

READ AND YOU WILL LEARN

That the leading medical writers and teachers of all the several schools of practice endorse and recommend, in the strongest terms possible, each and every ingredient entering into the composition of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for the cure of weak stomach, dyspepsia, catarrh of stomach, "liver complaint," torpid liver, or biliousness, chronic bowel affections, and all catarrhal diseases of whatever region, name or nature. It is also a specific remedy for all such chronic or long standing cases of catarrhal affections and their results, as bronchitis, throat and lung diseases (except consumption) accompanied by severe coughs. It is not so good for acute colds and coughs, but for lingering, or chronic cases it is especially efficacious in producing perfect cures. It contains Black Cherry bark, Golden Seal root, Eleutherococcus, Stone root, Mandrake root and Queen's root—all of which are highly praised as remedies for all the above mentioned affections by such eminent medical writers and teachers as Prof. Bartholow, of Jefferson Med. College; Prof. Hare, of the Univ. of Pa.; Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Med. College, Chicago; Prof. John King, M. D., late of Cincinnati; Prof. John N. Scudder, M. D., late of Cincinnati; Prof. Edwin M. Hale, M. D., of Hahnemann Med. College, Chicago, and scores of others equally eminent in their several schools of practice.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" is the only medicine put up for sale through druggists for like purposes, that has any such professional endorsement—worth more than any number of ordinary testimonials. Open publicity of its formula on the bottle wrapper is the best possible guaranty of its merits. A glance at this published formula will show that "Golden Medical Discovery" contains no poisonous or harmful agents and is chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine being used instead. Glycerine is entirely unobjectionable and besides is a most useful ingredient in the cure of all stomach as well as bronchial, throat and lung affections. There is the highest medical authority for its use in all such cases.

A booklet of extracts from eminent medical authorities, endorsing its ingredients mailed free on request. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

AT THE THEATERS

Vaudeville at the Gennett.

Quite an entertaining and refined program is provided in the vaudeville bill at the Gennett this week and it was opened to an audience of liberal size last night. To many, no doubt, the bill will appeal more than any that has been presented in recent weeks. One of the numbers that is much out of the ordinary for a vaudeville bill, at least in the houses that charge but ten cents, is the vocal work of Miss Dorothy Aldonne, prima donna, who appears to great advantage in both simple and difficult selections. Miss Aldonne has a wide reputation as a vocalist and it is only of recent date that she turned her attention to vaudeville. Her press notices show that she has sung in connection with many notable musical events and that she has been accorded high praise. Other numbers on the program this week are Dilla and Templeton, clever young equilibrist and contortionists; J. C. Pope and his dog, Uno, the dog with the human mind; the Tlanita Midgets, vocalists and dancers; Casey and Le Clair, Irish character artists; Ernest Renk in illustrated songs and the motion pictures. One of the pictures "The Train Wreckers," is especially interesting this week.

"Murphy in Rufus Rugg." Tim Murphy appears to have found another success in his new comedy, "Rufus Rugg" which he presents at the Gennett on Friday evening and to have again selected a role that fits his own personal peculiarities to a nicety, for he is appearing in a delightfully droll character—that of an Indiana School Teacher—a man with a limitless fund of wit—a kindly, lovable disposition, and a self-sacrificing nature that endears him to all with whom he comes into association. Such a role is within the line followed so successfully by the late Sol Smith Russell; and in such characters Tim Murphy is today the one and only distinguished exponent.

The Little Egypt Company. Choice musical numbers, catchy songs, lively dances, pretty girls and good wholesome comedy are among the features with the Little Egypt company booked for Friday night at the New Phillips. This organization is quite a familiar one and has always been noted for the breezy style of entertainment it provides. Two burlesques are given the first being styled "A Rialto Rounder" and the other "Gay Girls of Paris." Both comedies are replete with many laughable situations and musical numbers. The chorus will display some elaborate costumes in addition to appearing with Little Egypt in a big dancing number. Vaudeville in its best form will be offered between the two burlesques.

Vaudeville at New Phillips. This week's bill at the New Phillips, in vaudeville, is well filled with entertaining features and especially with the comedy element. Charles Kenna, presenting his original specialty, "The Street Fakir," made a decided hit. He has all the arts of this at his fingers' ends and he has a monologue that keeps the audience in a constant laugh. Black and O'Brien, who were substituted on the bill for the Four Grohs, appear in black face and have the liveliest stunt of the kind New Phillips patrons have ever seen. Mitchell and Browning have a novelty comedy that secured them abundant applause. The Valpos furnish a novelty musical act and some slight of hand and the Keeey Sisters sing and dance. Two illustrated songs are given and instead of the usual motion pictures, the Hooks and England indoor circus is presented. These films show the various great shows of the country, including the old time Barnum and Forepaugh aggregations, and the chief features of the Main and Ringling circuses, and Buffalo Bill and Pawnee Bill shows, also scenes from the Durbar of India. There is a change of program nightly. The week opened with liberal patronage.

NO LICENSE FOR GRAVES

COMMISSIONERS OBDRATE

Attorney Mason Pleaded For His Client But Commissioners Sustained the Milton Remonstrators—Case Will be Appealed.

The County Commissioners yesterday balked the effort of Thomas J. Graves and his attorney, D. W. Mason, of Cambridge City, to swing Milton from the "dry" column over to the "wet." Graves made an application for a liquor license and Attorney Mason was on hand to vigorously press his claim, but he was given no opportunity, much to his chagrin and anger, as the commissioners absolutely refused to listen to any arguments that the dean of the Wayne County bar was prepared to advance.

Hot words were exchanged between Commissioner Dines and Mr. Mason and the latter demanded and secured an appeal bond from County Auditor Hanes and will carry the matter to the circuit court. Mr. Dines plainly told Mr. Mason that he had caused the commissioners more trouble over this one case than all of the others combined and that they did not propose to be "pestered" longer.

Chas. Hunt Taken Back.

Charles M. Hunt, the man who created the big sensation at the county jail recently when a six-shooter was found concealed in his clothes was returned yesterday to Jeffersonville where he will serve out an unexpired sentence of seven years and eight months in the state reformatory. Hunt was taken to the prison in charge of state agent Rafferty.

FRUIT DAMAGED BY SUDDEN COLD

Stephen Kuth Says That His Loss on Berries Alone Will Be $1,000.

ORCHARDS ALSO AFFECTED

INDICATIONS POINTED TO REPTITION OF FROST FOR LAST NIGHT BUT WARMER DAYS ARE PREDICTED.

Mr. J. Frost, who was believed to have left these parts several weeks ago returned Sunday and has been hovering about ever since. His landscape paintings yesterday morning cost Wayne county many thousands of dollars and during last night he was also at work and this morning may bring news of fresh disaster to the fruit and vegetables.

Stephen Kuth, owner of the State Line fruit farm, the largest fruit plantation in Eastern Indiana, said to the Palladium last night: "The freeze was one of the worst this section of the country has experienced in May for several years; at least it did much greater damage to fruits than any I have experienced in a long time. My berry plantation covers twenty-five acres and eight acres are in strawberries. Practically every plant was damaged. Of course they will give forth new fruit buds and there will be strawberries unless more frost should come, but the fruit will not be as large or firm as it would otherwise. Raspberries, which are more hardy than strawberries, are also damaged and in my orchard peaches, pears and apples have alike been affected. I believe that I have actually been damaged to the extent of $1,000 on my berry farm."

The damage done by the frost was perhaps as severe in most parts of the county as at the Kuth farm, though some farmers yesterday stated they had not examined fruit trees carefully and were not prepared to say whether damage was great.

According to dispatches from various parts of Indiana, the frost did damage to a greater or less degree throughout the State. There were indications last night that there would be a repetition of low temperature early this morning, although there is a promise of warmer weather within the next twenty-four hours.

ICE HALF AN INCH THICK.

[Palladium Special.] Noblesville, Ind., May 7.—There was a heavy frost in Hamilton county last night. Ice formed half an inch thick. All tomato vines and beans were killed. It is not believed that other garden truck and small fruits were injured because of the cloudy weather this morning.

EARLY STRAWBERRIES RUINED.

[Palladium Special.] Greenfield, Ind., May 7.—Heavy frost last night ruined all early strawberries and tomato plants. Alonzo, Tyner and David Andrick report heavy loss. Budding fruit was damaged but pears and others already formed escaped.

TOMATO PLANTS KILLED.

[Palladium Special.] Shelbyville, Ind., May 7.—A heavy frost visited Shelbyville this morning and killed thousands of garden plants. B. F. Whaley, a grower of this city lost his entire crop of young tomatoes. The temperature went down to 30.

HOW TO EARN $3 TODAY

TRY THE SIMPLE CONTEST

Jumbled Lines on Page 7 Have Two Stood Two Days Without a Correct Arrangement Being Made—Prize Increased Each Day.

The Palladium's jumbled line contest, which runs daily on page 7, can today be made the source of earning $3 in an hour's time, perhaps less. There are scattered through the ads between forty and sixty words, which may be easily distinguished from the fact that they bear no relation to the advertisements in which they appear. The sentence which these words will form if correctly arranged, is simply put but up to date no persons has managed to get the correct formation. The answers Saturday were all wrong ditto yesterday, though a score of persons came within easy distance of the proper formation. Many answers looked good, and read well, but the arrangement was not as the Palladium intended, therefore the prize was again increased this time it being $3. Take a try at it today and after getting the arrangement copy on a slip of paper and bring to the Palladium office any time after 10 o'clock. Can you imagine an easier way of earning $3.

HERE AND THERE

(By the Spectator.)

Mary had a little man,
She made him toe the mark;
For when it came to managing
Why Mary was a shark.

The tragic trio—the lover, the poet and the lunatic.

"Look before you sleep," says a wise old adage, "or you may leap unexpectedly."

Two souls with but a single thought,
Parched on a high board fence;
The top rail broke and both fell off,
And looked like thirty cents.

"Love ye one another," ministers recite.

Bless me don't we do it, sparking Sunday night?

A man is never what he is, unless he doesn't know it.

The difference between the words sit, set, lie and lay—Hens set and lay. Men sit and lie.

There, Little Girl, don't cry.
They have broken your glasses I know.

And your cross-eyes will much surprise.

Your perfumed, hair-dyed beau,
But maybe he will only sigh,
And say, little girl, don't cry.

BABY'S TORTURING SKIN HUMOR

Ears Looked as if They Would Drop Off—Body Entirely Covered—Face Mass of Sores—Three Doctors Could Not Cure—Child Grew Worse—Face and Body Now Clear

CURED BY CUTICURA IN TWO WEEKS FOR 75c.

Mrs. George J. Steese, of 707 Coburn St., Akron, Ohio, tells in the following letter of another of those remarkable cures of torturing skin humors daily made by Cuticura Soap, assisted by Cuticura Ointment, after physicians, and all else had failed: "I finally duty-papa suffering babies to tell you what Cuticura has done for my little daughter.

She broke out all over her body with a humor, and every thing recommended, but without results. I called in three doctors, they all claimed they could help her, but she continued to grow worse. Her body was a mass of sores, and her little face was being eaten away; her ears looked as if they would drop off. Neighbors advised me to get Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and before I had used half of the cake of Soap and box of Ointment the sores had all healed, and my little one's face and body were as clear as a new-born babe's. I would not be without it again if it cost five dollars, instead of seventy-five cents, which is all it cost us to cure our baby, after spending many dollars on doctors and medicines without any benefit whatever."

Complete External and Internal Treatment for every Humor, from Pimples to Scrofula, from Itchiness to Erysipelas, including Cuticura Soap, 25c., Ointment, 50c., Resolvent, 50c. (in form of Chocolate Candy Pills, 50c. per box of 60), may be had of all druggists. A single set often cures the most distressing cases, and all other remedies, even the best physicians' pills, Foster Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Mfrs., Boston, Mass. "All About the Skin, Scalp, and Hair," 10c. Mail Free.

When the baby talks, it is time to give Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. It's the greatest baby medicine known to loving mothers. It makes them eat, sleep and grow. 35 cents Tea or Tablets.
