Would You Keep Your Plants from Freezing?

You can keep fire over night, and have the stove burn up two or three hours the next morning with the fuel put in the night before. This is possible with Cole's Original Hot Blast Stove, because it is ABSOLUTELY AIR-TIGHT. Unlike the ordinary stove, its construction requires no putty to make seams and joints proof against air-leaks. Burns soft coal, hard coal or wood.

Catarrh of The Stomach

A Most Dangerous Disease, Which Causes Serious Results, Unless Properly Treated.

Catarrh of the Stomach is very common and is known as one of the most obstinate diseases, which, when neglected or improperly treated with cheap patent medicines, tonics, drugs, pills, and other secret quack remedies results in a broken down constitution and often consumption and death.

Catarrh of the Stomach, like every other disease of the stomach except cancer, is the result of poor digestion. The digestive organs have become weak, there is a lack of gastric juice, your food is only half digested, and as a result you become affected with loss of appetite, pressure and fullness after eating, heartburn, vomiting, waterbrash, tenderness at pit of stomach, slimy tongue, bad taste in the mouth, constipation, pain in limbs and face, sleeplessness, nausea, belching of gas, diarrhoea, sick headaches, dizziness, mental depression, nervous weakness, and many other common symptoms.

If your stomach cannot digest the food you eat, then the stomach needs a rest, as that is the only way you can get rid of your catarrh, but in the meantime your body needs plenty of nourishment, because you must live and in order to live you must eat, and if you must eat, your food must be properly digested, and if your stomach is too weak to do the work, then you must get a substitute that will do the work.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are the only known substitute that will digest your food as well as any healthy stomach. They contain vegetable and fruit essences, aseptic pepsin (gov. test), golden seal and diastase, the very elements necessary to digest all foods.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are not a secret remedy and for that very reason thousands of physicians all over the United States recommend them to their patients for catarrh of the stomach, dyspepsia of all kinds, and other stomach troubles. Experiments and tests have proven that one grain of the active principle contained in these tablets will digest 3,000 grains of food.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are in the form of pleasant tasting tablets or lozenges and are sold in large fifty-cent boxes at all drug stores.

Send us your name and address and we will send you a free sample package. The relief you will get from this trial package alone will convince you of the merits of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. Address F. A. Stuart Co., 150 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

Blindness of Conscience.

"Ever notice the density of a conceited person?" asked a business man. "To me that's the most striking thing about such an individual. Maybe he has some qualities that justify his good opinion of himself, and maybe not. He's dense just the same, and the proof of it is that he doesn't realize how he impresses his associates unpleasantly. If the average conceited man had the least idea of the handiwork under which he is laboring he'd shed it mighty quick. But he hasn't, and it's impossible to drill it into him. He's the modern human ostrich, with his head stuck into the sand, so far as any recognition of his disagreeable trait is concerned."—New York Press.

FRIEND OF MORTON CALLED TO REWARD

The Rev. Daniel R. Lucas Died Suddenly at Indianapolis Sunday Afternoon.

SICK WITH MALARIAL FEVER

THIRTY-THIRD ANNIVERSARY OF DEATH OF GOVERNOR MORTON AND ALMOST AT THE HOUR OF MORTON MEMORIAL SERVICES.

Indianapolis, Nov. 4.—The Rev. Daniel R. Lucas, a national figure in political, religious and G. A. R. life, died suddenly at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon of heart trouble, occasioned by a four weeks' illness with malarial fever, at his residence, 521 North New Jersey street. Strangely coincident with his death is the fact that it occurred on the thirty-third anniversary of the death of Oliver P. Morton, Indiana's great war governor, to whom Dr. Lucas was a bosom friend, and whose memory and deeds, almost at the very hour of the latter's life, were being commemorated by patriotic services at the Fletcher Place M. E. church. Likewise coincident with the death is the fact that Mrs. Oliver P. Morton, who died within a week following the dedication of the Morton monument—the one fond realization of her life's hopes—passed away just three months to the day ahead of Dr. Lucas, who preached her funeral sermon. Dr. Lucas's death occurred almost a week after the Morton monument commission, of which Dr. Lucas was secretary, had made its final report and passed out of existence.

Caused Profound Shock.

The news of the death of Dr. Lucas yesterday caused a profound shock as it spread throughout the city. Perhaps no man in Indiana was more widely known and held in higher esteem than he. Although it was known that he was ill, his recovery was expected, and his sudden demise caused surprise everywhere. Dr. Lucas had not been in good health since last April, when he was ill for a time with la grippe. Four weeks ago he was forced to remain indoors with an attack of malarial fever, but later he improved to such an extent, that he felt able to go to Norfolk, Va., to attend the National Convention of Christian churches. While there, he became worse, however, and was compelled to return to his home. Since that time he had been confined to his bed much of the time in care of Dr. J. H. Brill, who found it necessary to stimulate the heart's action.

The life of Dr. Lucas in its variety was almost without parallel. He was a leader-fearless, loyal and unflinching, and was elevated many times to office by his friends. No patriotic or religious service, calling for united effort by people in Indianapolis, especially, was complete without the Rev. Dr. Lucas. For ten years he was an evangelist and at different times he was the pastor of some of the most prominent churches in Indiana, Illinois and Iowa.

Dr. Lucas was born Jan. 14, 1849, and reared at Belvidere, Boone county, Illinois, getting his education at Belvidere academy.

GREAT RESULTS AND GOOD WORK CONTINUES.

Root Juice Has Proved Its Great Merit to Many.

Many people of Richmond, as elsewhere, are no longer incredulous, they are simply amazed at the results obtained from Root Juice. When the remedy was first introduced to this community and so many were being benefitted by a few doses, it was generally thought that the medicine would only give temporary relief, but as time passes and many that were ailing are no longer complaining, but are advising their sick friends to try Root Juice, confidence in the great medicine is becoming positive. Root Juice makes so many remarkable cures by removing a few causes and giving nature a chance. It tones and heals the stomach, bowels, liver and kidneys; it creates a healthy appetite, and by its toning action on the blood-making and blood filtering organs, good, rich blood is made to nourish every weak part of the body. If your stomach, bowels, liver or kidneys are out of order, they will be pleased to tell you all about it at Luken's drug store. Root Juice is a bottle. It has proved all that is claimed for it.

"What are you reading, Marian?" asked mamma of a little girl with her head bent down under a heavy volume in her lap. "The Wide Awake World," mamma. "Gracious, child!" interrupted a Meg sister. "You can't understand more than half of that book." Marian looked at the speaker with dignity. "I read it for the half I do understand," she said.—St. Louis Republic.

RANDOLPH COUNTY HAS "TOBACCO DAY"

Meeting of Farmers Arranged To Discuss the Raising Of the Weed.

ADDRESS BY HON. A. H. JUDY

AFFAIR IN CHARGE OF THE COMMERCIAL CLUB—TOBACCO IS A PROFITABLE CROP BUT FARMERS HESITATE TO GROW IT.

Winchester, Ind., Nov. 4.—Saturday was "tobacco day" in Parker City and the farmers in the western part of Randolph county were invited in to receive instructions in the raising of this valuable crop. Hon. A. H. Judy, of Greenville, O., an expert tobacco raiser, made two addresses during the day. The meeting was in charge of the Parker Commercial club. Judy gave an informal talk in the K. of P. hall in the afternoon and answered all the questions propounded to him by his auditors. At night the speaker delivered an address on "Profits and the Culture of Tobacco."

New in Randolph County.

A fair amount of tobacco was raised in Randolph county this summer. Although the crop is a new one here, across the line in Darke county, Ohio, the farmers have raised tobacco successfully for years and land there is rated as the most valuable ground in the state. Most of the tobacco in Randolph county was raised near the Darke county line, although several acres of the precious weed were set out north of this city and in the western part of the county. In a few years more, however, a number of people predict that Randolph will be known as a great tobacco raising county and the soil is said to be adapted to the industry.

Farmers Hesitate.

Although tobacco is one of the most profitable crops that can be raised, a number of farmers hesitate to engage in the culture of the weed because of the tremendous amount of work required and the fact that numerous sheds have to be built to take care of the product. When the industry has passed the experimental stage, however, it is found to be a success, these objections will soon be brushed aside.

The Sunrise Of Life.

Infants and children are constantly needing a laxative. It is important to know what to give them. Their stomachs and bowels are not strong enough for salts, purgative waters or cathartic pills, powders or tablets. Give them a mild, pleasant, gentle, laxative tonic like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which sells at the small sum of 50 cents or $1 at drug stores. It is the one great remedy for you to have in the house to give children when they need it.

PLEASANT JAILS.

The Way Prisoners in Montenegro Are Treated.

When I paid a visit to the Cetinje jail I found that all the prisoners were out for a walk. For two hours every morning and again for two hours in the afternoon they are allowed to wander about on the green before the prison. There is nothing, indeed, but their own sense of honor to prevent their going farther afield unless they be murderers, in which case they wear chains. The authorities provide them with housing, of course, and with clothes—not uniform—also with a fire at which to cook their food, and they give them fourpence a day each to buy it. The prisoners cater for themselves. Two of them go to the market every morning to buy provisions for the day. They are not required to work unless they choose, and they are classified not according to the seriousness of their offense, but according to their standard of life and general behavior. If a man of education and refinement is sent to prison, care is taken to lodge him, so far as possible, in a room where the other occupants belong to his own rank in life. I found on one bed a beautiful counterpane and a pillow covered with delicate embroidery. "Yes, poor fellow, that's his wife's handiwork," the governor of the jail remarked casually as we passed. In one prison life was made so easy and pleasant that on leaving it I ventured to remark that to be there was no punishment, it seemed to me.

"No punishment!" the official who was with me exclaimed in surprise. "But think of the disgrace of being here. Is not that in itself punishment enough?"

I had and still have doubts on the subject, for I had just seen a cheery old fellow who, although the time for which he was sentenced had expired, stoutly refused to quit the prison.—Edith Sellers in Fortnightly Review.

TWELVE-YEAR-OLD GIRL HAS PLENTY OF NERVE

Broke Arm and Ran for the Doctor's Office.

MOTHER WAS PROSTRATED.

Hagerstown, Ind., Nov. 4.—Gertrude Shuler, twelve years old, who fell and broke her right arm above the wrist, showed much nerve. The accident caused her mother to become prostrated. The little girl ran to the office of the family physician, and, not finding him there, went to his residence. He was not at home, and the nervous sufferer ran to the office of another physician, who examined her hurt and found a fracture of both bones of the forearm. She was placed on the operating table, and when her mother found her she was under the influence of ether and the broken bones were set and bandaged.
