John D. Rockefeller Made a Two Million Gift to Chicago University.

$23,000,000 GIVEN SCHOOL.

THE FOUNDER OF THE INSTITUTION HAS BEEN VERY GENEROUS TO THE FAMOUS SCHOOL—EVERYONE PLEASED.

Chicago, Jan. 3.—John D. Rockefeller made another princely gift to the University of Chicago yesterday. It amounted to $2,191,000. The sum of $2,000,000 is to be used for endowment purposes and is in the form of securities from which the university will realize $80,000 annually, according to the donor. This brings the total benefactions of Mr. Rockefeller to the University of Chicago to a total of over $23,000,000.

Martin A. Ryerson, president of the board of trustees, received a letter from John D. Rockefeller Jr., yesterday morning in which the news of the gift was announced. Mr. Ryerson immediately informed Dr. T. W. Goodspeed, registrar of the university and soon the students and professors were notified of the founder's generosity.

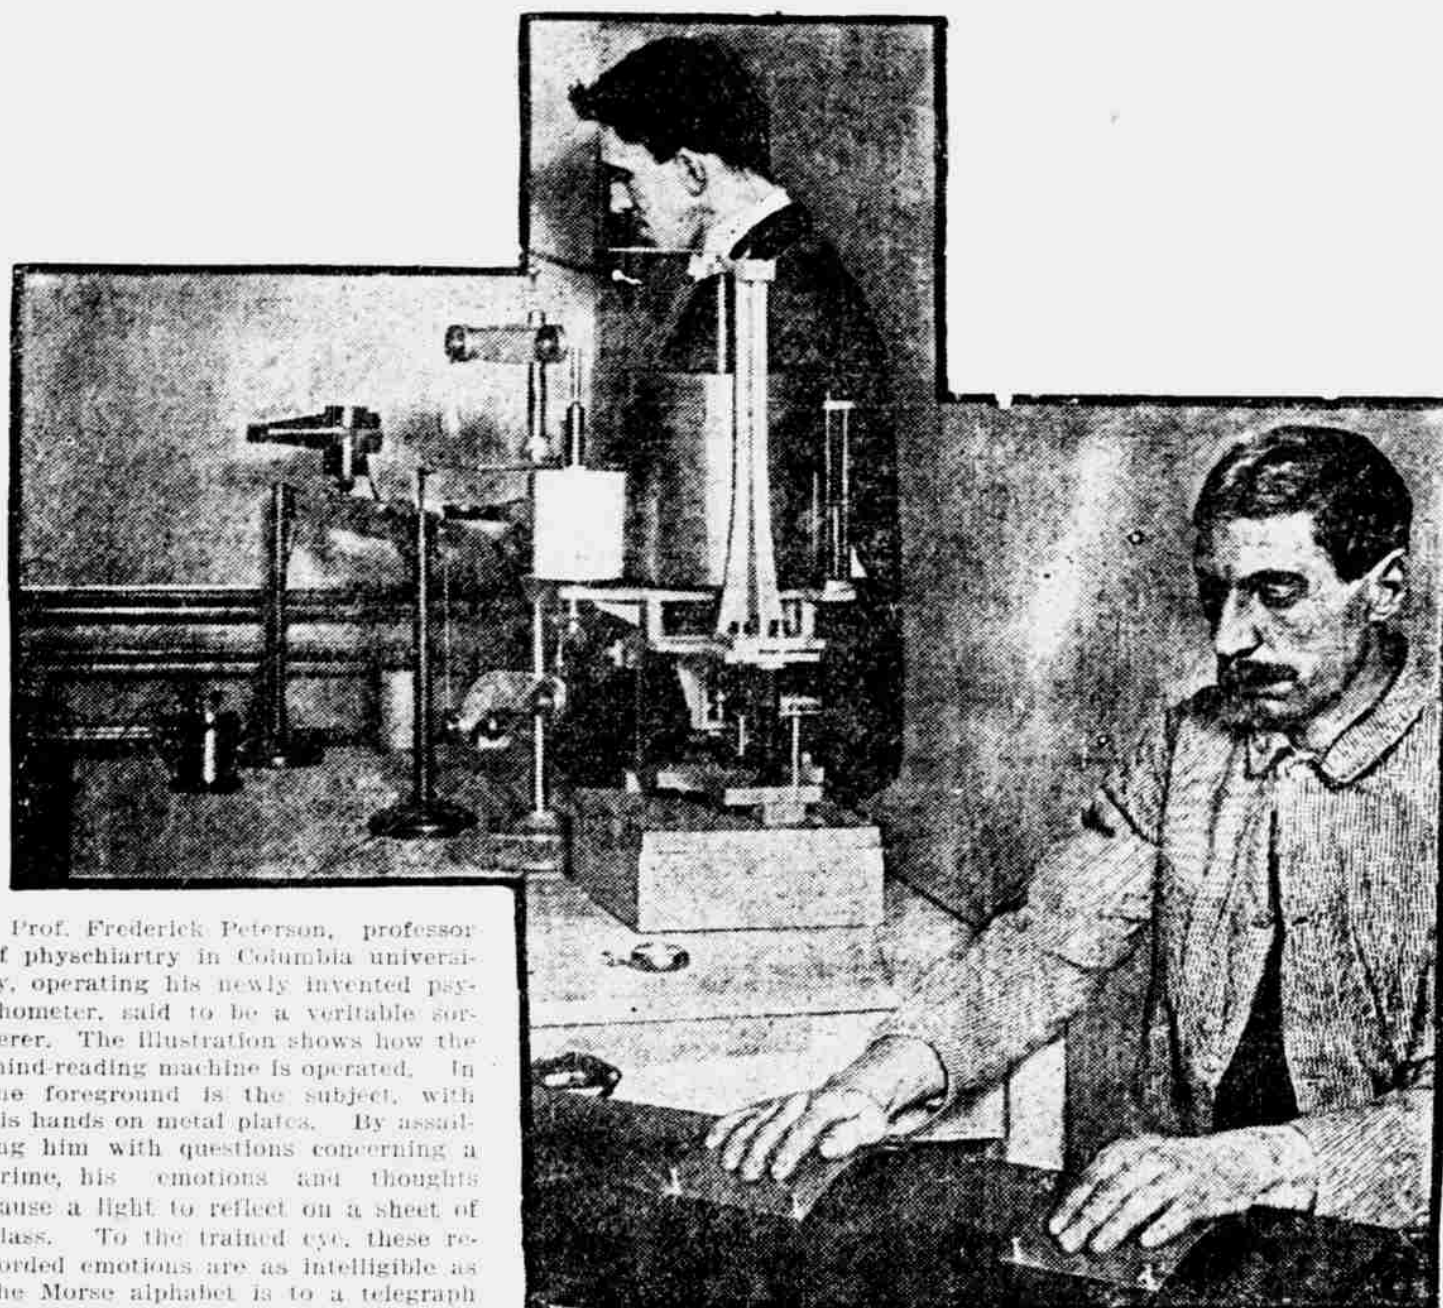

The major portion of the gift is in the form of securities. The sum of $2,000,000 consists, according to the letter of John D. Rockefeller Jr., of "securities that will produce an annual income of $80,000 for the further endowment of the university." As most of the endowment brings 4 per cent interest, it is estimated the securities will amount to $2,000,000. The nature of the securities was not revealed.

DIES AFTER LIVING MORE THAN CENTURY

Mrs. Wood Was 119 Years of Age.

This Mind-Reading Machine Will Aid the Police

Prof. Frederick Peterson, professor of psychical science in Columbia university, operating his newly invented psychometer, said to be a veritable sorcerer. The illustration shows how the mind-reading machine is operated. In the foreground is the subject, with his hands on metal plates. By assailing him with questions concerning a crime, his emotions and thoughts cause a light to reflect on a sheet of glass. To the trained eye, these recorded emotions are as intelligible as the Morse alphabet is to a telegraph operator. He can read the guilt or innocence of a suspected criminal. The machine may do away with the "third degree" police investigation.

attempt to prosecute Mr. Harriman may prevent the department from the proceeding against him. However, the president does not want it said that his crusade against "successful dishonesty," as he styles it, is being abandoned during the last half of his administration. Congress will probably do nothing in the way of additional legislation, but the department of Justice may make amends for this in a measure.

BONAPARTE TO WAGE CORPORATION WAR

He Will Ask Dissolution of the Great Pacific Railroad Combine.

NOT AGAINST HARRIMAN.

PRESIDENT DOES NOT WANT IT THOUGHT THAT HIS CAMPAIGN AGAINST "SUCCESSFUL DISHONESTY" HAS CEASED.

Washington, January 3.—Attorney-General Bonaparte is disposed to renew, with the beginning of the year 1908, the anti-corporation crusade in which his department was engaged prior to the money famine. He will start a new suit soon, and will announce in a formal statement his plans in that connection with reference to the Union Pacific. His suit against the railroad will resemble in many particulars the suit that Attorney-General Knox instituted and carried to a conclusion against the Northern Securities company. It will not, however, be against E. H. Harriman personally. It is understood that the exact grounds for the suit have not been determined, chiefly because one of the special counsel already appointed to represent the government is in Europe. The petition will be filed in Omaha or Kansas City, asking for a dissolution of the combination existing between the Union Pacific and the Southern Pacific.

HIRES DIVORCED WIFE AS DOMESTIC

Servant Problem Solved by New Yorker.

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 3.—Henry Jewtraw of Lake Placid has solved the domestic problem in simple fashion. He divorced his wife and then engaged her as housekeeper.

To help him obtain the divorce Mrs. Jewtraw looked after his house and the children while he attended court at Elizabethtown.

Returning with his divorce Jewtraw was so pleased with the condition of the house and the children that he proposed that she remain as his housekeeper, offering her as good wages as she could obtain elsewhere. Thus the problem was solved and the children are the happiest of the lot.

The pearl is nothing but carbonate of lime, and vinegar or any other acid will eat away the polished surface in a few moments. As for the opal, hot water is fatal to it, destroying its fire, and sometimes causing it to crack. Soap is a deadly enemy of the turquoise. If a turquoise ring is kept on the hand while washing, in a short time the blue stones will turn to a dingy green.

INTERCOLLEGIATE PEACE ASSOCIATION TO REACH COLLEGES

The Association Which Was Organized at Earlham College, Is Growing Rapidly and Spreads Over Middle West.

GEORGE FULK ELECTED PERMANENT SECRETARY.

He Has Already Done Much in Organizing Peace Associations Throughout the Country and Is Prominent Man.

The Intercollegiate Peace association, which was organized at Earlham college in April, 1906, is growing rapidly and plans have been completed whereby the association will invade nearly every college and university in the middle west. The steady growth of this organization promises to make it a positive force for promoting international peace and arbitration.

The Palladium has just received the following communication from Prof. Gilbert Russell of Earlham college, who is secretary and treasurer of the association:

"We have elected George Fulk as permanent secretary of our association. He is to give his entire time to the work. Mr. Fulk is of German Baptist extraction. He graduated from DePaul university after which he took a three years law course in the law school of Northwestern university and in the Chicago Kent college of law. Mr. Fulk practiced law for four years in Chicago, being associated with Edwin Barrett Smith, who was special counsel for the city of Chicago in the street railway negotiations in 1906.

"Mr. Fulk has already done some work in organizing peace associations in colleges. He attended the National Peace congress in New York last April, and spent the summer and fall at the Hague and at the Munich, Germany, International Peace congress. Our association is to be extended to Illinois, Michigan and Pennsylvania at once."

During the year 1906-7, the association extended its membership to include thirty-six schools of higher learning, chiefly in Indiana and Ohio. It raised $2,100.00 for its work. Thirteen institutions added peace bibliographies to their libraries. In twenty-one local prizes were offered for essays or oratorical contests on peace subjects. In twenty-two students read peace literature and wrote essays or orations on peace subjects. An interstate contest was held in connection with the annual convention at Cincinnati, for which fourteen orations were submitted. Some students were led to write on peace subjects for the regular intercollegiate oratorical contests. Altogether these contests led more than 100 students to read and write on some phase of international peace and arbitration; and the influence of their productions was extended to the audiences and judges who read and heard the orations.

Lady Helen Grimston, the eldest daughter of Lord and Lady Verulam, of the English peerage, just secured her certificate as an expert butter maker from the Essex county council. She went through the three week's course in the work of cooling and separating milk, churning, making butter and managing a dairy at the county dairy school at Chelmsford, and proposes to take over the superintendence of a large dairy farm at Gorbamby.

TAGGART SQUEEZED IN CONVENTIONS HELD THURSDAY

He May However Yet Elect Stokes Jackson of Greenfield, as State Chairman of The Democratic Party.

ANTIS DECLARE THEY WILL PUT HIM OUT.

Result in the First District Surprising and Battle Ended Only After a Most Bitter Engagement.

KUHN SPOKE AT LINTON.

MANY MEN PROMINENT IN DEMOCRATIC AFFAIRS WAS AT THE LOVE FEAST—RISK SHOWS UP STRONG FOR STATE CHAIRMAN.

Indianapolis, Jan. 3.—The Taggart political fortifications were shattered in the conventions held yesterday to elect new district chairmen, but it is believed here today that he will be able to elect Stokes Jackson, of Greenfield, state chairman by a very narrow margin. The anti-Taggart forces, however, seem confident of being able to down him, and no one can say for certain who will win until after the committee meets here next Wednesday. The following district chairmen were elected:

First—T. D. Scales, Boonville.
Second—Alvin Padgett, Washington.
Third—Mark Storen, New Albany.
Fourth—George Pleasants, Vevay.
Fifth—Peter Foley, Terre Haute.
Sixth—John Osborne, Greensburg.
Seventh—Bernard Korbly, Indianapolis.
Eighth—Low Hingham, Decatur.
Ninth—Michael Foley, Crawfordsville.
Tenth—J. K. Risk, Lafayette.
Eleventh—A. G. Enshwiler, Hartsville.
Twelfth—E. G. Hoffman, Ft. Wayne.
Thirteenth—S. N. Stevens, Plymouth.

The surprising features were the election of Scales over Arch Stephenson, Rockport, and Charles Great-house, Mt. Vernon, in the First, and Enshwiler's success in the Eleventh. The result in the First is looked upon here tonight as favorable to Taggart, as the Evansville democratic organization, led by Jack Nolan and followers of Mayor Bohne, were defeated in their efforts to elect Stephenson. Major Menzies led the fight there against the Evansville contingent and won in a bitter finish. Scales said tonight that he is not pledged to any one for state chairman, but it is thought that he will favor Jackson.

In the Eleventh Enshwiler was elected because he pledged himself to vote against Taggart's plans.

In the second district convention at Linton, Gilbert Hendren, Bloomfield, was endorsed for state chairman, but Padgett was not instructed to vote for him. Padgett favors Hendren first and Jackson second.

In the fourth district convention at Seymour, Pleasants, a Taggart man, defeated John C. Brannaman by a vote of 59 to 56. Brannaman was backed by Joe Cravens and Nicholas Cornet, candidates for nomination for congress against Lincoln Dixon. In the fifth

GREAT RENT WAR GROWS MORE ACUTE

Many New York Crusaders Absolutely Refuse to Pay Landlords.

STIRRING STREET SCENES.

AUTHORITIES IN NEW YORK BELIEVE THAT TROUBLE IS JUST COMING AND THAT THERE WILL BE ROUSING SCENES.

New York, Jan. 3.—As a result of the war on the east side over ninety dispossessed notices were served by landlords today on tenants who have organized to secure a reduction of their rent. Most of these notices were obtained in the Thirtieth district court on Madison street, which was crowded all day with representatives of landlords and tenants. Attaches of the court are looking for a harder day tomorrow, as they believe the trouble but just beginning.

Today was the day for the rent collectors to come around. They found hundreds of tenants who for the first time absolutely refused to pay the rent demanded of them. In many cases every tenant who refused to pay seemed fully prepared for dispossession notices. A case in point was furnished at 144 Ludlow street. Fourteen families live there, and not a family would pay rent.

Serve Notice on Tenants.
Some landlords were prepared for this and hustled to the courts for notices to serve on tenants. Up to 8 o'clock eighty-four such notices had been brought to strike headquarters at 313 Grand street, and more were coming in every minute. These eighty-four notices had been obtained by thirty-four landlords of houses in which tenants had organized and resolved to stand together in asking for a reduction in rent.

There were comparatively few evictions. These will come in a few days if the landlords stand firm.

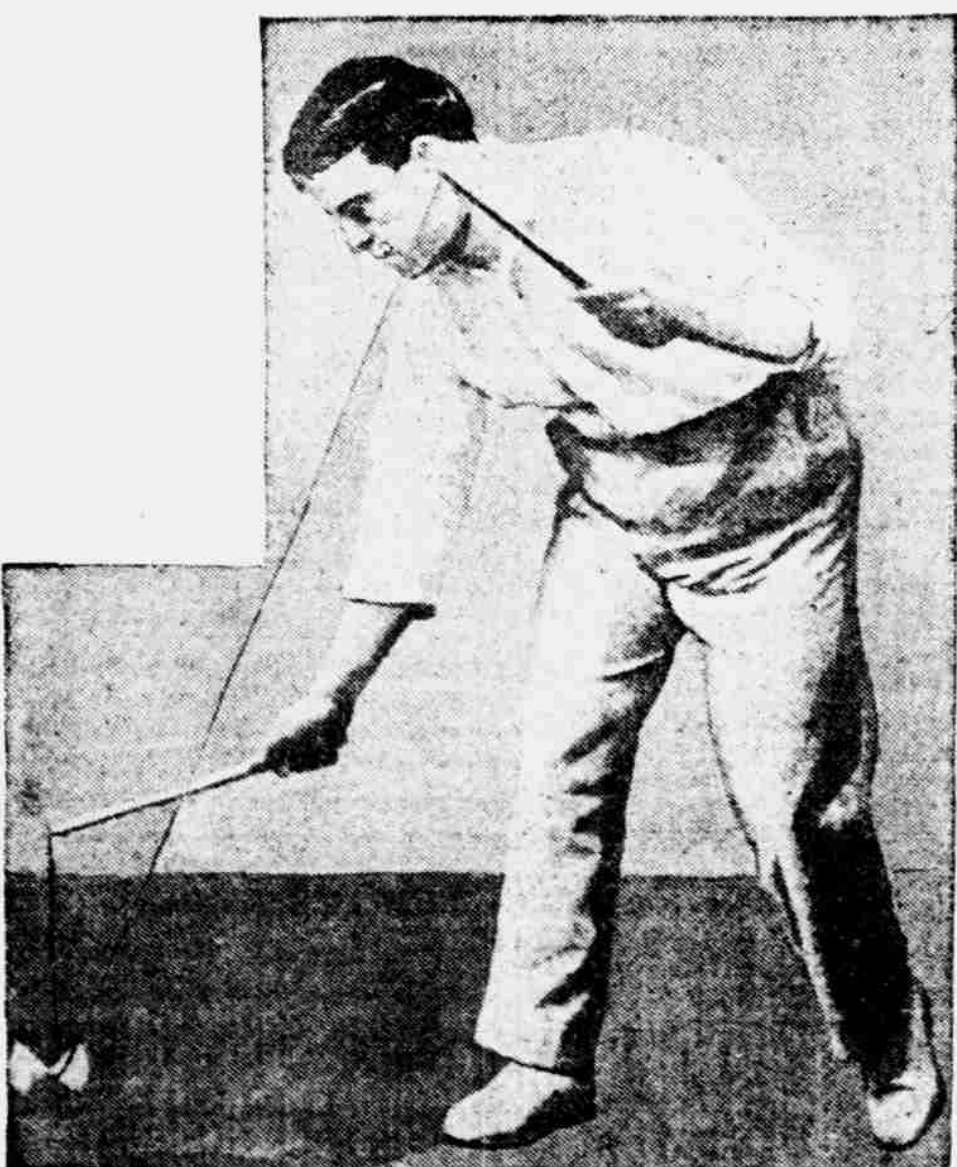

Most of the tenants have been advised to notify headquarters as soon as they got notices, and lawyers are ready to ask for an extension of time. Most of the cases were put down for Jan. 6. A few tenants did not know enough to do this, and had their things put in the street.
