Richmond fell upon the luckless Van Wert tribe Sunday afternoon and twice smote them hip and thigh. Mr. N. Fleming, the deliberate and prominent voter of Fairmount, W. Va., officiated at both contests for the locals and the Buckeyes fed from his tin. Mr. Romaine, late of Dunkirk, late of Portland, and who will be late of Van Wert if he pitches again like he did Sunday, started in to twirl for the visitors in the opener. Romaine could not hit the plate with a handful of buckshot, and when he did, the home guards rapped him so before the close of the second inning, he was chased to the bench and H. Hay was substituted. The six and one-third innings Harry worked, in his first game he was very effective, only two hits being made off him, but his putrid support allowed three Quaker runs to filter in. In the second game our demon athletes fell upon the underhand wonder, and drove him to all corners of the fan-infested yard. By agreement only seven innings of the second game were played, but in these seven innings Hay was smote for thirteen hits, netting nine runs, five of them earned.

Forced in a Run.

In the first game Richmond scored one in the opening on a base on balls and a single. In the second inning Romaine got himself into a mess of trouble. Minzler led off with a double. Gardner singled and both men were advanced a base on Fisher's sacrifice. Fleming walked, filling the bags. Romaine then walked Ritter, forcing in Minzler. Hay was then substituted for Romaine. Jessup dumped Gardner to count. Fleming was caught off third and Weaver ended the inning by polling to Campbell. Richmond added another tally in the fifth. Ritter crossed the pan in the sixth on a combination of errors. He reached first on Conklin's mess, went to second on Conklin's high throw to first, then continued to third when a poor throw to second was made. The Van Wert infield tried to catch the Rabbit at third, but Conklin made another error and Ritter rambled home. Weaver made the final tally in the seventh. Not one run could the visitors force over the pan. Only two hits were made off Fleming and one of these was the worst kind of a fluke.

Made a Good Start.

In the second game, Van Wert drew first blood. A base on balls, an error by Carlin and a hit, netted one run in the opener. In the second Richmond fell upon Hay. Carlin led off with a screeching double. Hicks advanced him on a Texas leaguer, Minzler fanned then Scrapy Frank Gardner drove both Carlin and Hicks home on a single to left. Gardner was caught stealing and Fisher popped out. A single and a two-bagger netted another Van Wert tally in the third. In the local third two runs were made. With Fleming down, Ritter drew a base on errors. Jessup singled and promptly started out for second. Conklin threw to Perdue, at second to catch Jessup, but Perdue allowed it to get past him and Ritter counted. Carlin brought Jessup home on a single. Hits by Minzler and Gardner and a Van Wert error gave the locals one run in the fourth. In the fifth Mr. Hay was brutally slaughtered. Jessup started things with a single. Weaver sacri-fied him, then in order Carlin, Hicks, Minzler and Gardner stepped to the plate and singled. Fisher breezed and Fleming singled. The agony ended by the nailing of Gardner at third. After the dust settled, it was found that four local tallies had been put over on Mr. Hay. Scores:

Jays in an Even Split.

Kokomo, Ind., Sept. 9.—Kokomo and Portland, who are fighting it out for third place in the I.O. league, split even in a double header played here Sunday afternoon before a large crowd. Kokomo won the first game by a score of 2 to 1. Portland reversed form in the second and took the Wildcats to the tune of 5 to 1.

Decatur Bows to Bluffton.

Decatur, Ind., Sept. 9.—Bluffton came to town Sunday afternoon and defeated the locals by a score of 6 to 2. The defeat of the Commodores knocked them out of first place. Decatur has a hard schedule this week, which is the closing week of the league season, but they have not yet given up hope of wresting the pennant from Richmond. Bluffton completely outplayed Decatur, Sunday.

LAME BACK.

This is an ailment for which Chamberlain's Pain Balm has proven especially valuable. In almost every instance it affords prompt and permanent relief. ELEVEN INNINGS RE-QUIRED TO SETTLE

C., H. & D. Team Could Not
Repeat Its Victory Over
The Liberty Boys.

DEFEATED, SCORE 3 TO 2.

MAIBACH BROKE UP THE CON-
TEST WITH A TERRIFIC HOME
RUN OVER THE LEFT FIELD FENCE.

Liberty, Ind., Sept. 9.—The C. H. & D. team, of Cincinnati, which lost a 5 to 4 game here two weeks ago, came back Sunday for revenge, but was forced to take the short end of a 3 to 2 score after eleven fiercely contested innings. The game yesterday was the longest, closest and most intensely exciting battle played on the local grounds in years, and had the fans in a frenzy from the start until the last second of play, when Maibach broke it up with a terrific home run drive over the left field fence. Both pitchers were in fine form, as was evidenced by the small number of hits and numerous pop-ups. The teams fielded in brilliant style, backing up the twirlers in almost perfect form. Hanna, the local shotstop, was the star fielder of the day, accepting fifteen chances without an error, his handling of throws from the catcher being a strong feature of his play. Smith's whip was in good form, as he retired every runner who attempted to steal a base. Duvall received an ovation from the crowd for a sensational running catch which probably saved the game in the ninth.

In the first seven innings played by one man on each team got as far as second base; Meyers singled in the fourth and advanced on a sacrifice, but was left, and in the sixth Sauters passed Urban and Rothman in succession, but neither could be advanced. Things happened in the eighth, however, when Sauters, first up, got a base on balls; Maibach, dropped Sweeney's fly, and on Williamson's tap to third the umpire called Sauters safe on a close decision; with the bases full Stegmyer struck out, but Edgar singled over second, scoring two runs; Shaw was retired on strikes and Knagge went out, short to first, on a fine stop and throw by Hanna. In Liberty's half, Rothman lined to short, but Smith started a rally by singling to center, and stole second; Barnard struck out, but was safe on Knagge's low throw to first. Smith advancing to third; Barnard stole second; O'Hair hit a slow one down the first base line, on which Smith scored by a desperate head-first slide, Barnard taking third on the play and scoring the tying run on Duvall's hit to third. Both teams struggled desperately for a run during the next three innings. Neither got a man to first in the ninth. O'Hair was hit by a pitched ball after two were out in the tenth, and Knagge, of the visitors, singled in the eleventh, but both were left on first. In the last half of the eleventh, after Duvall and Clark had been retired, Maibach, with two strikes against him, caught a fast one square in the middle and drove it over the left field fence for a clean home run, scoring the winning run, amidst wildest enthusiasm from the best crowd of the season. SPLENDID SAMPLE
OF NATIONAL GAME

Cambridge Grays Triumphed
Over Wonderland Team
Sunday Afternoon.

BOYD WAS IN THE BOX.

GREENSFORK TWIRLER HAD THE
CAPITAL CITY LADS IN THE
PALM OF HIS HAND—STORY OF THE GAME.

Cambridge City, Ind., Sept. 9.—Base ball, the genuine article, was the brilliant feature of the game at Capitol Hill park Sunday afternoon where a crowd estimated at 700 witnessed the defeat of the Wonderland team of Indianapolis at the hands of Mr. Boyd and "Catty Paul," who appeared to be about the whole "cheese" on the Grays' team; score 11 to 5.

It was indeed the most interesting game which has been played this season. Scientific ball, base running, plenty of hitting, reasonably good fielding and above all, good pitching on the part of Mr. Boyd, not the Boyd of Bluffton 1-0 fame, but our own Wayne county lad who hails from Greensfork, the home of Cyclone Eli Cates, and where also, ball players are said to grow on the bushes. The Greensfork lad had the visitors in the palm of his hand. He caused eleven of his opponents to biff at the six little singles. His own liberality in the second inning when, with the bags playing to standing room only he passed a man forcing in a run, and the consistent bunting of the Wonderlands in the seventh was responsible for three of the five runs made off him.

How the Runs Were Made.

The Grays commenced the run getting on the start. In the first after two were down Dishman singled to right and pilfered second. Hickman hit to Spellman who threw home to catch Shiver and he was run out on the line. Paul walked and Sebring singled scored Dishman. Escott's error, a double by Hickman and a base on balls put three on base. Then Escott "blew" and forced a run by passing Sebring. Paul's hit and a passed ball brought in three more. In the fourth, Shiver, Boyd, Hickman, F. Paul and Sebring all singled and aided by a wild leave by Center Fielder Hughes four runs were scored. Escott at this stage of the game was chased to the bench. In the fifth the Grays put two more across the pan. Eneyart and Shiver rapped for a base each. Boyd hit to Spellman who threw Shiver out at second. Dishman was out to "Army." Hickman's second double scored Eneyart and Boyd. The visitors counted two in the sixth. A base on balls a dropped fly by "Rusty" Stombaugh and a miss of an easy grounder by Hickman put three on base. Boyd could not get 'em down and forced a run and a single by Boyd. The Wonderlands' one armed fielder scored another. An earned run was counted in the sixth. Spellman scratched a hit, Dunn skied to Hickman, Myers played the game and sacrifice. Hughes' bingle scored Spellman. In the seventh the visitors showed the fans how base ball should be played. Green first up singled to center. Giesler and Green worked the hit and run, Green going clean around to third on Giesler's bunt. The one armed wonder, Ash, then perpetrated the "squeeze" play to perfection and Green scored, Ash taking third on Boyd's attempt to catch the runner at home. A rag chewing match took place when Huhn struck at a wild one trying to make another "squeeze" and which Ump Goar declared was a foul sending Ash back to third. Huhn's second attempt at the "squeeze" worked fine and Ash scored.

Had the Wonderlands been equipped with stronger pitching talent they might have won, as they put up a pretty good article of ball in the field. Their inability to hit Boyd was also a stumbling block in their pathway. They pulled off two fast double plays and ran the bases well. Dunn is a mighty fine throwing backstop and kept the Grays hugging their bases. Boyd at second is a natty player. He had ten chances and accepted all of them. He is the slugger who put the ball over the left field for three triples on his recent visit here. Boyd put the kabosh on him striking him out three times with high ones.

A singular feature of the game was the fact that out of the 27 outs credited to the Grays, 12 of them were handled by "Catty" Paul and 12 by Hickman at first. Of the three remaining outs two were in the infield and one in the outfield.

Boyd retired the side on strikes in the fourth session. About thirty of the faithful came with Mr. Boyd from Catesville to witness his performance. Boyd was slated for a trial with Jessup's Quakers a month ago. He is worthy of it.

Eddie Ash the one armed fielder was the prime favorite. He nabbed two flies in the field, made a hit, stole a base, batted in two runs for his team, working the "squeeze" play to get the last one.

Hickman was the hitting kid of the day. He hit the trees in left twice for two bases. Shiver also hit for three singles.

Boyle made a neat one handed catch off "Dubby" Paul's bat behind second in the fourth. Score:
