CONNER SLATHERED
BY PORTLAND LADS

Landed on West End Pitcher for a Total of Nine Hits, Saturday.

HE GOT FINE SUPPORT.

QUAKERS SECURED BUT THREE HITS AND HAD NO CHANCE TO WIN THE GAME—HUNT VERY EFFECTIVE.

(By Tort.)

PORTLAND 2; RICHMOND 0.

Mr. Conner of Dublin went up against the slugging Portland outfit Saturday afternoon. It was Mr. Conner's second appearance in fast company and he was biffed for a 2 to 0 defeat. The Jays gave the west county phenom a taste of high life and would have battered him to all corners of the lot had it not been for the splendid support accorded him. Manager Hunt of the Jays was in the box and he pitched a splendid article of ball, letting the locals down with three scattered hits. Over 500 people, the largest week day attendance of the season, witnessed the battle and more than got their money's worth. Time and again Portland played with standing room only on the bases but the wonderful fielding behind Conner held the visitors to only two runs. Richmond never had a look in.

How They Did It.

In the first Wiltmood played in close for Parker and as a result he biffed the ball over the left fielder's head for two bases. J. Bambaugh drew a base, Grey sacrificed, then Durham drove one through Fisher, counting Parker. Jonas Bambaugh and Carmony ended the inning with out to Wiltmood. No more runs were scored by the Jays until the sixth when John Bambaugh drew a base and scored on Durham's double to left.

Quakers Never in It.

The only time Richmond had a chance to tally came in the last of the sixth. With two down and Ritter and Jessup on the bags the bugs implored Morris to "in 'er out" but the best the Dunkirk recruit could do was to breeze. The only two errors perpetrated by the locals were made by Fisher. He juggled a hard drive from Durham's bat in the first and in the third he heaved wild over Cameron's head after handling perfectly Grey's drive. The fielding feature of the game came in the third. With three Jays on base and two down Hunt hit a hard one directly across second base. By a remarkable sprint Morris speared the ball and recovering quickly he retired the side by throwing Harries out at second with an assist to Minzler. Durham, the ex-Quaker was unmercifully grieved by the crowd but he put up a splendid game at the bat and in the field. Durham made two hits, one a double, made a putout and participated in a double play. The Score:

BASEBALL GOSSIP.

(By Tort.)

Peewee Minzler takes to second base like a German to limburger. The two games the little fellow has played in this position for the locals have been the confectionery.

Messrs. Cameron, Jessup, Morris and Wiltmood, star sluggers of the local outfit, have been suffering of late with relapse of the batting eye, but they are due for a speedy recovery. These Quakers should figure among the league sluggers.

It's a rare thing to see Wiltmood credited with more than three times at bat in a game. In the game Saturday he gets credit with being at bat only one time. He faced the pitcher three times. The first time he laid down a sacrifice hit. The second time he drew his base on balls and the third time he struck out.

Conner was clouted much harder than the score shows. The big fellow was in good form but all his offerings were received with enthusiasm by the Jays. Had it not been for the wonderful support accorded him the score would show that the Dublin recruit was given an unmerciful beating.

Squibb, late of South Bend and LaPorte, has been given his release by Manager Jessup. The little fellow played a fairly good fielding game, but was very weak with the stick. Squibb has not yet caught on with any other team and is still lingering about Richmond.

Hunt had Morris's tag Saturday. The first time up Morris lined out a beautiful single to left. The next three times he faced Hunt he breezed. With Ritter and Jessup on the bags in the sixth and two down Morris tried his best to score both of them, but the best he could do was to agitate the atmosphere. The game Saturday emphasized the fact that the pitching staff of the locals must be strengthened. Fleming is the only reliable pitcher on the staff. Conner is nervous and inexperienced and Boyd is out of the game temporarily on account of illness. Two veteran twirlers are needed badly and at once.

B. Durham got even with the crowd in the sixth when he scored a run with a double to deep left. Bull, after reaching second did a war dance and hurled insults at the sun gods. "We don't care a hang for you, but we will give you the glad hand if you want to come back," sang out a bleacherite.

HANLON WILL RETIRE FROM NATIONAL GAME.

Cincinnati, July 27—Ned Hanlon, manager of the Reds, said today: "I have about decided that the present season will terminate my career in baseball."

FINALLY GOT A LICENSE.

Calvin Davenport and Mrs. Maria Biba Married.

Calvin Davenport, the aged Dublin man, was granted a license to marry Mrs. Maria Biba, aged 70 years, Saturday. Calvin brought in his application papers properly signed and much against the will of County Clerk Penny, it was necessary to issue him a license. Davenport was married to Mrs. Biba Saturday evening.

OPENING OF LEAGUE IS SET FOR TODAY

First Games Will Be Played in The New Indiana-Ohio Organization.

FLEMING IN BOX TODAY.

KLING WILL APPOINT A STAFF OF UMPIRES WHO DO NOT RESIDE IN ANY OF THE CITIES INCLUDED IN THE LEAGUE.

Today marks the opening of the Indiana-Ohio league. The first league game of ball by a league team representing Richmond, will be played at Athletic park this afternoon against Bluffton, which is considered one of the strongest outfits in the new organization. It is expected that all the sport loving people of this city will be in attendance at Athletic park this afternoon for the purpose of witnessing Richmond's first league game.

Manager Jessup stated last evening that Fleming, the steady, reliable twirler, would be in the points for the locals, and he predicted that Richmond would start the league race with 1000 percentage. Bluffton has one of the strongest teams in the league, as strong, it is stated, as Portland, and the game is sure to be of the utmost interest. Bluffton has never appeared here before and the fans are anxious to see the team which, with Hunt's Portland outfit, is expected to be the Quakers' closest rivals for the pennant.

President Kling of the new league, has not yet appointed his staff of umpires, so Bud Lally will officiate at the Bluffton game this afternoon. Lally will probably make his last appearance this season as an umpire on Monday, when Bluffton plays the second and last game of the series. Kling states that he will appoint a staff of umpires who do not reside in any of the cities comprising the league.

Portland opens the league season this afternoon at Kokomo and an interesting game is anticipated. Both teams are about equally balanced, but Hunt's Jay team is thought to have a little on the Kokomo outfit. The Van Wert team will open the season at Decatur. These two teams are at the present time regarded as the weakest in the league, but their managers are taking steps to strengthen them so that they will be on a par with the Richmond, Portland, Bluffton and Kokomo teams.

If the weather is favorable, and the indications point that it will be, the largest crowd of the season will attend the opening of the league season at Athletic park. There will be no ceremony, but fast baseball is assured. Richmond is counted on by the managers of the various clubs in the league as being the best paying town in the circuit and it is up to the local fans to do everything in their power to make league ball in this city a financial success.

INVERNESS CLUB IS PLAYED TO A TIE

Richmond Country Club Golf Players Did Well in Saturday's Contest.

WERE EXPECTING DEFEAT.

THOMPSON, ELMER, BOND, DILL AND CORWIN COMPOSED THE LOCAL TEAM—A BIG GALLERY WAS OUT.

The Richmond Country club golf team won laurels for itself on the Country club links Saturday afternoon by tying the score 7 to 7 with the famous Cincinnati Inverness club, considered one of the premier golf aggregations in the Central West. The Nassau system of scoring was used.

Although the Richmond players were expecting defeat they played hard and tied Cincinnati's score. Southgate, for Cincinnati, scored the majority of the points, contributing three scores to Cincinnati's total. Thompson, Elmer and Bond, for the local team, each scored two points, while Corwin won the extra point, which tied the score.

The match between the two clubs was watched with interest by a large gallery, it being the best attended match that has been played at the Country club for many months.

By virtue of their tying the Cincinnati aggregation, the Richmond players are being congratulated. Last year the Cincinnati team lost but one match, while this year in the Cincinnati Country club tournament they defeated all comers, winning the silver trophy cup. The scores of the two teams follow:
Cincinnati—
Arnold—1
Trueblood—0
Warner—1
Southgate—3
Harris—2
Total—7.
Richmond—
Thompson—2
Elmer—2
Bond—2
Dill—0
Corwin—1
Total—7.

MOLDERS CHAMPIONS OF THE HOOSIER DRILL

Secured Two of the Three Games That Were Played.

Probably the fastest game of the series, was played between the molders and core makers of the Hoosier Drill company, Saturday morning, in a score of 8 to 7 in favor of the molders. This result was rather unexpected by both participants and audience, as it was thought the core makers had the better show, but the fast playing of all the members of the molders' team, coupled with the bad luck which seemed to follow the "kids" gave the game through a "light squeeze" to the molders. The playing on both sides, however, was of the fastest, and although the core makers were defeated two games out of the three, they believe that they demonstrated their ability as ball players and the molders realize that they have nothing to brag over. The work of Charles Schweikert, who umpired the game, was of the best and Mr. Schweikert is to be complimented on the impartial manner in which he officiated.

Horse Was Also Killed.

Limited car No. 64 on the Indianapolis and Eastern Traction line had a bloody trip Saturday afternoon and evening, on the way to Indianapolis killing an aged man, probably seventy years, and on the return from Indianapolis to this city at night killing a boy who was on horse back.

The first accident occurred at Stop No. 1 in Indianapolis. The man killed was walking down the track at the time, facing the approaching car. It was thought that he would get off the track in time but did not move and was instantly killed. A whiskey bottle was found on him. He had probably been drinking so heavily that he was not in condition to know the car was coming.

The second accident occurred on the other side of Cumberland. The lad, who is thought to have been fatally injured, was on horseback. He either thought he could get across the track before the car reached him or else lost control of his horse while directly in the car's path. He was struck squarely and one of the car windows was completely splintered by the collision.

Motorman Ezra Thompson and Conductor Tucker were in charge of the car. Motorman Thompson has been in service for the traction company for ten years and this is the first serious accident he ever had. He is a resident of Richmond. Tucker resides at Greenfield.

The limited was due in here at 9:30 but on account of the Cumberland accident did not arrive till 11 o'clock.

The car being late was hurried out of Richmond and neither the motorman nor conductor had time to talk about the fatal trip. The car left here Saturday afternoon at 2:25.
