

FACTS IN NATURE

Not Only Do We Get Inspiration From Nature, But Health as Well.

For people who are run-down and nervous, who suffer from indigestion or dyspepsia, headache, biliousness, or torpid liver, coated tongue with bitter taste in the morning and poor appetite, it becomes necessary to turn to some tonic or strengthener which will assist Nature in her work and help them get on their feet and put the body into its proper condition. It is becoming more and more apparent that Nature's most valuable health-giving agents are to be found in forest plants and roots.

Nearly forty years ago, Dr. R. V. Pierce, now consulting physician to the Invalids, Hotel and Surgical Institute, at Buffalo, N. Y., discovered that by scientifically extracting and combining certain medicinal principles from native roots, taken from our American forests, he could produce a medicine which was marvellously efficient in curing cases of blood disorder and liver and stomach trouble as well as many other chronic, or lingering ailments. This concoction, extract of "Nature's vitality," named "Golden Medical Discovery," it purifies the blood by putting the stomach and liver into healthy condition, thereby helping the digestion and assimilation of food which feeds the blood. Thereby it cures weak stomach, indigestion, torpid liver, biliousness, and kindred derangements.

If you have coated tongue, with bitter or bad taste in the morning, frequent headaches, feel weak, easily tired, stomach in side, back gives out easily and aches, belching of gas, constipation, or irregular bowels, feel flashes of heat alternating with chilly sensations or kindred symptoms, they point to derangement of your stomach, liver and kidneys, which the "Golden Medical Discovery" will correct more speedily and permanently than any other known agent. Contains no alcohol or habit-forming drugs. All its ingredients formed in plain English on wrapper.

The sole motive for substitution is to permit the dealer to make a little more profit. It is a shame to let a good medicine be sold under a false name.

Constitution causes and aggravates many serious diseases. It is thoroughly cured by Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery." One a day; two or three are cathartic.

ASK HIM TO RESIGN

Bryan Says that Roger Sullivan, Committeeman from Illinois, Got Place by Fraud.

[Publishers' Press] Chicago, July 31.—Judge Owen P. Thompson, of Jacksonville, Ill., announced that in a letter dated July 17, William J. Bryan requested that Judge Thompson call on Roger Sullivan with a message from Mr. Bryan, requesting that Sullivan in the interest of harmony resign as national committeeman from Illinois.

Judge Thompson says he saw Sullivan and delivered Mr. Bryan's message, and that Sullivan declined to resign as requested.

Judge Thompson thereupon made public a letter from Mr. Bryan, declaring that Sullivan holds the office by a fraud, and that it is impossible for honest Democrats to associate with Sullivan as a member of the national committee.

Cornerstone Laid. Washington, July 31.—The cornerstone of the new senate office building fronting on the capitol plaza was laid in the presence of Elliott T. Woods, superintendent of the capitol, Daniel Russell, sergeant-at-arms of the senate, several senate employees and a few newspapermen. The exercises were entirely informal. Among the contents of the hermetically-sealed box placed in the stone were photos of President Roosevelt and Vice President Fairbanks.

BARBERS ON THE DIAMOND

The Union Knights of the Razor anxious to Get a Game with Any Local Ball Team.

The union barbers of the city have formed a baseball team which will make its debut within a few days. There are a number of baseball stars who are now following the tonsorial profession and the team feels that it would like to begin its diamond career at once. The barbers team, therefore, issues a challenge to any team in Richmond for a game to be played next Sunday morning. Address George Hosier, No. 9, North 8th street.

NOTICE HUNTERS; SHOOT SQUIRREL

State Law Protecting the Little Bushy Tail, Went Out Last Midnight.

MANY GUNS ARE POLISHED

GAME WARDEN SWEENEY WILL SEE THAT THE LAW IS NOT VIOLATED—LICENSE AND PERMITS ARE NECESSARY.

Richmond nimrods who have been polishing their guns for the opening of the squirrel season can hic themselves away in search of the elusive animals this morning. The law protecting the lives of the squirrel expired last midnight and henceforth the squirrel will be the legal meat of any person who has taken precaution to secure a state license to hunt and has permission of the owner of the land on which he will play his search for the bushy-tail.

There has not been in years such squirrel shooting as is found in Indiana this year, according to reports received by the state game warden last week. The animals are said to be so thick in the southern part of the state that any one can shoot all he wants in half an hour, while they are found in comparative abundance in the northern part.

Brown county and the territory immediately surrounding is the especial field of the squirrel and it is said that many of the land owners there are glad to have the shooting done on their premises. The squirrel has proved destructive to the corn and on account of the protection given them the farmers have no redress.

Game warden Sweeney has a big force of men all over the state to see that the laws are not violated, especially that part of the law prohibiting shooting on Sunday. While the shooting of squirrels is going on, he wants to see to it that none of the other game laws are violated.

Humor and Philosophy

By DUNCAN M. SMITH

OTHERS.

The man with the hoe is a downtrodden creature.
For toil in his life is the principal feature.
While others at pleasures are coming and going.
He tends to his knitting, or, rather, his hoeing.
But he as a sufferer's hardly a starter:
The man with the lawn mower—there is the martyr.

The hours of the morning for toll he is using.
While others more fortunate sweetly are snoozing.
Unless—then he gloats—they're as mad as a hatter.
Because they're aroused by his cloying chatter.
But though they begate him and call it a scandal.
Yet he is the one who must push at the handle.

The lawn which seemed small when he made the selection.
Now seems as he mows it a full quarter section.
And, although the distance in inches is reckoned.
It seems to grow longer and longer each second.
Until by the third or fourth time he's been round it.
He mutters and says something worse than "Confound it!"

Nor does it make lighter the least bit the labor.
To hear the remarks of some gay lawless neighbor.
Who says he would make a museum attraction.
Or pass as a mule if he had but good action.
He gives a smile, springs a chestnut so handy.
By saying, "This exercise, neighbor, is dandy."

If you have a heart that with love is overflowing.
Save sympathy out for the man who is mowing.
I think a society formed for prevention Of cruelty here has a case for attention:
Somewhere in the law of the land must be hidden
A clause saying torture like this is forbidden.

Keeping Well.

"What is the matter with the Jiggs?"
"Nothing, I guess. They appear to be healthy."
"But the whole family is taking medicine."
"Oh, the old man had to take a gross of a patent mixture on a debt, and they want to get their money back."

The Essential Thing.

"What do you do down here?"
"Dream."
"How do you manage it?"
"I cultivate my soul."
"Yes; that's all right. But what I want to know is who fills your pipe for you?"

Not He.

"Is he an honest business man?"
"Well, he isn't growing thin and pale worrying for fear that the public won't get fair play."

Tie It Down.
Hold your temper; safely fold it.
Where no prying thief can rob.
If you find you cannot hold it.
Hire a man to do the job.

Gregarious.

"There's room at the top, you know."
"Thank you. I prefer company."

Certainly.

"What is woman's greatest trial?"
"That's dead easy. Man."
