CATARRH Hawking and Spitting, Dropping into the Throat, Foul Breath,

Cured
THROUGH THE BLOOD

by Botanic Blood Balm, (B.B.B.) Is your breath foul? Is your voice husky? Is your nose stopped? Do you have frequent pains in the forehead? Do you sneeze a great deal?
 Do you have pains across the eyes?
 Are you losing your sense of smell or taste? Is there a dropping in the throat? Do you have a ringing in the ears? Is there a constant bad taste in the mouth? Do you have a hacking cough? If so, you have catarrh.
 Catarrh is not only dangerous in this way, but it causes ulcerations, death and decay of bones, kills ambition, often causes loss of appetite and reaches to general debility, idiosyncrasy and insanity.
 It needs attention at once. Cure it by taking Botanic Blood Balm (B. B. B.).
 It is a quick, radical, permanent cure because it rids the system of the poison germs that cause catarrh. Blood Balm (B. B. B.) purifies the blood, does away with every symptom, giving strength to the entire mucus membrane and B. B. B. sends a rich, tingling flow of warm, rich, pure blood direct to the paralyzed nerves, giving warmth and strength just where it is needed, and in this way making a perfect, lasting cure of catarrh in all its forms.
 Botanic Blood Balm, (B. B. B.) is pleasant and safe to take. Composed of Pure Botanic Ingredients. Sample

A MYSTERY OF THE SEA.

The Puzzling Beeswax of the Beaches of Oregon.

Of all the secrets held by the flotsam and jetsam of many years none is stranger than that of the beeswax of the Oregon beaches. Long before the white man came to the great northwest by ship or prairie schooner vessels from the coast had skirted the coast. Bits of wreckage have told the story of Chinese junks gone to pieces on the shore, but the most curious evidence of this eastern traffic has been found on the Oregon coast south of the Columbia river. Mr. Clarke gives an account of this treasure trove in his "Pioneer Days."

When Lewis and Clark made their famous expedition they learned that the native Indians of Oregon had for many years found lumps of beeswax on the sandy shores.

Beeswax is practically indestructible in water, but these pieces had pounded in the surf until they were black and battered almost beyond recognition.

In 1814 one Henry, engaged in the fur trade, wrote an account of finding masses of this wax. The pieces were scattered over a wide stretch of coast and were now covered, now uncovered, by the blowing sand. Some of the lumps were softened into all shapes and sizes by the heat of the sun and bleached nearly white. Others were square and stamped with strange characters.

In 1865 a Mr. Howell, walking on the beach, saw something exposed in the sand. It proved to be the corner of some large squares of beeswax weighing several tons. Many smaller blocks were also found, all bearing the stamped letters "I H S." Besides the squares of wax, quantities of large candles were discovered. In looking up the matter it was learned that as far back as records run these tapers had been found with the wax on the shore.

Of course the explanation may be that some oriental ship bearing church supplies for a mission farther south went to pieces on the Oregon coast many, many years ago, but what would a ship bound for Mexico or South America be doing so far north, and what use could any mission have for such an enormous quantity of wax?

LITERARY IMPOSTORS.

Many Clever Writers Who Have Deceived the World.

Clever literary impostors who have deceived the world are numerous.
 Gamelli Carrieri, a Neapolitan gentleman and scholar, while confined to his room for a long period of years by illness amused himself by writing an account of an imaginary voyage round the world. When the volume was published, it was taken as a fact even by learned people.

The detailed account of a trip to China which is credited to Du Halde is another literary hoax. The author had never seen China and had been sufficiently clever to compile the work solely from the memoirs of Chinese missionaries.

It is remarkable, though no less a fact, that "Gulliver's Travels" was thought to be a true narrative when it first appeared, and the famous story of Damburger's travels was likewise a hoax.

Varillas, the French historian, enjoyed a wide reputation as a chronicler of events, but later it was discovered that his works were purely fakes. The volumes of this writer resemble those of Gregorio Redi, who, in order to keep himself from starving, appended the most unheard of incidents to English history as it was known.

One of the most daring impostures on record is that of Joseph Vella of Sicily. He said that he discovered seventeen of the lost books of Livy in Arabic. He then set to work and wrote a translation from his fancy, which was printed. After his death the fraud was discovered. Before his death, however, he fell under suspicion and was condemned to imprisonment.

There are countless cases of authors selling their names to be put on works they have never read. Sir John Hill once contracted to translate a Dutch book. After the agreement he remembered that he did not know a word of Dutch. He then bargained with another translator to do the work for half the price he was to receive.

Uranus.

It was on the evening of March 13, 1781, that William Herschel, at Slough, England, discovered a new planet.
 Wishing to pay a compliment to George III, his patron, he gave it the name of Georgium sidus, or the Georgian star.
 Other English astronomers, wishing to compliment the discoverer himself, suggested the name of Herschel. Continental astronomers proposed that the old mythological system be followed, and the name of Uranus was accepted by the scientific world as the designation of the seventh planet.

No Need to Talk.
 "Does the baby talk yet?" asked a friend of the family.
 "No," replied the baby's disgusted little brother; "the baby doesn't need to talk."
 "Doesn't need to talk?"
 "No. All the baby has to do is to yell, and it gets everything there is in the house that's worth having."—Tit-Bits.

Not Living.
 "Hello, Jinks. I hear you are living in a boarding house."
 "You heard wrong. I'm boarding in a boarding house."—Washington Herald.

It is a maxim with me that no man was ever written out of a reputation but by himself.—Bentley.

MATTER OF INCOR- PORATION IS DELAYED

Y. M. C. A. Is Not Yet Ready For That.

SEC. STACY IS COMING.

The executive committee of the Y.
 M. C. A., which met Tuesday night at the local headquarters, reported that there still remained something over $4,500 to be raised before the fund of $100,000 is completed. The work is progressing slowly, but each member of the committee is firm in the belief that the remaining amount can be raised within the course of the next few days. It will take hard pulling and a concerted effort to do this, however.

Plans for the incorporation of the local association were discussed thoroughly, although no directors were appointed. Choice of directors and incorporation of the Y. M. C. A. will not take place until E. E. Stacy, state secretary, comes to this city and confers with the men behind the association.
 He is at present in Battle Creek, Mich., for the benefit of his health and it will be several days before he can come to Richmond. The committee is expecting him here the latter part of next week.

KEEP THE KIDNEYS WELL.

Health is Worth Saving, and Some Richmond People Know How To Save It.

Many Richmond people take their lives in their hands by neglecting the kidneys when they know these organs need help. Sick kidneys are responsible for a vast amount of suffering and ill health, but there is no need to suffer nor to remain in danger, when all diseases and aches and pains due to weak kidneys can be quickly and permanently cured by the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. Here is the statement of a Richmond citizen who has reclaimed good health by the use of this remedy.

John Morris, carpenter of 438 Main street, Richmond, Ind., says: "I was a great sufferer from lumbago for several years, and the pains had given me many restless and nervous nights.
 I doctored with several different physicians and used remedies without success. Finally, being advised to try Doan's Kidney Pills, I went to A.
 G. Luken & Co's store for a box. I was better in three days after beginning the treatment, and took in all three boxes. The lumbago has never bothered me since and I have often told people of this experience."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, SEWING SOCIETY WILL CUT POTATO CROP.

New Castle, Ind., May 8—Henry Current, of Blue River township, will plant thirty-four acres in potatoes and has contracted with the Ladies' Sewing Society of Mooreland, to cut the potatoes for seed. Last year he raised 2,000 bushels and they sold for over a thousand dollars. T. D. Austin, a Henry township farmer, also had success with potatoes last year, and will plant forty acres this season.

Good Words for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

People everywhere take a pleasure in testifying to the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mrs.
 Edward Phillips of Barclay, Md., writes: "I wish to tell you that I can recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.
 My little girl, Catherine, who is two years old, has been taking this remedy whenever she has had a cold since she was two months old. About a month ago I contracted a dreadful cold myself, but I took Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and was soon as well as ever." This remedy is for sale by A. G. Luken & Co.

Bonaparte Will Not Resign.

Washington, May 8—Attorney General Bonaparte denies with vigor that he is going to resign from the cabinet. He said:
 "I belong to the class of officeholders that may die, but that never resign."

Nyal's Hot Springs Blood Remedy

As a blood cleanser, Nyal's Hot Springs Blood Remedy is unsurpassed.
 Bright eyes, rosy cheeks, vigorous health spring from its use. It gives buoyancy to one's feelings, elasticity to the step—puts spring into the muscles.

Nyal's Hot Springs Blood Remedy conquers that run-down condition of the system which is characterized by weakness and exhaustion. It not only restores health, but fortifies against disease. It makes the blood pure and rich and greatly increases the oxygen-carrying power.

Nyal's Hot Springs Blood Remedy is an efficient remedy for impure or impoverished blood, scrofula, boils, pimples, rheumatism, chronic malaria, salt rheum, teeter, eczema, constiveness, biliousness, and all forms of blood and skin diseases.

Many people spend large sums of money going to the Hot Springs and other health resorts who could easily and just as surely cure themselves at home without loss of time and at inconsiderable expense by taking a course of Nyal's Hot Springs Blood Remedy.

Nyal's Hot Springs Blood Remedy contains no mercury or potash and is free from harmful ingredients.

It is pleasant to take and prompt in action.
