AT THE THEATERS

This afternoon the Cutter Stock Company which is proving to be one of the most popular of the kind ever appearing at the Gennett, will present "In the Rogue's Gallery" and tonight the bill will be "When Women Trust Men." Friday night the offering will be "Camille" and Saturday night the ever-popular "Deadwood Dick." Friday's matinee will be "The Opera Singer" which was so acceptably presented Wednesday night and Saturday afternoon "The Country Girl" will be given. The last mentioned play pleased a big audience on Tuesday afternoon. Despite the extreme heat, the patronage is proving highly satisfactory and the week will be one of the best in the history of the house. The Cutter company will go from Richmond to Hamilton where it will appear next week.

Dr. L. S. Chenoweth will return from his eastern trip August 25th.

Lots of people give up before they begin, then howl because results don't come their way.

A woman likes to see a man fool himself thinking he is fooling her.

Inconspicuousness is one of the earmarks of the real thing.

Extremes meet, but they are seldom found.

Women are partly responsible for all that is done in this world and entirely responsible for most of what is said.

Himself being judge, no man ever took a mean advantage.

Too many people are companionable only when their intellect isn't working.

There are lots of people in the world whose sole business is getting ready to inherit money.

CALL OF THE WILD.

When the weather man is dishing Waves of heat at every throw, Then if ever man goes fishing Is the time he wants to go. So fisherman, you know, Gets some tackle and a tent. And then, jumping in the wagon, Tells the man to let her went.

Hear Those wheels Rolling in your head? Feel That queer sensation Gnawing at you Under your new $1.25 Washable vest?

That is the call of the wild. No, not the wild. Who never was bashful, Speaks right up and says: "Man."

You blooming chump, Come away From the hot town! Come to the woods, Where there is nothing But solitude.

And mosquitoes." And, as we said, In the delightful And immortal little verse At the top Of this spasm, He goes.

He goes. He doesn't know any better, Though experience Has raised him over the knuckles Many times.

He goes. Looking for a bite, And the mosquitoes And gnats, Knowing why he is there, Accommodate him Good and plenty.

Customer—Have you any porpoise shoe laces?

New Clerk—Aw, come off! Stop stringin' me. Porpoises don't wear shoes.—Philadelphia Press.

HIS WEAK END.

Mr. Morris Ingalls, the western railway magnate, was induced by a friend while spending Sunday in Boston to attend service at a church the pastor of which is noted for the extreme length of his sermons.

As the friends were leaving at the conclusion of the service the Bostonian, with a touch of pride, inquired:

"Dr. Blank is a most eloquent minister, is he not?"

"Very eloquent," was the dry response of the railroad man, "but he has poor terminal facilities."—Harper's Weekly.

PITH AND POINT.

You will usually find this in the obituary of a successful business man: "He did not mingle in society."

The best you can do isn't going to help you very much unless it is better than some other man's best.
