PROTECTING THE FIRELINES.

The fire department and the police department are in somewhat of a quandary as to how to insure adequate protection in keeping crowds away from burning buildings. It has been proposed to sound a second alarm at all big fires which will be a signal for all police officers stationed in the immediate vicinity to report at the burning building for duty. The necessity for some step along this line is now recognized to be imperative owing to the way the firemen were hampered in their efforts at the fire of the old Schneider carriage works by the large crowd of sightseers. Not only is the step necessary for the firemen, but also for the crowds themselves, for many people on the night of the fire exposed themselves to needless danger by getting too close to the burning building whose walls might have fallen at any time and crushed out the lives of many spectators.

We would suggest as one way out of the dilemma that certain citizens could be made special deputies to assist the police in maintaining the firelines from invasion at the various fires that occur throughout the year. These deputies could be provided with badges to distinguish them from the onlookers and could be relied upon to give valuable aid in keeping the crowds away from the firemen, giving them the best possible chance to exert all their efforts in fighting the fire. In large cities, where there are plenty of reserve men on the police force, these are called out at a fire and in this way the strength of the police force is not impaired during a conflagration. The same thing could be worked out in Richmond which has no reserve force of policemen by providing the force of special deputies.

ATTEND YOUR PRECINCT MEETINGS.

This evening in every voting precinct in the city republicans will cast their votes for the selection of precinct committeemen, precinct representatives on the Wayne county republican central committee and delegates and alternates to the republican county convention. The polls in the city will open this evening at 7:30 o'clock at the following places:

First ward—Court House.
Second ward—City building.
Third ward—G. A. R. hall.
Fourth ward—Pythian temple.
Fifth ward—No. 3 hose house.
Sixth ward—Hawekotte's grocery.
Seventh ward—Little's livery barn.
Eighth ward—West Side Republican club.

Every republican owes it to his party, to his home and to the cause of good government to be present and cast his vote. The more interest the great mass of voters take in the selection of the various officers the better the men will be who will be selected.

We suppose Prosecutor Jessup meant no reflection on the police department when he stated in his argument yesterday that a member of the police force had boarded at the Windsor hotel and had in this manner become acquainted with the fact that room "23" was an evil resort.

Elmer Rohrbacher, who stole J. S. Brumley's coat the night of the fire at the old Schneider carriage factory and pawned it for 50 cents, drew a fine of $10 and costs and thirty days in jail. Sort of a case of the interest eating up the principal, Elmer.

Oh, well, so long as that valet only cut Paderewski's throat while shaving him it doesn't matter. Paderewski manufactures music with his hands and not with his throat.

The New Windsor Hotel management must have been hunting trouble if, as alleged, they invariably assigned room "23" for evil purposes.

No wonder the Muncie strike situation is improving. They are sweating in as deputies members of the Muncie polo team.

Wouldn't room "13" have been just as good a hoodoo?

OVER A HUNDRED THOUSAND IDLE TWO ADDITIONAL SUSPECTS IN MYSTERY

Labor Conditions in New York Bad. Will Be Taken to Harrison N. J. Soon.

New York, Jan. 10.—The committee of the Central Federation Union, which is investigating the laying off of men by the national, state and city authorities reports that there are at present 160,000 men out of employment in New York city alone.

CHINESE USE THE TORCH ON MISSION

Protestant Chapel and School Is Burned.

Shanghai, Jan. 10.—Rioters at Kia Hsing Fu, in the province of Che Kiang, have burned the Protestant chapel and school there. The official residence of the local magistrate also was destroyed. The foreigners at Kia Hsing Fu are safe. There has been considerable unrest recently in this province, but the disorders have been directed principally against the dynasty.

Justus Granich, age fifteen, was recently arrested in Philadelphia for wife desertion.

Harrison, N. J., Jan. 10.—Two additional suspects in the Lamplack swamp murder mystery will be brought here as soon as the local authorities can perfect requisition papers. They were with Theodore S. Whitmore, during the days following the tragedy, and are depended on by the police to give evidence that will strengthen weak links in the chain against the New York motorman, Fred W. Elliott, the Massachusetts railroad man, who stayed with Whitmore from Friday following Christmas until Sunday, will be brought here. The other suspect, Mrs. Cassie McKay, was arrested last night in New York. She was with Whitmore, Elliott, O'Neil and "George" in New York and Brooklyn and at the Whitmore house on the night of the day the body of Mrs. Whitmore was found.

The inquisitive visitor to the studio of the famous but crochety artist pronounced the query, "What do you mix your colors with?" "With brains, sir," replied the painter in dignified tones. "Ah," commented the visitor, "so you paint miniatures?"

All the revolvers taken from prisoners at Portland, Ore., were melted up and made into a stove for the police station.

There's quite a Row about Unsanitary Bakeshops

We don't know how bad or how good they are.

The papers say some startling things and the health boards are stirred up.

It seems an opportune time to say that the most nourishing bread in existence is not in the shape of bread at all, but is composed of granules.

That's GRAPE-NUTS.

No bread in the world is so nutritious, for Grape-Nuts food is made of entire wheat and barley and goes through various processes of baking, during which the starch part is turned into a form of sugar to be seen glistening in minute particles on each granule of Grape-Nuts. The food is the easiest to digest in the entire list of all foods and it will pay to use it in place of white bread and observe how well you feel.

The factories are the world's standard for cleanliness and sanitary conditions.

Scores of visitors are escorted thru the factories each day and see just how Grape-Nuts and Postum are made and how immaculately clean every nook and corner is.

Come, you all are welcome.

If you can't come, send a postal with address carefully written and we'll mail free the beautifully illustrated book, "The Door Unbolted."

It takes one all thru and the pictures show the interesting machines at work.

Grape-Nuts food and Postum are never touched by human hands in the processes of making.

There's happy health with Postum and Grape-Nuts, and

Could Make Allowances.

The young mother, who was trying to put the baby to sleep, had darkened the room. Somebody tried to enter the side door, and she went and opened it. "I beg your pardon," said the elderly matron who had come up on the porch, "but is this house for rent?"

"Not at all."

"Seeing the blinds down, I thought there was nobody living here, and as I am looking for a house I was going to step in and inspect it."

"Well, it's not empty, and it's not for rent, ma'am. The reason why the blinds are down, if you must know."

"Oh, I see. The lace curtains are in the wash. Well, we all have to clean house once in awhile. Sorry to have troubled you. Good day."—Chicago Tribune.

The Utility of the Ox.

I should think the ox is the most useful—postmortem—of all animals. We eat its flesh. We make manure of its blood. We use its horns for lanterns and combs. Buttons and gloves come from its hoofs. Its bones become margarine or manure. In the knife handle we use it, in leather, in gold beater's skin, felt roofing; every part of its internal economy is part of our external economy, and its fat is inescapable (or not) as tallow.—Fry's Magazine.

The Art of Indexing.

A Natal public library catalogue contains entries as follows:
Lead. Kinky Light.
"Poisoning."
Almost as funny as the catalogue which gave:

Mill—On the Human Understanding.
"On the Floss."
—Publisher and Register.

His Counting Habit.

"Your husband says that when he is angry he always counts ten before he speaks," said one woman.
"Yes," answered the other. "I wish he'd stop it. Since he got dyspepsia home seems nothing but a class in arithmetic."—London Mail.

His Flattery.

"Yes, ma'am," the convict was saying. "I'm here just for tryin' to flatter a rich man."
"The idea!" exclaimed the prison visitor.
"Yes, ma'am; I jist tried to imitate his signature on a check."

Also Takes Them Off.

"Your friend puts on a good many airs."
"I should say he does. He's a demagogue in a phonograph store."—Exchange.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to thank our neighbors and friends, the Social Union of the M. E. church, Knights of Pythias, Red Men, Richmond street railway employees, and the T. H. I. & E. employees of Cambridge City, for their kindness during the sickness and death of our husband and father, Thomas Grant Wright. Also for their beautiful floral tributes.
