

ger stated that he did not know whether such action would be brought or not. City Attorney Study stated that it was too soon to make any statement what action would be brought against Taggart. It is quite probable if the investigating committee reports that Taggart is short in his accounts with the Municipal League he will be asked to resign his office of city clerk and in the event he refuses to do so charges will be preferred against him in the city council.

COURT ADMITTED MINER ARTICLES TO BE PRESENTED

Bradley, gave testimony strongly corroborative of Orchard's account of his acts and experiences in San Francisco. Besides confirming Orchard's recital as to time, movements and locations, she testified that she found lead and wood shavings in Orchard's room and a screw-eye, string and bottle attached to the closet door where Orchard had been experimenting. She said her lodger had a very heavy suit case, and that she had made up her mind that he was an inventor.

Stearns Confirms Orchard's Story.

John L. Stearns, agent at Denver for the Mutual Life Insurance company, confirmed the story Orchard told about securing employment as a solicitor for the company before he went to Canon City to kill former Governor Peabody and produced letters of recommendation which Orchard furnished in response to his request. The defense objected to the admission of the letters, but the court permitted their introduction as evidence.

Riley Harris, a young man who worked for Roach, the plumber, who made the lead casting for the Peabody bomb, told of the call of Harry Orchard at Roach's shop in Denver in May, 1905, of the making of the casing and of the delivery of the article to Orchard, whom the witness identified.

BUCHTEL GETS BOOST FOR VICE PRESIDENT

Colorado Republicans Think of Him.

CHAIRMAN VIVIAN'S VIEWS.

Denver, Colo., June 20.—Dr. Henry A. Buchtel, who built the Central Avenue Methodist church in Indianapolis, and who was pastor of that congregation from 1891 to 1896, is making such a fine record as governor of the great state of Colorado that his friends are mentioning him for higher political honors. John Vivian, chairman of the Colorado republican state committee says that Dr. Buchtel is first-class timber for the republican vice presidential nomination.

"And," said Mr. Vivian, "if he should be elected and fate should call him to the presidential chair he has the energy, the will power and the capacity to fill even the greatest office in the gift of the nation."

SPORTING GOSSIP

PORTLAND WILL BE NEXT ATTRACTION

Jay County Lads are to Be at Athletic Park on Friday Afternoon.

LEBANON FOR TWO GAMES

WORK ON THE GRANDSTAND AND THE GROUNDS IS GOING FORWARD—FLEMING PITCHED FOR HAMILTON.

Portland will be the attraction Friday afternoon at Athletic park. The Jays have been playing fast ball for several weeks and Manager Hunt states that he intends to add the Quaker scalp to his collection. It is expected that the Jays will be greeted by the largest week day crowd of the season, provided the weather is favorable. Wagoner, Hunt's crack pitcher, will probably twirl against the locals. Jessup will pick from Moore, Fleming and Fisher to do the slab work for the locals.

Staturday and Sunday the local fans will also have an opportunity of seeing some real base ball as the Lebanon team will be at Athletic park on these dates. Lebanon is out for the state championship. The team is said to be one of the fastest independent organizations in the state. The game Sunday will be called promptly at 3 o'clock. The week day games will be called at 3:30 o'clock.

Improvements Go on.

The grand stand is rapidly going up and it is probable that the structure will be completed to accommodate the big crowd which will be at Athletic park Sunday. The stand will be able to seat four hundred people. When this is completed the entire seating capacity at the park will be about 1,500.

"Doc" Endsfield, ground keeper at the park, is working wonders with the field. He now has the infield as fast as chain lightning. The infield has also been skinned back several feet beyond the bases. Endsfield will next turn his attention to the outfield which is in bad shape. All the deep ruts and gulleys will be filled in and in time the outfield will be as fast as the infield now is.

Taken Out Too Soon.

Had Nat Fleming been allowed to finish the game for Hamilton against Connorsville last Sunday the game might not have resulted in a victory for the latter team. On this subject the Hamilton Sun has the following to say:

Horn, of the Richmond, Ind., team, was previously carded to do the box work for the locals. Fleming, of the same team, took his place. He was as wild as a March hare, but as the game progressed he steadied down. In the third inning with the score 5 to 1 in favor of the Krebs, Grohe took to 1 in favor of the box. Up to this time Fleming's only visible offense was that he allowed four walks and was hit safely twice. Then to make the situation more serious, Grohe put in Ferguson, who, on Saturday, while pitching for Lockland, in the Cincinnati Saturday Afternoon league, was knocked out of the box in the seventh inning by Northside. Ferguson was also wild and lasted one inning, during which time he allowed one hit and gave four walks. But the most laughable thing came after he had been taken out of the box and Grohe took his place. In two innings Connorsville scored two runs off Grohe. He was touched up for six hits and gave three walks.

ROCK ISLAND AND HARRIMAN ARE IN DEATH STRUGGLE

portunity left him out in the cold. If this was the whole of the Harriman-Rock Island story it would be all very well. Mr. Harriman could see the Alton delivered to the Rock Island without shedding a tear. What need he care? He has the Illinois Central, a vastly better road.

But the point is that the Harriman-Rock Island people are clashing all along the line from Chicago to New Orleans, New Orleans to Galveston, Galveston to Ft. Worth and throughout the whole Southwestern territory. Not only have they clashed here but they have clashed in Wall street; they have clashed abroad; they have clashed in the financial markets of the world.

According to what is common gossip it is they who set the federal sleuths on Harriman's trail; were one of the prime instigators of the Harriman investigation and thwarted Mr. Harriman when he was on the verge of achieving most of the glory.

That he will retaliate seems to be a foregone conclusion. He certainly must fight to hold his ground. The Harriman railway empire is threatened in the Southwest as nowhere else.

How Rival Interests Line up.

That Mr. Harriman has a real live aggressive foe in the Rock Island people is beyond dispute; that they are men with great financial resources is notorious; that they do not fear Mr. Harriman nor his enormous power in the railway world is apparent.

In point of names and brains and money these rival interests line up as follows:

HARRIMAN	ROCK ISLAND
E. H. Harriman	W. H. Moore.
Standard Oil	B. F. Yoakum.
Kuhn, Loeb & Co.	D. G. Reid.
Speyer & Co.

Judge Moore, reserved and cautious is the sage of the party. D. G. Reid it is said, has little to learn of the ways of the financial world. When he wants money he can get it. R. F. Yoakum, still a comparatively young man has knocked around from pillar to post in the railroad field. He is the railway strategist of the group. These men rule 14,000 miles of rail lines which lie south and west of Chicago.

Will E. H. Harriman like to see his friends the Rock Island sole trustees of his $10,300,000 Alton preferred? Hardly. What will he do about it? He certainly will do something if he is the Harriman of old. Meanwhile the world will watch with interest.

BEER FOR BREAKFAST.

The Awful Morning Meal That Was Once in Vogue in England.

The breakfast appetite varies strangely. Some persons are content with a cup of coffee and a piece of toast. Others make it the most determined meal of the day. Once it was formidable indeed. In Sir John Hawkins' "History of Music" is quoted a sixteenth century manuscript belonging to the breakfast arrangements of the Percy family both for Lent and for flesh days, and, oh, how some of us have fallen away in trencher work! Here is the simple Northumberland scheme: "Breakfast for my lord and lady during Lent: First, a loaf of bread in trenchers, two manchets (a manchet was a small loaf of white bread), a quart of beer, a quart of wine, two pieces of salt fish, six bacon'd herring, four white herring or a dish of sprats. Breakfast for my Lord Percy and Master Thomas Percy: Item, half a loaf of household bread, a manchet, a quart of beer (this for the nursery), a dish of butter, a piece of salt fish, a dish of sprats or three white herring."

At ordinary times my lord and lady fared thus: "First, a loaf of bread in trenchers, two manchets, a quart of beer, a quart of wine, half a chine of mutton or else a chine of beef boiled. Lord Percy and Master Thomas Percy disposed of half a loaf of household bread, a manchet, one bottle of beer, a checking or else three mutton bones went 'a manchet, one quart of beer and three mutton bones boiled."—Cornhill Magazine.

Beginning Well. "Begin your stories well," said an author, talking to a group of literary beginners. "There's nothing like a good beginning. Indeed, it's half the battle." Then, with a smile, this excellent beginner of stories added: "Always bear in mind the case of the young man who, desiring to marry, secured a favorable hearing from his sweetheart's irascible father by opening the interview with the words: 'I know a way, sir, whereby you can save money.'"

THIEVES FROM CHOICE.

Criminals, as a Rule, Steal Because They Don't Want to Work.

The theorists say that men are driven to crime by poverty and want, but the theorists are not always right. There are no doubt some cases of men stealing or swindling to get bread, but they are very few. Not one criminal in a hundred in this country pilfers, plays burglar or highwayman because he's hungry, but because he is a criminal from choice and would rather steal than work. He knows perfectly well that nobody ever made a fortune
