

arsenal car coupled on it and started for the car barn north, on Mulberry and Main streets, thence west. The trolley pole endangered the overhead wires, adding to the fire display that followed.

A small boy threw a brick at the strike breakers, and this was their signal for firing. The crowd returned the first volley with stones and chased the car as far as possible, while the stone-throwing and shooting continued from the car through the entire business section of the city, a distance of seven squares, and a dozen or more people were more or less injured.

Crushed With Boulders.
Plate-glass fronts were crushed in with large boulders from the arsenal on wheels along the streets during the fusillade. A large window in the Delaware hotel, another in Marion Stewart's bookstore and another in Crowley's saloon, in the distance of five squares on Main and Mulberry streets, were broken.

Scores of men were struck with missiles and many were the narrow escapes, as 2,000 people filled the streets. After this sensational turn the crowd swore vengeance. An incoming interurban from Indianapolis was attacked at Main and Walnut streets and a stone was hurled through the window, but the car proceeded to the terminal station.

The city cars stopped after this, but the interurbans have continued to run on schedule time without molestation, except that the tracks leading into the city were blocked with telegraph poles and ties north of the city. The obstructions were removed, however.

UNION WANTS RECOGNITION.

Strikers Say Company Plans to Crush Organization.

Muncie, Ind., Jan. 2.—That it is the intention of the Indiana Union Traction Company to destroy the local membership of the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employees and that in attempting to break the organization the trouble of today has resulted, is the contention of the strikers.

The strikers declare that in asking the company to resign the agreement that has been in effect for five years, they have not asked the company for any new conditions, but on the contrary the trainmen assert they have provided a clause in the agreement by which the wage scale of the men may be lowered at any time the company's business demands a reduction of expenses, provided thirty days' notice of such cut in wages is given and that they are willing to submit all differences to an arbitration committee and abide by its rulings.

The strikers say they made every effort to settle this question peacefully, but that the company officials steadfastly refused all propositions to arbitrate, that the company would do nothing but make a flatfooted refusal to consider the resigning of the agreement. Since the unsigned agreement demands no increase in wages or decrease in working hours or anything more than the trainmen have been receiving at the hands of the company for five years, the strikers take the company's refusal to sign to mean simply that it is refusing to recognize the Amalgamated Association.

The Askin-Singer proposes to present at the Gennett next Monday night, the musical success entitled "The Time, The Place and the Girl."

ELIZABETH GOODALL.
With "The Time, The Place and the Girl."

This attraction has been the feature in New York, Chicago and other large cities. Since the beginning of the engagement the piece has broken all records in long runs. At the LaSalle theatre in Chicago, there were 465 continuous performances; at Boston, it completed a remarkable run of several weeks; at Wallace's theatre at the commencement of the present season it created marvelous enthusiasm among the lovers of comedy and music. The authors of "The Time, The Place and the Girl" are Frank R. Adams and Will M. Hough while Joseph Howard composed the music. The same trio are responsible for other successes such as "The Empire," and the new play "The Girl Question" now at the LaSalle theatre, Chicago.

FLIES UNDERGO SCIENTIFIC EXAMINATION BY COMMISSION APPOINTED BY HUGHES.

A committee has reported to Governor Hughes of New York that flies are a greater menace to health than mosquitoes, or any other insect, carrying, as they do, thousands of typhoid and other germs on their legs. The committee captured a number of flies which had been feeding on sewage, and, after a scientific examination, it was found that a fly in walking over a gelatine plate, left a trail of disease germs, such as is shown in the upper photograph. The other photographs show a fly's foot, greatly magnified.

"Our New Minister."
In Denman Thompson's and George W. Ryder's comedy, "Our New Minister," a convict released after the service of a sentence, attempts to start life anew, as does Jean Valjean. It is a moving tale, his efforts, and creates a lasting impression like the Hugo tale, even though every other minute of the drama there is a laugh at or with the fourteen country types in the play who help or hinder the convict's attempts at reformation. This metropolitan success will be seen at the Gennett Jan. 9.

"The Girl Question."
Never has Joseph E. Howard written more catchy music—music that is so easy to remember and which it is impossible not to whistle—than he has in "The Girl Question," the latest LaSalle theatre success which comes to the Gennett January 16 under the management of the Askin-Singer company, who sent this city "The Time, The Place and the Girl," "The Girl Question" is by the same authors as these big successes and the LaSalle theatre company is still playing it to the S. R. O. sign at every performance despite the fact that it has already passed the 200th mark in Chicago.

Vaudeville at the Phillips.
The Orphans' quartet continues to be the center of interest on the vaudeville bill at the New Phillips this week. Friday night interest will be shared with the amateurs, two Richmond girls making their debut at that time.

"The Girl of the Golden West."
David Belasco's "Girl of the Golden West," which had a run of two years at the Belasco theatre, New York, will be the attraction at the Gennett, Jan. 11. The play is in four acts and deals with the people of early California. Much that is novel, with realism carried to the extreme, mark the drama throughout. The climaxes are vivid and as a whole the critics everywhere pronounce it a great success.

"Dream City."
"Dream City" set a merry pace at Weber's theatre, New York, last season and the mirth exciting and tune-ful production bids good to more than duplicate its success on the road. Those who have suburban property to dispose of, would do well to look in at Weber's production of "Dream City" and see the advantages that sometimes accrue to those who seize the opportunity to sell their land when a "boom" is in progress. Genett, Jan. 10.

HIS PAPERWEIGHT.

Travels of a Bottle of Wine and Its Ultimate Fate.

A paperweight consisting of a piece of thick glass with a token wine label fastened on the back and showing through is a part of the desk furniture in the library of a man who goes to Europe nearly every year. "People look at the thing," he said, "and wonder what the wine label is doing there, and when I see the question coming I always tell the story."

"Some years ago I went to Raab, in Hungary, where I called on an old lady who in Vienna years before had shown much interest in and befriended a young American student at the university. The poor student had grown to be a rich physician, and he wanted me to call and present his compliments. When I was about to leave after a pleasant visit the woman handed me a bottle of wine which had come from her estate and asked me to take it to our mutual friend. I carried that bottle all over Europe, paid duty on it several times and finally landed it safe and sound here in the house. A few days after my return we invited the doctor for dinner, and the bottle was brought in with much ceremony. I made a little presentation speech and then in handing it to the doctor dropped it on the floor where you see that stain. That's the label under the glass." — New York Tribune.

HORSE AND DOG.

Contact With Civilization Lessens Their Cunning and Sagacity.

The dog is no doubt the most intelligent of our domestic animals, and I yield to none in my affection for him. I can almost eat and sleep with a fine dog winter and summer. But I try not to deceive myself about his intelligence. It seems to me that if the dog had the least spark of wit akin to our own—that is, power of reason—his long association with man would have fanned it into a flame, however small.

But after all these thousands of years of human companionship and love he has less wit in some respects than his wild brothers, the fox and the wolf. Having been spared the struggle to live that falls to their lot, his cunning and sagacity have deteriorated. The same is true of the horse, which has less intelligence than the wild stallion of the plains and for the same reason.

These animals do not grow wiser as they grow less wild. They do not civilize or develop. We train them into certain ways that make them serviceable to us; we humanize them without adding to their mental capacity. In other words, we cannot cross our intelligence upon theirs and make it fruitful in them. The germ will not take.—John Burroughs in Outing Magazine.

THRILLER FROM FIRST PERIOD TO THE LAST.

When Richmond Rushes Located Draperies Pellet Went Into Them With Astounding Regularity and Precision.

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 2.—With a score of 4 to 1 staring it in the face the Richmond polo team braced during the third period and by casting four lightning goals pulled a game from the fire and beat the Indianapolis team by the score of 5 to 4 at the Auditorium last night. It was this season's initial game on rollers and the onlookers were startled by the fast rushes and great drives of Quigley, the Richmond rush, and the beautiful stops of Alexander. There were 1,200 present and the interest shown will result in the formation of a polo league today.

The locals started off with a rush, caging the first two goals of the game in fairly fast time. Richmond gained one point in the first period due to the work of Quigley. Sampsell's work on the rush line and Kenworthy's playing at center for the local team were the features of this and also the second period.

Visitors in the Game.
The little rush took the ball through the whole Richmond team single handed and caged one from a difficult angle. This drive took the spectators off their feet and cheers filled the arena. A goal by Quigley in short order quieted them, however, and they realized that the visitors were in the game.

Frost slipped two by Alexander, the Richmond tender, in the second period on passes from Sampsell. Team work was very evident on both sides during this period and time and again the ball was worked to one end of the floor by rapid passes, only to be stopped by the cleverness of the goal tenders. Campfield played a good defensive game at this stage of the play.

The visitors had the better offense and the ball was in the local's territory most of the time. This gave the local half and goal a good opportunity to show their skill and the stops made by them during this period were not short from spectacular. Two fast periods were then out, however, and this caused the locals defeat.

It took the visiting rushes two periods to find the cage, but when they located the draperies the ball sailed past the local's defense with astounding regularity. Quigley got three of the visitors' goals during the last period on drives that were too fast to be seen. The Indianapolis rush line found the cage better than the visitors during the first period, and, although they did not get many drives for the

NOW APPROACHING THE CENTURY MARK

Walter T. Carpenter of National Avenue, Celebrated 97th Birthday.

EVENT WAS WEDNESDAY.

HIS WIFE WILL ALSO CELEBRATE BIRTHDAY LATTER PART OF JANUARY—BOTH ARE PROMINENT FRIENDS.

Walter T. Carpenter, one of the oldest citizens of Richmond, celebrated his 97th birthday anniversary Wednesday, at his home on National avenue. Mrs. Susan Carpenter, his wife, will on January 27, celebrate her 96th birthday. Despite their advanced years both Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter are enjoying good health, considering their age, and take an active interest in affairs. They have been closely identified with the Friends church. Mr. Carpenter was born at Albany, New York, January 1, 1811. He was reared on a farm in Clinton county, O., and later engaged in the mercantile business at Cincinnati, O. After removing to this city, Mr. Carpenter was chosen superintendent of Friends' Boarding school, which later became Earlham college. In this capacity he served for fifteen years. Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter were married in 1834.

KAISER HITS THE BIG ARMY SCANDAL

Tells General That There Must Be No Recurrence of The Disgrace.

MUST GO, ROOT AND BRANCH

Berlin, Jan. 2.—Emperor William, addressing the generals who attended his New Year reception yesterday, severely condemned the scandals in the army revealed by the trial of Maximilian Harden, editor of the Die Zukunft, and vigorously enjoined them to exterminate every vestige of such scandals and to use all their energy to prevent their recurrence.
The emperor and empress today extended New Year congratulations to Charlesman Tower, the American ambassador. His majesty sent good wishes for the New Year to President Roosevelt and the American people.
The emperor reproached Mr. Tower pleasantly for having announced his intention of resigning.

CHOIR SINGER NOW WITH COMIC OPERA

Frank Johnson With "Dream City" Company Sang at St. Paul's Episcopal.

WILL APPEAR IN RICHMOND.

Two former Richmond men, are connected with Joe Weber's "Dream City," which will be seen at the Gennett Friday evening, January 10. Arthur G. Williams is advance agent for the production and was in the city yesterday renewing old friendships. The other Richmond man with the "Dream City" is Frank Johnson. Johnston has made a splendid success on the stage and in the "Dream City," takes one of the leading comedy roles. Johnson formerly sang in St. Paul's Episcopal choir.

The "Dream City" headed by the diminutive comedian Little Chip, and the inimitable Mary Marble, numbers sixty people and includes many musical comedy artists of recognized ability. The chorus itself is one of the features of the production.
"Dream City" was one of the few great New York successes of last season and scored a most emphatic hit at Weber's Broadway theatre, the playhouse of successes. It ran for months to capacity business.
