OLIVE BRANCH SYNOD.

MRS. EMMA CRIVEL OF RICHMOND IS ON THE PROGRAM FOR AN ADDRESS ON "LOOKING BACKWARD."

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 24.—The Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Board of the Olive Branch Lutheran synod, began its twenty-sixth annual convention at St. Paul's English Lutheran church Wednesday morning. About one hundred delegates are in attendance, including missionaries from Africa and India.

The morning session was taken up with the reports of officers.

During the afternoon session papers will be read by Mrs. A. C. Miller, of Louisville, on "What May Be the Value of the Devotional Hour to the Monthly Meeting," Mrs. Ida Beecher, "Our Missionary Literature," Mrs. Helen Beagle, field secretary, "Our New Magazine," Mrs. Emma Crivel, historian, "A Glimpse at the Auxiliaries." Today was taken up with religious services and reports.

Silver Jubilee Exercises.

The silver jubilee service will be held tonight in the Second English Lutheran church. The program includes the following:

Address—"Looking Backward"—Mrs. Emma Crivel, Richmond, Ind.

Address—Mrs. Victor McCauley, returned missionary from Lutheran station in India.

A Remarkable Church.

A small watering place in Austria named Elchwald can boast of possessing a most remarkable church. It was first built by an Italian architect at Venice at the expense of Prince Carlos Clary-Aldringen, a great admirer of Italian architecture. When it was finished, the church was taken to pieces again and packed in thousands of numbered cases for transportation to Elchwald. At this place in Austria it was eventually rebuilt and then made over to the inhabitants as a free gift from the prince.

The Seeds Were There.

Farmer Nabbins (shouting across the garden fence to his next door neighbor)—Hey, there! What are you burying in that hole? Neighbor—Oh, I'm just replanting some of my garden seeds. Nabbins—Garden seeds, eh? Looks to me mighty like one of my hens. Neighbor—That's all right. The seeds are inside.—London Mail.

His Solution.

"Tomkins and his wife always get along splendidly. They do just as they please."

"How fortunate! How do you account for it?"

"They don't live together."—Milwaukee Sentinel.

A Pair of Whys.

She (coming down late)—Why do you wear that yachting cap? You are never on a yacht. He—Why do you wear that watch? You are never on time.—Bohemian Magazine.

NEARLY DOZEN ARE SEEKING WATSON'S PLACE IN CONGRESS

So Far There Are Ten Names Being Mentioned in Connection With the Sixth District Nomination.

BARROWS AND MOORE ARE IN A QUANDRY.

A Primary May Be Necessary In Fayette County—All the Candidates for Governor Confident of Winning.

Indianapolis, Oct. 24.—Three of the numerous candidates for the republican congressional nomination in the Sixth district met in the lobby of the Claypool hotel quite by accident yesterday and each said to the other two: "What are you fellows doing here?" Mayor Fred Barrows of Connersville and Will Hough of Greenfield came to attend the session of the bankers' convention and State Senator E. E. Moore of Connersville, stopped off while enroute home from Shelby county, where he had been calling on Republicans who do things.

It would please Senator Moore mightily if Mayor Barrows would decide not to enter the congressional race for that would give the senator a clear field in Fayette county. Barrows feels the same way in regard to Moore. Not being able to decide which one shall do a disappearing act they are both holding on and waiting for further developments in the situation.

Senator Moore said yesterday that in the event both he and Mayor Barrows stay in the race he will suggest a primary in Fayette county, thus giving the republican voters an opportunity to select the county's candidate. Barrows was not ready to say what he wanted or what he would do.

Besides Barrows, Moore and Hough there are any number of other Sixth district men who are willing to shoulder the congressional banner of the republican party next year. Among them are the Rev. J. O. Campbell, Wilfred Jessup and Dr. M. W. Yencer of Richmond, Charles W. Silvers of Liberty, W. O. Barnard of New Castle, with Edward Hancock of Brookville and Thomas Davidson of Greensburg, ready to dip in if the situation looks sufficiently encouraging to them.

ALL ARE CONFIDENT.

Candidates for Governor Sure of Being Nominated.

Indianapolis, Oct. 24.—With the coming of Charles W. Miller and Congressman James E. Watson to Indianapolis yesterday the republican gubernatorial race took on big quantities of renewed activity. Mr. Miller had been in New York for two weeks on legal business and Congressman Watson had been doing a campaigning stunt in the southern end of the state for nearly a week. W. L. Taylor had also been out of the city a part of the time.

Mr. Miller held forth at the Denison hotel, the greater part of the day and met a number of out-of-town republicans who came to see him. Congressman Watson was closeted in his private room at the Claypool much of the time. W. L. Taylor's headquarters in the State Life building was also a very busy place.

Mr. Miller said he was willing to go on record as predicting his own nomination. "As far as I can tell the situation as it regards my candidacy has not changed since I announced myself seven weeks ago," said he. "I believed then that I would be nominated and I believe the same now."

Mr. Miller had heard that an effort might be made to hold the state convention earlier than usual and he said that he was opposed to any such move. "I think the convention should be held at the usual time, in April," said he.

Congressman Watson was equally optimistic concerning his chances of success in the convention. Republicans with whom he talked yesterday said that they have never seen him more confident. He is being deluged with invitations to deliver addresses in different parts of the state, and is accepting as many of them as possible. He considers these invitations an indication that he is popular with the masses of the people.

William L. Taylor said yesterday that he expects to be the nominee of the republican convention. The argument that he uses most frequently is that he has the friendship of the laboring classes and that he can secure their votes. He contends that the party must nominate the "best runner," and he considers himself to be that.

Lieutenant Governor Hugh T. Miller is now engaged in visiting different parts of the state, meeting his old friends and getting acquainted with new ones.

An Ancient Flying Ship.

In the Evening Post, a London newspaper published in the reign of Queen Anne and bearing date 20-22 December, 1709, there is a curious description of a flying ship, stated to have been invented by Bartholomew Lorenzo, a Brazilian priest. The paper has an engraving of the airship and a long letterpress description. The inventor claimed that he could travel 200 miles in twenty-four hours.

THEATRICAL CALENDAR.

NEW PHILLIPS.
Week of Oct. 21—Vaudeville.
GENNETT.
Week of Oct. 21—Murray Comedy Co. Nov. 2—"Isle of Spice."

"Isle of Spice."

B. C. Whitney's latest edition of that piquant musical mixture, "Isle of Spice" comes to the Gennett November 2. This delightful musical extravaganza is one of the most tuneful ever written and boasts what is claimed to be one of the best drilled and most talented companies on tour. Charles A. Pusey, the delightfully droll comedian, is featured as "King Bompomka" and his grotesque make-up and humorous interpretation of the many laughable musical numbers that fall to his lot prove him worthy to rank with the leading exponents of musical comedy.

Vaudeville at the Phillips.

Friday night at the New Phillips the amateurs are to have opportunity to show what they can do and two prizes will be offered, one for first and one for second place, in the estimation of the audience. At the matinee Saturday top balloons are to be given all children under fifteen who attend. Pontinella continues to be the center of interest. He was taken for an automobile ride Wednesday afternoon and various incidents on the trip created considerable excitement, but no harm was done. At Seventh and Main a big crowd was attracted by a collision with the curb.

Murray Comedy Company.

The program for the remainder of the week at the Gennett is as follows: Thursday night, "Ruined Lives"; Friday night, "The Cattle King"; Saturday night, "The Texan"; Wednesday matinee, "Sin and Its Sorrows"; Friday matinee, "Thorns and Orange Blossoms"; Saturday matinee, "Little Lord Fauntleroy."
