RICHMOND PALLADIUM

THOUSANDS OF YEARS DEVELOPING

ART Pottery has been in vogue thousands of years and is considered now as it was years ago a mark of refinement in the house, and the possessor of a piece of this beautiful pottery is indeed fortunate. It can be safely said that there is no ornament of the present day that lends such a charm to the decoration of a home as will one of these exquisite Art Vase Pottery Lamps. Never before in the history of newspapers has it been possible to obtain such a costly premium, and although it may seem incredible that such a valuable premium can be obtained, yet an examination of the beautiful works of art will convince any judge of art pottery that these art lamps are more beautiful than description can tell.

EVERY VASE A PIECE DE LUXE

THESE beautiful Art Vases, which are of many styles both in design and coloring, are works of art worthy to decorate the drawing room of the most costly furnished home. This ware will not suffer by comparison with the products of Europe's most famous potteries, for it possesses all of the artistic refinement and individuality that it is possible for master artists to embody in their work. The elegant art vases are not copies of the different wares, but are distinctive original creations of America's greatest potteries and shows the wonderful ingenuity and progressiveness of the American artisans and serves to display their artistic temperament in the unique color blendings and quaint symmetries of these pieces of art.

By special arrangement these Art Vase Lamps may be seen at the store of Zoller & Craighead, 910 Main street, where certificates issued by our solicitors will be honored. Do not forget to call at once and see this magnificent exhibition of Art Vase Pottery.
