

SUFFERED AGONIES FOR FOUR YEARS

Whole Foot Nothing But Proud Flesh — Tried Different Physicians and All Kinds of Ointments — Could Walk Only With Crutches — Ohio Man Says:

"CUTICURA REMEDIES THE BEST ON EARTH"

"In the year 1890 the side of my right foot was cut off from the little toe down to the heel, and the physician who had charge of me was trying to sew up the side of my foot, but with no success. When he found out that wouldn't work, he began trying to heal the wound with all kinds of ointment, until at last my whole foot and way up above my calf was nothing but proud flesh. I suffered untold agonies for four years, and tried different physicians and all kinds of ointments. I could walk only with crutches. It is sixteen months ago since I began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment for my limb and foot. The first two months the Cuticura Remedies did not seem to work, but I kept on using them both. In two weeks afterwards I saw a change in my limb. Then I began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment often during the day and kept it up for seven months, when my limb was healed up just the same as if I never had trouble. It is eight months now since I stopped using Cuticura Remedies, the best on God's earth. I am working at the present day, after five years of suffering. The cost of Cuticura Ointment and Soap was only $6; but the doctors' bills were more like $600. You can publish my name and refer any one to write to me about Cuticura Remedies. I will answer all letters if postage is enclosed. John M. Lloyd, 718 S. Arch Ave., Alliance, Ohio, June 27, 1906."

Complete External and Internal Treatment for every case of Cuticura Soap, 30¢; Ointment, 30¢. Box, 50¢. (In form of Chocolate Coated Pills, 25¢ per box.) Cuticura Soap and Ointment are sold by all druggists, or by mail from Cuticura Remedies Co., Boston, Mass. Send for "How to Cure Skin and Blood Humors."

A Season's Drawback.
There are some things almost a crime. I'm free and anxious to confess. About the good old summer time. Some points that only spell distress. And one of these, as you may guess, By trying for it altogether. Is nothing more and nothing less Than just the standard summer weather.
When it is ninety in the shade, Or even maybe not as many, But still enough so you are made To shed your very lightest Benny, It doesn't cause you to have any Sensation other than deep sorrow When the predictions for a penny Say it will not be tomorrow.
Of course I wouldn't like to see The mercury at zero nesting. When summer time was running free And all the countryside infesting. But still I think it needs arresting Or being treated even badder When it goes creeping skyward testing Its power to scale the tallest ladder.
Oh, summer would be simply great Had it no drawbacks you might mention!
Of course we don't expect to skate Or get f'm Santa Claus a pension. But one place where it gets attention Is hardly in its cap a feather. Of course I mean that raw invention That's known to every one as weather.

[Publishers' Press] Pittsburgh, July 5.—Falling on Leever hard in the seventh inning of today's game, enabled the Chicago Nationals to again defeat the Pittsburgh team. Score: R. H. E. CHL. 10 0 0 0 0 0—6 8 2. PIT. 2 0 1 0 0 0 0—3 4 3. Batteries—Reulbach and Kling; Leever and Phelps. Umpires—O'Day and Johnstone.

ONE RUN IN NINTH.

New York, July 5.—Not until the ninth inning today was any runs scored in the game between the New York and Boston Nationals, the Giants making the only tally in the final inning, and shutting out the beaneaters. Score: R. H. E. BOS. 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—0 5 0. N. Y. 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—1 7 0. Batteries—Pfeiffer and O'Neill; Mathewson and Bowerman. Umpire—Emslie.

LONG HITS DIDN'T WIN.

Brooklyn, July 5.—Brooklyn made a number of long hits today, but the Philadelphia Nationals proved the better stayers and won out by 1 run. Score: R. H. E. PHIL. 4 0 0 2 0 0 0—6 7 0. BROOK. 3 0 0 1 0 0 0—5 8 1. Batteries—Richie, Pittinger and Dooin; Scanlon and Bergen. Umpire—Conway.

SAME STORY FOR REDS.

St. Louis, July 5.—Although the Cincinnati Nationals hit Egan hard in the first inning today, they were unable to score afterwards and the St. Louis team won out in an uphill contest. Score: R. H. E. ### PERT PARAGRAPHS.

The man who works is apt to be more capable than the man who gets worked. Anticipated pleasures rarely come up to the specifications made and provided in the contract. Lots of people give up before they begin, then howl because results don't come their way. A woman likes to see a man fool himself thinking he is fooling her. Inconspicuousness is one of the earmarks of the real thing. Extremes meet, but they are seldom friendly. Women are partly responsible for all that is done in this world and entirely responsible for most of what is said. Himself being judge, no man ever took a mean advantage. Too many people are companionable only when their intellect isn't working. There are lots of people in the world whose sole business is getting ready to inherit money.

PERT PARAGRAPHS.

Although the scientists have not found the mosquito that gives spring fever, the ordinary loafer has been more successful. There are three classes of people, financially speaking—those who earn money, those who burn money, and a third class which lies between and touches the two preceding. Everybody loves a winner except the loser. We often do things just to show how much better than others we can do them. Persistent use of the hammer is not recommended for developing the biceps. Some people never deteriorate; they can't. Every coquette tries to do her best—youth man. Sympathy that has relation to the stomach is very comforting.

Chance For Trouble.

We hope that the members of the donna who are trying to legislate happiness and a few strips of breakfast bacon to a people who have long yearned for joy and three square meals will be as moderate as they can under the circumstances toward each other when a disagreement arises, for the complications possible are terrible to contemplate. Suppose, for instance, one member were to arise in the heat of debate, open his whiskers and say something that he could not prove, it would be up to the leader on the other side to make him eat his words, and a meal of Russian words is about as unpalatable a thing as could well be imagined. The human ostrich in the sidshow may eat glass sugar bowls, nails and even a choice cut from a buzz saw, but the stoutest stomach might well revolt if given a few ordinary Russian words selected at random from the dictionary and told to eat them.

A Practical Man.

"Will I need my umbrella?" "Sure, it is raining cats and dogs outside."

Smile Up.

The sun is shining out of doors. The winds blow bush and tree. The songster in the ether soars. The busy little bee Is winging home without a fear Of being counted late. The roses nod with smiles of cheer Nor dread their coming fate. So take your one from nature now; She gives it o'er and o'er And tries to tell you why and how—Don't worry any more.

Speedy Cure.

"I understand he has appendicitis." "That is what the doctor thought yesterday, but he has changed his mind." "Made a more careful diagnosis?" "No; discovered he didn't have money enough to pay for an operation."

Name Queered Him.

"What does he call his horse?" "Ready Money." "No wonder he isn't in sight when the winners come under the wire."

Journey Ahead.

"He must be going to Canada." "Hain't mentioned it to me." "I heard him say he would see a man in Halifax."

Philadelphia, July 5.—Coombs was effective today and the Washington Americans received a coat of white-wash at the hands of the Athletics. Score: R. H. E. WASH. 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—0 7 1. PHIL. 0 0 2 0 1 0 0 0 0—3 7 0. Batteries—Smith and Wakefield; Coombs and Powers. Umpires—Hurst and Connor.

HARRIS EASY PROPOSITION.

Boston, July 5.—Harris was an easy proposition for the New York Americans and they had little difficulty in defeating Boston. Score: R. H. E. N. Y. 1 0 0 0 5 1 0 0 1—8 11 1. BOS. 1 0 0 0 0 1 1 0 0—3 5 6. Batteries—Hogg and Kleinow; Harris and Peterson. Umpire—O'Loughlin.

FREE HITTING CONTEST.

Detroit, July 5.—In a free hitting contest today the St. Louis Americans won out by one run from the Detroiters. Score: R. H. E. ST. L. 3 0 0 0 1 1 0 0 0—5 11 1. DET. 0 0 0 0 4 0 0 0 0—4 8 3. Batteries—Glade and O'Connor; Stever and Schmidt. Umpire—Conolly.

Rural Routes.

Washington, July 5.—The monthly report of rural mail routes established shows 2,593 petitions not acted on. There were 3,713 routes put into operation during the fiscal year just closed.

No Evidence.

"See the bald headed gentleman in the third box? He is heir apparent to one of the moldiest thrones in Europe." "You would never suspect it of him. There is no hair apparent."

Needed It.

From a sigh for the mint he could not refrain. There was none at hand, but he wished so hard For an odorous whiff of the herb's bruised vein That used to grow in the old back yard.

For the youngster had howled with the stomach ache.

From the dank midnight to the dawn's pale tint And had kept the household all awake—Wherefore the sigh for the peppermint.

Quite Right.

"What's your idea of a good joke?" "One that hits a fellow that you don't like."

PERT PARAGRAPHS.

One reason why truth telling is so unpopular is because it is so apt to be unpleasant. When mischief is chronic in a boy, spankings are apt to be periodical. To keep your place it is sometimes essential to knock another fellow out. A little of some things is a good deal too much.

A cold expression often precedes a hot reception.

Where much consideration is shown, the bill for the same is proportionately large.

The average man prefers to earn his bread if possible by the sweat of his jaw rather than his brow.

A promising condition isn't in it with one that is really doing business.

There are more ugly women in the world than one imagined, judging from the "How to Be Beautiful" literature that is published.

GAME FOR SUNDAY.

The Palladium baseball team wants an out of town game for next Sunday. Write or phone Manager of Palladium team at once.

THE BLOWHARD.

Well, yes; I admit That I tear up the ground Some. But then I never have claimed to be A Sunday school picnic Or a pert and sassy Charley boy. What's the use In being a cyclone, A regular rip snorter, A fierce man eating Ring tailed roarer, If you can't have some fun Out of it? You've got the name, And you might as well Have the game. And it isn't a game Of pinpong Either. Not exactly. Thought of course It is all of that And some more. Yes, As I come to think it over, Quite a good deal more. Of course you might say That it isn't A nice thing to do To come racing down At a fire engine gait And pick up the happy home Of a man Who had never done anything to you And, after breaking Some of the wedding presents And jarring loose the pictures, Set it down On the lot Of a perfect stranger. But that is just my way, and if you don't like it all you have got to do is to carry a cyclone cellar Around in your vest pocket.

A Timid Young Thing. "The professor put his arm around her." "Did she scream?" "No, she was too frightened." "Poor girl." "Yes; she was frightened lest he should take it away."

More Law In Prospect.

It is the dream of the promoters of The Hague tribunal that it may eventually become a lawmaking body, passing a few statutes occasionally for the benefit of those people who do not feel as though they were being governed enough as it is. If there is one thing that we need particularly in the United States it is a few more lawmaking bodies. Congress, the various state legislatures, city councils and county administrations only pass a few hundred thousand new laws a year, and sometimes time hangs heavy on our hands because we have a half hour in which we do not know for certain that we are obeying any law.

There ought to be a field for The Hague tribunal to start in easy before it began trying to regulate our lives and deciding which country should make sausages and which should eat them, and that field is the air. Just for practice they might begin with a statute forbidding balloonists to bump into the moon.

Heroes.

Too late they found their marriage Was clearly a mist. But still they never said a word. But made the best of it.

Lasting Cure.

"He took the Keeley cure long ago." "I didn't know that he ever drank." "He didn't. The cure he took was for financial plethora. He invested in the stock of the Keeley Motor company."

No Strong Man.

"I heard you took the train for the city last week." "That is a mistake; the train took me."
