SUNDAY'S GAME WAS A PITCHERS' BATTLE

Fleming and Nonemaker Pitted Against Each Other And Did Fine Work.

SEVEN HITS IS THE TOTAL.

VISITORS LOST THE GAME ON ERRORS—SOME FAST FIELDING WAS DONE—KICKS ON THE UMPIRING.

(BY TORT.)

RICHMOND 3; MARION 2.

In the presence of numerous towns people, Mr. Fleming of Richmond and Mr. Nonemaker of Marion engaged in a polite pitchers' dispute Sunday afternoon at Athletic park. Thanks to misceus on the part of his assistants, Nonemaker was forced to submit to the tin can. With proper support Nonemaker would have won his game 2 to 0. As it was the locals appropriated the contest 3 to 2. Both twirlers pitched magnificent ball, Fleming allowing four hits while Nonemaker held the Quakers to three bingles.

Doc Endsfield, gentlemanly custodian of the park, in the absence of B. LaFy, attempted the role of Ump. Today Mr. Endsfield is writing the first chapter of reminiscences entitled "The Trials and Tribulations of an Umpire." This literary effort will include five volumes. Doc got a bad start. He neglected to have his eyes tuned and his voice sandpapered, consequently the populace became irritated—in fact thumbs were turned down on Mr. Endsfield early in the contest. Before the close of the proceedings said populace was demanding his gore. It was alleged by the bugs that Mr. Endsfield was partial to the home team, and there appeared to be grounds for this complaint. His decisions on balls and strikes were wiled while his rulings on the bases were wilder.

How Runs Were Made.

In the first inning Ritter drew his base on balls and was sacrificed to second by Cameron. Jessup flew out to left and then Wilmerwood hit a sharp one through the second baseman, bringing Ritter home. Ridgely struck out. In the third, with one down, Nonemaker drew his base. Pence singled and scored with Nonemaker on F. Martin's long single to center, which was poorly handled by Ritter. A sharp double play by Ridgely, Minzler and Cameron then ended the inning.

In the fourth Richmond took the lead which was maintained to the end. Wilmerwood drew his base but did on Ridgely's fielder's choice. Minzler singled and Cunningham skied to left fielder. Fisher, next up, smote a long one to Pence who dropped it, allowing Ridgely and Minzler to count. Fleming made the third out on an infield tap.

Some Pretty Fielding.

The game was marked by some pretty fielding. In the seventh Pence, in center for Marion, saved two runs by a remarkable catch off Jessup's bat. Fleming and Cameron were on the bags when Jessup poled a long one to deep left center. It looked good for at least two bases. Pence, under a full head of steam, dashed after the ball and up the side of one of the left field mountains. Reaching the summit he made a high jump, speared the sphere and then fell from his lofty perch. Enroute to the valley below, Pence looped the loop and the gap of death but he came up feet first still holding the ball. Fisher and Minzler pulled off some fast work. Ritter made a pretty running catch. Martin at third for the Owls covered acres of territory. The score:

CAP. HARE WILL COACH THE ROSE POLY TEAM

He Has Made a Verbal Contract to This Effect.

COMING HERE ON NOV. 2.

Cap. Bunny Hare, if he does not return here this season to play ball, will come next fall with the Rose Poly football team as coach. That team is to meet Earlham here on November 2. A Terre Haute dispatch says: "Bunny" Hare, Indiana University's famous quarter back and captain, is to coach Rose Polytechnic's football team this year. He has entered into a verbal contract with Manager Paul Lindeman and a written contract is now in his hands for his signature. "Bunny" undoubtedly is the fastest man that ever donned the moleskins for the state team. He made the team during his first year in college, while "Jimmie" Horne was coaching the cream and crimson.

Hare's excellent kicking and his almost perfect handling of the ball won him the captaincy of the team the next season and he was again elected captain last year. Hare is Eckersall's only rival in the west, not only in the art of drop kicking and punting, but in carrying the ball. As a field general he is reputed to have Eckersall "backed off the boards." Rose Poly has been handicapped for years because of lack of good coaching, and it is hoped that Hare's advent will bring out a winning team. Heretofore the Rose boys have been accustomed to loaf during the greater part of the season, but the Indiana man has absorbed Sheldon's views about working and will keep the Rose team plugging from the beginning to the end of the season.

LOSERS MAKE A COMPLAINT

Say Defeat Was Due to Rank Umpiring and Bad Field.

Campbelltown, O., July 22.—Although the Richmond Browns outbatted the Campbelltown All Stars, they were defeated by rank umpiring and a bad field, which is not only a ball diamond but a barn yard as well. Score: Browns—12-10-9. All Stars—13-7-5. Batteries—Cummings and Goehner; Bitteton and Moss.

DUBLIN WRITER'S FAITH IN CONNER

He Predicts That Manager Jessup's Latest Find Will Make Good.

THINKS HIM A WONDER.

CONNER IS NOT AFFLICTED WITH EGOTISM AND INTENDS TO WORK HARD TO REACH THE TOP.

Dublin, Ind., July 22.—The Palladium, together with its sporting writer at Dublin, is responsible for the digging up of "Tick" Conner. Manager Jessup's pitching find, who pitched such a splendid game Saturday against Van Wert, defeating them 3 to 2 in 10 innings.

For two years the Dublin writer has been digging away through the columns of the Palladium-Sun-Telegram, giving notice to the remarkable pitching feats of young Conner while serving slants for the Dublin and other teams of the amateur class. Just a few weeks ago it was predicted in the Palladium that Manager Jessup would do well to give Conner a chance with his team. Many times have the fans ridiculed the "write ups" declaring that the writing up of "Tick" was merely through personal regard for the Palladium's writer. Confident that young "Tick" would prove all that was said of him, the "write ups" still count work and right here let it be known that young Conner is not to stop in the Richmond professional class but the writer of this article hastens to predict that he will continue with his remarkable work until the managers of the big league teams will be clamoring and falling over each other to claim his services as a box artist.

However, the writer was only a week ago told by three Dublin "supposed to be" loyal fans that Conner did not amount to much as a pitcher. It is well known that Conner has never had many supporters at Cambridge City and for the past month the "knockers" club of that place has been working their hammer over him in order to rob Conner of his fame. Conner is a young man of very retiring manners. He is not puffed up over his success and takes it very considerate. He intends to work hard to get to the top therefore obtaining the goal of his one ambition.

PREPARE FOR COUNTY FAIR

Newcastle Is Busy Getting Ready for Big Annual Event.

New Castle, Ind., July 22.—With less than three weeks remaining until the opening of the thirteenth annual Henry county fair in this city, Secretary Risk and his assistants are busily engaged in getting ready for the annual event. A force of workmen are now engaged at the grounds repairing the buildings and getting the grounds in condition. Secretary Risk is receiving many inquiries from persons desiring to make entries in the premium department and also from owners of horses who will enter the several speed events. As the purses are higher this year than have been offered previously they are expected to attract some fast horses, and indications at the present time are that every contest will be well filled. County Superintendent Roberts of the county schools is getting ready for the exhibit that will be made of the work of school children. The association has offered $100 in premiums for this department and there are a large number of entries of essays, manuscripts and other school work. This department was created last year and proved very popular, besides encouraging the school children to their best efforts.

NEW CASTLE TEAM SHUT OUT.

Hagerstown, Ind., July 22.—The baseball game Sunday between New Castle and Hagerstown resulted 16 to 0, the boys from New Castle making no runs.

HORSES ARE ABUSED BY SOME OF THE BOYS

Complaint Is Made Against Certain Practices.

LAD ROUGHLY HANDLED.

There is a practice being carried on by the boys of Richmond, or at least some of them which is becoming a nuisance and is brutal. Several of these youngsters make the rounds of the hitchhacks in the western portions of the uptown district, and strike the horses over the nose with clubs in order to see them jump. They also hit their legs and do other things to torment the beasts. A farmer caught a youngster striking his horse across the legs with a club at the South Seventh street hitchhacks Saturday afternoon and the shaking the boy received probably will cure him of the habit.

Unless the practice of the youngsters is stopped both the humane officer and police will be appealed to. In some instances horses have been broken loose from the racks when tormented, causing a great deal of annoyance to their owners.

CAMBRIDGE GRAYS TOOK THE SERIES

Defeated New Lisbon Sunday Afternoon in a Most Interesting Contest.

TWENTY HITS WERE MADE.

GRAYS BUNCHED THEM IN THE NINTH AND BROUGHT IN THE WINNING RUN—SOME PRETTY FIELDING.

Cambridge City, Ind., July 22.—In the last game of a series, played between the Grays of this city and the fast New Lisbon team, the former came off victorious by a score of 3 to 2 yesterday afternoon. The game was played on the local diamond, to a record breaking crowd, the attendance being estimated at 1,500. Umpire Jot Goar of New Lisbon, called the game at 2:45, with Shiverdecker in the box and the visitors to bat. It proved to be a veritable swatfest from the beginning and every man on the local team secured at least one hit. "Rusty" Stombaugh making a two binger, the only one secured during the entire game. The score stood with two runs to the credit of either side in the ninth, but by bunting hits in the last half, with two men out, Riddle sailed over the ban, bringing victory to the home team. Among the features of the game were a running catch made by Dishman of the locals in the fifth inning, and two fast double plays by Jimtown. Yesterday's game was one of the fastest that has been played this season, the time being 1 hour and 25 minutes. The score: C. City... 0 1 0 1 0 0 0 1—3 12 1

CHARGED WITH COLD FEET.

Greensfork Is Displeased Over Cambridge City's Action.

Greensfork, Ind., July 22.—The Cambridge City Grays were to play at Greensfork Sunday, July 28, and Greensfork was to return the date Aug. 4. Cambridge City's reason for breaking the date is that it is too hot to drive to Greensfork. The Greensfork manager offered all kinds of propositions not to break the date for Sunday, as the game is well advertised. Greensfork would like to play a game with Cambridge City for $50 a side on neutral grounds.

BENTONVILLE WAS BEATEN

HOW WE ARE FORMED.

A Few of the Many Marvels of the Human Body.

On an average man's body there are 340,000 hairs. Plucking one every second it would take him twelve eight-hour working days to pull them all out. In his blood there are 25,000,000,000,000 corpuscles. Laid out side by side they would cover a surface of 3,130 square yards. The whole of the blood passes through a man's heart nearly twice in every minute. It weighs one-thirteenth of the entire body weight, and it moves in different parts of the body at speeds varying from ten feet to 1,000 yards (nearly one mile) an hour.

The fat of your body is fluid. It becomes solid only when the body cools after death. It is one of your most useful constituents, forming a nonconductive sheath to protect you from cold, acting as pads to preserve from shock, on the tips of the fingers, the toes and the heels and lying always ready as a reserve food supply when you can get nothing to eat.

A little artery passes from your brain through the skull into the scalp, which acts as a safety valve when the brain is congested with blood.

The skin cannot grow again once it is destroyed; hence the unsightly scars left by burns and severe wounds. Only the surface layer can renew itself. When the whole thickness is destroyed, it never reforms. This is the more curious as muscles, nerves, blood vessels and bones, all less liable to injury than the skin, can grow again. You are really a water rather than a land animal. Although as a whole you live on dry land, your body consists of countless millions of separate living particles, and these are all immersed in the water which constitutes four-fifths of your substance.

Within the inner part of your ear, deep in the bone, is a quantity of fluid which acts as a spirit level and enables you to keep your balance.—Chicago Record-Herald.

A WISE BRITON.

He Half Suspected at the Start That the Feathers Weren't Edible.

A Brooklyn man who entertained an English relative tells this without the quiver of an eyelid:

"My cousin from London reached New York last summer, along with a hot wave. The crowds were down before the soda water fountains on lower Broadway. He remarked that he did not comprehend how Americans could swallow that 'nasty slush.'"

"A mere preference," I explained. "We have many curious examples of that kind in this country. One of the most remarkable evidences of insatiable appetite for froth rather than substance is that of the American poultry lover who daily advertises in our New York papers for 1,000 feather beds. As you may well imagine, he is said to have entirely lost his taste for the flesh of the fowl."

"Oh, really?" exclaimed the Englishman in quiet surprise. "Nothing more was said till nine months later, when I opened my NAÏ one day and found a marked copy of the London Times, which he had sent to me. He called my attention to this extract in an article on mob rule and lynching in America. 'It can hardly be possible that the supply of tar and feathers in the United States will be sufficient at the rate the mobs are covering the bodies of the poor wretches who are tortured and humiliated before they are drawn and quartered or burned at the stake.'"

"I fancy you will see your error after reading this," he wrote. "It is quite plain the man wanted the beds for another purpose and not, as you believe, to eat."—Brooklyn Eagle.

The Sunrise of Life.

Infants and children are constantly needing a laxative. It is important to know what to give them. Their stomachs and bowels are not strong enough for salts, purgative waters or cathartic pills, powders or tablets. Give them a mild, pleasant, gentle, laxative tonic like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which sells at the small sum of 50 cents or $1 at drug stores. It is the one great remedy for you to have in the house to give children when they need it.

Making Bread at Home

Isn't a very pleasant occupation in warm weather. It may be all right if everything is lovely; the baby is a "perfect angel," and the stove draws just right, and the oven is the right temperature, and various other "ifs," but then it's never this way.

Better buy Victor Bread and not take any chances.

Yours truly,
