RICHMOND 5; PORTLAND 2.

Portland, Ind., Aug. 22.—The Quakers took a fast and interesting game here yesterday afternoon from the Jays by a score of 5 to 2. Portland started out in the first like a Derby winner, scoring two runs, but they finished like a quarter horse. Hunter, the young Indiana varsity recruit, was in the box for the visitors and pitched a bang-up game. He was quite wild and frequently got himself into tight corners but by the aid of splendid support always succeeded in pitching himself clear of the rocks. The lad had splendid speed and curves and he listens like a find.

In the first Rittler drew transportation to first, Wiltemood sacrificed him to second and then the Rabbit scored on a sharp single by Weaver, who hit like a fiend throughout the game. Jessup and Hicks went out. The Jays in their half of the first went the Quakers one better by scoring two runs, the only ones the stingy Mr. Hunter would allow them. Parker walked and scored on a two base hit by John Bambrugh. Grey sacrificed Bambrugh to third and the little fellow counted on Stewart's long fly out to Weaver.

Won in the Sixth.

The next four innings both teams fought fiercely and fruitlessly for runs but in the sixth the Quakers broke the spell Romine had hung on them and pounded in two runs, winning the game. Fisher was first up and he singled. Hunter sacrificed him then Rittler drew his base on balls. Fisher and Rittler were advanced respectively to third and second by Wiltemood's single. Then the fiendish Mr. Weaver came along and scored Tracks and the Rabbit on a sharp single.

Just to put the game on ice Richmond scored two more runs in the ninth. The pesky Weaver started the doings by pulling out a two bagger. Jessup singled then Hicks brought both of them in on a sharp single. Richmond is playing championship ball and the Jays realize that it is the Quakers they will have to fight for the pennant. The two teams will play off the rubber this afternoon.

Bluffton, 3; Kokomo, 2.

Bluffton, Ind., Aug. 22.—In a game replete with exciting features, Bluffton won from Kokomo by a score of 3 to 2. The game was hard fought by both teams and was a battle royal from start to finish. Trouble between the umpire and two Kokomo players resulted in the players being sent to the bench.

In the sixth inning Umpire Thompson, "Bunny" Hare and Outfielder Wahl mixed up and the melee threatened to become a riot for a short time. Wahl was called out at the home plate and contested the decision. He and Hare followed Thompson on to the diamond and Hare and Thompson each took a swing at one another, but neither landed a blow.

The crowd began to rush on the diamond, but the matter was settled without further trouble. Thompson sending both the players to the bench. It was necessary for Kokomo to send two pitchers into the game and one of them, Grimes, played without a uniform. In addition to sending Hare out of the game Thompson fined him $5. Score:

BASEBALL GOSSIP.

(By Tort.)

Hunter, the Indiana varsity pitcher certainly made good with a vengeance at Portland. After the first inning the little fellow settled down to business, allowing four scattered hits in eight innings. Hunter had splendid speed, a good change of pace and devastating slants. Like Cole, Hunter was stacked up against the strongest team in the league, outside the locals, to show his mettle. Right now Richmond looks to have the strongest pitching staff in the league. Nat Fleming is without doubt the best twirler in the league. Horn, Cole and Hunter are all able to deliver the goods so in the future Nery Nat will not be called upon to work himself to death in an effort to keep the Quakers well up in the running. It is probable that for the present at least all four of the pitchers will be kept on the pay roll.

The final game of the Portland series is being played off and it is quite likely that Fleming is working against the Jays. As Nat is very effective against Portland, the Quakers stand an excellent chance of making it two out of three.

A three game series with Decatur opens Friday at Athletic park and Cole is due to work against the Commodores. The game will be called promptly at 3:30 o'clock and a big crowd will be on hand to welcome the Quakers home.

Fred Flint seems to fit in nicely at second base and the loss of George Morris has not yet been felt. Flint fields his position nicely and while with Kokomo lead off the batting list on account of his hitting ability.

Here's hoping that there will be no more changes in the local infield. If any of the players on the team are dissatisfied with the city and the management they should be let out without further delay and their places filled with men who can be depended upon. A player with a grinch cannot fit into a championship team.

The Kokomo Wildcats seem to be determined to claw up President King's entire staff of umpires. Catcher Orr has been laid off for taking a jab at an ump. Wednesday Rabbie Hare and Wahl tried to separate Umps Thompson's block from the rest of his anatomy and as a result both warriors were chased off the lot. Kling will probably lay these two men off for a needed rest. As far as we can see all this umpire baiting gets the Kokomo outfit in a badly disorganized team and a candidate for second division honors.

President King has ordered Richmond to return the thirty-five dollars paid by Van Wert, on the occasion of the forfeiture, when Van Wert attempted to use Pitcher Wentz. Van Wert paid the money agreeable to the league rules, but was in no way to blame for Richmond's attitude, which caused the loss of the gate receipts.

The rabid base ball fans of this town have made up a purse to buy a bouquet of flowers for Captain Hunt, of Portland, who had a fistic encounter with Umpire Thompson, at Richmond, Sunday. The amount of the fund is sufficient to procure a beautiful floral offering, which will be presented when Van Wert opens a series of games at Portland, next Friday.—Van Wert Bulletin.

INDIANAPOLIS REVENGED.

Highland Golf Club Defeated the Anderson Country Club.

Indianapolis, Aug. 22.—The Highland Golf club team got sweet revenge on the Anderson Country club players yesterday on the local links for the drubbing that the Indianapolis men received at Anderson two weeks ago. The visitors were never in the running yesterday, only three of them getting away with points. The score by the Nassau system was 18 to 5 in favor of Highland.

CAMBRIDGE TEAM TO TAKE ON OHIO LADS

New Madison Will Try Its Strength Against the Grays Next Sunday.

A GAME WITH RICHMOND.

WEST SIDE FANS WOULD LIKE TO SEE THE GRAYS MEET QUAKERS IN AN EXHIBITION CONTEST.

Cambridge City, Ind., Aug. 22.—Seeking new foes to conquer, Manager Joe Moore of the Grays has secured the New Madison, O., team for next Sunday. According to all accounts the Grays will be up against the real thing with the New Madison boys. The New Madison team has a splendid record and played Jessup's Quakers to a standstill, the professionals only defeating the Ohio lads by a score of 4 to 0. This was when their crack twirler, Hill was doing the pitching stunt for New Madison. Since then Hill has gone West. It remains to be seen what the Ohio toosers will do against the Grays. Manager Moore hopes for a victory.

His line up will be as follows: "Catty" Paul, c; "Silver", p; Hickman, 1b; Sebring, 2b; Dishman, 3b; Vanderbeck, ss; Enyeart, lf; Stombaugh, cf; "Dubby" Paul, rf.

Games called at 2:30 p. m. The enthusiastic fans and followers of the Grays are still talking about their pots going up against Jessup's team. Manager Moore is not claiming so much for his team but their are many rooters who would like to see the game pulled off. However, if Jessup could come to Cambridge one day during the "home coming" event in September and the Grays would strengthen their line up and practice some scientific base ball, they might show the Quakers a respectable game. To do this they should strengthen second, center and right by playing Kuhn, the Glenwood slugger, Bullard also of Glenwood at second, "Sharkey" Caldwell in center and one other good out fielder.

The Q. & B.'s of Richmond have been signed for a game September 15. The Q. & B.'s manager is very indignant over the Gray's claim on the Wayne county championship and will come prepared to play ball for blood.

ARITHMETIC 1700 B. C.

Sums Over Which Egyptian Children Puzzled Their Brains.

Probably the oldest copy book for home lessons in arithmetic was unearthed in Egypt. The papyrus, which was found in excellent condition, dates from the period about 1700 B. C.—that is, about 100 years before the time of Moses, or almost 3,000 years ago. It proves that the Egyptians had a thorough knowledge of elementary mathematics almost to the extent of our own. The papyrus has a long heading, "Direction how to attain the knowledge of all dark things," etc. Numerous examples show that their principal operations with entire units and fractions were made by means of addition and multiplication. Subtractions and divisions were not known in their present form, but correct results were obtained nevertheless.

Equations are also found in the papyrus. Among the examples given is this one: Ten measures of barley are to be divided among ten persons in such a manner that each subsequent person receives one-eighth of a measure less than the one before him. Another example given is: There are seven men; each one has seven cats, each cat has eaten seven mice, each mouse has eaten seven grains of barley. Each grain of barley would, if cultivated, have yielded seven measures of barley. How much barley has been lost in that way? The papyrus also contains calculations of area, the calculation of the area of a circle and its transformation into a square and finally calculations of the cubic measurements of pyramids.

SHORT INTERVIEW.

A Woman Reporter's Visit to Robert Louis Stevenson.

A number of years ago a somewhat sensational journalist was making a flying trip around the world for her newspaper. She stopped in San Francisco. Among other assignments for her brief stay there was a visit to Robert Louis Stevenson, who was then living in that city.

Calling at his home, she was told that he was too ill to see any one that day. She wrote him an appealing little note on the back of her card, explaining that her schedule would not permit her to remain over to see him later and that as an interview with him was one of the chief objects of breaking her journey in California she begged for at least two minutes' conversation.

Permission was granted for her to ascend to his room, and when she saw him propped up in bed with pillows, looking pitifully white and frail, she was much shocked and regretted her persistence. For once her usual assurance deserted her, and she stood silent and shy before the writer.

Stevenson, too, seemed at a loss, and after a moment or two of embarrassed silence, during which his hands were fumbling beneath the counterpane, he drew forth an unfinished woolen stocking, and beginning feverishly to push the steel needles in and out, he asked: "Do you knit?"

"No," answered the reporter, and glancing at the mantel clock, she realized with chagrin that the interview was ended.—Youth's Companion.

A REWARD OF FAITH.

The Story of a Church Twice Struck by Lightning.

A congregation in a hilly district in Ohio, says the Youth's Companion, bought a small tract of land and erected a church building upon it. Then the question of insurance came up. Mr. Sipes, the wealthiest member, who had contributed more than half the money needed for the new structure, declared that he did not believe in insurance. "This is the Lord's building. He'll take care of it," he said.

His view prevailed, and there was no insurance. In a few weeks the building was struck by lightning and almost totally consumed by fire. Another one was erected, Mr. Sipes contributing the greater portion of the fund as before. This time the demand was almost unanimous that it be insured, but Mr. Sipes again objected on the same ground.
