

W. C. T. U. PROGRAM IS FULLY ARRANGED

Preparation for State Meeting
At Lafayette Completed
By Committee.

SPEECHES ARE TO BE MADE

ROYAL ENTERTAINMENT PLAN-NED FOR VISITORS TO MEET-ING—RICHMOND IS REPRE-SENTED ON THE PROGRAM BY TWO NAMES.

Anderson, Ind., Sept. 25.—The thirty-fourth annual state convention of the Women's Christian Temperance Union will meet in Trinity M. E. church in Lafayette, October 11 to 15 inclusive. More interest is being manifested in the coming convention than has been exhibited in any previous year of the Union's history. The program provided for the occasion is the most elaborate and comprehensive ever issued. Among the speakers are many of national reputation as ardent temperance workers. Judge Artman, of Lebanon, will speak Sunday evening.

Meeting Opens Friday.

The convention will be called to order at 9 o'clock Friday morning, Oct. 11 by the president, Mrs. Culla J. Vayhinger, of Hartsville. The session will open with Scripture reading and prayer by Mrs. Rose Pearce, of Cayuga, state chaplain. The appointment of committees will proceed as the roll is called by Mrs. Mattie C. Gibson, of Jonesboro, state secretary. The report of the state officers will succeed as follows: Corresponding secretary's report, Mrs. Mary E. Woodard, Fountain City; treasurer's report, Miss Clara Sears, Anderson; secretary's report, Mrs. Mary S. Craig, Upland; L. T. L. secretary's report, Mrs. Ida Mix, Kokomo; evangelist's report, Mrs. Elizabeth Haughton, Richmond; Editor of "The Message," Mrs. Luella F. McWhister, Indianapolis; report of state lecturer, Mrs. Elizabeth Stanley, Liberty; Hartsley Industrial school, Mrs. Lizzie Hays, Indianapolis, and Mrs. Lida Outland, Upland. President's annual address, Mrs. Culla J. Vayhinger, Hartsville.

The welcome address by Mayor G. R. Durgan of Lafayette will be responded to by Mrs. Elizabeth Stanley after which the county jubilee will be held in which all counties having made a gain of fifty members or more will participate.

Saturday the reports of the superintendents of the various departments of work participated in by the W. C. T. U., as an organization will be received. The wonderful results attained by the society is due largely to the systematic advance into every phase of social and economical question that influences public opinion. The report of Mrs. Kate West of South Bend, president of the board of superintendents will show the wonderful advance made by the Union in this state.

Special Work Presented.

The special work of each department will be presented by the state superintendents, including Evangelism, Mrs. Elizabeth Haughton, Richmond, Peace and Arbitration, Miss Lavina Bailey, Richmond.

Election on Saturday.

The election of officers and a board of trustees will take place Saturday afternoon and in the evening a Diamond Medal contest participated in by young men will occur under the direction of Mrs. Julia Overman. The pulpits of the various churches in the city will be occupied Sunday morning by W. C. T. U. workers and in the afternoon a mass meeting will be addressed by Prof. Charles Scanlon, of Pittsburg, Pa., and Judge Geo. W. Stubbs of Indianapolis. Judge Artman of Lebanon, will speak in the evening.

The sessions on Monday will be devoted to routine convention work and in the evening Mrs. Frances Beauchamp, of Frankfort, Ky., will deliver

QUIT BUSINESS OR JOIN THE STANDARD

That Was the General Ultimatum to the Independent Oil Companies.

HOW IT WAS MANAGED.

TRoubles OF THE OIL FIRM OF
LOMBARD & AYRES IN THE EAR-LY SEVENTIES WAS AN INTER-ESTING FEATURE.

New York, Sept. 22.—Accountants of the Standard Oil company finally audited the books of the Waters-Pierce Oil company of Missouri, after 1900, when its name disappeared from the list of companies controlled by the Standard, according to Wade Hampton, general auditor of the Standard Oil company, who testified Tuesday in government's suit against the oil company.

In 1900, the Waters-Pierce Oil company was prohibited from doing business in Texas under the anti-trust law because of its relations with the Standard. The Waters-Pierce company was reorganized and the stock held by the Standard was sold. Testimony has previously been adduced that Charles Pratt, secretary of the Standard, bought the stock and held it in the Standard's interests. Mr. Hampton testified today that he had sent each year accountants to the Waters-Pierce Oil company to audit the books at the request of the officers of the company.

Mr. Kellogg produced a letter sent by the witness to one of the officials of the Waters-Pierce company stating that an accountant was on his way and that for reasons which he would understand, his name had better be put on the pay rolls of the Waters-Pierce company until the accounting was completed.

Mr. Hampton said he had forgotten what the reasons were that he mentioned in the letter.

Troubles of Oil Firms.

The troubles of the oil firm of Lombard & Ayres in the early seventies was an interesting feature of the day's hearing. Mr. Lombard said that he had difficulty in obtaining tank cars to ship oil and that his company felt the difficulty of competing with the Standard, which he said, was deceiving rebates from the trunk lines. He had two conferences with A. J. Cassatt, of the Pennsylvania railroad, but was told that the rebates which were given the Standard did not amount to much. Mr. Cassatt, the witness said, suggested that his difficulties would doubtless cease if he united the Lombard company with the Standard.

Anthony Brady, Albany, told Tuesday how the Manhattan Oil company of Ohio was sold to a London company. Mr. Brady said he had no idea when the sale was made that the company was going into the hands of the Standard Oil company.

MANY ANSWERS RE- CEIVED IN CONTEST

Three Persons Secure Tickets to Show.

PLAN TO BE TRIED AGAIN.

More than seventy answers were received by the Palladium contest conducted through the classified column to discover typographical mistakes that would spell the name of "The Show Girl," a production soon to be at the Gennett, the winners to receive two tickets, one ticket, and one ticket for first, second and third places respectively, the winners to be determined from the postmark on the envelopes provided more than one had the correct answer. The first prize went to Ruby Kavanaugh of 61 John street; the second to Fred Crowe, 224 North Seventeenth street, and the third to Lewis W. Matti, 243 Southwest Third street.

The plan proved so popular that it has been determined to try it again tomorrow under the same conditions and with the same prizes offered.

KNOWS HOW

Doctor Had Been Over the Road.

When a doctor, who has been the victim of the coffee habit, cures himself by leaving off coffee and taking Postum Food Coffee, he knows something about what he is advising in that line.

A good old doctor in Ohio, who had at one time been the victim of the coffee habit, advised a woman to leave off coffee and take on Postum.

She suffered from indigestion and a weak and irregular heart and general nervous condition. She thought that it would be difficult to stop coffee abruptly. She says: "I had considerable hesitancy about making the change, one reason being that a friend of mine tried Postum and did not like it. The doctor, however, gave explicit directions that Postum must be boiled long enough to bring out the flavor and food value."

"His suggestions were carried out and the delicious beverage fascinated me, so that I hastened to inform my friend who had rejected Postum. She is now using it regularly, after she found that it could be made to taste good."

"I observed, a short time after starting Postum, a decided change in my nervous system. I could sleep soundly and my brain was more active. My complexion became clear and rosy, whereas, it had been muddy and spotted before; in fact, all of the abnormal symptoms disappeared and I am now feeling perfectly well."

"Another friend was troubled in much the same manner as I, and she has recovered from her heart and stomach trouble by leaving off coffee and using Postum Food Coffee. "I know of several others who have had much the same experience. It is only necessary that Postum be well boiled and it wins its own way." "There's a Reason." Read "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.

SPIRIT OF LOVE IS MANIFEST IN YEARLY MEETING

today there are Friends in all parts of the world.

Women Heartily Welcomed.

One of the most noticeable features is the warmth of welcome extended to the women ministers in the church. They were received with as much heartiness and regard as were the older ministers of the other sex. The men voted that there should be still more women ministers in the church, owing to the good they have done in the past. Following the reading of the minutes carried by the visiting Friends, a committee composed of Charles E. Hiatt, William West, Daniel Lawrence, Isaac Furnas, Clyde O. Watson, A. C. T. Baldwin, Leander J. Woodard, Ida Parker, Mary Baldwin, Hannah Lawrence and Dorothy E. Luther, was appointed to return the minutes and greetings to the yearly meetings from whence the visiting Friends came.

Gospel Service Committee.

The committee selected on gospel service, which will care for the devotional exercises of the meeting and the arrangements for placing of Friends' ministers in other church pulpits in Richmond next Sunday, is composed of the following:

Robert W. Douglas, Daisy Barr, Ellwood Scott, Timothy Nicholson, Fred E. Smith, L. Ella Hartley, George Bird, Charles O. Whitely, Alice Hunt, Allen Jay, Oliver Frazier, Thomas Williams, William Bennett, Ira C. Johnson, Ruth Carey, Esther Cook, William S. Elliott, Martha Thornton and Meredith Hinshaw.

Epistles are Read.

The Dublin and London yearly meetings were shown to be in a most excellent condition as the epistles read from those bodies describing the work that is being carried on by them, were descriptive and told of the advancement both organizations have made. The report from the London meeting, breathed the sentiment that the original custom of the Quakers to never speak in meeting till the spirit moved them should still be maintained. This the epistle said, was still very dear to the members of the London meeting. The London yearly meeting will send five representatives to the Five Years' meeting to be held in Richmond soon. The missionary scope of the London meeting has been greatly enlarged in the past year. The foreign mission department was threatened with curtailment for a time owing to the lack of sufficient funds. This condition has past away and the London meeting hopes to still further enlarge its foreign mission work during the coming year. The epistles from the London meeting was signed by Henry Lloyd Wilson and Rachael Bartley Brethwaite.

Dublin is Optimistic.

The epistle from Dublin was as optimistic for the future as was the one read from the London meeting. The home mission work being carried on in Ireland under the supervision of the Dublin meeting is progressing rapidly and is on a firm foundation. Much good is being done. Foreign missions are being carried on in Japan, China, Syria and Madagascar by the Dublin meeting. This body will also send five delegates to the Five Years' meeting to be held in Richmond. The epistle was signed by Samuel Drury and Jonathan Goodbody.

Officers are Named.

This afternoon officers for the yearly meeting were elected. Timothy Nicholson, it was thought, would be continued in office notwithstanding the fact that he would rather be retired in favor of a younger man. As Mr. Nicholson is one of the leading spirits in the Indiana body it was not thought the Indiana body would think of any one but him for the position of clerk. Mr. Nicholson handles the multitudinous amount of business coming up for consideration each year with much dispatch.

Peace is Discussed.

Peace, the subject which is also very dear to the hearts of the members of the Friends' church, was discussed this afternoon and the subject elicited much comment. All were in favor of still further promoting peace, and the Friends owing to their life long adherence to the belief in world wide peace, should take a lead in the realization of such.

Opposes "Warming Up."

A strong blow at modern evangelistic methods was dealt Tuesday afternoon by the Rev. Charles Replogle of Everett, Wash., who is a delegate to the Indiana Yearly meeting of Friends from the Puget Sound quarterly meeting, the "baby" quarterly meeting of the great Indiana body. With the addition of the Puget Sound quarterly meeting Indiana now has sixteen such bodies.

In the course of his talk to them setting on ministry and oversight, which held two sessions preliminary to the opening of the yearly meeting proper the Rev. Mr. Replogle referred to the broad fields for Quakerism in the far West and the great things it is hoped to accomplish there. He spoke especially of the solidity and simplicity of the buildings that have been erected, exemplifying the early Quaker idea of simplicity in worship. The new church at Seattle cost $12,000.

The Rev. Mr. Replogle then declared that the church cannot go into the things the world goes into, and that the church is in a poor way if it is to be "warmed up" to evangelism. The peo-

Startling Discovery.

JUMPED FROM A WINDOW.

New York, Sept. 25.—When Harry D. Hernick awoke this morning he found that in a trance he had stabbed his wife. He leaped from a third story window and crushed out his life on the pavement. Mrs. Hernick may not recover.

Professor de Launay says that there is in Bulgaria a group of natural columns much like the Giants' Causeway in Ireland. On the edge of a plateau in the open country rises this forest of natural columns, which gives the impression of an antique ruin. The columns, which are about fifteen or twenty feet high are absolutely cylindrical, and they are often as much as three feet thick. The stratification of the rock resembles joints, and the vertical erosion due to rain has formed Doric flutings.

STOVE BUYERS

SIT UP AND TAKE NOTICE AND JUDGE FOR YOURSELF WHAT THIS OFFER MEANS.

Mr. J. B. Howard, the inventor of the Hot-Blast Air-Tight Florence, will demonstrate his wonderful stove on the street in front of Seany & Brown's store, 915 Main street. He will show how the FLORENCE burns smoke and convince the people of Richmond that every stove on the face of the earth outside of the construction of the FLORENCE, as an absolute SMOKE CONSUMER, is a fake and a misrepresentation and that the people have been held up and imposed upon this SMOKE-CONSUMING Question. Mr. Howard offers $5,000 to any manufacturer or dealer in stoves that will produce a stove on that day, Saturday, Sept. 28, outside the construction of the FLORENCE that will burn the smoke from the moment the fire is started or will heat the same amount of space at the same cost that the FLORENCE does. It will pay you to come and hear what Mr. Howard has to say about the stove question. Your eyes will be opened and you will be enlightened.
