PLAY BRILLIANTLY BUT QUAKER TEAM COULD NOT WIN OUT

Dunkirk Solved the Delivery of Tacks Fisher After a Short Time and It Was For This Reason the Locals Lost.

IN FIELDING WORK THE GAME SPARKLED.

Jessup's Tribe Had Much the Better of Dunkirk in This Department—Fleming in the Box on Sunday.

(By Tort.)

Dunkirk 3; Richmond 0.

Playing brilliant ball and fighting hard from start to finish, the Quakers were again, Friday afternoon, forced to accept another case of lemons. Kokomo presented the first case Thursday. Not to be out done by the Wildcats the demon ballists from Dunkirk, found fit to duplicate the gift. Mr. Timothy Hay, the underhanded phenom, made the presentation.

Tacks Fisher was in the box for the locals and the visitors took to his delivery after the fifth inning with ghoulish glee. It was for this reason that the Quakers had to grovel in the grime. Mr. Hay was as steady as a Sunday school superintendent and he allowed no tampering with his offerings. Six hits, only two of which were bunched in one inning, were all that fell to the lot of our athletes.

Fielding Sparkled.

From a fielding standpoint the game sparkled. The visitors played an errorless game, while back of his Tacks only one miscue was perpetrated. Mr. Fisher, himself, fozzled one chance. From the standpoint of brilliancy the play of the Quakers outshone the fielding antics of the Dunkirk outfit. In the short field, Peeewe Minzler accepted eleven chances without the semblance of a wobble. One hard one going on a line over second bag was knocked down by the little fellow who fielded it to Cameron, without taking time to recover, Cameron accepted nineteen chances at first and was as full of ginger as a Virginia punch. Wilbermoor, in left, added to the circus exhibition by pulling down two running efforts which looked good for doubles. One he pulled from the clear with one talon, while running with his back to the infield. Miller at third handled a hot one that knocked him off his pins—but he got his man with a perfect throw to Cameron. After the play Miller took the count and had to receive a massage treatment before resuming play. Justice and Jessup also played brilliant ball. Had Fisher not received this brilliant support the hit column for the visitors would loom up larger than it does.

How It Happened.

In the first, Stewart for Dunkirk, led off with a two bagger. He was sacrificed to second and then took third on an out. He died there as a hot one from Wills' bat was killed by Minzler. In the second Wolf got a life on Cunningham's error and was sent to second on Hall's single. Things looked threatening, but Carmichael hit into a double play, Justice to Minzler to Cameron, and both he and Hall died. Perdue was retired at first. With two out in the second, Miller drew his base and Wilbermoor singled. The threatened scoring evaporated when Fisher breezed. The pitchers' argument came to an adjournment in the sixth. Hay was first up and he singled. Stewart and Campbell were retired in order and the outlook was picturesque as a June bride. To interrupt this pleasing scene came the rude Mr. Morris, who smote one on the pazzole for a cushion, and Timothy Hay roused home. No sooner had Mr. Morris anchored at first than the robust Mr. Wills took a waist high floater in the snout with the end of his war club, said float tearing over Ritter's head to deep center. Morris scored and Wills rested at third. Wolf ended the inning by hitting to Justice. In the seventh, singles by Hay and Perdue netted Dunkirk's third and final count.

Gossip of the Game.

Hay was largely instrumental in winning his own game. In the sixth he led off with a hit and was scored on Morris' single. In the seventh he scored Perdue with a clean drive.

Dunkirk and Richmond are again battling at Athletic park this afternoon. Big Moore is in the box for the locals, while Romaine is officiating for the visitors.

With a record of two straight victories, annexed on foreign soil, Fleming will be in the box against the Atkins team of Indianapolis, Sunday. Local fans have not had much of an opportunity to see Nery Nat work and he will probably attract a large crowd.

The grand stand is now completed and about one hundred fans found resting places in it Friday. Ten cents extra is charged for a grand stand seat.

We have watched every catcher that has appeared on Athletic field this season and right now it can be stated that Clarence Jessup has it on all of them. He has the knack of holding his pitcher down. All base runners have the deepest respect for his whip and he is death on foul flies and bunts dumped near the plate. Jessup is too fast for independent company. Incidentally, his hitting has been splendid this year.

The past week of steady playing has had its effect on the play of the locals. They now look like a ball team. All the men have ginger, they work together perfectly, cuss the umpire and keep up a chatter like a chorus of blackbirds, both in the field and on the bench. When the lost batting eyes return, the Richmond club will not have to doff the hat to any independent outfit.

Fisher, after pitching two innings, complained of a sore neck, which he said had been strained by pitching. After the sixth he asked to be taken out, Jessup turned down the petition.

Throughout the early part of the game a light drizzle fell, but it did not interrupt the game. The attendance was splendid, considering the threatening weather. A large number of ladies took advantage of ladies' day, which is every Friday.

Ritter was robbed of a sure single by a sensational running catch perpetrated by Carmichael. Ritter addressed some rude words to Mike for his un-called for theft.

Lally could not see the home team Friday. Richmond drew the grapefruit on every close decision. In the sixth Morris over-sid second and Justice nailed him twice, but Lally refused to call the man out. Justice was outspoken in his opinion of Mr. Lally.

HARRIMAN LOANS A MILLION TO C. & A.

This Much Money Is Forced Out of Railroad Wizard To Pay Dividends.

AT ROCK ISLAND'S MERCY.

MOORE BROTHERS AND D. G. REID APPARENTLY "RUBBING IT IN" ON FRENZIED RAILROAD KING.

New York, June 29.—It was announced in Wall street yesterday that the Union Pacific and the Rock Island roads, which until recently exercised alternate control of the Chicago and Alton, had loaned that property $1,400,000 for "extraordinary" improvements. In view of the fact that the Moore Brothers and D. G. Reid, who control the Rock Island, had less than two weeks ago practically thrown out E. H. Harriman from any share in the control of the Chicago and Alton, Wall street regarded the advance of money by the Union Pacific to the Alton with much curiosity.

As a matter of fact, of the $1,400,000 advanced, $1,000,000 was personally contributed by Mr. Harriman. The money was advanced by him, it is said, in the hope that it would avoid a fresh Chicago and Alton scandal.

It had been planned by the Rock Island party, the Moores and D. G. Reid, to stop all dividend payments on Chicago and Alton stock because of the crippled finances of the company and the urgent need of improvements.

The mere loan of $1,000,000 goes only a little way in paying back the immense sum Harriman added to the indebtedness of the Chicago and Alton by his financiering. Attorney-General Stead of Illinois, reported that over $87,500,000 of the railroad's present debt, more than 70 per cent. of its entire indebtedness, has not been created in furtherance of any legitimate purposes.

Altogether Harriman added $80,000,000 to the debt of the Chicago and Alton, of which only $22,500,000 was spent on account of improvements or betterments and extensions.

PROSECUTION UNLIKELY IN THE MARSHALL CASE

Father of Boy Believes He Is Unbalanced.

Prosecutor Jessup stated this morning to Judge Fox that it was hardly probable that Harry Marshall, held at the county jail, for shooting his father, and inflicting a painful wound in the mouth, would be arraigned on the charge of assault and battery with intent to commit murder. He stated that Grant Marshall, the young man's father, is positive that Harry was mentally unbalanced, and that next week an inquest would be held. If the young man is found to be insane, he will be sent to an insane hospital.
