

Whose Say-so is Best?

With nearly all medicines put up for sale through druggists, one has to take the maker's say-so alone as to their curative value. Of course, such testimony is not that of a disinterested party and accordingly is not to be given the same credit as if written from disinterested motives. Dr. Pierce's medicines, however, form a single and therefore striking exception to this rule. Their claims to the confidence of invalids does not rest solely upon their makers' say-so or praise. Their ingredients are matters of public knowledge, being printed on each separate bottle wrapper. Thus invalid sufferers are taken into Dr. Pierce's full confidence. Scores of leading medical men have written enough to fill volumes in praise of the curative value of the several ingredients entering into these well-known medicines.

Amongst these writers we find such medical lights as Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Denver Medical College, Chicago; Prof. Hale of the same city; Prof. John M. Benedict, M. D., late of Cincinnati, Ohio; Prof. John King, M. D., of Cincinnati, Ohio; Dr. Grover Cox, of New York; Dr. Bartholow, of Jefferson Medical College, of Pa., and scores of others equally eminent.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures the worst cases of female weakness, prostrates, antenatal and retroversion and corrects irregularities, cures painful periods, dries up disagreeable and weakly drains, sometimes known as pelvic cancer, and a multitude of other diseases peculiar to women. Bear in mind it is not a patent nor even a secret medicine, but the "Favorite Prescription" of a regular and successful physician of large experience in the cure of women's peculiar ailments, who frankly and confidently takes his patients into his full confidence by telling them just what his "Prescription" is composed of. No other medicine put up for women's special maladies and sold through druggists, can it be said that the maker is not afraid to deal thus frankly, openly and honorably, by letting every patient using the same know exactly what she is taking.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, from all correspondences is guarded as sacredly secret and womanly confidences are protected by professional privacy. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

How to preserve health and beauty is told in Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. It is free. For a paper-covered copy send Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., 21 one-cent stamps to cover mailing only; in cloth binding 31 stamps. Dr. Pierce's Pellets cure constipation.

IMPURE MILK WAS SOLD

Investigation Shows That Milk Furnished National Guard of Pennsylvania Was Doped.

[Publishers' Press] Gettysburg, Pa., July 26.—A sensation was sprung here today by Dr. D. H. Warren, of the State Dairy and Food Division, when it was learned that he had quietly slipped into the town and made a test of the milk furnished to the National Guard. Of twenty-six samples furnished by the quartermasters of the various regiments, fifty per cent. of it contained formaldehyde.

Dr. Warren will prosecute the dealers who sold the impure foodstuffs.

DINNER TO BE A SUBSCRIPTION ONE

Bryan Writes from London Giving His Ideas About the Spread for Him.

WANTS SPEECHES PRINTED

ALL TRUNK LINES OF THE COUNTRY WILL GIVE RATES TO THE MEETING OF ONE HALF FOR THE ROUND TRIP.

[Publishers' Press]

New York, July 26.—William Jennings Bryan has sent by his reception here must be expensive and he requested that the expenses be defrayed by popular subscription. Like the dollar dinner Mr. Bryan suggests that dollar subscriptions be preferred.

Mr. Bryan in a letter to Hon. Alexander Troup, of New Haven, writes in part, as follows:

"There will be some expense and the committee must see to it that no money is accepted from questionable sources; in fact, I think it would be well to announce that the expense would be borne by popular subscription, dollar subscriptions being preferred, but that larger subscriptions would be received up to $50, none being received over that. Also, announce that subscriptions of $5 or more than $5 would be entered in a book and the names be given to any one desiring them. Subscriptions of less than $5, would not be made known, without the expressed consent of the subscriber."

"Say that the reception will be made as inexpensive as possible and that any surplus over and above the expenses of the reception will be used to print and circulate the speeches delivered at the reception."

A communication was received today from all the trunk line railroads, stating that they would issue tickets from all parts of the country for the Bryan reception for one half fare round trip.

MRS. SAGE TO GET ENTIRE FORTUNE

Contest Will Follow Probating of Last Testament of Russell Sage Today.

INSANITY CLAIM IS MADE

RELATIVES, WHO MAY BE LEFT OUT, ACCUSE MRS. SAGE OF INFLUENCING HUSBAND TO CHANGE ORIGINAL WILL.

[Publishers' Press]

New York, July 26.—The filing of the will of the late Russell Sage, which will take place tomorrow, unless all the present plans are disarranged, will be the signal for the institution of contestants on behalf of several of the dead financiers relatives.

By the terms of the will, the relatives of Mr. Sage, are it is understood practically ignored, and virtually the entire fortune amounting to approximately $100,000,000 is left without condition to the widow.

It has been the intention to file the document for probate this afternoon, but at the last moment the plan was changed because of the detail involved in conforming with the legal requirements.

Mrs. Sage through her secretary announced this afternoon that the will of her husband would be read and filed for probate tomorrow.

A bitter contest will be made against the probating of the will on the grounds that Mr. Sage was not in his right mind during the last few years of his life, and that his wife exercised undue influence over him to the end and that his relatives be cut off from any share in his estate.

It will be alleged further, that Mr. Sage made two wills, the latter one of which, being drawn up since his alleged mental weakness.

MORE PROSECUTION OF STANDARD OIL

District Attorney Morrison Outlines His Plan of Action at Chicago.

NO INDICTMENTS ASKED

LAKE SHORE RAILROAD IS ALSO IMPLICATED AND IS CHARGED WITH GIVING REBATES TO OIL COMPANY.

[Publishers' Press]

Chicago, July 26.—District Attorney Morrison, who retired from his present office on September 1, to become special prosecutor of the trusts, United States District Attorney Sullivan of Cleveland, Assistant Attorney General Pagin, and District Attorney Hanchett, who had been selected to conduct the impending prosecutions of the Standard Oil Company, its stockholders and officers, and officers of the Lake Shore railroad, today adopted a plan of action.

Within three days it is said by an official who speaks authoritatively, an information will be filed in the federal court charging the two corporations with receiving and granting rebates. Judge Bethea has cut short his vacation to return to Chicago to approve the information before it is filed. No indictments will be asked, because the Elkins law makes such offenses misdemeanors not punishable by imprisonment. The maximum fine is $20,000 and the minimum $1,000 for each violation. John D. Rockefeller and the principal officers of the oil company will be defendants.

FEATHER CAUSED FIGHT

WOMAN FAINTS OVER IT

L. H. Burroughs and Charles Graham Exchange Blows and Are Taken in Tow by Officers—All Started Over Just a Little Fun.

L. H. Burroughs and Charles Graham were arrested last night at the carnival grounds as the result of a fight. They will be arraigned in City Court this morning.

It seems that Graham was showing his girl the sights and after the fashion of the carnival patrons, Burroughs tickled Graham's girl in the ear with a "Feather Stick." She jumped and so did Graham. The latter turned on Burroughs, snatched the stick from his hands breaking it to pieces and landed a slap followed by a jaw-punch. An exchange of blows followed.

Miss Lena Scriber, who was standing near, thought that she was hit and fainted. Willing hands revived her and she was taken home.

Tied down to his desk in the office, while others are free and at play, Papa fancies he is having a vacation. While drinking Rocky Mountain Tea for sale by A. G. Luken & Co.
