BLUFFTON 5; RICHMOND 0.

A longing to see the old folk in Henry County, on the part of one Carlin, who has been cavorting round about in National League fashion at Richmond a game of ball this morning. Said Carlin visited in New Castle Sunday night and did not get back to Quakerdom in time to join Jessup's pennant winners. The result was that Hicks was sent to short, Weaver brought in from center field, first base, and Britten who starred in the "river bottoms" league at Cincinnati essayed the role of middle arder, doing the part so badly that cost Richmond at least three runs. Britten had three errors which must be placed in the error column to say nothing of several pieces of stupid laying. Likewise he failed to do anything at the stick when Carlin might have done so.

There were several combinations, however, that entered into Bluffton's victory. Capt. LaRue to begin with took up his batting round, apparently with much success. He pitched Hill and that fourth member of Bluffton's pitching staff let the Quakers own for eight innings without the semblance of a hit. The third item of interest is that Fleming, the faithful, pitched with a sore arm. All told he lost.

Richmond threatened to score in the last inning. With two men down Weaver singled. Hicks got a life on Donovan's error, placing Weaver on second. Minzier then singled and Weaver in trying for home was brown out by left fielder Ryan.

WEIRD AND RAGGED GAME AT CAMBRIDGE

Grays Defeated by the Bentonville Bunch by Score Of 13 to 8.

CONNER WAS IN THE BOX.

HE TWIRLED FOR BENTONVILLE AND TOUCHED UP FOR TEN HITS—PORTLAND MAY TRY HIM OUT.

Cambridge City, Ind., Sept. 2.—Fully 800 of the faithful were out in force yesterday afternoon at Capitol Hill park and saw one of the most weird and ragged contests of the season. The Grays being defeated by the Bentonville aggregation by a score of 13 to 8.

The bright particular stellate of the base ball firmament around Capitol Hill park yesterday was "Yoaky" Sebring, who fielded his position at second for the Grays in a manner which deserves recognition. Sebring in the fifth made the circuit of the bags like a quarter horse, after putting the ball on a line fly into the orchard in left for a home run. The Grays presented a new and argumented line up for the occasion. "Catty" Paul was behind the bat and caught his usual fine game. Dishman guarded third and put a creditable game. Fred Murley replaced "Dubby" Paul in right and Vanderback was back again at short. Hickman, who has played practically all season without error, went all to pieces, piling up four bad ones. He dropped easy throws at first and wobbled on a punk grounder that any school boy might have taken in with ease. He redeemed himself at the bat for his tripple in the seventh session scored three runs and later counted himself.

Shilver was hit hard and Murley replaced the Bradford boy in the fifth. He also was touched up freely. To our minds the Bluffton pitching staff is the best in the league. What the team needs is just one or two pinch hitters that can bring in the runs when men are on bases. Sunday Bluffton had twelve men left on the bases. Saturday, with three men on the bases and no outs, not a Bluffton player could drive one of these runners across the plate.

"A lot of bush newspapers in the I. O. league circuit have been knocking Clarence Jessup," said Manager Frank Runyan of the Bluffton team, Sunday evening, during a fanning match at the hotel. "Let me state right here that Jessup is not only a fast aggressive ball player, but he is a splendid field general and a square fellow to deal with as well. It is a relief to do and talk business with Jessup after having come in contact with the other managers in the league, particularly Frank Morris, of the Kokomo team."

Buck Weaver's drive over right field fence was about the same place where he lifted the ball over in the game in the Portland game two weeks ago. Buck will probably receive some more presents from enthusiastic merchants. He deserves all that is coming to him.

Carlin's play at shortstop was a treat for sore eyes. Tommy covered acres of ground, taking nine out of ten chances in a finished manner. His one error was a wobble on a grounder which he speared in deep field. Carlin's catch of a foul back of third base after a hard sprint, was his most spectacular feat.

Kokomo comes here Tuesday for the first time this season. The Wildcats will also be the attraction Wednesday. Kokomo is a good drawing card here and big crowds are expected to attend the games.

Big Gene Moore had not arrived up to noon but was expected to be on hand to pitch the afternoon game. Ryan's error in the morning game was excusable. After making a hard catch, Ryan fell on his face, dropping the ball. By the way, Ryan is the most brilliant fielder seen with a visiting team thus far.

TEAM AND THE UMPIRE.

Were Taken on by the Q. & B.'s at New Madison and Defeated.

The Quigley & Babylon team of this city beat the umpire and the New Madison team Sunday at New Madison by a score of 6 to 5. The umpire's best to hand the game to the Quigley & Babylon team was the good playing of the locals.

Superstition.

Although the Maoris of New Zealand have made considerable strides in civilization in recent years, some of their beliefs and superstitions survive. One of the most persistent is belief in the evil eye or tribal medicine man.

It is sometimes said that the evil eye is a method of treatment. The legend of that sort comes from the fact that a sick girl after having been in bed for some time, was taken out with sticks to drive the evil eye out, the "tobunga" after which she died next day.
