

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription
Is a powerful, invigorating tonic, imparting health and strength in particular to the organs distinctly feminine. The local, womanly health is so intimately related to the general health that when diseases of the delicate woman's organs are cured the whole body gains in health and strength. For weak and sickly women who are "worn-out," "run-down," or debilitated, especially for women who work in store, office or school room, who sit at the typewriter or sewing machine, or bear heavy household burdens, and for nursing mothers, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has proven a priceless benefit because of its health-restoring and strength-giving power.

As a soothing and strengthening nerve tonic, "Favorite Prescription" is unequalled and is invaluable in allaying and subduing nervous excitability, irritability, nervous exhaustion, nervous prostration, neuritis, hysteria, spasms, chorea, or St. Vitus' dance, and all other nervous symptoms commonly attendant upon functional and organic disease of the womanly organs. It induces refreshing sleep and relieves mental anxiety and despondency.

Cures obstinate cases. "Favorite Prescription" is a positive cure for the most complicated and obstinate cases of "female weakness," painful periods, irregularities, prolapsus or falling of the pelvic organs, weak back, bearing-down sensations, chronic congestion, inflammation and ulceration.

Dr. Pierce's medicines are made from harmless but efficient medical roots, fact, but the value of some of these roots and imparted that knowledge to some of the friendlier whites, and gradually some of the more progressive physicians came to test and use them, and ever since they have grown in favor by reason of their superior curative virtues and their safe and harmless qualities.

Your druggists sell the "FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION" and also that famous alterative, blood purifier and stomachic, the "GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY." Write to Dr. Pierce about your case. He is an experienced physician and will treat your case as confidential and without charge for correspondence. Address him at the "Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute," Buffalo, N. Y., of which he is chief consulting physician.

Move May Sweep Captiol.

Among military men here it is now freely mooted that when the next wave of revolution sweeps over the empire it will probably sweep over St. Petersburg itself from the north, and the vicinity of Lake Ladoga. The torpedo boat flotilla of contraband catchers specially put in that lake some months ago proved useless in preventing the carriage of arms and ammunition, and in any case, it is a matter of weeks they will have to be withdrawn altogether from the lake down the Neva owing to the winter ice. Such military men point out further that as Finland, with its wretched constitution, is now already semi-autonomous and Russia's authority in many parts of Finland is in fact but a shred of its former self, Russian revolutionaries proper will be welcome guests later on should they decide to make their initial armed spring from Finnish territory instead of courting renewed discomfiture by striking in a government awed centre like Moscow.

Cambridge City, Oct. 18. (Sp.)—The business men of this city will hold their second meeting at the Town Hall this evening for the purpose of making by-laws and drawing up roll of membership.

AWFUL PSORIASIS 35 YEARS
Terrible Scaly Humor in Patches All Over the Body—Skin Cracked and Bleeding—Itching Unbearable—Cured by Cuticura in Thirty Days at Cost of $4.75.

ANOTHER WONDERFUL CURE BY CUTICURA
"I was afflicted with psoriasis for thirty-five years. It was in patches all over my body. I used three cakes of Cuticura, six boxes of Cuticura Ointment, and two bottles of Cuticura Resolvent. I bathed with the soap, applied the Ointment once a day, and took the Resolvent as directed. In thirty days I was completely cured, and I think permanent, as it was about five years ago."

"The psoriasis first made its appearance in red spots, generally forming a circle, leaving in the center a spot about the size of a silver dollar of sound flesh. In a short time the affected circle would form a heavy dry scale of a white silvery appearance and would gradually drop off. To remove the entire scales by bathing or using oil or lime, and the flesh would be perfectly raw, and a light discharge of bloody substance would ooze out. That scaly crust would form again in twenty-four hours. It was worse on my arms and limbs, although it was in spots all over my body, also on my scalp. If I let the scales remain too long without removing by bath or otherwise, the skin would crack and bleed. I suffered intense itching, worse at night after getting warm in bed, or blood warm by exercise, when it would be almost unbearable."

"To sum it all up, I would not go through such an ordeal of affliction for thirty-five years for the State of Kansas. (signed) W. M. Chidester, Hutchinson, Kan., April 20, 1905."

Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Resolvent are sold throughout the world. Write to J. C. Kennerly, Chem. Corp., Boston, Mass., for a free trial of Cuticura.

WITH A MASTERLY EFFORT CAMPAIGN IS OPENED HERE

the railroad that carries the ore from the mines, the produce from the farms, that connects the Pacific slope with the Atlantic slope. People could not travel without the railroads, religious and political conventions could not be held and other things to numerous to mention would be left undone. In other words the railroads enter the business, political, social and religious life of the American people and the people have right to say what the railroads shall, and shall not do. It is for this reason that the government must take a hand in the regulation of railroad rates.

Rate Regulation Sure to Come.
The complete regulation of railroad rates under the supervision of the government is as certain as the rising of the sun. The Railroad Rate bill is not complete and must be amended and that is the reason why a Republican congress must be elected again this fall. We do not want government ownership of railroads as Mr. Bryan demands. Those who favor government ownership of railroads say that it is the only way to keep the railroads out of politics. I say that the only way to regulate the railroads is to put every corrupt lobbyist, politician or railroad man in jail, that's what we have the jails for.

War on corruption in public life is the policy President Roosevelt began when he first went into office and it will continue until public affairs have been thoroughly cleansed.

"When any business becomes so great," continued Mr. Beveridge "that it affects all the people it must be regulated by the government. This is the principal behind the Railroad Rate bill, the Pure Food bill and the Meat Inspection bill. And after all this is but the outgrowth of the religion of Jesus Christ in public life.

Wherefore of Meat Quarrel.
"I have no quarrel with the meat trust or any of the large corporations for we cannot destroy them. However when the Meat Trust forgot that it was serving the people and placed a poisonous meat on the market I did have a quarrel with it and a big one too. So I wrote and introduced the law which regulates the sale of meat, but as the author of this law I will state that it never would have passed but for the efforts of the President of the United States. The meat trust fought this bill with all its might and not succeeding tried to render it helpless by pulling its teeth but Mr. Roosevelt threw all his influence and wonderful personality in its behalf and the bill was passed. The Meat Trust beat us on two points. One was the provision that required that dates of packing be placed on every can of meat, and the other provision was the one that required the packers to pay the cost of inspection of the meat. We had to sacrifice these two points to insure the passage of the bill. I say that the time has come when the Meat Trust and the other large corporations have to give the people a reason for everything they do. Laws amount to nothing unless they are enforced and the laws are being enforced by Theodore Roosevelt and in the work that he is now engaged in the American people must give him their support by electing a Republican congress this fall. A Democratic Congress would embarrass Mr. Roosevelt in his work. (Loud applause.)

Our Policy in Cuba.
Mr. Beveridge sketched for his audience the wonderful growth of the American Republic from the time that its territory embraced only the Atlantic seaboard until today the flag waves over Hawaii, the Philippines and Porto Rico. He stated that the flag was once hauled down in Cuba after the American people had established a splendid government for the islanders, only to have it overturned in the space of three short years. He told of the enormous expense to which the country is now being put in reestablishing order in Cuba and that in three years more the American people would again be called upon to do the same work over. "When we go to Havana a third time the flag will be hoisted over Moro and God willing it will never be taken down again," exclaimed the Senator and the big crowd wildly cheered him.

A Word About the Tariff.
Speaking on the tariff, Senator Beveridge said:

"I am a protectionist to the backbone, and that is one reason why I favor a limited tariff revision. There should be changes in some tariff schedules because the conditions these schedules were made to fit have changed, and because we must not imperil the whole protective system by putting off admittedly needed changes until so many of them accumulate that their combined force compels a general revision."

"A general revision—an all around tariff tear-up—would be disastrous. Changes should be made when they are needed. If not changed when needed, a schedule becomes not only an economic error, but it becomes a moral wrong. And to the business man's sense of such a schedule's unwisdom, long delay in its change adds the element of a moral sentiment among the people—a moral revision. And if delay is persisted in until this moral sense of wrong applies to a great number of schedules, the entire system is swept before it, three great steel companies, especially the good politics to change particular schedules when needed—that is the only way to save the whole system."

The jury sitting in the case of the State vs. Lacey Parks, who plead not guilty and William Bennett, who plead guilty to a charge of assault and battery with intent to kill, took twenty minutes yesterday to return a verdict of guilty. Both men were given a sentence of from two to fourteen years Parks being sent to the State Reformatory at Jeffersonville, as he is under the age of thirty while Bennett being over that age was sent to Michigan City prison. The men will be taken to their future homes this morning.

How George would Address King Edward
"HOW would you address King Edward, my dear?"
"Oh! Why, the same way I addressed him last time, of course."

"But you never addressed him at all, George."

"That's what I mean. I insist upon addressing him the same way next time. What of it, my dear?"
"Why, it says here in this paper that the king is to be addressed as 'sir'—just plain 'sir.'"

"As simple as that? I must try to recall the formula. Help me to remember it the next time I drop Ed's line, my dear."

"Why, George?"
"It seems very simple. Let me see. I'll have to fix that in my mind. For instance: 'His Majesty the King, Sir, dear Ed—Say, old boy, one of your collars slipped in to my laundry package by mistake this week. No doubt you'll need it, even if it has an edge like a crescent saw. Send one of Wales' boys around to the house and I'll give it to him. And say, old man, look your duds over and see if you haven't got an extra cuff of mine. It's crossbarred and has polka dots in the squares. Regards to the bunch. Yours as ever, George.' How's that?"

"It's a shame, George. You haven't a bit of reverence."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

She Had to Remind Him.
"Oh, William," she exclaimed after they had got comfortably seated in the sleeper and were waiting for the train to start, "do you remember what this is?"
"What what is?"
"What today is? Don't you know? This is the fourteenth anniversary of our wedding."

"Oh, pshaw! Why couldn't you have let me enjoy the trip?"—Chicago Record-Herald.

House Work

Need Not Wear Her Out

The drudgery of house work seems never ending to tired-out, dispirited women who suffer from female complaints or irregularities. Inflammation and ulceration cause fearful bearing-down pains which are aggravated by much standing on the feet, and lifting necessary in house work.

But let no woman despair of relief from this torture. That famous tonic reconstructor of diseased or disordered female organism, has cured more than one million American Women, and it will cure you. When troubled with painful irregularities, when backaches and headaches drive out all ambition, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will bring back health, strength, and happiness.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

It Gave Me New Life and Vigor

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Last spring, while we were moving, I did considerable more work than my strength permitted, and, having mental trouble at the same time, my health broke down completely and I found myself unable to rest or eat. My nervous system became shattered and I was pale and emaciated and had to take to my bed. My sister advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and, although I had no faith in patent medicines, I was so miserable that I would take anything for relief. I found that it made a complete change for the better, inducing appetite and restful sleep and imparting new life and vigor to my entire system. I gained nearly fourteen pounds, my complexion looked fresh and clear, and my best friends were surprised and pleased at the change and could hardly credit the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had accomplished it.

SMUGGLERS ARE CAUSE OF DISCORD
They Are Making All Kinds of Trouble in Republic of Santo Domingo.

FEDERAL OFFICIALS' CLAIM
Strict Enforcement of Customs Law On the Part of Uncle Sam Serious Curtails the Receipts of the Outlaw Bands.

Washington, Oct. 18.—Smugglers are the chief promoters of political dissension in Santo Domingo, according to reports received at the state department concerning the unsettled condition in the little republic and the failure of revolutionary leaders to enter into an agreement to surrender and keep peace. Monte Christi is the headquarters for smugglers and is the center from which all recent revolutionary movements have developed. It is located near the Haitian boundary across which it has formerly been the custom of merchants to smuggle large quantities of goods.

Since the United States has undertaken to collect the customs at Dominican ports a strict enforcement of customs duties has resulted and smugglers have been much annoyed by collectors. Several months ago two customs employees were killed by smugglers and the friction between the officers and smugglers has since been very intense.

By stirring up political dissension and promoting revolution, it is said the smugglers hope to overthrow the government of President Caceres, which is co-operating with the American officials in collecting all duties on goods entering the republic.

ICE WAGON STRUCK BY A CITY TRACTION CAR
James Clark, colored driver of an ice wagon belonging to Shera and Starr, was thrown from the wagon yesterday at Fourteenth and Main streets as a result of a street car colliding with the wagon. The man received two broken fingers and a severely sprained back and cuts on his body. His companion, William Francis, although not severely injured received several cuts and bruises. The horses and wagon were not damaged. The wagon was crossing the street when an east bound car struck its rear hurling it into the curb.

J. H. Wilson, of the Ellwood Morris book and stationary store, enters the arena of the quill and ink of authors in having his manuscript "The Pessimistic Dr. Zaza" accepted by D. Although Mr. Wilson has gained no mean reputation as a "short story" writer this is his first effort as a writer of more pretentious matter and the compliment paid by the publishers in accepting it thereby the more pronounced.

"The Masquerader" begins in the Palladium tomorrow morning. Of course you will read the first installment. If you do there is no question that you will read all of the installments. Once begun the reader will continue.
