FEW CHANGES WILL BE MADE IN TIGERS

Pitching Staff Only Part That Is Likely to Undergo Additions.

FOUR MEN NOT ENOUGH.

CATCHERS ARE BELIEVED TO BE ALL RIGHT—DETROIT WILL TRAIN AT HOT SPRINGS AND LITTLE ROCK.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 22.—Aside from the batteries no changes will be made in the Detroit lineup next season. Manager Jennings says he will stand pat on the American League pennant winners of this year. He had contemplated making a change at first base, but Claude Rossman displayed such class during the world's series and the hard campaign that neither Charley Carr, Brown or any one else will be given a chance to fill his brogans at the first sack.

It is the pitching staff that will cause Hughey some worry. Four regulars have done fine work, but he figures that four is not enough. Ed Summers, the leading flinger on the Indianapolis Browns, will very probably be the fifth man and Willets or Jones sixth.

There is little chance of a change in the catching department. Schmidt and Payne were handicapped during the latter part of the season by injuries. They both hit good in the race for the flag, but fell down woefully in the fight for the world's title. However, Hughey had faith in both of them and they will be behind the bat next spring for the Tigers.

The locals will train at Hot Springs and Little Rock, Ark., next spring.

"RUBE" MAY TRY POLO GAME.

Sharon, Pa., Oct. 22.—Eccentric old "Rube" Waddell is looking round for a means of livelihood this winter. He now asserts that he is a goal tender of experience and he wants to fill this position on the Sharon Interstate polo team. Manager Jones is thinking seriously of bringing him to sub for Sutton.

His Dear Old Mother.

"My dear old mother, who is now eighty-three years old, thrives on Electric Bitters," writes W. B. Brunson, of Dublin, Ga. "She has taken them for about two years and enjoys an excellent appetite, feels strong and sleeps well." That's the way Electric Bitters affect the aged, and the same happy results follow in all cases of female weakness and general debility. Weak, puny children too, are greatly strengthened by them. Guaranteed also for stomach, liver and kidney troubles, by A. G. Luken & Co., Druggist, 50c.

REDS DEFEATED CONNERSVILLE.

Connorsville, Ind., Oct. 22.—The Cincinnati Reds won from the Connorsville team, 6 to 5. Pruitt, of the Connorsville Americans, pitched for the locals and allowed only eight hits.

DUNKIRK IS CLAIMING BE BEST INDEPENDENT

Says It Is Entitled to Baseball Championship.

Dunkirk, Ind., Oct. 22.—Dunkirk claims the independent State base ball championship for 1907, and its record supports the claim. The nine has beaten all the best teams in Indiana and has, moreover, won two games from the Cincinnati Reds. The Dayton Central league team was also humbled by the strong local aggregation.

With such good pitchers as Hay, Perdue, Romine, Grey and Carmichael Dunkirk has the best staff in the state outside of Indianapolis, of course. Other strong players are Wolfe, Hall, Willis and Bumgartner. All the pitchers are good men in the infield and outfield and play in every game.

DUNKIRK WAS DEFEATED.

Lost Monday's Game to the Cincinnati Reds.

Muncie, Ind., Oct. 22.—Indiana's baseball champions, of Dunkirk, lost to the Cincinnati Reds of the National league, at Shamrock park yesterday afternoon by a score of 7 to 5. The game did not come up to expectations until the seventh inning, when the Dunkirks pulled ahead of the Reds who were forced to put forth their best efforts in the two succeeding innings.

The Word "Ale."

What could be more English than the word ale? It carries us back to the banquets of our dead ancestors in Wal-halla, and some of its compounds open up vistas into that old England which is fast disappearing, becoming a tale that is told, obsolete itself. Such are alehouse, a tavern sign, ale corner, "an officer appointed in every court leet and sworn to look to the assize and goodness of bread, ale and beer." Ale-cost, the name of a kind of tansy used to flavor the rustic's home brewed, has a good old English look. Yet it bears witness to the mongrel nature of the speech of this mongrel nation, cost being from the Greek kustos, a savory herb of species unidentified. Alegr is eager or sour ale, used as vinegar.—Cornhill Magazine.

Wellington and Waterloo.

Helme, in speaking of Wellington's good luck at Waterloo, says: "This man has the bad fortune to meet with the world is unfortunate. We see in him the victory of stupidity over genius."

—Arthur Wellington triumphant when Napoleon Bonaparte was overwhelmed. Wellington and Napoleon! It is a wonderful phenomenon that the human mind can at the same time think of both these names.

MAKING A BALLOON.

The Way It Is Patched, Varnished and Powdered.

A balloon consists of patches of cloth about a yard square sewed securely together. This is not because of any difficulty in making the fabric of a globular shape, for that could easily be done if the pieces were shaped like the skin on the section of an apple. The reason is that no absolutely reliable fabric has yet been invented, and there is always the possibility of the balloon bursting. Should this happen to one of these patches, the escape of gas will not be dangerously rapid, as it would be if larger sections were used.

When the balloon is made it is carefully varnished, three coats being given, and each being allowed to dry thoroughly before the next is applied. If one coat is left most the fabric will be attacked by a species of dry rot, which will make it as fragile as the paper this is printed on. In the early days of ballooning many fatal accidents were due to this defect, but now the utmost care is exercised.

When a balloon is packed up for a journey, powdered chalk is sprinkled between the folds, as otherwise they would stick together and tear.—Pearson's Weekly.

Hard on Joseph.

Outside the photographer's establishment in the little country town stood two figures—evidently father and son. At last they went in.

"Oh! want yer to take a picture of our Joseph, 'ere, malster," said the fond parent, and Joseph was promptly placed in a chair and requested to compose his features for awhile.

The photographer's specialty was quick developing, and soon several negatives lay before the purchaser.

The father gazed uneasily at them for a space and then said nervously: "You say in the window, malster, as 'ow yer can touch up the pictures to give any effect agreeable to yer customers."

"That is so," assented the artist readily, hastening to add, with his best professional smile, "but in your son's case any retouching is absolutely unnecessary."

"Ow, ay?" said the father. "That be main like Joseph, but to teller truth he's got to send up wi' his testimonials for a job, an' I'd like yer to alter his photo to make him look honest like!"—London Mail.

It will require $31,641,223 to run the public school system of New York city for the year just beginning.

"Have you many friends?"

"Yes. Everybody who lends me money is my friend. Do you wish to become one?"—Lustige Blatter.

Two house martins built their nests against an attic window of a farm, to which the birds had come for several successive years. Last spring, however before they arrived an enterprising sparrow took up her abode in one of the nests. Shortly after this the martins returned as usual and one day the farm people noticed that the hole of the nest which the sparrow occupied had been blocked up. Next morning a boy climbed up to ascertain the meaning, and not finding any outlet broke away a part of the nest to find the poor sparrow dead on her eggs. The house martins had walled her up for daring to take possession of their house.

After the rise in the price of bread and coal comes the news of a probable increase in the cost of whiskey in England. The two reasons assigned for the expected rise are the poor barley crop and the increased price of fuel.
