Vaudeville at the Phillips.
It must in all candor be said that Short and Shorty, who are at the New Phillips this week, are far from being the least feature on the bill. They put on a novelty musical turn and also carry a line of dialogue and capers that are mirth provoking. "Shorty" does not belie his name for he is about the "shortest" article, as far as stature goes that has ever appeared on the New Phillips stage and insisted on being called a man. He declares that it does him no good to save his money for should he accumulate millions he would still be "short." The vaudeville bill this week is proving highly satisfactory because every number is deserving of favorable comment. The Davenport, with their musical comedy sketch; Edmonds and Halz, singing and talking comedians; Creso, the climax of the work of the illusionists; the motion pictures and the illustrated songs, all combine to please and entertain. Last night, in addition to the usual vaudeville, ten rounds of the Gans-Nelson fight, in motion pictures, were presented and election returns were received. Today there will be a souvenir matinee, on Saturday a special matinee for children and on Saturday night double performance. Thursday night vaudeville will be suspended to make way for burlesque.

Burlesque at the Phillips.
An unexpected explosion of fun in the New York Subway will be exploited in the New Phillips Thursday night. "The High Flyers," a combination of farce, vaudeville and burlesque, will hold the boards for one night only, and the show from all reports which Mr. Murray has received from brother managers, is said to be a merry-go-round of fun. The curtain raiser, "A Female Seminary," is one of the cleverest travesties ever produced and interpreted by pretty girls and real funny comedians. Six special vaudeville acts recognized in the leading American and European music halls are also introduced. The burlesque, the scene of which is an exact reproduction of the Twenty-Third street Subway station in New York, is replete with side-splitting comedy situations, magnificent costumes and all the latest popular song hits.

"A Jolly American Tramp"—Gennett.
There is to be a play of strong heart interest at the Gennett next Wednesday, matinee and night, in which the nerve and pushing go-ahead activeness of the typical American will be shown in its true quality. The piece which claims to do this is Man-ness, "The Vinegar Buyer," which theatre goers of this city are familiar with.

Scene in Ezra Kendall's greatest success, "Swell Elegant Jones," at the Gennett next Friday night.

This will undoubtedly be the laughing hit of the season and a large audience is sure to be on hand to welcome Mr. Kendall, and his company in "Swell Elegant Jones."

"Capt. Careless"—Gennett.

John E. Henshaw, the well known comic opera star has according to all reports scored the greatest hit of his career, and he has many of them to his credit in B. C. Whitney's production of "Captain Careless." He appears as Bigamy Little, an Americans who will welcome this opportunity to see the funny fellow again. There are many other favorites in the strong cast supplemented by a large chorus of unusual beauty and grace. Foy enacts the role of a dog fancier who is induced to impersonate an earl, unaware that the real earl is being sought by a "circus strong woman," who accuses him of jilting her daughter. The production throughout will be one of the most elaborate and prodigious yet presented at the Gennett.

Missed Run; Ends Life.

Roseville, O., Nov. 6.—Word has been received here of the suicide of Harry L. Brown of this city, at Canton City, Colo. Brown, it is stated, missed his run as mail clerk on the Florence and Cripple Creek line, and feared the loss of his position. His father is in the postoffice department at Washington and young Brown was a veteran of the Philippine campaign, having been a member of company D, Twenty-ninth infantry.

Flywheel Burst.

Wheeling, W. Va., Nov. 6.—A 30-foot flywheel, weighing 80 tons, of the Whitaker iron works, burst, scattering heavy metal in every direction. A great section of the roof of the mill was blown off, heavy pieces flying 500 feet against neighboring plants and on the hillside, while the floor of the engine room was driven into the ground. Fortunately, the workmen had sufficient warning to make their escape.

Campbell's Son to Wed.

Hamilton, O., Nov. 6.—Announcement was made of the engagement of Andrew Campbell, oldest son of former Governor James E. Campbell, to Miss Lillian Hudson of Cleveland. The wedding will occur early in the spring. Mr. Campbell is head salesman for the Bloch Tobacco company of Wheeling, W. Va., and will take his bride to that city to reside.

French Interested.

Paris, Nov. 6.—Never before except in a presidential contest has an election in the United States attracted as much attention as the electoral struggle ending Tuesday. The French papers were filled with accounts of the canvass of the United States and the issues, and the result of the balloting in New York state was awaited with great interest.

Call For Bank Statement.

Columbus, O., Nov. 6.—State Auditor Guilbert, acting under the new state bank law, issued a call for a bank statement as of the close of business on Monday, Nov. 5. The auditor has no power to make examinations of the banks, but a false statement is a penitentiary offense. It is the fourth call under the new law.

Under Automobile For Hours.

Paris, Nov. 6.—Special dispatches from Monte De Marsan say that Justus C. Strawbridge of Philadelphia, who was injured in an automobile accident near Biarritz, was pinned under the machine for two hours owing to the delay in obtaining assistance, causing him to suffer horribly before released.

Dramatization of "The Jungle."

Trenton, N. J., Nov. 6.—The first production of "The Jungle," the dramatization of Upton Sinclair's book, was produced here and made a good impression. In the third act was shown an exterior of Chicago's packing town, with its mass of factories and yards and cars, from which live cattle were unloaded. Following this scene came a scene in the interior of a packing house displaying the entire mechanism in perfect operation.

Building Fell.

Marysville, O., Nov. 6.—Alva Engle and two small daughters were crushed by the falling of a building Engle was moving. The jacks under the building gave way, catching Engle and the two daughters, who were laying under it. Engle was fatally injured. The lives of the girls were saved by the heroic efforts of a large crowd of neighbors, who unrolled them out after several hours' work.

ELECTION DAY WAS UNUSUALLY BALMY

The Stay at Home Voters Can Lay Their Apathy to But Lack of Interest.

VOTING LIGHT UP TO NOON.

LATE IN THE EVENING THERE WAS MUCH HUSTLING OF VOTERS TO THE POLLS, REPUBLICANS DOING BEST WORK.

The oldest voter, not even the men who cast their ballots for William Henry Harrison in 1840, can recollect of an election day that was quite so balmy. With the temperature hovering in the sixties from morning until early evening, the voters could not lay claim to being hand-capped by weather conditions and the stay-at-homes had to admit that their apathy was due to lack of interest.

When the polls opened at 6 o'clock there were genuine rushes in some of the city precincts, in which many factory men voted. For almost an hour the voting was brisk, then it loped off as suddenly as it began and from that time until noon the poll-book holders were not overworked.

At noon and until 1 o'clock there was another brisk period and then the afternoon lagged away until between 4:30 and 6 o'clock. In nearly every precinct in Wayne county Republicans and Democrats had vehicles in readiness to round up the voters at the last minute, but the Republicans had a better organization of this kind than the Democrats. Between 4:30 and 6 o'clock complete lists of Republicans who had not put in an appearance were given to the party hustlers and efforts were made to bring these men to the polling places. In some instances the men could not be found and in a few cases they refused to go and vote when they were found. One of the unusual things in connection with the election was the almost total absence of loitering about the voting places. The election sheriffs in few instances had anything to do in the way of keeping order, while the election inspectors had a few challenges to make. Frequently, in many of the city precincts, voters presented themselves who belonged in other precincts. There seemed to be a great deal of confusion as to precinct boundaries and there were hundreds of voters who had to make inquiries as to the precinct in which they resided and as to the location of the proper polling place. Several challenges of voters were made because they had moved out of their precincts and were not qualified.

GUM KING

Doctor Beeman Passes Away at His Home in Cleveland, O.

Cleveland, O., Nov. 6.—Doctor E. E. Beeman, the pepsin gum king, is dead of hemorrhage of the brain. Twenty years ago he was a struggling physician in this city. A young woman one day suggested that pepsin be mixed with gum. The doctor took up the idea at once and his fortune resulted. He liberally rewarded the young woman who gave him the inspiration.

Agitation Among Arabs.

Paris, Nov. 6.—The French government is concerned about the encounter which occurred Oct. 25 near Dakar, Senegal, French West Africa, between a detachment of French sharpshooters and a band of Arabs, during which many of the sharpshooters and 150 Arabs were killed. The clash shows the extent of the agitation among the Arabs. A special dispatch from Dakar says that the arms were supplied to the Arabs by a German adventurer residing at Mogador, Morocco.

Dies On Date She Predicted.

Marion, O., Nov. 6.—Madame Zula, 47, in private life known as Mrs. Mollie Walte, a palmist and clairvoyant of almost national reputation, died here at the exact time set by her several weeks ago as the time of her demise. Her mother, Mrs. Hiram Dickey of Coshocton, is still living and the body will be taken there. At the time she made the prophecy regarding her coming dissolution she closed up her business and retired to quiet lodgings in a remote part of the city.

Cabinet Officers Voted.

Washington, Nov. 6.—Following the example of President Roosevelt, nearly all the members of his cabinet voted in their respective states. Secretary Root voted in New York city, Secretary Bonaparte in Baltimore county, Maryland; Assistant Secretary Oliver in Albany, N. Y., and Assistant Secretary Newberry at Detroit, Mich. Secretary Taft and Assistant Secretary Bacon, who were in Cuba on a peace mission during the days allotted to registration, did not vote. Secretary Taft is in Nebraska inspecting military posts and Mr. Bacon is in this city.

Moroccans Apologize.

Uaris, Nov. 6.—The foreign office stated that Mohammed El Torres, the representative of the sultan of Morocco at Tangier, has apologized for the action of some natives in stoning the crew of a small boat belonging to the French cruiser Galilee in the harbor of Tangier, and that Mohammed El Torres had taken measures to prevent a recurrence of such incidents. Four of the assailants of the French sailors have been arrested. The incident is now regarded as closed.

Coast Swept by Gale.

St. Johns, N. F., Nov. 6.—A furious hurricane has raged along the coast of Newfoundland for the past two days and immense amount of damage has been done to shipping and fishing interests and the railroad and steamboat services have been suspended. The mail boats Virginian of the Allen line and the Louisbourg of the Diamond line, have been detained in port 36 hours. It is feared that many vessels along the coast have met with disaster.

"SPOONING" DENOUNCED

BY REV. FRED THORNBURG.

Former Richmond Minister Warns Young Girls to be Very Careful of Their Relation With Young Men of Such a Tendency.

In a sermon at Knightstown to young men, the Rev. Fred T. Thornburg, formerly of Richmond, pastor of the Methodist church, denounced the practice of "spooning," and warned the young women to have a care of their relations with young men who show such a tendency. The subject of his sermon was, "The Young Man and His Sweetheart." The sermon was one of a series treating on the young men in his relations to the world, society, his home and his Lord.

LAYING NEW GAS PIPE.

New Castle Now Has Hopes of Having a Better Fuel Supply in the Near Future.

New Castle, Ind., Nov. 6.—A force of forty men from Muncie and other nearby points arrived here today and immediately went to near Millville to work on the big pipe line of the Richmond Gas company. The company is laying a pipe line to connect the new field near Lewisville with the old pipe near Millville. The interest by local people, as it means more gas for the city from the Cadiz field.

CLERKS BUSY AT THE COURT HOUSE

County Clerk Haas and His Force of Deputies Begin Count of the Votes.

A BIG CROWD WAS THERE.

CIRCUIT COURT WELL FILLED WITH PEOPLE INTERESTED IN OUTCOME OVER THE COUNTY AND OUTSIDE THE STATE.

As the fire bells were tolling 6 o'clock, and the polls were closed, County Clerk, Ed. Haas and his force of special deputies and also the members of the county board of election commissioners, wended their way to the court room on the third floor of the court house and began their vigil and their count of votes which likely will last twelve hours or longer. Clerk Haas is the chairman of the Board of Election Commissioners. The other two members are C. W. Genn, Republican and John Thomas, Democrat. The duties of the election commissioners are to see that the count is accurately made by the force of clerks and also to pass upon any question as to the legality of a contested ballot. The force of clerks is composed of Charles Newlin, Harry Smith and Roscoe Frebren, Republicans; Gus Sudhoff, Ben Hill and Andy Litchtenfels, Democrats.

County Chairman Gardner, Secretary Converse and their members of the Wayne County Republican committee, in addition to a large throng of people, gathered in the court room to listen to the returns from the county and also to receive the results from all parts of Indiana and the country in general.

The results in the precincts in Wayne County, were telephoned to Chairman Gardner and later the inspectors proceeded in person to the court room and surrendered the tally sheets for the official canvass.

ager U. D. Newell's great comedy drama, "A Jolly American Tramp," which not only depicts the trials, tribulations and hardships of an honest workman, who through adverse stress of circumstances, was compelled to be a hobo, but it also shows the magnanimity of this same tramp, who, after being rehabilitated in society not only forgives but forgets all the injustice that has been done him and aids others equally distressed to bear their burdens and become reconciled to fate.

Ezra Kendall—Gennett.

That very funny man Ezra Kendall, in a funny play with a funny title, will amuse theatre goers of Richmond Friday, November 9 at the Gennett for one night in the great success he has ever had "Swell Elegant Jones," by Herbert Hall Winslow, who wrote Ezra Kendall's last success: "The Vinegar Buyer," which theatre goers of this city are familiar with. This will undoubtedly be the laughing hit of the season and a large audience is sure to be on hand to welcome Mr. Kendall, and his company in "Swell Elegant Jones."
