OUTLOOK FOR HUNTERS

SEASON BEGINS NOV. 10TH.

Deputy Warden Earle Claims There Will be More Quail Than Usual but he Hopes That Farmers Will Not Permit Hunting.

Indianapolis, Oct. 11, (Spl.)—The closed season for every kind of wild game except wild ducks and water fowl is now on, says E. Earle, deputy fish and game commissioner. "It is unlawful to kill even the common rabbit," continued Mr. Earle, "and this period of immunity will continue until Nov. 10."

"From November 10, until January 1 there will be an open season for all kinds of game, including quail," continued Mr. Earle, who said further that the reports coming into his office indicated that there would be plenty of quail, especially in southern Indiana. "Even around here there will be more quail than usual," said Mr. Earle, "but I hope that the landowners will not permit them to be hunted this season. Last season the League of American Sportsmen released thousands of young quail in this neighborhood and if the hunters would let them alone this year, they would have fine hunting next year. I think that the large land owners around Indianapolis will co-operate with this department in keeping hunters out of this year, too."

DESTINATION IS KNOWN

ASSIGNMENT OF BIG NEW YORK FIRM DUE TO ABSCONDING CUBAN AGENT, IS ANNOUNCED—LIABILITIES $3,000,000.

New York, Oct. 11.—Manuel S. Velaz, the defaulting Havana agent for the firm of J. M. Ceballos & Co., is now on board the steamer Carmelina, which he left Havana October 2, on another steamer which he boarded at sea two days after leaving the Cuban capital, according to information which was given out here. It is said that the present whereabouts of the Carmelina is known and that the destination of the other steamer which Silveira and his family were transferred, also is known.

The charge of defalcation of more than a million dollars which has been made against Silveira, was made by Attorneys Sullivan and Cromwell, who made the announcement after news of the Carmelina and the other steamer had been received in this city. The assignment of J. M. Ceballos & Co., bankers and merchants of this city, with liabilities between $3,000,000 and $4,000,000, was due to the defalcation and absconding of Silveira of Silveira & Co., Havana agents of the New York company. Silveira sailed from Havana October 2, ostensibly to consult here with the members of J. M. Ceballos & Co.

J. M. Ceballos & Co. was established about 50 years ago and has large interests in Cuba, chiefly in the development of railroads and sugar plantations. It operates a line of steamers between New York and Spanish ports and has connections in Spain, European centers and Spanish-American cities.

When Mr. Cromwell was questioned at his office regarding the transfer of Silveira and his family from the Carmelina after leaving Havana, he said: "That is something that I do not care to discuss because it would be giving a hint. All my efforts are being directed now to capture the man."

FATHER MOITRIER DEAD

HE FORMERLY LIVED HERE

Was Priest at the St. Mary's Church Years Ago, and Had Charge of the Erection of the Present Church Structure.

The Rev. Francis Moitrier, priest of St. Mary's from 1869-72, died recently at Cambridge Springs, Pennsylvania, after a long illness.

During the time that Father Moitrier had charge of St. Mary's, he accomplished much in his line. It was he who superintended the construction of the present building and painted the wall decorations, which are to this day considered among the best in this part of the country. He gave a large Fourth of July celebration at Newman's Hill while he was here and he himself made all of the fireworks which were used. The feature of the celebration was a large equestrian statue of George Washington.

MANY NOBLEMEN LEAVING RUSSIA

Don't Like Unsettled Conditions There and Are Taking Up Abodes in England.

FINERY BEING SHIPPED

NOT KNOWN THAT ANY OF THE ROYAL FAMILY HAS LEFT, BUT THEY MAY HAVE GONE UNDER ASSUMED NAMES.

(Publishers' Press) London, Oct. 11.—For sometime past statements have been made, with more or less authority, to the effect that some members of the Czars family were making secret arrangements to leave Russia, should certain eventualities occur, and take refuge in England.

These statements have been regarded as part of the inevitable rumors which were to be expected to arise from the state of affairs in the muscovite dominions. Investigations by the Publishers Press Association correspondent however, reveal circumstances which put to the truth of the assertions.

Recently there has been a constant increasing stream of wealthy Russians to England. They have quietly transferred their valuables and brought to this country and to the right moment left St. Petersburg for London. An official of the United Shipping Company confirmed the news. "We are still bringing over hundreds of the poorer refugees every week from Russia," he said, "but the rich noblemen and gentlemen are also booking passages now. They are coming to London with the intention of settling here, and many of them have arrived in the last few weeks."

No passages have been booked by members of the Imperial family, so far as the company are aware, although this might be done without their knowledge, as it is more than likely that the grand dukes and grand duchesses and their children would travel under assumed names. Large quantities of jewels, pictures and furniture have arrived in this country from the imperial palaces in Russia just lately and have been placed in safe storage.

DUST LAYING IS MOOTED QUESTION

Recent Experiments in England Told of by John L. Griffiths.

INTEREST TO RICHMOND.

ALL KINDS OF OILS TRIED IN ADDITION TO VARIOUS OTHER PREPARATIONS—OIL GAVE BEST RESULTS.

While Richmond is experimenting with oil as a "specific" for dust-laden streets, the result of experiments in England which are told of by John L. Griffiths of Indianapolis, United States Consul at Liverpool.

Tests of all kinds looking to laying the dust are being conducted on English roads. Petroleum, creosote oil, both cold and hot, and mixed with resin, tallow and pitch, separately or in combination, coal tar waste oil, Texas crude petroleum, and calcium-chloride solution, all were tried.

Of the oils the Texas oil gave the most lasting results; coal-tar waste was cheaper and slightly better than creosote; creosote and resin mixed made the cleanest and whitest appearing road; ordinary petroleum was of little use. Oiling wood pavements kept down the dust, but made them slippery.

Calcium-chloride was dissolved in water and sprinkled over macadam. It seemed to absorb moisture from the atmosphere for three weeks after application, binding the dust particles together and preventing their being blown about. During wet weather there was a tendency for the surface to work off in layers, but it quickly dried and set back. The cost of sprinkling with water for fourteen days would have been from two to four times the cost of the calcium-chloride treatment, which was effective for that time, the chloride costing $7.29 a ton at the chemical works.

TO PROBE LUMBER TRUST

AN OHIO INVESTIGATION

Grand Jury at Lima Has Enough Evidence to Convict Lumber Trust of Whole Country—Up to Interstate Commerce Commission.

Lima, O., Oct. 11.—A national investigation, through the interstate commerce commission, may result from the investigation made here by the grand jury just discharged, when the alleged lumber trust of this city was brought up. It is claimed that of the score of witnesses representing dealers in this line, sufficient evidence was brought out to convict the lumber trust of the whole country. Evidence showed that in order to buy carload lots dealers are forced to sell at retail prices fixed by the great lumber companies of the country. Local dealers are said to have proven this so conclusively that Prosecutor Welty has carefully compiled all the data and will present it in person to the interstate commerce commission at its next sitting, making a demand for an investigation of the lumber trade of the country on the same lines as those employed against Standard oil.

COON TIME IS COMING

SOME PREJUDICE EXISTS.

A Local Man Defends the Coon and Claims it Should be Given Preference Over the Fowls of the Barnyard.

"Say, do you know that young coons will soon be ripe?" queried a well-known hunter. "Well you see, there are many people who would not think of eating a young coon, although they are a clean animal, but the same people will not hesitate in eating a chicken that feeds largely on filth. You take a coon—that is, a young one, that has fattened upon the tender growing corn, and I don't know of anything better. You just fry the meat the same as many other meats, and I tell you it is fine," explained the old man. "I have a special place where I go every fall, and I have a fine dog for hunting coons. All you have to do is to turn the dog loose in the woods and he will not make any noise until he has treed the coon, but then you will hear from him, for he will stay beneath the tree until you come."

CAMP MEETING IS OFF

The Wintry Blasts Cooled the Ardor of Promoters and Wind Blew Down the Tent.

The camp meeting, promoted by a colored evangelist from the South which according to schedule was to have been under full headway by this time, has been called off owing to the unexpected arrival of winter. The icy blasts not only cooled the ardor of the promoters, but the heavy winds blew down the tents, partly wrecking it and doing considerable damage. Not a penny of revenue came into the pockets of the promoters and they are out considerable money. The paraphernalia has been stored for the winter and when the spring times comes it will be brought out for another season's work, Richmond being the first stand.
