THE RAIL ROAD STORE.

Richmond, Ind.

Social and Personal Mention

Miss Nellie Wigmore of South 7th street entertained a company of friends in a charming manner yesterday afternoon. The holiday colors, red and green predominated in the decorations. The table looked beautiful, decorated in holly and flowers. Dancing and games were the features of the afternoon. Those present were Misses Ruth Hunt, Ruby Reid, Myra Roll, Ruby Leeds, Ethel Ulte, Mae Kuhn, of Hamilton, O., and Katheryn Hunt.

A very enjoyable birthday and watch party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schwerin, 725 and South 12th street. The Hoosier Quartet furnished the music. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. John Helmich, Mr. John Wiehmer, Mr. Ben Hatchler, Mr. Albert Schwerin, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schwerin. A very enjoyable supper was served.

A charming reception of yesterday afternoon was the one given by Miss Mary Peitz and Miss Selma Knollenberg at the home of Miss Peitz on North 9th street. The hours were from 2 to 6. The rooms were attractive in their appointments of yuletide greens. In the dining room the buffet mantel was banked with holly and mistletoe and the centerpiece for the table was of holly surrounded with lighted candles, hooded with red shades.

Miss Peitz and Miss Knollenberg were assisted by Miss Luella Emig of Bellevue, Ky., Miss Anna Pugh of Muncie, Miss Bertha Minnick of Arcanum, O., and Mrs. Ben Bartel.

Rev. and Mrs. R. J. Wade gave an "At Home" yesterday afternoon at their home on South 14th street. The affair was in honor of the members of the First M. E. church. The rooms were profusely decorated with smilax, Richmond roses and pink carnations. Rev. and Mrs. Wade were assisted by Dr. and Mrs. T. M. Gould, Miss Agnes Johnson, the deaconess and the members of the official board. In the evening Rev. and Mrs. Wade entertained the Young Ladies Society of the church. A delightful musical program was given also a talk by Miss Johnson. Refreshments were served.

The Cycle Literary Club will meet this afternoon with Mrs. S. M. Buckley at her home 200 South 11th street. The program will consist of several musical numbers. Each member has the privilege of inviting a guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Webb entertained at dinner yesterday at their home on the New Paris pike. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nolder, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Darland, Mr. and Mrs. Theo Webb, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Webb, Misses Ruth Nolder, Rheta Nolder, Abbie Webb, Martha Webb, Olive Shute and Earle Webb and Horace Webb.

Mr. D. P. Whelan entertained with a stag dinner yesterday at noon at his home on North 12th street. The centerpiece for the center of the table was a cluster of red and white roses. The guests were Messrs H. J. Haines, John B. Heger, J. H. Hopkins, Jack Heerner, Ernest Hill, Harry Meek and Omer Whelan.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Price entertained the members of the family at dinner yesterday at their home on South 18th street. Covers were laid for twelve guests.

St. Paul's Lutheran choir gave a little surprise dinner yesterday at noon in honor of Dr. Harold's birthday anniversary. The table decorations were in green, red and white. In the center of the table was a birthday cake bearing a number of tiny lighted candles. The guests were Dr. and Mrs. C. F. Harold of Indianapolis, Dr. and Mrs. L. C. Hoover, Mrs. Helen Hoover Jones of Terre Haute, Mr. Charles Jenkins, Miss Margaret Wickett, Miss Edna Hoover and Miss Lura Harold of Indianapolis and Master Russell Jenkins.

The following clipping from the Indianapolis Star will be of interest to a number of Richmond people:

ing their daughter, Miss Grace Reible and the bridegroom, Mr. Harry Marshall of Terre Haute. The appointments for the wedding were of the holiday colors, green and red and the wedding flowers, the poinsettia, predominated in all the rooms. The living room was used for the ceremony and the altar was banked with standard palms and ferns studded with the scarlet flowers. In front of the altar were two white gates, which were festooned with smilax. Miss Katheryn Bauer, violinist, accompanied by the harp played "A Dream" and just before the hour for the ceremony the music was changed to the "Lohengrin Wedding March." During the reading of the service by the Rev. M. L. Haines, "O Promise Me" was given. The wedding procession included Miss Bess Bosler, of Connerville and Miss Lucy Hardy of this city who carried the white satin ribbons and smilax to form the aisle. They were followed by the matrons of honor, Mrs. James Morrell Davis of this city and Mrs. Frederick Reible of Pittsburgh and after them the minister. The best man, Mr. Horace Reiner and the bridegroom and lastly the bride with her father, who gave her away.

The bride wore a lovely gown of cream silk. The skirt was set with panels of rose point lace and the corsage was trimmed with a bertha. The veil was edged with voile lace and was fastened with a cluster of lilies of the valley and the bridal bouquet was an armful of valley lilies. Miss Reible wore her wedding gown of white vada silk, combined with rose point lace and Miss Hardy wore a white comura silk with baby Irish trimmings. All the attendants carried large muffs made of smilax with clusters of poinsettias.

Christmas bells were suspended from the archways. Tea was served during the afternoon and a special music program was given. Those who assisted in receiving were the members of the entertainment committee and the wives of the officers of the club, who are Mrs. Guy S. McCabe, Mrs. S. E. Swayne, Mrs. John Nicholson, Mrs. H. A. Dill and Mrs. J. Y. Pound.

ARRIVES IN CITY ON UNUSUAL TRIP

day of Nov. 14, 1905, he left Nome amid cheers of his friends. The trip to Valdez was uneventful other than being made in very good time, in 35 out of 37 traveling days. The trip to Seattle was also uneventful. At this point there was a plentiful snow fall on the ground and Mr. Smith used a
