THE DEMOCRATIC DONKEY
BETRAYS ITSELF.

The old fable of the donkey seeking to disguise itself by means of a lions' skin, and failing on account of its inability to disguise its bray, effectively portrays the ruse the Democrats attempted to work on Republican voters of the sixth district, by naming their candidate, Rev. Mr. Kuhn, as an "Independent," and which failed in its effect owing to the premature announcement by Mr. Study, one of the recognized leaders of the Democratic party in this district that his party would support Rev. Mr. Kuhn as its nominee. The attempt to mislead Republican voters is so bald-faced, that even local members of the Democratic party are expressing their dissatisfaction with the methods by which their party leaders are endeavoring to procure a victory. It may be that after all, the Democrats will nominate a party man to head their ticket, in which case they will rely on Rev. Mr. Kuhn to gather in enough Republican votes, to allow their candidate to slip through a winner. But they will be sadly mistaken in this supposition, for the exposure of their methods has caused a revulsion of feeling among Republicans, and Mr. Watson will be returned to congress by a good big majority.

Taking time by the forelock, Rev. Mr. Kuhn will be wise if he prepares in advance his letter of congratulation to Mr. Watson.

As predicted, Hon. James E. Watson was nominated at Greenfield last Thursday without opposition. The next day "Jim" welcomed a little new girl at his home and we join with the voters of Franklin county in extending a double set of hearty congratulations.—Brookville American.

Opposition to any candidate by any one who is sore and soured on account of an appointment does not come with good grace and was never known to have any weight.—Brookville American.

Congressman James E. Watson treats his district right and his district, the "grand old Sixth," treats him right. It sends him back with a unanimous endorsement and a unanimous renomination. He has time to properly look after the duties of his office. The statesmanship of the average Congressman consists in spending half of his time in securing a nomination or a renomination and the other half is manipulating the patronage of the district. I am glad this is not true of the Sixth district congressman.—Greenfield Tribune.

Again, would it not be well, before "beating" Mr. Watson, for congress to tell why he should be beaten? Beyond the scarcity of postoffice jobs, what's wrong with the district anyway?—Connerville News.

Owing to the political conditions of this district it is understood that the Evening Item will defer publication of its usually infallible estimate of the result for awhile.—Milton News, Representative Watson says he is not affrighted at the prospect of Rev. Mr. Kuhn opposing him in the congressional race, as all Kuhns look alike to him.—Indianapolis Star.

It will be news to Representative Watson to learn that he ranks as a plutocrat.—Indianapolis Star.

MAY DECIDE ON MONDAY

CHARLES SHIVELEY MAY COME OUT FOR ATTY. GENERAL.

The Matter Has Attracted Much Attention Throughout the State—
Now in Chicago.

Charles E. Shiveley of this city will probably announce Monday, whether he will be a candidate for attorney general before the Republican State Convention. Mr. Shiveley is at present in Chicago where he has been called to attend a meeting of the board of control of the Knights of Pythias. He is expected to return to Richmond Sunday. Mr. Shiveley's talked of candidacy has attracted much interest throughout the state, and the indications are that he would stand an excellent chance of securing the office if he decided to make the race.

THIRTY WERE CONVERTED.

Revival Meetings Held at Earlham College Was Very Successful—Earnestness Prevailed.

A praise meeting was held last night at Earlham, to give the one who have been converted in the recent revival effort, an opportunity to announce their stand, and for the college in general to express its thankfulness over the success of the meetings. About thirty have been converted during the week. A spirit of great earnestness prevails.

TALKS ON SALARY INCREASE

State Superintendent Says Average
Salary for Teachers Is Now
$2.72 Per Day.

Fassett A. Cotton, State Sup't. of Public Instruction, has sent out his monthly bulletin to the teachers of the state. Many important points in child education are set forth in the pamphlet, showing what is essential and what is not. Another thing which the circular deals with is the fact that so many of the teachers are undecided as to whether or not they wish to continue to teach.

Many of them do not decide until just before school commences in September, and then it is difficult to find places for them. Experienced teachers are desired, and it is awkward to break in new material. A decision from each teacher is asked for.

Teachers' salaries are also discussed. It is shown that there was an increase in 1905 of 7 cents a day average in this state, over the year 1904. Teachers are now receiving an average of $2.72 per day. The State Fair Educational exhibit was dealt with, the state superintendent urging the teachers to begin to prepare for the event.

STILLWELL IS KNOWN HERE

CONGRESSIONAL CANDIDATE A GOOD GOLF PLAYER.

When Anderson Team Played Here
He Attracted Much Attention
by His Weight.

Horace Stillwell, of Anderson, who is a candidate against Congressman Cromer, for the Republican congressional nomination in the Eighth Indiana District, and who is employing "frenzied finance" in his warfare against his opponent, is well known in Richmond.

His many friends here do not remember him as Stillwell, the politician but as Stillwell, the golf "fiend." Stillwell was formerly a member of the Anderson Country Club golf team and his avverdupois approaches the 300 mark. When the Anderson golf team played with the Richmond team on the local links, Horace's imposing and rotund figure, clad in pure white duck, was the magnet which never failed to draw the "gallery."

His immense bulk, however, never interfered with Stillwell's playing and he had a good reputation in golf circles.

SEVEN ASK FOR LICENSES.

All But Two of Applicants Have Owned Saloons Before—Commissioners Meet Monday.

Seven applications for liquor licenses are on file awaiting the meeting of the County Commissioners next Monday. Five of the applications are from saloon men in this city, and the other two are from Cambridge City. It is probable that more applications will be filed today, in order that the Commissioners may act upon them at once.

Those who are asking for licenses are Frank E. Huddleston and Oscar E. Williams, Cambridge City, and Louis Muth, A. N. Collett, Joseph Collins, William Thurman, and Frederick Scharff, of Richmond. All of these with the exception of Huddleston and Scharff have had licenses before.

Following the work, the Masons went to the banquet room, where about 60 of them were served lunch.

COUNTY SCHOOLS TO CLOSE SOON PLAINTIFF HAD TO LEAVE COURT

SUPERINTENDENT JORDAN IS MRS. PARKER BEGONE TOO, ILL.

SENDING OUT CIRCULAR TO FOLLOW PROCEEDINGS

LETTERS TO TEACHERS. OF HER CASE.

QUESTIONS ON WAYNE COUNTY COURT ROOM WELL-HELD

PUPILS MUST KNOW MUCH ABOUT THEIR OWN LIVING PLACE—SOME WORK ENDS MARCH 30.

Many Friends of Both Parties in Attendance—Plaintiff's Evidence is Well-Kept.

County Superintendent Jordan, is preparing to draw to a close the school term of 1905-6, and circulars are now being sent out to the teachers throughout the county, notifying them that school will close on March 30.

In the circular letter Superintendent Jordan expresses himself as well pleased with the work that has been accomplished this winter. Besides the studies, a great deal advancement has been made in the more careful ventilation of rooms, which has come to be looked upon as a primary consideration of the application for study.

The school houses throughout the county were built twenty or thirty years ago, and were not made on exactly the best designs for perfect ventilation. The conditions in these schools have been greatly improved.

In order that the school children may know more of the location in which they live, a list of questions of Wayne county, including study of population, topography, social conditions and government, has been prepared and will be submitted to the teachers. The Seventh year classes will take up this work as a special study, before entrance into the High School.

The schools in this township do not close until about May 1, as they are entitled to the full eight months of teaching. Regularly commissioned High schools also continue through an eight month session.

WELCHES ON POKER DEBT.

Brother of David Rothschild Pleads Gambling Law to Save $205—Stopped Check's Payment.

New York, March 2.—Julius Rothschild, manager of a money lending concern, and a brother of David Rothschild, who is now in Sing Sing for his part in the Federal Bank swindle, pleaded the gambling law in the Tenth Municipal Court yesterday to escape payment of a gambling debt of $205. He was sued by Parker Bruzie, of No. 201 West 109th street. Bruzie, Rothschild and other men played poker, Bruzie testified. Rothschild won $730 in several games, but in the last game lost $205. He gave a check for the amount and then stopped payment on the check. Rothschild admitted the charge, but pleaded that as it was a gambling debt, the law did not require him to pay it.

The members of the Sol Meredith Post, G. A. R. will go in a body to the home
