BUTLER WAS LUCKY TO SECURE THE PARK

Game With Earlham Thanksgiving Is Expected to Draw a Big Crowd.

OTHER TEAMS WANTED IT.

WABASH AND NOTRE DAME WOULD LIKE TO PLAY IN INDIANAPOLIS ON THE GREAT HOLIDAY—STRONG IN NEW STYLE.

Commenting on football the sporting writer of the Indianapolis Star says: The deal was closed yesterday afternoon whereby Butler college and Earlham will play a Thanksgiving day game at Washington Park. Manager Kitterman of Butler and W. H. Watkins yesterday signed contracts giving Butler Washington Park for the "turkey day" game.

Butler has achieved a big victory in securing the park for this day as a number of the other schools have been negotiating all season with Watkins with a view to playing a Thanksgiving day game in Indianapolis. Wabash has been trying to get in on the Thanksgiving day game either by playing Butler or some other school. Manager McGannon of Notre Dame had taken up correspondence with Indiana university with a view to playing off the tie between these two schools here on Nov. 28. The game would have been a great drawing card with the Indianapolis football fans, but the contest between Butler and Earlham is expected to draw a larger crowd.

The recent strong showing of Butler has made her team one to be respected by the other colleges of the state, and it is a significant fact that De Pauw declined to play her on Thanksgiving day. Butler held Franklin to a 0 to 0 score in Monday's game. De Pauw was only able to score on the Baptists through a place kick and this puts Butler and the Methodists on the same ground. Earlham has played a steady consistent game all year and when these two teams line up on Thanksgiving day a fast, hard contest will be witnessed.

Butler Strong in New Style.

It has been through the use of the forward pass and inside kick that Butler has been able to make a strong showing in every game this season. As Earlham was very successful with this style of play against Franklin, the contest on Thanksgiving day is expected to present one of the best exhibitions of the working of the "new rules" that has been put up in Indianapolis this season.

Irwin Field was crowded with candidates yesterday afternoon and Coach McKay put his men through the hardest workout of the season. The men were forced to dive over a barrel when tackling the dummy and are proving hard and sure tacklers when in a game.

Kitterman, who has been holding down right end, is laid up with a wrenched knee and it is possible that he may be kept out of next Saturday's game. Two coaches are busy whipping the men into shape, Coach Shadlunger taking charge of the linemen and Coach McKay of the backs. Scrimmage work is indulged in every night.

CAMBRIDGE ACCEPTS SPICELAND'S CHALLENGE

Football Game Will Be Played At Oakland Farm.

LINEUP FOR CAMBRIDGE.

Cambridge City, Ind., Nov. 6.—The high school football team has accepted the challenge of the Spiceland aggregation for a game here at Oakland Farm on Friday, Nov. 8th. Both teams are strong and there is no doubt but that the game will be full of life. The local lineup is as follows: Marson, R. E.; Reese, R. T.; Wright, R. G.; Mosbaugh, C.; G. Drischel, L. G.; Barnett, L. T.; Taylor, L. E.; Knox, Q.; Young, R. H. B.; D. Drischel, F. B.; Diefenderfer, L. H. B.

HIGH SCHOOL TEAM LOSES TO THE T. A. P.'S

Score in Tuesday Night's Game Was 16 to 7.

GENN IS A STAR PLAYER.

The basket ball game Tuesday night at the Garfield gymnasium between the T. A. P.'s and the R. H. S. team was a fast game from start to finish, despite the fact that result stood 16 to 7 in favor of the T. A. P.'s. The high school lads played a steady game, and showed that they were as good as ever but the superior size of the T. A. P.'s combined with the star playing of Genn, was too much for high school. The lineups were as follows:

High School. T. A. P.
Thornburg ... Forwards ... Mendenhall ... Center ... Genn ... Guards ... Compton ... Merlatt ... Allinson ... Meyers.
Officials: John Thomas, umpire; Harrington, score keeper; Hamilton, time-keeper.

TO THE RAILBACK HOMESTEAD.
Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Parks of near Elkhorn Mills, will move the last of this week to their newly purchased home on the Henley road east of Richmond, formerly the old Railback homestead.

SAYS IT WAS MURDER.

Principals in a remarkable tragedy and subsequent strange trial in criminal court, New York. The man is James Wardell and the woman his wife, whom he alleged entered a suicide plot with him and took her life by gas after which he by a pre-arrangement shot her to make sure that she was dead. The authorities prove to their satisfaction that Wardell told the truth, and he was adjudged guilty of manslaughter for aiding a suicide. The next day Wardell created great astonishment in the court room by saying that he lied in his original confession and that notwithstanding the autopsy which bore him out he had deliberately murdered his wife, and wanted to die. The case is not yet finished.

ARE WE GOING TO WIN? THE QUESTION

It Is Put Squarely Up to Student Body at Earlham College.

A LACK OF ENTHUSIASM.

ONLY EIGHTEEN MEN REPORTED FOR FOOTBALL PRACTICE—VAIL HAS INTRODUCED A NUMBER OF NEW PLAYS.

The following notice was posted on the Earlham bulletin board Tuesday by the captain: "Are we going to win from De Pauw? Can we win when only eighteen men appear for practice? Forty suits have been issued. Why are they not being used? Let us all turn out and show some of the spirit which has always characterized the Earlham student body." THISTLE.

This came as a result of the poor showing at practice. After Vail had spoken in chapel, urging the necessity of hard work and after the co-eds had held an enthusiasm meeting, only eighteen men were on the field.

All the previous games have been only preliminary work for the game with Du Pauw, for only that team stands between the Quakers and the secondary championship. Unless things begin to pick up immediately, the local college will have a badly beaten team.

During the past week Coach Vail has given one team quite a number of new plays which will be used Saturday. Earlham's great weakness seems to be in the inability to handle the forward pass. However, great improvement is being shown in that department this week.

Myatification. His weakness was prevarication. His wife detested lying and constantly urged him to mend his ways. One morning she said: "Will, see if you can't be perfectly truthful today. Don't tell a lie. Now, promise!" He promised and went away to work. When he came home to dinner, she said: "Dear, did you keep your promise?" "I did," he replied soberly. "Then he caught her in his arms. 'Darling,' he cried, 'I will not lie to you. When I said I had kept my promise to you, I did not tell the truth; but, believe me, that was the only lie I told all day.'"

For twenty-two seconds she was lost in perplexity. Then she gave it up; the problem was too deep for her.
