Mixed Up Teams Played a Six-Inning Contest at Cambridge City Park.

T. FISHER AS A CATCHER.

CAMBRIDGE CITY BUGS CAN GIVE RICHMOND A LESSON IN RING—PARK THERE CAN BE MADE A GOOD ONE.

(By Tort.)

Cambridge City, Ind., Sept. 19.—Messrs Weaver, Carlin, Ritter Fisher and Conner, late of the Richmond team, fell upon Mr. Fleming, also late of the Quakers, yesterday afternoon at the Cambridge City ball park and rapped him 4 to 1 in a six inning game. A piece of thunder exploded, the sky went in mourning and the heavens began to weep in the seventh stanza, after Mr. Ritter had retired single handed the Weaver-Carlin-Ritter-Fisher-Conner team, which represented Dublin. Of course there were four underdogs to the ex-Quakers while surrounding Mr. Fleming were the mighty Cambridge City Grays. When the celestial eruption came in the seventh the game was put on the hummer and we led a wild retreat in the direction of the Carnival City. The sheriff and about one hundred and fifty Cambridge base ball fanatics followed in our wake. In the ruck came the base ball players clad in variegated diamond costumes.

Cambridge City fans could give the local bugs lessons on rooting. Enthusiastic praise was showered upon Mr. Fleming and associates while the Richmondized Dublin outfit were the recipients of roasts from start to finish. The park is in rather a crude state at present writing but the grounds can be made into a good diamond, the only drawback being a too short left field. Just about one hundred and fifty feet back of third base is an apple orchard. To play this garden one has to be an expert forster. So accomplished has Mr. Enfeart become in holding down this outpost that, it is said, he frequently runs up a tree in fielding a ball.

Fisher as a Catcher.

The feature of the contest was the catching of Mr. T. Fisher, demon third bagger, pitcher and outfielder of the Richmond team. Local fans have never seen Fisher play the backstop position. All of them ought to. Tacks sticks a left-handed mit on his right claw, crouches under the bat, calls the umpire a robber and his battery partner "the best pitcher in the league." He takes everything that comes to him and when any daring base runner gets frivolous on the bags Tacks cuts loose with a southpaw heave that goes as true to its mark as a rifle ball. Another feature was the gorgeous makeup of Right Fielder Butler of the Dublin team. Mr. Butler wore a costume the color of a Colorado sunset. When the black storm cloud settled over the field but Mr. Butler. Some of the spectators seeing him standing in right garden in bold relief against this cloud thought there was a barn on fire. Mr. Butler only made one error—he had only one chance.

Story of the Game.

In the kickoff Dublin counted twice. Caldwell got to base on a choice. Weaver walked and then Carlin hit to the orchard, demolishing eight apples. In the fourth Groves of Dublin led off with a hit. Fisher breezed then Smith hit to short. Murler's assist to Hickman at first was maitreated by the latter and Groves romped all the way home. In the fifth Ritter led off with a single and Weaver scored him on a three bagger to left center. The ball topped rolling because it became entangled with a barbed wire fence. Mr. Weaver tried to steal home but was foiled. Fleming scored the only run for Cambridge. Conner walked him, then he stole second, advanced to third on an out and came home on Shiverdecker's single. Of all the amateur players that infested the lot yesterday afternoon Caldwell, the little Dublin second baseman, looked the best. He played a pretty fielding game, getting mixed up in two double plays which Carlin started. Score:

SONOMA GIRL REGAINS
HER LOST LAURELS

Won the Second Heat of the $10,000 Stake Race.

MARGARET C A SURPRISE.

Columbus, O., Sept. 19.—Sonoma Girl won back her lost laurels as queen of the Grand circuit Wednesday when she won the Hoster-Columbus $10,000 stake which was postponed Tuesday after she had won the first heat from Highball in the sensational time of 2:05 1/4. The track was very heavy.

When the word was given Sonoma Girl was a neck in the lead and she held her place to the half in 1:01 1/4. Around the turn she drew away slightly and was a length to the good at the three-quarters. Entering the stretch McHenry drove wide to the middle to strike the firmest footing and Geers took Highball on the inside and attempted to outrush the mare, but he could not head her and she finished rather easily in 2:07 1/4.

To all intents and purposes the race was now finished, as Sonoma Girl had won two heats. Under the conditions a third heat was necessary. This furnished a surprise, as after Highball and Sonoma Girl had killed each other off, going a fast three quarters, the good bay mare Margaret C came along and made them look cheap in the stretch, winning in a jog and cashing a lot of long shot heat bets for those who had watched the daughter of Onward in her races and realized her staying abilities.

PICKED TEAM WILL MEET DUNKIRK LADS

Games Have Been Arranged For Friday and Saturday of This Week.

LOCAL LINEUP IS STRONG.

MEDICINE HAT, CANADIAN CHAMPIONS, WANT TWO GAMES—PLUMMER, FORMER LOCAL PLAYER HAS REPORTED.

Manager Jessup has announced that his picked team would play the Dunkirk team here Saturday and Sunday. The Dunkirk team, which the various teams in the I. O. league raided when the league was organized, has been recruited again and it goes without saying that the organization is now one of the strongest in the state. George Morris, the ex-Richmond shortstop, who was secured from Dunkirk, is back again with that team. Harry Hay will do the twirling with Wolfe of Van Wert, back of the bat. Willis, of the Elkhart team, will be at first and captain of Van Wert at second base. The outfield is composed of Campbell, Carmichael and Bodkins.

Manager Jessup will put the strongest team that has ever represented Richmond, in the field against the Dunkirk outfit. The rejuvenated Richmond team will lineup about as follows:

Busch, shortstop.
Plummer, right field.
Weaver, centerfield.
Burns, left field.
Johnson, third base.
Parker, second base.
Fisher, first base.
Jessup, catcher.
Fleming, pitcher.

Guess that will make a weak hitting outfit (?) About all the first six batters can do is hit something over .300. When Mr. Hay faces that bunch of sluggers Saturday he will probably suffer nervous prostration. Mr. Romaine who will probably twirl Sunday, will as hot a reception as Hay will be tendered. However, that Dunkirk bunch knows something about the batting department of the game. Two good contests are in store for the local fans.

Canadian Champions.

Manager Jessup has received a letter from the manager of the Medicine Hat, Canada, team. This team this year won the championship of the Canadian league. Medicine Hat is to make a tour of Indiana and Ohio, and wants a date here. Manager Jessup has written to the manager of the team telling him that he can have any two dates he wants next week.

Plummer Is Here.

Tom Plummer, the hard hitting Quincy outfielder, reported here Wednesday in company with Third Base man Johnson of the same team. Both players will play with the locals the remainder of the season. Johnson is not only a splendid fielder, but also a hard hitter. Plummer is in splendid condition and hit over .300 this season in the Iowa state league. Busch is expected to report here at once.

Wanted Springfield.

Manager Jessup made an effort to secure the Springfield Central league champions for games here Saturday and Sunday, but he could not make the dates. Springfield may be seen here later.

VAN VERT DOPESTER
PICKS I.-O. TEAM

He Selects Four of the Richmond Players.

RUNNION AS THE MANAGER.

The following is an All I. O. League team as picked by a writer for the Van Wert Bulletin:

The patrons of the towns comprising the Indiana-Ohio league are speculating on the point of an all-star team picked from the different organizations the team to be made up of two catchers and a corps of five pitchers. Naturally no two teams agree in their entirety. Here is a combination not yet mentioned, one that would be very apt to enjoy a walk-away in games with the other teams of the league: Catchers, Wolfe, Van Wert, Jessup, Richmond; pitchers, Way and Alberts, Decatur, Hunt and Wagner, Portland, Fleming, Richmond; first base, Carmony, Portland; second base, Minzier, Richmond; short, Stewart, Portland; third base, Conklin, Van Wert; left, Burns, Decatur; center, Campbell, Van Wert; right, Durham, Portland; utility, Fisher, Richmond. And to insure perfect police Manager Runnion, of Bluffton, might be placed in charge. The aggregation named combines both fielding and hitting strength and performing under good team work, such as Jessup and Stewart would inculcate, it would be a delight to see them in action.

PRITCHARD-OSBORN WEDDING.

Cambridge City, Ind., Sept. 19.—The wedding of Verne Pritchard and Miss Kate Osborn of Dublin took place at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Pritchard, Justice Pritchard performing the ceremony. Many friends congratulate these well known young people.

Help Each Other!

If Your Brother

Owned a furniture store and you wanted to buy a piece of furniture, where would you go to buy it? You would go to your brother, of course. Why? Because he was your brother, and it is always deemed wise to help each other and keep the money in the family.

Richmond is just a big family of citizens who should recognize each other as brothers and sisters in business matters at least—help each other and keep the money in town. Here is how it works: You pay 25 marked dollars for a suit of clothes. The clothier pays his meat bill, his ice bill and his grocery bill and $25 is scattered over town with others spent on clothes. The butcher takes the money he got to pay his delivery boy. The delivery boy spends it for shoes, and if you are selling shoes you get some of your marked dollars back. If you bought your suit "out of the city" your dollars would never show up again and the butcher's boy would not buy shoes from you at all.

Think it over.

REUNION OF THE 69TH
ON AT FOUNTAIN CITY

Veterans of the Civil War Gathered There.

ADDRESS BY W. T. DURBIN.

Fountain City, Ind., Sept. 19.—The sixty-ninth regiment held its reunion here today. Ex-Governor W. T. Durbin will speak this evening. The ladies of the Christian church served dinner and will also serve supper in Atkinson's hall for the guests. Members who attended the reunion from Richmond were J. P. Hiff, J. S. Bolander, Allen W. Grave, Geo. L. Irwin, Rufus Newman, Frank Macke, John S. Seaman, Daniel Bennett, Alonzo Marshall, Allen Cogshall, L. H. Jackson, J. L. Owen, Lafayette Larsh, T. C. Personette and W. W. Holloper.

HOW TO AVOID APPENDICITIS.

Most victims of appendicitis are those who are habitually constipated. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup cures chronic constipation by stimulating the liver and the bowels and restores the natural action of the bowels. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or gripe and is mild and pleasant to take. Refuse substitutes. A. G. Luken & Co.

A German traveler writing from Palestine to a Cologne paper, says: "Our guide, a tall, swarthy, long-bearded man, who could earn much money as a model, grew eloquent when we came to Schechem, a place which should be sacred to the Hebrews, because its history is so closely interwoven with theirs. Here we saw what is known as Jacob's well, which is in the shadow of Mount Gerizim. It is about seventy feet deep, they told us, and eight feet in diameter. 'Here,' said our guide, 'stood the oak of Moreh, where Abraham, when he came to Canaan built the first altar. In the days of Jacob, Schechem had become a business town and here it was that the traders of that time came with their live stock and products of the field to trade.' All its commercial greatness has vanished, but it will attract religious people as long as the well, which is in a good state of preservation remains."

The Hydropophobia Menace.

Since hydropophobia is transmitted by inoculation and its virus resides in the saliva of its victim, the only absolute safeguard is to keep dogs muzzled when at large. A muzzle is a nuisance no doubt and in the immense majority of cases needless, for almost invariably the mischief maker is the stray cur, belonging to no one in particular and coming from nobody knows where. But it seems impracticable to frame an effective regulation for the protection of the public from such irresponsible and dangerous creatures without making it applicable to all dogs.—New York Tribune.

Limit of Economy.

"I don't mind a young man economizing when he is out with me," sighed the girl, "but it seems to me that when he takes you in a penny in the slot machine parlor, drops a penny in a slot and hands you one of the ear things while he takes the other the limit has just about been reached. Of course you can hear the opera almost as well with one ear, but how does it look?"—New York Press.

Charity.

The lady was making some remarks about the kind of clothes some other ladies at church had on.

"The finest garment a woman can wear," said her husband, "is the mantle of charity."

"Yes," she snapped, "and it's about the only one some husbands want their wives to wear."

MURRAY AND MACK IN A BRAND NEW COMEDY

Comedians Are Playing at Indianapolis This Week.

HAVE MANY SUCCESSES.

Charles A. Murray and Ollie Mack, who are so well known here, are now at Indianapolis in a new musical comedy, "The Sunny Side of Broadway." The first show in which Murray and Mack scored a success was "Finnegan's Ball." Since that time they have appeared in many musical productions and have always been popular. After "Finnegan's Ball" came "Finnegan's Four Hundred." After this attraction came "Shooting the Chutes." Following this was "A Night on Broadway." Then came "An English Daisy," which they obtained from Weber and Field during the Casino run in New York. "Around Town" followed and now comes "The Sunny Side of Broadway."

Persian Rugs.

"Antique Persian rugs," said the rug salesman, "are dyed with vegetable dyes; the new ones are dyed with aniline dyes. There's a great difference. Vegetable dyes are fifty or sixty times more expensive than anilines, and they give a color that is literally imperishable, a color that keeps growing richer and richer till the rug falls to pieces. Anilines, made out of coal tar, look well enough at first, but they fade. When a vegetable red or blue would be at its best an aniline red or blue would be nearly white. We civilized people harmed the Chinese by introducing our cheap opium among them, and now we have equally harmed the Persian rug by introducing our cheap anilines among the rug weavers."

"Garland Dells" a summer resort, otherwise known as "The Shades of Death," near Waveland, has been offered to the commission as a site for the hospital and will be visited by the commission after the Rockville trip. A site has been offered also near Brooklyn.

They Wouldn't Lay.

A bashful young woman from a backwoods county in Virginia went into a local store carrying three chickens. She inquired the price of chickens and at the same time put them on the counter.

"Will they lay there?" asked the clerk, who did not know that the chickens' legs were tied.

She bit her handkerchief in embarrassment a moment and said:

"No, sir; they are roosters."—Lippincott's.

A SPIDER FIGHT.

It Was a Fast and Furious Battle to the Death.

I once had a spider pet of a kind the books enabled me to identify. He was a fine big fellow. I caught him in the garden, carried him home, and for nearly two months he and I took a close interest in each other, he for the amusement he introduced to me. I kept him in a milliner's box, letting him out when I visited him, especially delighting myself with allowing him to drop from one hand by his fine spun thread and then either catching him in the other or gently compelling him to climb back again by apparently eating his own ladder.

One day I captured another spider of the same species. I kept him for a few days in a separate box, and then, with the kindly idea of companionship, I introduced him to Tiger. I have seen dogs fight; I have seen chandelier fight and slay his man; I have seen rams fight till, with his skull crushed in, one lay dead at the foot of the other; I have seen men fight; but the fullest sense I ever realized of mad, murderous passion let unobscuredly loose, centered in one destroying aim and summoning every physical energy to its devilish service, I realized when those two spiders rushed to mortal combat. I stood in boyish terror as their tangled legs dropped off, torn by mutual rage; and as with vicious dexterity they struck each other with their poisoned fangs, using for their own destruction the weapons and appliances with which nature has provided them for the capture and slaughter of their prey, I visibly turned pale.

Tiger was the victor, but even while with brutal wrath, all mangled as he was, he bit and spurned his dead and limbless foe he was seized with symptoms I took to be paralytic, and in a minute or two I helped him to his death. And this fearless gladiator was afraid of, I remember, and never would tackle a big bluebottle fly. What is courage?—Dundee Advertiser.
