

LOCAL AND GENERAL SPORTS

BALL SEASON GOES OUT; CLOSE IS SAD

Cincinnati All-Professionals Took the Final Game by A Score of 5 to 3.

TIED UNTIL THE EIGHTH.

TWO HUNDRED AND TWENTY-FIVE FROZEN BUGS AND TWO WAR CORRESPONDENTS SAW THE PATHETIC FINISH.

(By Tort.)

ALL-PROF. 5; RICHMOND 3.

Two hundred and twenty-five foolish, frozen bugs, defying pneumonia, saw the curtain rung down Sunday on the local base ball season. The last act was kind-a-sad as the Cincinnati All-Professionals took the locals by a score of 5 to 3. The weather was really too chilly to play ice hockey. Near the east bleachers some boys built a bonfire. Ever an anon 225 bugs and two war correspondents would dash for the blaze, thaw out between innings and then dash wildly back to the scene of action where the players stood in their positions with hands thrust into their jacket pockets.

The Cincinnati outfit took one tally in the opener. In the third they drove in two more runs. Richmond then rallied and fell upon Mr. Stormstedt for five hits and three runs. The score remained a tie until the eighth when an error and a couple of hits for the Cincinnati brought in two runs and broke up the game. The game was slow and uninteresting. Score:

In August, when corn and salmon berries ripen in the cedar moss, Eskimos are everywhere with sealish, eather pelts, their gay colored parkies the hood with water-repelling fur border, adding a picturesque color note to the landscape. The Arctic blueberry is a delectable morsel, more delicious than its kindred of the States, while the salmon berry is an aesthetic delight as it lifts its royal yellow frill from a bed of autumnal tinted leaves of waxlike texture. American housewives combine the blue and salmon berry into a delicious preserve. The natives bury them in the ground, marking the place with a cover of willows. There they freeze and are taken out as needed and eaten with seal oil.—Circle.

CUT-OVER NOW SET FOR NEXT SATURDAY

Home Telephone Company Issues a Statement Regarding Its Service.

EXPENSE HAS BEEN GREAT.

IT IS ANTICIPATED THAT SOME TROUBLE MAY BE EXPECTED WITH THE NEW SERVICE UNTIL FULLY ADJUSTED.

A. C. Lindemuth, president of the Home Telephone company, has issued an announcement to the Citizens of Richmond and patrons of the company in which he says:

Unless unforeseen difficulties occur during the week, it is the intention of the Richmond Home Telephone company to cut over from its old manual system to its new automatic system at midnight the coming Saturday night.

During this week, the new telephone directories will be distributed to all the subscribers within the city limits. Those without the city limits are requested to call at the office of the company before the end of the week and secure their directories or send some one for them.

During the rebuilding of the plant all telephones and lines have been tested several times, but the final test will be made during this week from the central exchange to the subscriber and the subscriber will be requested to call back to the exchange through the new automatic instrument.

We hope that all patrons will assist the inspector in making this test so as to secure as near as possible satisfactory results.

The great task of putting up an absolutely fire-proof building, the installation of an entire new automatic equipment in the central exchange, and the building and equipping of three substations, the construction of a comprehensive underground system in the main part of the city, from the river to Sixteenth street and the entire reconstruction of the overhead system throughout the city, has been very much more expensive and required much more time and labor than originally anticipated.

This, too, has all had to be done and at the same time service maintained over the old system, which has undoubtedly added additional expense from between $10,000 and $15,000. The difficulties have been greater and the cost heavier than the construction of an absolutely new plant.

While we hope there will be no trouble with the new system after the cut over, still we anticipate that there may be some, for it would be reasonable to expect so much new and complicated machinery would not work perfectly or smoothly from the very instant.

We believe as soon as the new system is in good working order the people of Richmond as well as the officers and stock-holders in the company, will be greatly pleased in having the most modern and up-to-date telephone plant in the United States.

The Long Distance Telephone companies of Ohio and Indiana have in the last few days decided to put in to our new exchange, a new long distance board to be in harmony with our new local exchange. It will be several weeks however, before the new toll board can be installed and until then the old board will be used. As soon as the new toll board is installed and the office moved over to the new building, the new building will be opened to the general public and a day and evening set apart for the inspection of our equipment.

A HOMELESS STRANGER SENT TO THE HOSPITAL

Wm. Downing Suffering From Blood Poisoning.

ARM TWICE USUAL SIZE.

William Downing, a man about fifty-five years of age, homeless and a stranger in this city, wandered into police headquarters Sunday and asked for medical assistance. The man while corn husking, had received a cut between the thumb and forefinger of his right hand. Blood poisoning set in and the unfortunate man was almost frantic with pain. His right arm was swollen twice its natural size. Downing was sent to Reid hospital for treatment.

FALSE ALARM OF FIRE.

A Peril Always to Be Met Promptly on Board Ship.

It was on board the Northern Light says Captain Osborn in "A Sailor of Fortune," that a false alarm of fire was sounded and disaster prevented only by prompt action. A passenger looking down through the boiler hatch saw the red painted boiler fronts and seeing the flame-like color amid a cloud of steam, shouted, "Fire!" Immediately the whole vessel was in an uproar, and a dangerous panic was imminent. I was one of the underofficers.

The climax came when the quarter master saw a minister of the gospel on the rail trying to lower the bow of one of the ship's boats. I ran to him and ordered him to come down on deck. The minister paid no attention, and seized his coat tail to drag him down by force.

Perhaps it was an old coat, for the seams parted, and a second later I had the ministerial coat tail in my hands. He came down then. He was angry; and was likewise a spectacle to look upon.

He started to call an indignation meeting, but most of the passengers had recovered from their fright by this time and were inclined to be merry at the reverend gentleman's expense.

He went raging to the captain, who summoned me to appear. I came, still carrying the coat tail in my hand.

"Mr. Osborn," he said, "what are your orders in case of a false alarm of fire?"

"My orders," I said, "are to stop it by any means necessary. I may knock a man down, throttle him or split him wide open."

The captain turned to theirate minister.

"Those are Mr. Osborn's orders," he said. "You are fortunate that it was only your coat that was split open." The danger from the false alarm of fire on shipboard is second only to the real thing and is always a peril to be met promptly.

Chicago Gets Freddie Parent In Exchange.

COMISKEY WELL PLEASED.

Chicago, Oct. 14—President Comiskey of the White Stockings, returned to the city from his farm at McHenry, Ill., where he spent two days in an effort to recover from a bad cold. As soon as he arrived in town the "Old Roman" announced the completion of a deal whereby Jake Stahl, the former Washington manager, who was the property of the Chicago Club, had been traded to the Boston American for infielder Freddie Parent. President Comiskey is pleased with the deal and believes the acquisition of Parent will strengthen the White Sox. The refusal of Stahl to sign a Sox contract this summer resulting in his failure to play any major league games, did not help the Sox in their fight for the American League pennant, and the Sox leader figures that with Parent in action his team will make a stronger fight for the flag next year.
