

A CHILLED BOMB SAVED HIS LIFE

General Rennenkampff's Parade Interrupted, but Assassins Failed.

THE EXPLOSIVE NO GOOD

SIBERIAN TERRORIST CAUGHT AFTER HIS MURDEROUS ATTEMPT AND IN FOUR HOURS HE WAS PLACED ON TRIAL.

[Publishers' Press.]
St. Petersburg, Nov. 13.—A dispatch from Irkutsk, Siberia, says an unsuccessful attempt was made to kill the governor, the famous General Rennenkampff, by a bomb. The general was not hurt. The bomb thrower was captured. He refuses to give his name.

It was owing to the chilling of the explosive that the bomb thrown at

General Rennenkampff failed to injure him. Rennenkampff's two aides-de-camp escaped with only slight injuries. The general has been on the death list of the terrorists some time on account of his severity in repressing mutinies and armed revolts in Transbaikalia.

The would-be assassin lay in wait for the general on the street where he is accustomed to promenade, and as the general approached the terrorist arose from a bench, threw the bomb and started to run, but was immediately captured, the general aiding in seizing him. A revolver was found on the prisoner. Within four hours after throwing the bomb, he was placed on trial by a drunhead court-martial. The prisoner, who has not been identified, admits that he is a member of the revolutionary organization.

Due to a Cold.
Bakersfield, Cal., Nov. 13.—General W. R. Shafter, United States army, retired, who died at his home near here, will be buried in the Post cemetery at San Francisco. He was born in Michigan in 1835, entered the service as a volunteer in 1861, re-entered after the war, rose to the rank of major general, and was in command of the United States military forces at the taking of Santiago, Cuba, in 1898. His death was due to a cold contracted during the war.

The case of J. A. Spokenheir, receiver of the Commercial Bank at Hagerstown, against the estate of John Bowman, will be called in the Wayne circuit court on Saturday.

Nervous Worn-Out

If you are in this condition, your nerve force is weak—the power is giving out, the organs of your body have "slowed up," and do their work imperfectly. This failure to do the work required, clogs the system and brings distress and disease. When the nerves are weak the heart is unable to force the life-giving blood through your veins; the stomach fails to digest food; the kidneys lack power to filter impurities from the blood, and the poisonous waste remains in the system to breed disease. Nerve energy must be restored. Dr. Miles' Nerve Tonic will do it, because it strengthens the nerves; it is a nerve medicine and tonic, that rebuilds the entire nervous system.

"Several years ago I was all broken down. I was nervous, worn-out, could not sleep, and was in constant pain. I doctored for months, and finally the doctor said he could do nothing for me. I began taking Dr. Miles' Nerve Tonic, and used altogether eight bottles, and I became strong and healthy, and now weigh 170 pounds."

H. C. CUNNINGHAM.

108 Edgeworth Ave., Allegheny, Pa.

Dr. Miles' Nerve Tonic is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails, he will refund your money.

AT THE THEATERS

"Uncle Tom's Cabin"—Gennett.

If all the good things said of Al W. Martin's "Uncle Tom's Cabin" company by the press of other cities this year are true, and we have no doubt they are, the Gennett on next Thursday, matinee and night will have an attraction that will draw universal patronage. In point of size and equipment the Martin company is said to be one of the stageland's biggest offerings this season.

"The Flower Girl"—Gennett.

A pliant and charming love romance of the Paris of Louis Philippe (1840) is told in most melodious and picturesque fashion in that now celebrated musical comedy, "The Flower Girl," which has so pleased playgoers of Paris, London and New York, and which is to be seen here for the first time at the Gennett next Friday night. The plot concerns the mischievous masquerade of a court maid of honor as a flower girl in order to win the heart of a pleasure-loving young nobleman to whom she has been formally betrothed without their knowing each other. She discovers Florestan in the midst of a flirtation at Mme. Cognard's flower shop, and goes with the flower girls upon the farewell bachelor picnic to which her unwitting fiancé invites the whole shop. The happy development for this musical masque of Cupid occurs in the splendid reception room of the Tuileries. The Shuberts have imported in its entirety the elaborate production which ran for nearly two years at the Apollo Theatre, London.

"My Dixie Girl"—Gennett.

A play that has been likened to a composite of a number of the latest and most popular New York successes entitled "My Dixie Girl" will be the attraction at the Gennett on next Saturday, matinee and night. It's theme is new and interwoven with bright dialogue, clever stage pictures and clean, pure, wholesome comedy. It tells the life story of the inmates of an old Kentucky home and is consistent and interesting. The company is an excellent one and includes a number of popular players.

Vaudeville at the Phillips.

Auer & Deonzo, comedy acrobats at the New Phillips this week in vaudeville, are among the most clever in their line and they get a warm welcome from the audiences. They have much to offer that is new, having largely broken away from the stereotyped in the line of acrobatic comedy. Kresko & Graves, a sketch team, are very successful entertainers. A feature of their work is the dancing by Graves, who appears in an Irish role. Mr. and Mrs. John Powers, who present "The Players," are the same clever entertainers who are not unknown to New Phillips patrons, as they made a happy hit here on a previous appearance. Mr. Powers presents the various parts in a little comedy sketch entitled, "She Did but She Didn't," taking all the parts himself, while his wife furnishes suitable piano accompaniment, and both sing, each excusing himself or herself and going up-stairs, figuratively speaking, while the other is engaged at it. John W. Foster, German comedian, has some songs and a monologue that are clever and new. The illustrated songs this week, as sung by Miss Ruby Cohen, are "By the Dear Old Delaware" and "The Little Rustic Cottage by the Stream," and the motion pictures are "The Six Dragons," "Race for a Kiss" and "The Magic Kiss." All told, the bill is very acceptable and is drawing audiences of large size. Today there will be a souvenir matinee.

POLO RECORD MADE BY "LITTLE CUNNIE"

Former Richmond Player with Lewis Makes Three Goals In 11 Seconds.

INTEREST IN NEW LEAGUE

EIGHT CLUBS NOW PLAYING AND ALL HAVE PLAYERS WHO FORMERLY WERE IN THE WESTERN ORGANIZATION.

The New Castle, Pa., polo team with which George Cunningham Jr., formerly of this city is playing made a record in a game with Niles last week which perhaps has not been duplicated in polo. Three goals were made in eleven seconds. Lewis is pairing with Cunningham on the rush line and the combination is a winning one. In the fast sport of goal making Cunningham scored a goal in two seconds. The crowd, according to an account of the game in the New Castle Herald went wild with delight at this feat and tore things up just as they used to do in this city.

There seems to be a great deal of enthusiasm over the new league at New Castle, the attendance being 1,320. On the Niles team which played New Castle when Cunningham and Lewis made their record were Quigley and Thompson, the Richmond lads. Their team now stands last in the list.

Harry Wallace, formerly of Richmond is tending goal for the Sharon Pa., team and Barney Doherty is playing half back. This team heads the league. The other members are Daily, Spencer and Cogshall. "Paddy" Moran is playing half back on the Akron O., team which is next to the bottom.

Harper, the old Indianapolis goal tend is to be added to the New Castle team, thus strengthening the defense considerably. There are eight teams in the league.

Came Together.
New York, Nov. 13.—On board the steamer Kaiser Wilhelm II. were Baron Mayer Des Planches, the Italian ambassador at Washington; Gregoire D. Wollant, Russian minister to Mexico; Henry White, the United States ambassador to Italy; Dr. W. H. Solf, German governor of Samoa; Geraldine Farrar, Enrico Caruso and Anton Van Rooy, the opera singer, and Fred Tatal, the jockey.

Death List Increasing.
Chicago, Nov. 13.—More victims of the Baltimore and Ohio train wreck at Woodville, Ind., are dying in Chicago hospitals. The list of 46 dead will be swelled by a number of others. Of the 128 victims taken to the hospital, only 50 were able to leave. Many of the 78 remaining are in such condition from injury, exposure and shock that their lives are despaired of.

Collision Averted.
Ravenna, O., Nov. 13.—Ditching the engine of an Erie passenger train eastbound at Ravenna station prevented a collision with an incoming westbound passenger train. The engine turned over and Engineer Neill of Meadville jumped but received severe injuries. This is the identical place where 19 passengers were cremated in a rear end collision in 1889.

Died in a Cab.
Wellston, O., Nov. 13.—W. H. Flynn, purchasing agent for the Alma Coal company, died in a cab en route to a hospital. Flynn had a sore throat and went to a physician for treatment. Two doses of anti-toxin were administered. Flynn started to walk to his hotel, but he fell at the bottom of the stairs and was helped into a cab in which he died.
