

They Stand Alone.

Stand out in bold relief, all alone, as a picture of the human condition, are the faces of the patients of Dr. Pierce's Kidney and Bladder Pills. These faces are the result of the action of the pills on the system, and are the most convincing evidence of the power of the pills to cure the most stubborn cases of kidney and bladder disease. Each bottle of the above medicine bears upon its wrapper "A Guide to the Full List of Ingredients Composing It—Printed in Plain English." This frank and open publicity places these medicines in a class all by themselves, and is the best guarantee of their merits. They cannot be classed as patent medicines, for they are not. They are the most strongly recommended by scores of the most eminent medical writers as cures for the diseases for which these medicines are recommended. Therefore, the afflicted do not have to rely alone upon Dr. Pierce's recommendation as to the curative value of his medicines, but can turn to the most reliable of all authorities—being of known composition.

Dr. Pierce feels that he can afford to take the affliction of his patients into his hands, and lay all the ingredients of his medicines freely before them because these ingredients are such as are endorsed and most strongly recommended by scores of the most eminent medical writers as cures for the diseases for which these medicines are recommended. Therefore, the afflicted do not have to rely alone upon Dr. Pierce's recommendation as to the curative value of his medicines, but can turn to the most reliable of all authorities—being of known composition.

A glance at the printed formula on each bottle will show that no alcohol and no harmful or habit-forming drugs enter into Dr. Pierce's medicines, they being wholly compounded of glyceric extract of the roots of native American plants. These are the best and safest for the cure of most lingering, chronic diseases. Dr. R. V. Pierce can be consulted free, by addressing him at Buffalo, N. Y., and all communications are regarded as sacredly confidential.

It is as easy to be well as ill—and much more comfortable. Constipation is the cause of many forms of illness. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. They are tiny, sugar-coated granules. One little "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, two a mild cathartic. All dealers in medicines sell them.

that Mrs. Eddy would walk downstairs in his presence and that she would come right into the room to greet him.

Just about then Footman-Secretary Frye began to become very much in evidence. Gazing into the room and noting that your correspondent had taken up a position that commanded a view of the stairs, he spoke a whispered word to a nurse standing by and she with a quick movement of her arm, swung the curtain across the door, and held it so that it effectively shut off all views of what was transpiring in the hall.

No Question About Identity.

There was a wait of possibly five minutes, and then the curtain swung back with a snap and the emaciated form of Mrs. Eddy was visible in the doorway.

There could be no question of her identity. It was the mother of the Cult and she looked every day of her 86 years. Her form was slightly bent, her figure was shaking from bodily weakness, and were it not for the support of Frye, who stood with his hand under one of her arms, and her tight deathlike clutch on the curtain across the door, it seemed as though she must have fallen to the ground.

She was visibly troubled as she stood the scrutiny of her visitor and, dropping a slight courtesy, she inclined her head toward the selected spokeswoman. Mrs. Eddy did not try to enter the room. She could not. Her palsied limbs were not strong enough to do more than support her and she clung to the curtain, a pathetic, but touching sight waiting for—she knew not what.

"Mrs. Eddy," began her questioner. "What-what-what" was the very faint response.

"Do you now enjoy perfect health?" continued the strong voice of the young woman.

There was a pause. It lasted but a second, and then from the old lady came the reply in a trembling tone: "Yes, I—"

The sentence was not finished, and the second question as to her physical being God alone was asked. This struck the keynote of the sainted old lady, and for a brief second of time there was a fire in her eye, as she replied:

God is Her Physician.

"My God alone is my physician. I rest in his everlasting arms."

Science fell in the group and before any other question could be asked, Mrs. Eddy, propelled by the strong arm of the attendant Frye and the nurse, had started toward the hall door, enroute to the waiting carriage.

The next question fell unanswered in an empty doorway and before those present could recover from their surprise, Mrs. Eddy had been tucked away inside of the closed carriage. Frye had jumped to his place on the box, and she had started on her daily drive.

Few Children Now Kept From Entering School From Lack of Clothes.

MR. BISHOP'S OBSERVATION

TRUANT OFFICER SAYS PEOPLE GENERALLY ARE COMING TO UNDERSTAND THE COMPULSORY EDUCATION LAW

Instances have been unusually rare this school year, when children of school age have been kept from entering school because of lack of sufficient clothing. Probably few persons in Richmond realize that there are ever instances of this kind, but according to George Bishop, county truant officer, there have been many such cases during his term of office. "The prosperous times just now," said Mr. Bishop yesterday, "has enabled almost all families with children to send them to school and there have been fewer cases of lack of clothing keeping children out than for several years past. However, there have been a few and in each case I have provided the necessary articles of wearing apparel, and the township or city school board, as the case may be, has footed the bill."

Mr. Bishop said yesterday that as a general proposition the compulsory education law was thoroughly understood by Wayne county people and there is little or no trouble with families that endeavor to keep their children out of school in order that they may be made wage earners. There are a number of instances in which children refuse to obey their parents and are persistent in their truancy, but these youths become incorrigible to the degree that even the truant officer cannot keep them in school, the juvenile court is the next step and this may lead to a sentence in the reform school.

"GOOD CHEER" MEETING.

Gathering at Masonic Temple Yesterday Morning Was Large and Very Enthusiastic.

The "Good Cheer" meeting which was held yesterday morning at the Masonic Temple at 10:00 o'clock, was probably the largest and most enthusiastic meeting that has yet been conducted by Dr. Elliott and Mr. Rykert. The temple was crowded to its capacity and great enthusiasm and interest was manifested. The various pastors of the city were present on the platform and took an active part in the services.

The meeting will be continued each morning until the close of the revival. One feature of the meeting is the fact that they begin promptly at ten o'clock and end promptly at eleven. Rev. Elliott making it a point, in the course of the revival meetings to be regular in order that those attending may know just when they will begin and be over.

Expressions on the City Revival

A number of those prominently engaged in the present revival now on in the churches of Richmond gave expressions on the work to the Palladium last night. They follow:

Dr. S. R. Lyons—Great good has already been accomplished. A very earnest spirit is being shown all over the city, which is remarkable for the second night. Great good will be the final outcome.

Sec'y. Brown of the Y. M. C. A.—The men of the city are talking more of the revival than they are of the coming shows and election.

Rev. C. A. Case—I think the work in the city is very promising. Dr. Elliott's sermons are searching and dignified, and through them great good will be accomplished. It will be of substantial good to the city. A great and earnest united spirit is being shown on the part of the churches.

OPINION OF MR. O'NEAL

Thinks County Should Pay Half the Cost of Coal Used in Heating Women's Jail at Home For Friendless Women.

Watson P. O'Neal and Clifton Merrill, members of the Board of Works, visited the Home for Friendless Women yesterday on the occasion of Donation Day and made a thorough inspection of the institution, which though not a public one in the sense that it is under the direction and support of either city or county, is given full endorsement by both and the city probably will give financial assistance. Mr. O'Neal stated yesterday that it was the opinion of many that the new heating plant, a hot water system, which will also heat the women's jail, now under construction, should be maintained in part by the county—that is one half the cost of the coal for the institution should be borne by the county.

JOHN COTTMAN IS NOT CONVICTED OF LARCENY

In the city police court yesterday morning John Cottman, colored was before Judge Converse on a charge of petit larceny. The case was dismissed on motion of Prosecutor Jessup who said that the facts in the possession of the State did not warrant prosecution. There were numerous witnesses in the court room ready to testify as to Cottman's good character, but as the case did not come to trial their assistance was not needed. Attorney Henry U. Johnson, who appeared for Cottman, said that his client had been grossly misrepresented by the police and by some of the newspapers. Cottman who is employed as a janitor in the Kelley block was alleged to have stolen money from one of the offices in the building.

GROSE NEGLIGENCE IS SHOWN BY EVIDENCE

[Publishers' Press] Atlantic City, N. J., Oct. 30.—It was reported tonight that the Coroner Gaskill has in his possession information showing gross negligence on the part of the railroad officials in connection with the equipment of the ill-fated electric express, which plunged into the thoroughfare Sunday afternoon, and while he has been unable to get at the exact cause of the disaster after an investigation of the trucks, he is said to have sufficient evidence to make public the enforcement of more rigid enforcement in the inspection of trains on the West Jersey and Seashore railroad in the future.

NEWS ENDORSES MOVE

THINKS PALLADIUM RIGHT.

Indianapolis Editor Says Weekly Newspaper Like O'x Team and Stage Coach Must Go—Modern Improvements Have Made it so.

The Indianapolis News in an editorial endorsed the Palladium's recent move in abolishing its Weekly. The News last night said:

"The proprietors of the Richmond Palladium, which was established in 1831, have decided to discontinue the weekly edition, for the reason that it has lost its usefulness. The Palladium well says that the weekly edition of any paper published as a daily is only a repetition of what has appeared for a week past, and while sentiment might plead for continuance of a weekly which first saw the light seventy-five years ago, yet business principles must control. In the old pioneer days the weekly Palladium was a power in Wayne county, but with rural free delivery and hourly railway communication, patrons will not wait a week to be advised of what is going on around them; and the weekly, like the ox team and the stage coach, has to go."

AN ELEVENTH HOUR CALL

DEMOCRAT MANAGERS ARE TRYING TO SHOW THAT ROOSEVELT AND HEARST HOLD THE SAME VIEWS ON PUBLIC MATTERS.

[Publishers' Press] Washington, Oct. 30.—It was made perfectly clear and emphatic here tonight that President Roosevelt will write no eleventh-hour letter to serve as a message to the voters of New York state.

This may be expected as the president's final decision in the matter. He will leave with Mrs. Roosevelt and the children early tomorrow morning for the country home at Pine Knob, Va. He expects to secure such privacy that political rumors or frantic appeals of party leaders cannot reach him for five days.

There is to be an official utterance from the president, however. It will come from Secretary of State Elihu Root, and will be made in a speech to be delivered at Utica Thursday. The secretary has conferred with the president and a number of times during the past few days and they have gone over very carefully the speech that is to be delivered. The president approves every word of it. The copy is now in the hands of the printer.

It is announced that no attention will be paid to the efforts that the Hearst managers are making to prove by placard and parallel columns that the speeches of the president and those of the Democratic candidate for governor are identical in sentiment.

KIBBEYS ARE ENTERTAINED BY THEIR LOYAL BACKER

Young Men's Organization at Banquet Last Night Organize for Coming Year and Elect Basket Ball Manager and Captain.

The Kibbey Athletic Club, was royally entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Kibbey, at their home on South Eleventh street last night. During the course of the evening officers were elected to look after the interests of the club during the coming year, they being Frank C. Kibbey, president, and Carl Eggemeier, vice president.

Mr. Kibbey was also selected to appoint a committee among the members of the club to work in conjunction with the Y. M. C. A. committee and do everything in their power to help further the campaign in this city. In the meantime the committee which will be appointed will make an effort to secure club rooms for the Kibbey organization. They will also make an effort to secure a room for their basketball team, it being the thought, that secret practice indulged in by the team will tend to further the effectiveness of its work.

Victor Newman was selected manager of the 96-07 basketball team and Walter Shively was elected Captain. In addition to the regular city league games in which the Kibbeys will participate, they have games scheduled with the Oakwood Athletic Club of Dayton, Connersville High School, Greenville High School and several other teams of equal note.

TRACED ALL THEORIES

THE BRIDGE, THE MECHANISM ON IT AND THE CAR TRUCKS ALL EXAMINED BUT THEY FAIL TO REVEAL THE CAUSE.

[Publishers' Press] New York, Oct. 30.—The Pennsylvania railroad tonight issued the following statement regarding the wreck at Atlantic City Sunday: "After thorough investigation the Pennsylvania railroad officials have found no explanation of the accident on the Thoroughfare bridge Sunday. All possible theories advanced were traced to the bottom, but the cause of the derailment of the electric train is no better known than it was at first."

"It was hoped that the trucks of the cars when raised out of the water would afford some clue, but they don't. They were carefully examined by officials of the company including General Manager Atterbury, chief electrical engineer George Gibbs, General Superintendent of motive power, A. W. Gibbs and others. The trucks were intact and there was nothing about either the wheels or the other parts to throw any light on the matter."

"Thorough examination of the bridge and the mechanism used in moving the draw showed that there were in perfect shape. All evidence shows that the rails were exactly in place. Aside from the fact that the interlocking signal could not have shown a clear track otherwise, the bridge tender is positive that the rails on the draw and those on the stationary part of the bridge fitted precisely."

"When the train approached he was standing within 3 or 4 feet of the point where the rails joined, and he looked at the track to see that it was all right. The officials examined the bridge structure and found it strong and safe in every respect."

While here they enjoyed an hour with their friend, Prof. Clinton Rogth.

JURY "SHY" THREE MEN

PLACES EASILY FILLED

All That is Necessary to Have Complete Body of Twelve is for Sheriff to Make a Visit Along the Streets.

The October term petit jury has been three members "shy" since the opening of court, but because of the fact that their places can be filled by starting the sheriff out on the streets, to "jerk in" some innocent bystanders there has been no inconvenience felt. Yesterday morning when the Wayne Circuit Court opened, nine men entered the jury box. The same trio was missing, but owing to the absence of any jury duties, the body was again discharged with the order to report on Thursday. At the clerk's office it was stated that probably the three missing jurors had been excused by the court because of inability of some sort to present themselves.
