Richmond 4; Van Wert 3.

Our hittless wonders annexed another victory Saturday afternoon over the Van Wert aggregation despite the fact that the Quakers got a frazzled start. The score was 4 to 3, all of the Buckeyes' scores coming in the first round of play. After that it was easy sailing for "Crip" Jessup's pennant hunters and the good sized half holiday crowd went home happy.

Van Wert was really very generous, their six misplays helping us manfully—in fact with Portland's defeat boosting us to the top of the ladder once more. We didn't hit like demons by any means, but we did take advantage of everything thrown our way.

There is no telling what might have been if one Wharton, a flaxen haired twirler, had been allowed to remain in command of the department of curves. The peaceful Quakers were steadily whetting their batting eyes for his delivery, but he was stabled, after two runs had been secured, and in the third inning Handsome Harry essayed to deceive us, notwithstanding that he had officiated ineffectively the day previous. That Hay did not win his game, however, was not entirely due to his inability to prevent us from meeting the ball squarely. He allowed a lone hit, but unfortunately could not cover third base and centerfield in the third inning and we chalked up another count.

Again we rang up one in the seventh and that was the one that put the contest on ice. There again we were aided by some stupid playing, a dinky fly from Cameron's bat dropping safe behind second base. A base on balls by Weaver, advanced James C. to second base, a pretty sacrifice by "Slugg" Morris, anchored the premier first sacker and then Cap. Jessup showed his knowledge of the game by poling a fly to center field, on which James C. crossed the tape without a whimper from the visitors.

A misplay by Wiltermood and Ritter in the first inning not alone gave Van Wert a score, but came near putting Wiltermood in the hospital. As it was he went down for the count but was brought to terra firma through the agency of several dippers of pure aqua. Wiltermood was under Wolfe's fly, in fact had the ball in his hands, when Ritter butted in, flooring his side partner. The ball fell to the ground and before it was recovered Kelly had raced home from second base. That was Van Wert's second score, the first one being made by Conklin, who got as far as second base on Fisher's error and came home on Kelly's hit. The third marker which Wolfe gets credit for, was earned by a squeeze play.

"Tack" Conner, late from the land of alfalfa in Western Wayne, demonstrated that he has learned something since joining us. The big boy was steeper than on previous appearances and really should have gotten away with a one score game.

Our right garden was better tended to than on various other occasions. "Buck" Weaver making his debut to Quaker City fans. Weaver won a place in our hearts right suddenly. He acted about as catalogued, sparing two nice ones in his territory and pegging a hit. Weaver has every mark of a finished player, and there was not a fan but voted that Manager Jessup struck a mighty blow for base ball in Quakerdom when he added "Buck" to the Richmond base ball association's pay roll.

DECIDE TO HOLD A FAIR NEXT SUMMER

Unanimous Action by Hagerstown Fair Board.

EVERY BILL PAID IN FULL.

Hagerstown, Ind., Aug. 3.—The Hagerstown fair board has unanimously decided to retain its organization and hold a fair next year. The weather this year prevented all racing, and except for one day, Wednesday, no attempt was made to conduct the fair. In spite of the failure so far as attendance was concerned, the managers decided to pay all premiums and charges in full, and in order to do so drew from their own individual resources. Every bill was paid in full and so well pleased were the horsemen and exhibitors that practically all promised to return next year.

D. N. Elmer and E. P. Trueblood.

George Bond and F. L. Torrence.

S. S. Stratton, Jr. and Chas. McGuire.

The second division matches will be between the following:

Arrangements are now under way for a match game between the Country club team of this city and the Inverness club team of Cincinnati at Cincinnati next Thursday. Definite announcement will be made the first of next week. The local players tied the Inverness club players, considered among the best in the middle west, on the local links a little more than a week ago.

BASEBALL GOSSIP.

(By Tort.)

In case that Wentz reports here, Manager Jessup will be compelled to cut down his playing list. On account of his inability to hit Ridgely will likely be let out.

Justice's physician says that the veteran will be unable to enter the game again this season. This will allow the second sack to remain in Minzler's hands who though a faster fielder is not the batter that Justice is.

Jessup is anxious to have Fisher remain on third base in order that his infield may be the same each game. In case Conner keeps up his encouraging work and Wentz makes good, Fisher will play regularly at third and not be compelled to give it up occasionally and take his turn in the box.

The head on collision pulled off by Ritter and Wiltermood in the first inning Saturday should be a lesson to them for the remainder of the season. Such plays are not only costly in runs but may prove injurious to the players.

Conner's young wife watched his performance from the grandstand. She may well feel proud of her husband.

"Buck" Weaver has all the actions of his brother "Joek" with a few better points thrown in. "Buck" is fast as lightning on the bases and moves about in his field with graceful and finished actions.

Umpire Thompson is well pleased with the prospects for base ball in Richmond. He thinks the local ball park is a splendid play ground and thus far likes the manner in which the crowd has accepted his decisions. It must be said for Thompson that he is the best Ump that has been seen here in years.

Fleming will pitch for Richmond today. Game called at 3 o'clock.

That the automobile can be used with great success in determining the courage of young bulls intended for the bull ring has been demonstrated by Pedro Fernandez Somellera on his San Isidro hacienda in this state. The novel experiment was made a few days ago with a twenty-two horse power car. The experiment proved an exciting success. Several of the young bulls charged the machine at a mad speed, and it was only by clever driving that the car and its occupants were kept clear of the horns of the surprised and apparently indignant animals.
