

COPPER KING IS INDICTED IN NEW YORK FOR VIOLATION

It Is Alleged That He Abused
The National Banking Laws While Acting As President of Mercantile Bank.

EFFORT MADE TO HELP
BROTHER IN TROUBLE.

The Counts Registered Against Heinze Will Mean Several Years' Imprisonment If He Is Found Guilty on All.

New York, Jan. 8.—F. Augustus Heinze, former copper king and central figure in the recent financial panic, was arrested yesterday and held in $50,000 bail by a United States officer on charges of having violated national banking laws while acting as president of the Mercantile National bank.

Heinze is accused in one indictment containing 15 individual counts of having certified 15 checks, totaling about $400,000, for his brother's firm, Otto C. Heinze & Co., on October 14, at a time when that concern had no such amount on deposit.

In a second indictment, practically a repetition of the first, he is accused in 15 counts of having misapplied the funds of the bank in certifying the checks and allowing them to go through his institution.

The alleged overcertification is punishable by not more than $5,000 fine nor more than seven years' imprisonment for each offense.

The alleged misapplication of funds carries a penalty of not less than five nor more than ten years' imprisonment for each offense, with no alternative of a fine.

Home Games.

FIRST CONTEST JAN. 17TH.

Byron Huff, manager of the Earlham basket ball team, has secured the use of the coliseum for the games to be played in Richmond this winter. The first game will be played on Jan. 17th, between Miami and Earlham.

LANDLORDS GET THREATS OF FIRE

Notes Signed With "The Red Flag" Were Forwarded To Tenement Owners.

STRIKERS INTERFERING.

New York, Jan. 8.—Threats that their buildings would be burned if they evicted the tenants flooded East Side landlords today. The warnings were supposed to have come from the rent strikers and in general were on postals worded as follows:

"We will move, but after your house is vacated the fire department will visit you."

Point was given to the threats by a fire today at a Madison street tenement where the demands of the occupants for lower rents had been refused.

Applications for dispossess papers have been so heavy that several of the courts today were forced to refuse to consider any more until Thursday.
Many of the strikers are interfering with eviction by keeping the stoves in the apartments red hot. When the marshals arrive they are compelled to wait until the stoves cool before they can put them in the street with the other furniture.

FINANCIER AND COPPER KING UNDER ARREST.

cent upheaval, which forced him from the presidency of the Mercantile

NEW BASE BALL LEAGUE AGITATED

Richmond Will Secure Berth in Circuit If O.-P. League Breaks Up.

EXCELLENT PROSPECTS.

LOCAL DIRECTORS OF AMUSE-MENT ASSOCIATION LOOK WITH FAVOR TOWARD THE FORMA-TION OF A LARGER CIRCUIT.

Local baseball fans are watching with interest the fight now being waged between the eastern and western teams of the Ohio-Pennsylvania League. The fight is being pulled off before the national board of minor leagues in session at Cleveland, Ohio, and a disruption of the O.-P. League is assured.

Youngstown, Akron, New Castle and Sharon, comprising the eastern cities of the circuit, wish to withdraw from the league and form a new circuit.
The western cities, Mansfield, Marion, Newark and Lancaster, are equally eager to withdraw from the league and enter into a new one.

The magnates of the western cities Richmond, and if the league is disrupted, every effort will be made to organize a league which would comprise Marion, O., Newark, Lancaster, Mansfield, Richmond, Hamilton, Muncie and, perhaps, Lima.

This would be a compact circuit and all the towns would support their teams well. Stockholders in the Richmond Amusement company would look with favor on a proposition to place a team in this league, and in case it is organized Richmond is sure to be represented, notwithstanding the fact that the promoters of the Indiana-Ohio League are counting upon Richmond to accept a franchise in that league.

RECTOR SLAPS AT THE HIBERNIANS

Refuses to Hold Funeral Because They Were There.

Philadelphia, Pa., Jan. 8.—Members of the Ancient Order of Hibernians were stirred today through the refusal of the Rev. D. I. McDevitt, rector of St. Mary's Roman Catholic church, to permit funeral services to be held in his church over the remains of John Daly, a parishioner, because a Hibernian lodge had been invited to attend the obsequies. The funeral was to have been held yesterday, but had to be postponed. In the funeral notice, printed today, it was stated that "the invitation to the Ancient Order of Hibernians to attend the funeral is hereby revoked."

The funeral was held from the church today without the presence of the Hibernians.

Father McDevitt, in explanation of his opposition to the society, said:
"My absolute opposition to the Ancient Order of Hibernians is based on my knowledge and the facts in my possession about the Molly Maguires, which I got directly from the condemned Molly Maguires themselves."

"In China, dear friends," said the ab-sentminded missionary, "human life is regarded as of but very slight value.
Indeed, if a wealthy Chinaman is condemned to death he can easily hire another to die for him, and I believe many poor fellows get their living by this acting as substitutes."

HOLDS THAT COACH IS MERE HIRELING

Dr. Milliken of Hamilton, O., Says Teams Are Taught
Only to Win.

HE ADVOCATES DANCING.

"Education rounds out a person's career immeasurably and an educated man, even though he becomes dissipated and falls steadily lower in the scale of mankind, gets more pleasure out of life he leads," said Dr. Milliken of Hamilton, Ohio, in an address to the students of Earlham this morning. He spoke on "Being Good to Yourself." Dr. Milliken advocated sports and games of all kinds while he considered dancing and walking as good healthful exercise. He stated, however, that it was to be regretted the only thing a team thought of nowadays was to win and at whatever cost. Dr. Milliken said that a coach was merely an hireling who taught how to win.

WIFE MAY NOT DIVORCE CONVICTED HUSBAND

Case in Court May Be Dismissed in Near Future.

It is probable that the attorney in the case of Ethel Brown vs. John Brown for divorce, which has been on file in the Wayne circuit court for some time, will move for the dismissal of the case. The plaintiff in the case has not been located. The defendant in the case shot his wife in a jealous rage and is now serving a term in the penitentiary.

Too Broad a Hint.
"You've got a fellow in there that won't wait on me again, not much," said an irate customer, as he emerged from the dining room and slapped his money down on the pay desk. "I'm not stingy," continued the customer, "and don't mind giving tips, but when a waiter lunge round till a fellow has nearly finished eating and whistles 'Do not forget me' I think it is about time something was done."—London Mail.

erie."—London Tit-Bits.

TURNER EXHIBIT THROWN OPEN TO GENERAL PUBLIC

Auspicious Opening Was Made Tuesday Afternoon at the Garfield School Building
When It Was Well Attended.

MANY BEAUTIFUL PRINTS ARE NOW BEING SHOWN.

Object of the Affair Is to Create a Greater Interest in School Room Decoration
With Historical Prints.

The Turner Art exhibit was auspiciously opened to the public Tuesday afternoon at the Garfield school building, by the Daughters of the American Revolution and the indications are that it will be successful from both an artistic and a financial standpoint.
The display of Turner prints is hung on the walls in the two private offices of Supt. T. A. Mott. The pictures are magnificent reproductions and are scattered in the original colors and present a very attractive appearance.
The pictures are of a variety of sizes, most of them being very large. An excellent collection of subjects is represented, among them being "The National Capitol," "Paul Revere," "Concord Bridge," "Staircase of Lincoln," "Stewart's Washington," "Lincoln,"
"Alexander Hamilton," "Spirit of '76," "Pilgrim Fathers," "Pilgrim Exiles,"
"Washington Crossing the Delaware," "Signing the Declaration of Independence," "Sherman's March to the Sea," "Battle of Mobile," and many other subjects. All of the pictures are taken from prominent subjects, and are of an artistic character.

It is expected that a considerable amount will be realized from the sales to make a large fund to be expended for purchasing pictures for the schools.
The following notices have been sent out relative to the exhibit and its purpose:

The walls of many of our school rooms present to the eyes of the pupils, and hence to their minds, only hardness—whereas, with suitable decoration, they could be made to convey a sense of comfort or cheerfulness, always conducive to better work, and to inspire the thought when the eyes wander from the lesson page as they will.

The plan of giving our children a more comprehensive idea of the value of good pictures can be furthered in no better manner than by means of the Horace K. Turner art exhibit which is loaned, with no financial guarantee, for the purpose of raising funds for school room decoration.
This exhibit comprises two hundred beautiful reproductions of the world's leading subjects in paintings, portraits, architecture, sculpture and natural scenery, and we have availed

ourselves of it for the purpose of inaugurating a series of picture studies in our schools and to start the work of school room decoration.

We extend a cordial invitation to the public to attend this famous art exhibit, and request the cooperation of every citizen in our efforts to secure beautiful pictures for the walls of our school rooms.
