ELWOOD LANCASTER HOME WAS ROBBED

Thief Secured $20 and a Gold Watch.

POLICE ARE INVESTIGATING INVITATIONS TO BE ISSUED.

The home of Elwood Lancaster at the corner of North Eleventh and G streets, was robbed Friday night. The robbery was reported to the police Saturday morning, but the information was withheld. The thieves succeeded in securing between $16 and $20 and a gold watch belonging to Mr. Lancaster. There is evidently no clue as to who the robbers is.

Chief Bailey is able to supply but little information concerning the burglary. He stated the theft was committed during the absence of Mr. Lancaster and his family and that the thief was able to secure an entrance to the house because the doors had been left unlocked.

Officers have been detailed to investigate the case.

Good Words for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

People everywhere take a pleasure in testifying to the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mrs. Edward Phillips of Barclay, Md., writes: "I wish to tell you that I can recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. My little girl, Catherine, who is two years old, has been taking this remedy whenever she has had a cold since she was two months old. About a month ago I contracted a dreadful cold myself, but I took Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and was soon as well as ever." This remedy is for sale by A. G. Lukens & Co.

STATE AUTO MEET IS ARRANGED AT KOKOMO

Record-Breaking Number of Cars Expected.

Orchard, Who Is Expected to Give Important Testimony, Closely Guarded— Threats Against Him Reported.

Indianapolis, May 13.—With Governor Hanly at Atlantic City and the fight for the position of state factory inspector still unsettled, the two applicants, D. H. McAbee, the present official, and William Blakely, of Shelbyville, whose candidacy is backed by Congressman James E. Watson and a number of the republican politicians of the Sixth District, are leaving no stone unturned in their efforts to line up support.

Governor Hanly has informed both men and their supporters that he will not make the appointment until several days after he returns from Atlantic City, and in the meantime both sides are on the uneasy seat.

The Manufacturers' association of Indianapolis, which has been vitally interested in all factory inspection laws, it develops, has become involved in the contest and has sent a letter to all of its members, calling attention to the fact that Mr. Blakely is in the race.

The McAbee supporters, among them large numbers of union factory workers of the state, claim that the manufacturers are attempting to get control of the factory inspector's office and the fight seems to have developed largely into one between labor and capital.

Governor Hanly has informed some of McAbee's supporters that he has no particular regard for McAbee's record. The governor has admitted that the situation is an embarrassing one, owing to the fact that the appointment was promised some time ago to Congressman Watson.

While in the city recently, Mr. Watson denied that he had withdrawn his support of Blakely and asserted that he would see him through to the end. McAbee's term expired May 1, but the announcement of the successful appointee has been expected the last three months.

Blakely is receiving considerable endorsement over the state and is making a strong bid for the place. He has been endorsed by the manufacturers of Shelbyville and is rapidly lining up a strong following.

They Make You Believe Because They Prove All They Claim.

Glen Miller park was visited by hundreds of Richmond people on Sunday. The Glen was never prettier. Many persons spent the day along the banks of the Whitewater and Clear creek. Others drove through the country. Livermen report a record breaking business and by two o'clock in the afternoon there was not a rig to be found at any of the local stables. The interurbans did a good business also.

Blakely is receiving considerable endorsement over the state and is making a strong bid for the place. He has been endorsed by the manufacturers of Shelbyville and is rapidly lining up a strong following.

There is no room for doubt when so many people of good standing are anxious to tell their friends of the great good received from the use of Root Juice. Here in Richmond, many have been cured or greatly benefitted from rheumatism, catarrh, indigestion, female weakness or some liver, kidney or stomach trouble, no wonder one friend is often heard advising another to try Root Juice. If you bloat and belch, if food lays heavily on the stomach and pains, if what you eat does not give you strength, if you have swelling of the head, if you are nervous and your entire system is run down, if you are restless at night and feel as tired in the morning as you did when you went to bed, be governed by the experience of others and go to Lutkin's drug store, get a bottle of Root Juice and take it exactly according to directions. We predict that before you have used one bottle you will be advising your sick friends to get some of this wonderful medicine for Root Juice always proves all that is claimed for it.

RETAIL MERCHANTS TO INSURE THEMSELVES

Will Have Company of Their Own by July 1.

HOPE TO SAVE 25 PER CENT.

Ralph B. Clark of Anderson, president of the Retail Merchants' association, says that the association will, by July 1, go into the fire insurance business for its own members and will have a company known as the Indiana Retail Merchants' Fire Insurance company. Mr. Clark said he had met with much success in promoting the company and at this time has applications for about $700,000 of insurance on property by members of the association exclusively.

When the applications amount to $1,000,000, as required by law, the company will be organized on a mutual basis and begin to issue policies. The risks will be only on the property of the merchants' association members, including stocks of merchandise, business buildings, dwellings and household goods of the retail merchants.

Mr. Clark said the new company would be able to issue policies at 25 or 30 per cent, less than the rates already charged by the old line companies.

HAYWOOD CASE IS AGAIN ON TRIAL; WORKING FOR JURY

Noted Murder Contest Has Been Resumed in the Courts At Boise, Idaho, After a Few Days' Interruption.

SPECIAL VENIRE OF TALES MEN ON HAND.

Orchard, Who Is Expected to Give Important Testimony, Closely Guarded— Threats Against Him Reported.

Boise, Idaho, May 13.—The summoning of a special venire of talesmen in the Haywood case was finally completed this morning and the one hundred men who have been called by Sheriff Shad Hodgin, presented themselves in Judge Wood's court when, at 2 o'clock this afternoon, the case was resumed. General expectation is that not more than two of the regular venire already examined will be retained in the jury box, and that the bulk of the jury will come from the quota just called by the sheriff. Farmers and stockmen will comprise the major portion of those finally chosen.

Interest in the trial continues to center in the personality and testimony of Harry Orchard, who is alleged to have killed Governor Stoenenberg and upon whose confession William Haywood and his associates in the directorate of the Western Federation of Miners were indicted.

Orchard Closely Guarded.

Meanwhile Orchard is a closely guarded prisoner in the state penitentiary, a castle-like structure built and walled with stone. Various reports as to attempts to reach or kill Orchard are in circulation, the last being a tale from Lewiston of a plot alleged to have been formed months ago to shoot Orchard from the hills back of the prison.

These stories lack confirmation, but they serve to tighten the vigilance of Warden Whitney and his deputies.

The usual crop of sensational rumors and yellow stories is being sent out, that Orchard is losing his mind and is unable to testify, that the lawyers are quarreling, that the prosecution fears the best witnesses may be reached, etc. However, the truth is, there is no development along any of these lines.

BLIND ALLEY WAS A THIEF'S UNDOING

Clever "Dip," Who Picked Walter Burden's Pocket on A Street Car, Run Down.

GAVE THE NAME OF SMITH.

OTHER MEN GIVING NAMES AS JOHNSON AND FREDERICKS, WERE ALSO ARRESTED AND ALL ARE HELD TO GRAND JURY.

There was excitement galore late Saturday night on Main street. A street car, east bound, filled with people who had been attending the Barnum & Bailey circus, arrived at the corner of Eighth and Main street, and while the crowd was getting off the car there was suddenly great commotion and a man, shoving and wriggling through the crowd, jumped off the car and ran at a rapid rate west on Main street. He was followed by Walter Burden, colored, whose pocket the fugitive had picked. Police and men on the car and on the street joined Burden in the hue and cry.

At Seventh street the fugitive turned north and ran with the speed of a rabbit to the first alley north of the First national bank building. He turned down this alley, which unfortunately for the fugitive, was a blind one, and he was easily captured by his pursuers.

Gave Name of Smith.

At police headquarters the man gave his name as Frank Smith. He is one of the clever "dips" who have been following the Barnum & Bailey circus. He succeeded in extracting a $5 bill, in a pocketbook, and two silver dollars from the pocket of Burden. In his flight down Seventh street Smith threw the purse into the street, and it was afterwards found by Dr. F. S. Anderson.

Two men who gave their names as Tom Johnson and George Fredericks, believed to be members of the same gang as Smith is, are under arrest for stealing an 8-ounce bottle of cologne from the Quigley & Babylon pharmacy. The police state that they have other charges against these two men which they are not yet ready to divulge.

In the city court Smith, Johnson and Fredericks waived preliminary examination and were each bound over to the circuit court under $300 bonds. While awaiting the hearing of the cases against these men the police will make a thorough investigation of their records as they are believed to be clever crooks with criminal records.

RICHMOND TALENT BLAMED FOR CRIME

Detective Buck Fletcher of Winchester Confident Local Men Did Lynn Work.

IS NOW IN THE CITY.

HE IS ALSO OF THE OPINION THAT RICHMOND GANG HAS BEEN DOING A GREAT DEAL OF OTHER WORK NEARBY.

Detective Buck Fletcher of Winchester, is in the city working on the Lynn robbery case. Mr. Fletcher states that he is certain Richmond talent cracked the safe at the Chenoweth store and looted other stores at Lynn and he intimated that arrests might soon be made. Mr. Fletcher also made the surprising statement that the various store breakings and safe crackings at various small towns in this part of the state in recent years has been the work of a Richmond gang of crooks. It has always been the impression that yeggmen from the larger cities have been engaged in this work.

Saturday morning about 11:30 o'clock bloodhounds from Dayton were put on the scent of the robbers at Lynn. From Lee Harlan's grocery store, which was evidently the last place visited by the thieves, the bloodhounds traced the robbers out of the southern part of town down the G. R. & I. tracks for a distance of about a mile. Here it was discovered by Detective Fletcher that the men had hitched the horse and phaeton stolen from Mrs. Hinshaw. The hounds followed the scent of the buggy south along the Chester pike to the College Hill school house. At this point the thieves abandoned the phaeton and walked to Richmond. The hounds followed their scent to the local Panhandle station.

Detective Fletcher does not seem to think that the thieves left Richmond on a Panhandle train and is evidently of the opinion that they are still in the city. A farmer living a mile south of Lynn states that he heard a horse and phaeton go by his place about one o'clock on Saturday morning. The thieves hitched the horse in front of the residence of this farmer and then walked to Lynn along the G. R. & I. tracks.

Read the statements of Richmond citizens.

And decide for yourself.

Here is one case of it:

Patrick Mitchell, ice man, of 412 North Fifth street, Richmond, Ind., says: "My wife thinks Doan's Kidney Pills a great remedy for backache and other pains that come from the kidneys. She was weak and miserable for a long time with kidney trouble and suffered a great deal of pain in the back and in other parts of the body. She tried many remedies but did not find much benefit until she began using Doan's Kidney Pills. They helped her from the very beginning and she was soon cured. We both think great deal of Doan's Kidney Pills."
