DURBIN IS LIKELY TO ENTER THE RACE

Seems to Be Some Probability That He Will Run for Governor Again.

GOODWINE HANGING BACK.

ADAIR DENIES THAT HE IS OUT OF THE RUNNING—FIGHT FOR DEMOCRATIC CHAIRMAN IS BEGUN.

Indianapolis, Oct. 3.—There may be another entry—fifth in number—in the race for the republican nomination for governor. It is learned from inside sources that there is a very strong probability that ex-Governor Winfield T. Durbin will become a candidate. The ex-governor is known to be doing some "heavy thinking" on the proposition. It is expected that within a few weeks, at the longest, he will give out a statement defining his attitude in reference to the nomination.

The constitution of Indiana makes it impossible for a governor of the state to succeed himself, but there is no inhibition prohibiting a man who has served a term as governor from being nominated and elected to that office at the end of four years after the expiration of his term. No governor has served two terms under the present constitution.

The movement to induce Col. Durbin to run for governor is said to explain the reticence of Fremont Goodwine of Williamsport. Col. Durbin and Senator Goodwine are very close friends and the ex-governor will not be a candidate if Senator Goodwine should finally enter the race.

Bryan May Not Run.

Recently a report has been quietly circulated among the leading democrats of Indiana that William J. Bryan, after all, may not be the democratic nominee for president. The information, which seems to come with considerable authority, is that while the nomination undoubtedly would be his for the asking, he may decide that it would be better personal politics to wait four years, or eight years, before shying his castor into the ring again. The whole purpose of the anti-Bryan movement, in which some Indiana democrats are engaged, is to create enough opposition to him in the national convention to persuade him that his best policy is to hold aloof for four years.

Adair Not "Out."

Congressman John A. M. Adair of the Eighth district, arises to remark that there is no authority for the report that he is out of the race for the democratic nomination for governor. "I object to being read out of that race without my consent," he said. "I am still strongly inclined to run for governor and I expect to reach a decision about the first of next year."

Ex-Representative John Q. Thomas of Rushville, who was here yesterday, said:

"Down our way Jim Watson is the unanimous choice for governor. The republicans, democrats and prohibitionists are all for him and we are simply waiting for the state convention to ratify our choice."

Elliott as Diplomat.

Representative "Dick" Elliott of Connersville is developing rare gifts as a diplomat. While here yesterday he was made the target of numerous inquiries as to the probable choice of the Sixth district republicans for the congressional nomination. His reply was a very adroit "straddle."

"There are a dozen or more republicans in the Sixth district," said he, "who are willing enough, patriotic enough and able enough to serve the district in congress. I'm for all of them."

The fight for the chairmanship of the democratic state committee is on in earnest.

First J. Kirby Risk conceived the idea of giving a banquet in Bryan's honor at Lafayette during the last week in November. This was regarded as a clever stroke until Gilbert Hendren "went him one better" and captured the Nebraskan for a rally which Hendren has arranged in his honor to be given at Bloomfield on Wednesday of next week. It is now up to "Stokes" Jackson, a third aspirant for the chairmanship, to give a theater party or apple roast in Bryan's honor at Greenfield.

State Chairman O'Brien has sent out word that he positively will not accept another term as chairman and that is stimulating the activities of the other candidates for the place. So far Thomas Taggart has not signified his choice for the chairmanship, though it is presumed he has a candidate up his ample political sleeve.

Piles are caused by congestion of blood in the lower bowel, and it takes an internal remedy to remove the cause.

Dr. Leonhardt's Hem-Roid is a tablet taken internally, and no case of Piles has ever been found it failed to cure. Money back if it does fail.

WORK OF EXCAVATING IS NOW IN PROGRESS

Plows Are Turning Ground for Y. M. C. A.

ENTHUSIASTIC OVER PLANS.

Work of excavating for the Y. M. C. A. building has begun in earnest. A large portion of the debris left after the razing of the building has been cleared away, and the plough shares are turning the ground on which eventually will stand one of the handsomest buildings of its kind in Indiana. Directors and trustees of the new association, who are closely associated with the architects planning the building, are very enthusiastic over its good points.

POSTOFFICE BUSINESS SHOWS DULL MONTH

Falling Off of Receipts During September.

WILL INCREASE STEADILY.

That business was dull in Richmond during the month of September, was determined by Richmond's most truthful barometer, the postoffice. During the month the postal sales were $200 less than the amount realized off sales in September, 1906; $4,210.31 being the amount of the sale of stamps, while $644.12 of this amount was sent to the sub-treasury in Cincinnati. Postal receipts will increase from this time until after the holidays, according to the opinion of Postmaster Speckler, as the merchants of Richmond will begin sending their holiday announcements and invitations. The local office will press every available man into service during the holiday season.
