a man with a premature fit of dizziness they must be very dreadful. Mr. Leach spends ten minutes getting to the top of this one and falling into the mouth of the telescope is shot out of the other end at the very place from which he started. This bit of non-sensicality is not high art, but it never fails to evoke laughter.

MISTAKE OF $9,000

IN PRICE OF A FLOUR MILL.

John Nelson Paid but $1,000 for a $10,000 Plant.

Columbus, Ind., Feb. 4.—Some days ago correspondence passed between the firm of Nading & Sidener, owners of a flour mill at Hope, Ind., and John Nelson, of Somerset, Ind., regarding the sale of the mill. According to Nelson, the price quoted to him in a letter was $1,000 the amount being written in figures. The firm claims that the amount specified was $10,000. On receipt of the $1,000 offer Nelson ordered the deal closed and paid $100 to bind the bargain.

The difference in the sale price was not discovered until after the deal had been signed and in Nelson's possession, and he had counted out $900 to complete the purchase. The whole amount of the purchase price was not specified in the deed. He is now trying to get possession of his property. J. D. Sidener will go to Somerset this evening and make a formal demand for the deed. If he is not successful the company will bring suit to set aside the conveyance, alleging that it was a mistake. The property is estimated to be worth $9,000 or $10,000. Nelson says he has the firm's letter to show that the amount specified was only $1,000.

Beat Her Double.

"I knew no one, for four weeks, when I was sick with typhoid and kidney trouble," writes Mrs. Annie Hunter of Pittsburg, Pa., "and when I got better, although I had one of the best doctors I could get, I was bent double and had to rest my hands on my knees when I walked. From this terrible affliction I was rescued by Electric Bitters, which restored my health and strength, and now I can walk as straight as ever. They are simply wonderful." Guaranteed to cure stomach, liver and kidney disorders; at A. G. Luken & Co.'s drug store; price 50c.

There's a cure for old age, an excellent and thorough one. There is nothing sensational about it. It is the best doctors can find under existing circumstances. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. For sale by A. G. Luken & Co.

"Phenom" Wrestler

Fred Beell, a Coming Champion, Wants to Meet Jenkins Again.

If Tom Jenkins intends to remain in the wrestling game it is for him to either defend the title of American catch-as-catch-can champion or relinquish it to the honor. Fred Beell, the shrewd Wisconsin grappler, who gave Jenkins three hours of the hardest work the champion ever had on the mat in a private exhibition in New York last spring, has renewed his challenge.

FRED BEELL OF WISCONSIN.

large to wrestle Jenkins in public, and his right to contend for the championship should no longer be denied.

Harvey Parker, the "Little Demon," is looking after Beell, who has kept in excellent condition this winter by traveling with a theatrical company and meeting all comers. Parker thought so well of Beell's chances against Jenkins last spring that he backed the Wisconsin man for more than $1,000. He took his loss philosophically and with the belief that Jenkins had only outgeneraled and not outwrestled the westerner.

In many ways Beell is the most remarkable wrestler who ever had heavy-weight championship ambitions. A year ago he knew little of the game, but under the tutelage of Parker, one of the cleverest exponents of the mat game, he has made rapid strides. Beell is surely the coming champion of America. Lack of weight is his only shortcoming.

At first glance his measurements seem to bar him from competition with heavyweights, but his tussle with Jenkins last spring disproves that. Beell is not very tall, but is well muscled where a wrestler needs muscle, is game and improving in knowledge of his profession every day.

Parker and Beell will agree to any reasonable terms, but will insist that the bout take place in a twenty-four foot ring. They claim that the size of the ring was all that saved Jenkins last summer.

Beell's measurements are as follows: Height, 5 feet 4 inches; weight, 180 pounds; neck, 17½ inches; chest, 45 inches; waist, 32 inches; biceps, 15½ inches; forearm, 14 inches; thigh, 25 inches; calf, 16 inches.

Horse Racing For Havana.

Havana, Cuba, is to have horse racing under the same rules and regulations as it is now carried on in New York.

A jockey club has been organized there, and the president and secretary have been in correspondence with the Eastern Jockey club, getting from them rules of racing and other necessary information. The Eastern Jockey club, however, will have no jurisdiction in Havana.

Cohn Is Great Athlete.

If Harvey Cohn of the Greater New York Athletic association keeps up his present rate of improvement we will soon have to consider him one of the athletic marvels of the country. At present the little flier is running close to record form in all distances from half a mile to the cross country events
