

THE RICHMOND PALLADIUM

Entered at Richmond Postoffice as Second Class Matter

TUESDAY MORNING, JANUARY 1, 1907

RICHMOND, IND. NUMBER 301.

NEW PARIS.

New Paris, O., Dec. 31. (Spl.)—Miss Opal Cox, of Eaton, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. John Sawyer. She will remain here until after New Year.

Mr. and Mrs. George Arnold have returned home after a week's visit to Cincinnati.

Miss Ruby McWhinney spent several days with Misses Mary and Martha White.

Misses Edna and Blanche Mitchell have returned from Eaton where they have been visiting relatives the latter part of last week.

Miss Mary Swerer, of Dayton, returned home Sunday after spending a few days here with her aunt, Mrs. Hawley, and other relatives. Miss Swerer was formerly one of the teachers here. She is now attending school at Worcester University.

Misses Grace and Marie Wrenn visited Misses Selma and Margaret Horner the latter part of last week.

Reinheimer Bros. made a business trip to Richmond Saturday.

Mrs. Emma Straight and two children, of New Madison, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Will Wrenn.

Mr. and Mrs. Benj. McKee spent Sunday in Gettysburg with their daughter, Mrs. Alva Marshall.

Suspects Captured.

Astor, Kan., Dec. 31.—The posse that for several days hunted the two alleged murderers of Marshall Frisbie of Lamar, Colo., located the second man under the floor of the school house here. One of the men surrendered here Sunday after barricading himself in the school house and exchanging shots with his pursuers.

General Scofield Dead.

Seattle, Wash., Dec. 31.—General Hiram Scofield, 77, of Washington, la., died at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Charles Patterson of Seattle, due to old age. General Scofield served with the Union army throughout the civil war and was commended for distinguished service.

Two Years For Bribery.

Eureka Springs, Ark., Dec. 31.—Former State Senator F. O. Butt of this city was given a farewell reception by the citizens of Eureka Springs, just prior to his departure for Little Rock to surrender himself to the authorities and begin his prison sentence for bribery.

Wanted For Bigamy.

Chillicothe, O., Dec. 31.—A telegram from Sheriff Latta Morrison at Tacoma, Wash., says he started home with Benjamin Holden, alias Rufus Holden, who is wanted in Ohio for having too many wives. One of them, who lived at Kingston, this county, he married only a few days before his arrest. He was ordered to Alaska, he being a soldier in the regular army. She sued him for divorce and Holden wrote to the clerk of the court in answer to the advertisement of the divorce case. He gave his street number, and the only thing the sheriff had to do was to go to that number and arrest him. His term of enlistment in the army expired last November.

Webber Will Wed.

Medina, O., Dec. 31.—Congressman Amos R. Webber of Elyria and Miss Nettie Finch of Hinckley will be married at the home of the bride in Hinckley. They will reside in Elyria. Webber attracted considerable attention to himself in the campaign of 1905 by coming out against the re-election of Governor Herrick.

"Didn't Know," Etc.

Coshocton, O., Dec. 31.—Ernest Phillibaum, 18, who was shot Saturday night by his brother Roy, 20, while the latter was carelessly handling a revolver, which he did not know was loaded, died of his wounds.

John Graves, 50, Omega, O., sat on railway track and was killed by train. Thomas Bowen, 71, formerly United States from Colorado, died at Ueblo, Colo.

Baroness Burdett-Couts, 92, wealthy and philanthropic English woman, died in London.

Mrs. Henry Anderson, wife of a farmer near Cambridge, Ill., shot and killed in bed. Negro suspect arrested. At Coshocton, O., Levi Bordenkircher, was shot by his wife during a quarrel. He died and she is in jail.

John G. Price confessed in prison that he murdered Mrs. Maurice Lewis while attempting to rob her home in Philadelphia Sept. 10.

Judge George B. Young, 62, former member of the Minnesota supreme court and prominently identified in the Northern Securities merger cases, as attorney for the merger, died at his home in St. Paul.

In a New York hotel Sidney Kaufman, 30, shot and killed Evi I. Totten, 23, wife of John Totten, 83, of Tottenville, L. I., and himself. He wanted her to marry him at once. She asked him to wait till she could secure a divorce.

1907 JANUARY 1907

Su.	Mo.	Tu.	We.	Th.	Fr.	Sa.
		1	2	3	4	5
6	7	8	9	10	11	12
13	14	15	16	17	18	19
20	21	22	23	24	25	26
27	28	29	30	31

WILLIAMSBURG.

Williamsburg, Ind., Dec. 31. (Spl.)—H. S. Davis has returned from a week's visit with relatives at Indianapolis.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bousman visited relatives at Greensburg, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Clements entertained last Sunday Mrs. India Ballinger, Richmond, Henry Gaddis and Mason Gaddis of Winchester.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Oler of Marshall county, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Oler.

Mrs. Echo and Leota Woolley entertained Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. Chase Mauser, of Rushville.

Mr. and Mrs. James Cranor will become residents of Williamsburg, they having purchased the residence of Addison St. Meyer.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ginko attended the funeral of Linus Fox at Greensburg, Monday afternoon.

Arthur Ballinger and Harvey Davis were at Richmond on business Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Franklin entertained last Sunday Prof. and Mrs. Louis Campbell, of Richmond, Mrs. Lydia Campbell, Elbert Campbell, Miss Thelma and Roy Campbell, of Richmond.

Guy Jones, of Chicago, is visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Jones.

Oliver Leibolt is visiting relatives at Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Linus Meredith and daughter, Miss Janice, bid their final farewell to Williamsburg, Monday morning.

Lester Meadows has accepted a position where he has gone to Richmond.

Clifton Williams is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Parker, of Marion.

Mrs. Eliza Moreland, of Marion, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Vern Reynolds.

Williamsburg, Ind., Dec. 31. (Spl.)—The election of officers in the Eastern Star Chapter resulted as follows:

Lizzie Cranor, W. M.; Alice Ballinger, A. M.; John Meredith, W. P.; Ethel Stude, Conductress; Ollie Duke, A. C.; Victor St. Meyer, Sec.; George Duke, Treas.; Maud St. Meyer, Ad. Lizzie Mikesell, Ruth; Ethel Holmworth, Esther; Lizzie Roberts, Martha; Lizzie Meredith, Electa.

The K. of P. Lodge elected officers for the ensuing year as follows:

Arthur White, C. C.; Raymond Cain, V. C.; Will Palmer, P.; Simon Weddle, M. A.; Carl Lundy, M. W.; Frank Wikesell, K. of R.; Frank Reynolds, K. E.; W. M. Cain, M. F.; Jas. Pugh, Trustee.

The Masons elected officers as follows:

John Meredith, W. M.; Simon Weddle, S. W.; Chas. Duke, J. W.; H. S. Davis, Treas.; Will Lewis, Sec.; F. S. Reynolds, Tyler.

John Meredith, Trustee.

SMOKER AT WILLIAMSBURG.

A Delightful Social Event Was Given the Past Week by F. E. Pearce.

Williamsburg, Ind., Dec. 31. (Spl.)—One of the elaborate social functions of the holiday season was the smoker given by F. E. Pearce in his studio on Thursday evening. The rooms were decorated in green and red. The guests were entertained with a literary program and music, after which a luncheon was served. Among those present were: Messrs. Arthur White, Oscar Hutchens, Will Brown, Simon Weddle, Ruford Woolley, Crighton Ball, Carl St. Meyer, Arva Study, Elvin Kelley, Clyde Martin, Chas. Duke, Clarence Farmer and Lester Meadows.

LABOR AND LEGISLATION.

Indiana General Assembly Will be Asked to Do Things for the Workmen.

Reports from Indianapolis indicate that organized labor in Indiana is preparing to ask the coming Legislature to put through a number of bills of interest not only to union men, but to workingmen in general. At the last meeting of the State Federation of Labor a large number of resolutions were adopted for legislation in the interest of the working class, and several bills have been drafted in accordance with these resolutions.

Have you indigestion, constipation, headache, backache, kidney trouble, Hoolister's Rocky Mountain Tea will make you well. If it fails, get your money back. That's fair. Tea or Tablets form. 25 cents.

A. G. Luken.

GET A BRITISH PASTOR

COMING TO THE U. S.

Rev. Charles Aked, of Liverpool, Will Preach to the Millionaires at a New York Baptist Church.

[Publishers' Press.]

Liverpool, Dec. 31.—At a meeting of Pembroke chapel a written communication from Rev. Charles Aked, the pastor, was read, to the effect that after long and anxious consideration he had decided to accept the call to the Fifth Avenue Baptist church of New York. The Fifth Avenue church of New York has been described in this country as a church of millionaires, Dr. Aked said, and the people here had begun to ask how any man with his record of democratic sympathies and struggles could accept such a pastorate without a betrayal of his convictions. These fears, he declared, were grounded on a total misapprehension of the nature of the church and of the character of its individual membership, and when they should come to know the facts as to the situation there they would not regret in their minds that he had elected to make his home with these people. Dr. Aked received several cablegrams from prominent members of the Fifth Avenue church in New York, urging his acceptance of the call. John D. Rockefeller, it is said, cabled Dr. Aked assuring him a "free hand" in his work.

[Publishers' Press.]

Canard Exploded. San Francisco, Dec. 31.—Shigeki Oka, the Jap who is attempting to propagate doctrines in this country that would cause his punishment if uttered in his native land, was not molested by secret service agents. Notwithstanding protests of members of the Japanese colony arrangements are being made by the publisher of "The Revolution" to issue another copy of the paper. The charge some Japs make that Oka is a heartless Japanese student residing in Berkeley is scoffed at by the secretary of the Japanese consulate, who declares that he can vouch for every one of the Japanese students at the University of all forms. None of them, he says, is in any way connected with the Japanese Socialist party.

[Publishers' Press.]

Want to Lay a Cable. Washington, Dec. 31.—Secretary Taft received an application from James A. Scrymgeour, president of the South and Central American Cable company for permission to land a cable on the island of Porto Rico, to connect with New York, and also to land a similar cable at Colon, and to connect with the cable at Panama running down the west coast of South America. Secretary Taft is considering whether to grant this application or urge congress again to pass the pending bill providing for laying a military cable to Porto Rico and Guantanamo, eventually to connect with the isthmus of Panama.

[Publishers' Press.]

Judge Criticizes Mayor. Chicago, Dec. 31.—Judge Cleland took strong issue with Mayor Dunne for his action in pardoning Joseph Wolf and son-in-law, who were fined by Judge Cleland for keeping a gambling house. The men were pardoned by the mayor at the instance of Alderman James Bowler before the sentence imposed could be carried into effect. Judge Cleland said that he was seriously considering the citing Mayor Dunne for contempt of court, and declared that the executive of the city could not be permitted to override judicial action at his option.

[Publishers' Press.]

Chinese Resolutions. Canton, China, Dec. 31.—More than 1,000 people were present at a meeting held to discuss the Chinese exclusion act of the United States. Resolutions were adopted to revive a boycott against goods made in the United States, that newspapers shall not advertise manufacturers in the United States, to dissuade labor from going to Panama, to petition the viceroy asking the imperial government to negotiate with the United States for a modification of the exclusion act, and that these resolutions be placarded throughout the country.

[Publishers' Press.]

Cassett's Funeral. Philadelphia, Dec. 31.—With services as simple as the rites of the Protestant Episcopal church would permit the remains of Alexander J. Cassatt, president of the Pennsylvania Railroad company, who died suddenly last Friday, were buried in the graveyard of the suburban Church of the Redeemer, at Bryn Mawr.

[Publishers' Press.]

Pastor Accepts a Call. Hamilton, O., Dec. 31.—Rev. Dr. William A. Waldo, four years pastor of the First Baptist church, announced his acceptance of a call to the Wilson Avenue church, Cleveland. He came to Hamilton from Chicago. His congregation recently increased his salary, hoping to retain him.

[Publishers' Press.]

BY THE GRACE OF GOD. John D. Rockefeller is Enabled to Bear No Ill Will to Anybody.

[Publishers' Press.]

New York, Dec. 31.—Discussing the subject of centralization in business, John D. Rockefeller said: "It is natural that the man who drove the stage coach should be antagonistic to the railroad and that the man who used to keep the small inn should look with disfavour upon the big, magnificent hotels. But it was progress; it had to come and for a while it was a hardship for these men to adapt themselves to the new conditions. They had my sympathy, I assure you, but we all must continually meet new conditions and adapt ourselves to them. It can't be otherwise. Of course, I am sorry that I am so misunderstood, but I have the best feelings for everybody. I bear ill will to no one, and it is a great thing to think that this is so by the grace of God."

[Publishers' Press.]

CASTORIA. The Kind You Have Always Bought.

[Publishers' Press.]

Everett White, Pianist, Has Been Engaged by the Van Dyke and Eaton Company.

[Publishers' Press.]

Everett White, a local pianist, has been engaged by the Van Dyke and Eaton company as pianist. Mr. White has never taken any lessons but is able to play the most difficult pieces after a single hearing.

[Publishers' Press.]

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS. Sealed bids will be received on Tuesday, January 22, 1907, at the office of the President of Earlham College, Richmond, Indiana, for the construction, furnishing and equipment (including plumbing, wiring, window shades, etc.) of the Earlham College Library Building.

[Publishers' Press.]

Plans and specifications may be obtained of President Robt. L. Kelly, Earlham College.

[Publishers' Press.]

Chicago Police MAY FEEL SHAKE

[Publishers' Press.]

Report Due Soon May Result in Wholesale Changes Among Officers.

[Publishers' Press.]

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 31.—Judge Walter Evans in the federal court declared the employers' liability act unconstitutional. The decision was given in the case of the administratrix of N. C. Brooks versus the Southern Pacific railroad and is believed to be the first decision handed down in connection with this act.

[Publishers' Press.]

The alleged cause of action occurred in Kansas. Husband of plaintiff was killed in a railroad accident and suit was brought under this act for $25,000 damages and an amount sufficient to cover the cost of expenses incident to death.

[Publishers' Press.]

The court holds in brief that the act in effect would regulate commerce within the state as well as interstate commerce, and is therefore unconstitutional, and the demurrer of the Southern Pacific railway to the action for damages was sustained.

[Publishers' Press.]

Robbery of a Train. Two Men Go Through Sleeping Car and Pilfer From Passengers.

[Publishers' Press.]

Richmond, Va., Dec. 31.—Near La-Cross, Va., on the Seaboard airline, passengers in the sleeper of a train out of Richmond were held up and robbed of about $300, besides jewelry. The robbers, two in number, got on at Richmond as passengers. One remained in a day coach, while the other went through the sleeper. The Pullman conductor, while attempting to arrest the man robbing his passengers, was shot through the arm by the robber. The man then pulled the emergency brake cord, stopped the train, and with his confederate escaped to the woods.

[Publishers' Press.]

It is claimed the robbers are known to the local authorities. They were shadowed here for four days, but gave the police the slip. It is expected they will soon be captured. The robbers were heavily armed and had the passengers at their mercy.

[Publishers' Press.]

LIABILITY LAW IS BAD

HELD UNCONSTITUTIONAL.

Federal Court in Kentucky Hands Down an Opinion in Case Against the Southern Pacific.

[Publishers' Press.]

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 31.—Judge Walter Evans in the federal court declared the employers' liability act unconstitutional. The decision was given in the case of the administratrix of N. C. Brooks versus the Southern Pacific railroad and is believed to be the first decision handed down in connection with this act.

The alleged cause of action occurred in Kansas. Husband of plaintiff was killed in a railroad accident and suit was brought under this act for $25,000 damages and an amount sufficient to cover the cost of expenses incident to death.

The court holds in brief that the act in effect would regulate commerce within the state as well as interstate commerce, and is therefore unconstitutional, and the demurrer of the Southern Pacific railway to the action for damages was sustained.

On the last day of the fiscal year, Oct. 31, there were 1,062 persons in the different jails and the Marion County Workhouse.

Amos W. Butler, secretary of the Board of State Charities, in a study of the jail population of Indiana for the year ending October 31, 1906, found that 2,439 women were confined in jail, including the Marion County Workhouse, during the year. The total number of persons reported as being in jail was 33,316. Of this number there were 604 insane men and 144 insane women. Of the 2,921 tramps who applied at jails for lodging all but fifty-one were taken in.

On the last day of the fiscal year, Oct. 31, there were 1,062 persons in the different jails and the Marion County Workhouse.

Amos W. Butler, secretary of the Board of State Charities, in a study of the jail population of Indiana for the year ending October 31, 1906, found that 2,439 women were confined in jail, including the Marion County Workhouse, during the year. The total number of persons reported as being in jail was 33,316. Of this number there were 604 insane men and 144 insane women. Of the 2,921 tramps who applied at jails for lodging all but fifty-one were taken in.

On the last day of the fiscal year, Oct. 31, there were 1,062 persons in the different jails and the Marion County Workhouse.

Amos W. Butler, secretary of the Board of State Charities, in a study of the jail population of Indiana for the year ending October 31, 1906, found that 2,439 women were confined in jail, including the Marion County Workhouse, during the year. The total number of persons reported as being in jail was 33,316. Of this number there were 604 insane men and 144 insane women. Of the 2,921 tramps who applied at jails for lodging all but fifty-one were taken in.

On the last day of the fiscal year, Oct. 31, there were 1,062 persons in the different jails and the Marion County Workhouse.

Amos W. Butler, secretary of the Board of State Charities, in a study of the jail population of Indiana for the year ending October 31, 1906, found that 2,439 women were confined in jail, including the Marion County Workhouse, during the year. The total number of persons reported as being in jail was 33,316. Of this number there were 604 insane men and 144 insane women. Of the 2,921 tramps who applied at jails for lodging all but fifty-one were taken in.

On the last day of the fiscal year, Oct. 31, there were 1,062 persons in the different jails and the Marion County Workhouse.

Amos W. Butler, secretary of the Board of State Charities, in a study of the jail population of Indiana for the year ending October 31, 1906, found that 2,439 women were confined in jail, including the Marion County Workhouse, during the year. The total number of persons reported as being in jail was 33,316. Of this number there were 604 insane men and 144 insane women. Of the 2,921 tramps who applied at jails for lodging all but fifty-one were taken in.

On the last day of the fiscal year, Oct. 31, there were 1,062 persons in the different jails and the Marion County Workhouse.

Amos W. Butler, secretary of the Board of State Charities, in a study of the jail population of Indiana for the year ending October 31, 1906, found that 2,439 women were confined in jail, including the Marion County Workhouse, during the year. The total number of persons reported as being in jail was 33,316. Of this number there were 604 insane men and 144 insane women. Of the 2,921 tramps who applied at jails for lodging all but fifty-one were taken in.

On the last day of the fiscal year, Oct. 31, there were 1,062 persons in the different jails and the Marion County Workhouse.

Amos W. Butler, secretary of the Board of State Charities, in a study of the jail population of Indiana for the year ending October 31, 1906, found that 2,439 women were confined in jail, including the Marion County Workhouse, during the year. The total number of persons reported as being in jail was 33,316. Of this number there were 604 insane men and 144 insane women. Of the 2,921 tramps who applied at jails for lodging all but fifty-one were taken in.

On the last day of the fiscal year, Oct. 31, there were 1,062 persons in the different jails and the Marion County Workhouse.

Amos W. Butler, secretary of the Board of State Charities, in a study of the jail population of Indiana for the year ending October 31, 1906, found that 2,439 women were confined in jail, including the Marion County Workhouse, during the year. The total number of persons reported as being in jail was 33,316. Of this number there were 604 insane men and 144 insane women. Of the 2,921 tramps who applied at jails for lodging all but fifty-one were taken in.

On the last day of the fiscal year, Oct. 31, there were 1,062 persons in the different jails and the Marion County Workhouse.

Amos W. Butler, secretary of the Board of State Charities, in a study of the jail population of Indiana for the year ending October 31, 1906, found that 2,439 women were confined in jail, including the Marion County Workhouse, during the year. The total number of persons reported as being in jail was 33,316. Of this number there were 604 insane men and 144 insane women. Of the 2,921 tramps who applied at jails for lodging all but fifty-one were taken in.

On the last day of the fiscal year, Oct. 31, there were 1,062 persons in the different jails and the Marion County Workhouse.

Amos W. Butler, secretary of the Board of State Charities, in a study of the jail population of Indiana for the year ending October 31, 1906, found that 2,439 women were confined in jail, including the Marion County Workhouse, during the year. The total number of persons reported as being in jail was 33,316. Of this number there were 604 insane men and 144 insane women. Of the 2,921 tramps who applied at jails for lodging all but fifty-one were taken in.

On the last day of the fiscal year, Oct. 31, there were 1,062 persons in the different jails and the Marion County Workhouse.

Amos W. Butler, secretary of the Board of State Charities, in a study of the jail population of Indiana for the year ending October 31, 1906, found that 2,439 women were confined in jail, including the Marion County Workhouse, during the year. The total number of persons reported as being in jail was 33,316. Of this number there were 604 insane men and 144 insane women. Of the 2,921 tramps who applied at jails for lodging all but fifty-one were taken in.

On the last day of the fiscal year, Oct. 31, there were 1,062 persons in the different jails and the Marion County Workhouse.

Amos W. Butler, secretary of the Board of State Charities, in a study of the jail population of Indiana for the year ending October 31, 1906, found that 2,439 women were confined in jail, including the Marion County Workhouse, during the year. The total number of persons reported as being in jail was 33,316. Of this number there were 604 insane men and 144 insane women. Of the 2,921 tramps who applied at jails for lodging all but fifty-one were taken in.

On the last day of the fiscal year, Oct. 31, there were 1,062 persons in the different jails and the Marion County Workhouse.

Amos W. Butler, secretary of the Board of State Charities, in a study of the jail population of Indiana for the year ending October 31, 1906, found that 2,439 women were confined in jail, including the Marion County Workhouse, during the year. The total number of persons reported as being in jail was 33,316. Of this number there were 604 insane men and 144 insane women. Of the 2,921 tramps who applied at jails for lodging all but fifty-one were taken in.

On the last day of the fiscal year, Oct. 31, there were 1,062 persons in the different jails and the Marion County Workhouse.

Amos W. Butler, secretary of the Board of State Charities, in a study of the jail population of Indiana for the year ending October 31, 1906, found that 2,439 women were confined in jail, including the Marion County Workhouse, during the year. The total number of persons reported as being in jail was 33,316. Of this number there were 604 insane men and 144 insane women. Of the 2,921 tramps who applied at jails for lodging all but fifty-one were taken in.

On the last day of the fiscal year, Oct. 31, there were 1,062 persons in the different jails and the Marion County Workhouse.

Amos W. Butler, secretary of the Board of State Charities, in a study of the jail population of Indiana for the year ending October 31, 1906, found that 2,439 women were confined in jail, including the Marion County Workhouse, during the year. The total number of persons reported as being in jail was 33,316. Of this number there were 604 insane men and 144 insane women. Of the 2,921 tramps who applied at jails for lodging all but fifty-one were taken in.

On the last day of the fiscal year, Oct. 31, there were 1,062 persons in the different jails and the Marion County Workhouse.

LIABILITY LAW IS BAD

HELD UNCONSTITUTIONAL.

Federal Court in Kentucky Hands Down an Opinion in Case Against the Southern Pacific.

[Publishers' Press.]

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 31.—Judge Walter Evans in the federal court declared the employers' liability act unconstitutional. The decision was given in the case of the administratrix of N. C. Brooks versus the Southern Pacific railroad and is believed to be the first decision handed down in connection with this act.

The alleged cause of action occurred in Kansas. Husband of plaintiff was killed in a railroad accident and suit was brought under this