

BLOOD OF WORLD TINGLING WITH SENSATION DUELS

In Three Instances, Men Prominent in Public Life Engaged in Duels, But American Battle Drew Only Blood.

HUNGARY RIVALS THE U. S. IN SENSATIONAL BATTLES.

Swords and Bullets Used in Europe, But Fists Were Enough to Appease Anger of American Belligerents.

Washington, Jan. 6.—Duels are very much a thing of the present. The blood of the world is tingling just now to the finger tips with three. Bullets, swords and fists were the weapons. All honor to fists, for they alone succeeded in drawing gore.

America distinctly outclasses Hungary in the nobility of the arts of the days of knight hood for it was in the capital of the United States that the first duel was fought, and in the capital of Hungary that the other "alleged" duels took place. In all three instances the duellists were prominent in political life.

The "real-for-sure" duel occurred in the sacred halls of congress at Washington. Judge De Armond and John Sharp Williams were the principals. Without the useless preliminaries arranged ordinarily by seconds and while their blood was heated and they were sure they wanted to fight they engaged in the setto. Blood flowed from scratches made by the doughty judge on his opponent's face.

The two "alleged" duels occurred in Budapest. The first was fought between Count Anton Sligay on the eve of his departure for the United States to attend the marriage of Miss Gladys Vanderbilt to Count Szechenyi, and Count Felix Harnoncourt. They met in a riding school. Count Sligay brings to America with him neither a hole in his breast nor an evil conscience, since none of the bullets from the revolvers of the combatants took effect, though they exchanged the leaden courtesies three times.

The second duel was fought between Dr. Wekerle, the Hungarian premier, and ex-Minister of Justice Donyi. The duel was sanctioned by Emperor Francis Joseph, it being necessary to obtain a special dispensation under the law. Swords were the weapons. After a flashing of sparks that would have caused death from sheer envy of any stage Macbeth and Macduff, even though aided with modern electrical "flashers," the two noblemen decided that it would be foolish to deprive Hungary of such valiant statesmen. Accordingly they threw down their weapons, kissed and made up, figuratively, if not literally.

WHAT THE KIDNEYS DO.

Their Unceasing Work Keeps Us Strong and Healthy.

All the blood in the body passes through the kidneys once every three minutes. The kidneys filter the blood. They work night and day. When healthy they remove about 500 grains of impure matter daily, when unhealthy some part of this impure matter is left in the blood. This brings on many diseases and symptoms—pain in the back, headache, nervousness, hot, dry skin, rheumatism, gout, gravel, disorders of the eyesight and hearing, dizziness, irregular heart, debility, drowsiness, dropsy, deposits in the urine, etc. But if you keep the filters right you will have no trouble with your kidneys.

Martin Bulach, of South 5th street, Richmond, Ind., says: "A number of years ago I was troubled with backache and the kidney secretions were too free and discolored. This was brought on, I think by the trying nature of my work. Doan's Kidney Pills were recommended for similar cases and I secured a box from A. G. Luken & Co's drug store. After taking them only a short time, the aches and pains disappeared and the kidney secretions became normal again. I thank Doan's Kidney Pills for the relief I found, and recommend them to anyone suffering in this way."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

PAY TO FARMERS WHO FEED QUAIL

Game Commissioner Wants to Protect Birds.

Columbus, Ind., Jan. 6.—State Fish and Game Commissioner Z. T. Sweeney, of this city, announces that if the farmers of Indiana will feed the quail and keep an accurate use in feeding, he will pay the farmers for this grain if they send him an account, properly "O. K'd" by a State or county officer. Mr. Sweeney says that thousands of dollars are often spent in Indiana restocking places with game after the game has been destroyed.

HENRIETTA CROSSMAN IS NOW A BANKRUPT.

HENRIETTA CROSSMAN.

New York, January 3.—Henrietta Crossman, who, with her husband, Maurice Campbell, has filed a petition here in voluntary bankruptcy as the result of the failure of "The Christian Pilgrim" in which she took the leading role, blossomed out as a histrionic star in 1900, when she played the title role in George C. Hazleton's "Mistress Nell." It was while she was playing in this comedy at the Savoy Theater, after a big run at the Bijou, that the theatrical combination was charged with having forced her out. She was born at Wheeling, W. Va., in 1870, and is a daughter of Major G. H. Crossman, U. S. A. She went on the stage in the "White Slave" company in 1889, and played many important parts, but was not recognized as a star until she appeared as Nell Gayan. She also played in "Gloriana" and in several shows under her husband's management.

Garfield School Notes

Arrangements are now being made by the SA class for their graduation exercises. The class has chosen a committee on program consisting of the following: Benjamin Johnson, Dorothy Hill, Willard Grave, Elsie Hawke, Charles Smith and Wanda Johnson. The exercises will take place in the high school hall on Friday afternoon, Feb. 7.

The girls' basketball team and gymnastic classes are preparing for an evening of games and drills on Thursday night Jan. 16. Only ladies and men who are patrons of the school will be admitted. An admission fee of ten cents will be charged, to help with the payments on the new apparatus recently ordered for the gymnasium.

One of the boys of the printing department and a member of the school orchestra, has printed souvenir cards for the members of the orchestra, giving a list of the members and their instruments. There are fourteen members in the orchestra, only three of which belong to the SA class. This assures a strong organization for next term.

The basketball and polo boys held a meeting this week to consider the reorganization of teams. The former decided to continue with the same teams they had before the holidays. The polo teams were reorganized with Carol Smart and Clarence Runke as captains.

On New Year's eve the teachers of Garfield and Supt. and Mrs. Mott went to the home of Prof. and Mrs. W. C. Conrad on South Sixteenth street, where all enjoyed a picnic supper together. The evening was spent in a social way. Before leaving, the young people were given a shower of kitchen utensils, each being accompanied by an original poem and Mr. and Mrs. Conrad were left to guess who the donors were.

KNOW THIS!

Readers suffering with effects of constipation should know that the lining of the intestines is composed of millions of little suction pumps which suck in the nutrition from food as it passes through the body. If the food does not pass fast enough, it decays, forms poisons and gases and then these tiny suction pumps absorb toxic poisons instead of pure nutrition elements.

This creates an ill feeling sometimes in the head, the back of the neck, the heart, kidneys and even the brain—manifested by "the blues"—and if permitted to become habitual it results in liver and kidney ills, and even malaria, typhoid and diphtheria. Grant, the celebrated writer on medical topics, is authority for these statements. Constipation can be controlled by a harmless physic and tonic, possessing the purifying effects of sulphur, called Blackburn's Castor-Oil-Pills, and obtained of any reliable druggist. Look for the portrait and signature of Mr. Blackburn on red cornered package.

Throw away pills and strong cathartics while you violent action, and always have on hand Blackburn's Castor-Oil-Pills. The guarantee is for constipation and all diseases arising from stomach trouble.

Why I Lost My Job

Reasons Why Thousands Like Me Cannot Satisfy Their Employers.

"I believe my fate is not unlike that of thousands of other workers who daily lose their places for reasons they do not know, and probably would not believe. When their last pay envelope comes along, it is usually 'Your services no longer required.' If the truth were known, the reason for their unceremonious removal would probably be that their usefulness was destroyed because of some mental worry, bodily ailment or general indisposition. These things, as we all know, are the most fruitful causes of failure in all walks of life. The battle of Waterloo was lost because of a headache. In this quick age our minds must be clear, rapid, active and free from outside influence or worry, or else we go down to failure with the throng of 'floaters' who go from one place of employment to another, giving no satisfaction to others or to themselves, constantly growing older and less useful, with no ambition, no will power, and no hope.

Every man requires from every other man the best that is in him. But no man can use or get the best that is in himself until he is first free from all fretful indispositions and worries. That was my trouble. I was full of troubles. That's why I lost my job. My stomach in the first place was always out of order, and I was worried about it and my mind grew cloudy and slow. I made mistakes, and grew grouchy. That was the end.

There are thousands like me, going about with 'quick lunch' faces, dyspeptic manners, and repulsive atmospheres. No employer wants such men's services.

Take my advice. A healthy stomach is half the battle, for it keeps your mind clear, and your face rosy. I have a healthy stomach now and hold a good position, and my employer is satisfied and so am I.

I started to take Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets which I was told were good for the worst cases of indigestion and dyspepsia. The first two tablets made a wonderful difference in my condition.

One ingredient of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets digests 3,000 grains of food. The stomach doesn't have to work at all. The Tablets do all the work, no matter how heavy your meal.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets cure brash, eruptions, burning sensations, flat, irritations, loss of appetite, nausea, heartburn, lack of energy, less of memory, and dyspepsia and indigestion in their very worst forms.

No other little tablets in the world can do so much. You should carry them around with you wherever you go and take them regularly after meals. Then you will realize what it is to be freed from stomach torment, and have a clear mind, a quick memory, a happy disposition, comfort and rest. Get Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at any drug store for 50c a package. Send us your name and address today and we will at once send you by mail a sample package, free. Address F. A. Stuart Co., 150 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

The Business College.

School opened again Monday Dec. 29th, after a week's vacation which was enjoyed by all.

Had to increase our seating capacity on account of our ever increasing attendance, which is better than it has ever been.

Carolyn Hankinson spent a very pleasant vacation with her parents and friends at Matthews, Ind. Lorin Clevenger, of Winchester, Ind., Carl Wissler, of New Castle, Ind., John Watts of Campbelltown, Ohio, Clinton Bowman, of Hagerstown, Ind., Frank Hodgkin of north of town, and Frank Kiser of this city, entered school the first of the week.

Hilda Cook was sent to Winchester to take a position as stenographer and general office work for Arlie Brown, who is secretary of an association for the registration of Poland China hogs.

Clarence Hollinsworth, a former teacher of this school who is now employed in the commercial department of a high school in New York, called at the college this week. Mr. Hollinsworth received his commercial training in the Richmond business college.

O. E. Fulghum, former president of this school, gave us a pleasant call Thursday morning.

J. D. Bruner, president of the Indiana Business college attended the National Commercial Teachers' association meeting which was held at Pittsburgh, Pa., this week. He desires to incorporate in our schools the best ideas that can be obtained from the most enthusiastic workers in the United States.

A number of the students passed their final examination in Commercial law.

Jan. 11—"The Girl of the Golden West."
Jan. 16—"The Girl Question."

"The Time, the Place and the Girl."

"The Time, the Place and the Girl," be it understood, is not a musical comedy but a "comedy with music." That is to say that its dramatic values would be sufficient to provide an evening's entertainment for a mental adult, even if there were no songs or enlivening proceedings. It is legitimate comedy, with a sane plot and situations, and legitimately enhanced by two or three delightful reproductions of unusual and amusing types.

The most interesting characters in the piece are those of "Happy" Johnny Hicks and Molly Kelly, played by Harry Short and Miss Elizabeth Goodall, the latter a recent recruit from the legitimate stage. Though the piece could be played without the music, Mr. Howard's pretty songs make it doubly attractive. There are a dozen musical numbers in the play, but they are all lifting and descriptive and never in the way of the plot development. The particular hits are "Toursday is My Jonah Day," "It's Lonesome Tonight" and "How The Smoke Away." At Gennett tonight.

"Our New Minister."

The New York production of Denman Thompson and George W. Ryder's sensational successful comedy drama of life in a New England town, "Our New Minister," is booked at the Gennett for Thursday night, with all of its old popular players and all new scenery and effects.

"Dream City."

In "Dream City" Little Chip and Mary Marble and their merry crowd of fun-makers are establishing new records for box office receipts all over the country. In no other production have they ever been seen to better advantage. "Dream City" is the laugh-buoyers' paradise. Gennett Friday night.

"The Girl of the Golden West."

David Belasco's drama, "The Girl of the Golden West," will be on view at the Gennett Saturday night. The piece comprises some of the finest achievements of its producer as a playwright.

FATHER AND SON HAVE LONG FEUD

Young Man Has Not Spoken to Parent in 21 Years.

Cincinnati, Jan. 6.—For twenty-one years Nicholas Walter has not spoken to his aged father, Fred Walter, although they have lived in the same house for nineteen years. The father has not worked for fifteen years and has slept in the garret. Yesterday the aged man decided to move his sleeping quarters and placed his bed on the first floor of the house. He went out for a few minutes, and he told Police Judge Luaders today, and when he returned his bed was in its old place.

An argument resulted between Walter, his wife and daughter, but the son did not break his silence of twenty-one years and left home. The elder parents caused a warrant to be issued for his son, charging him with justifying the trouble. Judge Luaders dismissed the case.
