Chicago, July 3.—The Chicago Americans took both games of a double header from the St. Louis team today. In the first game the White Sox took the lead in the first inning and were never headed. The Browns could do nothing with White's pitching in the second and were shut out.

TROUBLE OVER OUTSIDERS

MEETING OF MANAGERS

City League Team Managers Met Last Night and Discussed the Use of Out of Town Players in the League—No Action.

There was a meeting of the managers of the teams in the city league at the Palladium office last night and the matter of playing out of town players in the league was brought up.
No action was taken although it is the sentiment of the majority of the managers that no out of town players should be used. A protest was filed against the Pan Handle team, it being asserted that they had used out of town players when other players from the city had been allowed to sit on the bench. Capt. Wilson of the Pan Handle team explained that they had used Ridge, a Greensfork pitcher and another Greensfork player because they were unable to find other players of league caliber in the city. Capt.
Wilson was asked to do his best to get players living in the city and further action was postponed.

The matter of getting other ground in order to avoid playing two games at the play grounds in one afternoon was brought up and it was decided that the Fairview diamond should be used in case it could be secured. The Palladium and the Starr Piano team will probably play the first game on the Fairview diamond Saturday.

Wireless messages containing the news were received on board the Minneapolis, but the captain suppressed them by request.

London, July 3.—On her arrival in London, Mrs. Thaw was driven to the residence of the Earl of Yarmouth, where the news of the tragedy at New York, June 25, was communicated to her. She bore up well, but has not decided on her future movements.

It is probable Mrs. Thaw will go to Switzerland and not return to the United States immediately as her health is poor. Edward Thaw is coming here from Switzerland.

Three Miners Are Instantly Killed and Many Others Are Injured at Bluefield, West Va.

[Publishers' Press]
Bluefield, W. Va., July 3.—News reached here that by premature explosion in a mine at Keystone, W.
Va., three men were killed outright and a number are still missing. Bud Meadows, Ed Howard and Will Mahon were passing through an entry that had been abandoned some time, when the gas ignited from their lamps and all three were killed. A number of men in other parts of the mine were injured, several fatally.

The force of the explosion was terrible and several of the parties formed for rescue of the few miners who were overcome by gas. This is the fourth explosion within a year in the Pocahontas field.

Over an Embankment.
New Albany, Ind., July 3.—An electric car of the Highland Electric line, plunged over an embankment twenty feet high and five persons were injured. They are Harry Pierce of Silver Hills suburb, badly cut and bruised and perhaps internally injured; Grant Morrison, Silver Hill, scalp wound; Patrick Connolly of this city, badly cut and bruised; Minnie Sneed, Louisville, limb slightly injured; Miss Elizabeth Fulton, face cut and rib broken.
The injured were removed to St. Edwards hospital. None of the passengers are fatally hurt. The car was demolished.

MOTHER HEARS THE TRAGIC NEWS

Harry Thaw's Mother Reaches England and Hears of Her Son's Crime.

WAS PAINFUL REVELATION

SHE WAS IN GOOD SPIRITS ON THE TRIP AND THOUGH OTH-ERS KNEW OF TRAGEDY IT WAS KEPT FROM HER.

[Palladium Special.]

Tilbury, England, July 3.—News of the tragedy June 25, when Harry K.
Thaw shot and killed Stanford White was not communicated to his mother, Mrs. Thaw, up to the time the steamer Minneapolis from New York, June 23, docked here. Extraordinary precautions were taken on board to keep any inkling of the tragedy from her until relatives were able to break the news. Mrs. Thaw, who was unusually cheerful throughout the voyage, was met by her son-in-law, the Earl of Yarmouth, and Blair Thaw, who came to Tilbury to welcome her, and her face was wreathed in smiles when she landed.

As she stepped ashore, Mrs. Thaw was surrounded by friends and detectives, the latter being detailed to prevent any stranger from approaching her. After landing, Mrs. Thaw and her party boarded a special train for London from which reporters were expressly excluded.

As the train pulled out of the station Mrs. Thaw was still apparently in ignorance of the tragedy. The Earl of Yarmouth said he would break the news to her when they reached the house.

news were received on board the
pressed them by request.

STEAMER AMERICA 12 DAYS OVERDUE

One Hundred People Were Waiting in Rain Last Night for Its Arrival.

VARIOUS OPINIONS GIVEN

IT IS FEARED THAT BIG VESSEL MAY HAVE GOT IN PATH OF DERELICT SCHOONER LIZZIE CHADWICK.

[Publishers' Press]

New York, July 3.—More than one hundred persons are sitting in the rain tonight, outside the offices in this city of the Fabre Line, which operates steamships between Mediterranean ports and this city. They are anxiously awaiting tidings of the line's steamer America, which is now 12 days overdue and which has not been heard from since she left the Azores. Under ordinary circumstances she would have reached this city on June 20, but not a vessel has reported her, and when she left St.
Michael's, in the Azores, she sailed in a veil of impenetrable mystery. No vessel that has touched land on either side of the Atlantic has seen or heard anything of the missing ship, and her sister ship the Madonna, which sailed a week later, reached quarantine this afternoon. Her commander, Captain Landef, stated that he had followed the route that the vessels of the line always take, but declared that he had seen nothing of the America.

Foreigners in Hysterics.

He was unaware that the America had not arrived, but he said that he could throw no light on her disappearance. There were 1,050 Greeks and Italians in the steerage of the Madonna and as many of them had friends in the steerage of the America the news of the latter's non-appearance threw them into a frenzy of excitement. They wept and wrung their hands and the officers had all they could do to prevent a serious panic.
Their lamentations continued after they reached Ellis Island and the officials there were besieged with questions relative to the missing America.

A Collision Is Feared.

One of the latest theories advanced is that the America may have crossed the path of the derelict schooner Lizzie Chadwick and may possibly have been in collision with it. The latter is considered a most dangerous menace to ocean liners and if the America encountered the derelict she may have met the fate that has befallen many other vessels. A crash in the night, a great seam in her sides and in a few moments the most modern of steamers of the seas would founder. The Chadwick was abandoned by her crew off the coast of Florida and according to last reports was drifting across the course which the America would naturally take.

The America is bark rigged and J.
T. Kulls, the local passenger agent of the Fabre line is of the opinion that her engines may have broken down and she is making her way to port under sail.

STOCKSECHLAEDER FAMILY IN CITY

Pacific unprotected; not to beg or steal and to report from every habitation passed through. Also to be unlimited in movement and improvements. To arrive in San Francisco on or before April 1st, 1908.

Thousands of Dollars Bet.

Thousands of dollars was bet in New York that the family would never reach the city limits which are some 40 miles from 62nd street.
Stocksechlaeder after much inter-ceding gained an addition to the contract in the form of 100 photographs with which he was to get food for his family on the way through the city.

The trip so far has had its hard side and many times the party was laid up in a city for several days without a cent of money. Their horses died and disasters met them at different intervals. On the other hand they had at different times several hundred dollars ahead. At the present time they are in very favorable circumstances.

Stocksechlaeder, the sturdy German, has his outfit on military discipline. At certain hours of the day certain things are done. The children are put through their lessons and are taught to read and get every benefit from this unique trip. The family is preparing a book which will be illustrated with prints taken along the route. They are quite musical and offer concerts to the public for a small price which goes to assist them in their expenses.

Williams on the Stump.

Jackson, Miss., July 3.—Congressman John Sharp Williams returned here from Washington. He will make several speeches in the state and about July 15 will sail for London to attend the interparliamentary conference.

Dropped Dead.

Santa Cruz, Cal., July 3.—John Faxon Cooper, a well known newspaper man of this state and former sporting editor of the San Francisco Chronicle, dropped dead of apoplexy at his home.
