

SUMMITVILLE TEAM TAKEN IN TOW BY RICHMOND FIVE

Game at the Coliseum Last Night Afforded Much Excitement as It Was Scrappy and Interesting Throughout.

FIRST CITY LEAGUE GAME OF SCHEDULE PLAYED.

Kibbeys Scored Three Goals On Harrisons and Won—Was Probably Better Than Reputed Stellar Event.

The Richmond polo team devoured another bush league outfit last evening at the Coliseum. The victim was the Summitville aggregation and the score was 8 to 2.

The game despite the one-sided score was fast, scrappy and interesting. A good sized crowd witnessed the contest and the fast work of the locals was cheered enthusiastically. Quigley and Barker on the rush line for the Quakers put up a splendid exhibition, darting in and out of the Summitville defense like comets.

In the first period Summitville put up a desperate defense and it was not until ten minutes of the inning had been played, that Richmond was able to score. In the second period the defense of the visitors weakened and the locals shot the ball into the Summitville goal four times. The visitors succeeded in making their only two scores in this period. In the third period Barker counted twice and about two minutes before the close of the game Quigley drove a heavy into the enemy's goal net. Summary:

First Period.

Richmond—Quigley 10:20

Second Period.

Richmond—Quigley 12:30

Summitville—Martin 12:30

Summitville—Able 14:15

Richmond—Barker 14:40

Richmond—Barker 14:45

Third Period.

Richmond—Barker 13:35

Richmond—Barker 14:00

Richmond—Quigley 14:15

Stops—Alexander, 41; Martin, 42.

Rushes—Quigley, 6; Able, 4.

City League Game.

Previous to the above contest the first game in the newly organized city league was played between the Kibbeys and the Harrisons, resulting in a 3 to 0 victory for the former team. The game was as fast and exciting as the "big game." The first two periods neither team scored. In the third period the Harrisons' defense weakened and Henley and Bayer rang up three counts for the Kibbeys. The city league is composed of six fast clubs and games will be played twice a week. The following is the summary of the Kibbey-Harrison game:

First Period.

Kibbeys . . . . . No score

Harrisons . . . . . No score

Second Period.

Kibbeys . . . . . No score

Harrisons . . . . . No score

Third Period.

THE NEW PRESIDENT OF THE OHIO LEAGUE INTO WHICH RICHMOND WILL BE FORCED.

ROBERT QUINN.

When the baseball magnates of several Ohio towns met Thursday in Columbus, Ohio, to perfect plans for the organization of the new Ohio league, they selected Robert Quinn, manager of the Columbus, O., American Association baseball team as the president of the new league. It seemed natural that the crown should fall upon the head of this prominent sportsman as he has been identified with Ohio baseball for many years. Quinn is a nat-

CIVIC LEAGUE TO ENFORCE THE LAW

Hartford City to Have "Blue Sunday."

Hartford City, Ind., Jan. 16.—A civic league was formed here for the purpose of assisting the local officers in compelling strict observance of the laws. L. N. Himes, superintendent of the public schools, has been made president.

One of the first moves of the organization was to vote to petition the city council for an ordinance restricting the city to eliminate the actions from the residence district. The league has also decided to uphold Mayor Lucas in proclaiming that blue laws will reign in this city, beginning with next Sunday.

JOSEPH A. GODDARD MADE CHURCH POSSIBLE

Quakers of Muncie to Have Dedication—Richmond Is Interested.

Several local members of the Friends' church will probably attend the dedication of the new Friends' church at Muncie, on Sunday, February 2. The building, which was made possible by a large gift from Joseph A. Goddard, is one of the handsomest places of worship in eastern Indiana. The church is of a Spanish style of architecture, being patterned after old mission houses in the south-western part of the country. It is splendidly equipped and decorated.

BURIAL A WASTE OF GOOD MATTER

Will Orders Body to Be Utilized For Buttons.

New York, Jan. 16.—Priding himself on his ideas of utilitarianism, Henry E. Sullivan has made a will by which he directs his executors to make use after his death of every portion of his body for which a use can be found. His bones are to be made into buttons, his skin is to be tanned for leather, and violin strings are to be made of such portions of his body as lend themselves to that use. All of these products, Mr. Sullivan directs, are to be given to his particular friend, James Hayes, who is to distribute the articles among Sullivan's friends as he sees fit.

STOPPED THE YELPING.

Rostand's Peasant Who Had Great Power Over Animals.

"When Edmond Rostand had completed his beautiful villa at Bayonne, he was on the verge of a nervous breakdown because of his inability to sleep," says a Paris paper. "The restfulness of the place, however, and the charming surroundings worked wonders, and after a few days had passed the weary writer was able to sleep, and his friends looked for his speedy return to good health. But a dog blocked the progress of the cure. One night the dog began to bark, and in a short time dogs in all directions answered, and the concert kept up until day broke. All efforts to locate the mischief making animal failed. Every night at the same time the barking began, and no one could suggest a remedy. One day one of the servants told about a ne'er-do-well in a nearby village who had great power over dumb animals—possibly he might help. He was called, a large reward was promised, and the barking ceased. A few weeks after the reward had been collected Rostand was again disturbed by the dogs under the leadership of the same unknown barker. The peasant was again called, and Rostand said, 'You must be well acquainted with the ways of animals to have such power over them.' The man beamed under the influence of the diplomatic flattery and proudly showed how he could imitate the whistling of birds and the noises made by animals in woods, barn or poultry yard. 'And how about dogs?' said Rostand. Then the man began to bark, and immediately the voice of the arch disturber was recognized. 'That's enough,' said Rostand. 'Here is a twenty franc piece. If we should hear the dogs bark again, the police will be called.' The peasant saw that he had fallen into a trap, the dogs were heard no more, and that, says the writer, 'is my dog story without a dog.'"

WALSH'S FATE TO BE DECIDED TONIGHT

Closing Arguments Were Made This Morning and Judge Charged Jury.

DOCUMENTARY EVIDENCE.

JURYMEN WILL HAVE TO GO OVER MUCH OF THIS AND MAY NOT REPORT UNTIL FRIDAY OR SATURDAY.

Chicago, Ill., Jan. 16.—The John R. Walsh case will be in the hands of the jury tonight. Assistant District Attorney Fletcher Dobyns, who began the closing plea yesterday afternoon concluded this noon. Early this afternoon the judge's instructions were read and the jury will retire for deliberation. As there is a large amount of documentary evidence for the jury to go over, a verdict is hardly expected until tomorrow, and possibly not until Saturday.

Mr. Walsh, surrounded by his friends and relatives, heard himself landed as a criminal and gambler yesterday. Mr. Dobyns did not spare words in his appeal to the jury to find a verdict of guilty. On the other hand, Mr. Walsh's attorneys, John S. Miller and E. C. Ritscher, who spoke earlier in the day, declared that in all his financial transactions Mr. Walsh was actuated by disinterested motives.

Mr. Walsh was effected visibly by the closing words of Mr. Ritscher's plea.

"I believe," said Mr. Ritscher, "that John R. Walsh will walk out of this court room tomorrow night with erect head—a free man. He will be vindicated. It must be so. Justice demands it and humanity will sustain it."

No question apparently shadows the mind of Mr. Walsh as to the outcome.

He believes implicitly that the jury will free him.

"I will come out all right," he said after adjournment last night. "I am not afraid."

Plea of Prosecutor Dobyns.

Mr. Dobyns said he was not influenced by any desire for vengeance in his plea for a verdict against Walsh.

"I have only sympathy for the defendant," said the young prosecutor, "but we are confronted by a great duty. The situation is burned into our minds. The evidence shows beyond a doubt that this defendant violated the trust which thousands of people placed in him as president of the Chicago National bank and took $7,000,000 of the bank's money by stealth and squandered it on his own enterprises. He admits that he diverted the money, but says that he did not mean to do anything wrong. No more astounding confession of crime ever was made in a court room than that which John R. Walsh made on the witness stand."

VARSITY TRIUMPHS OVER RESERVES

Fast and Exciting Sport Finished at Earlham College Last Night.

ALL READY FOR MIAMI.

Basketball practice at Earlham has been fast and furious for the past week and the several teams have been showing up well. The players on all of the teams have been putting up a clean article of basket ball and Coach Vail thinks that Miami will have to play extra well if that school wins from the Quakers.

Perhaps the closest game that has been played at Earlham this year was last night, when the Varsity defeated the Reserves by a score of only 25 to 22. The following scores taken down at different parts of the game will show better than words, the strength of the reserves. The first figures in each case will stand for the Varsity—24, 3-5, 5-5, 14-15, 21-25, 35-32.

The Varsity boys are very anxious to win from the Miami boys, as the Oxford team is out for the championship. There will be no long waits between halves of big games this year, as Manager Huff has arranged a game between the Whitewater high school and the Earlham Reserves, and the halves of the two games will be played alternately. The plat for the season tickets opened today at the Westcott pharmacy.

CORTELYOU LINKED WITH TRUST COMPANY

His Name Is Being Considered As President.

New York, Jan. 16.—It is understood that the officials who have in charge the reorganization of the Knickerbocker Trust company, have had under consideration a number of names with a view to obtaining a new directing chief of this organization, and that Secretary Cortelyou's name is among those that have received consideration. It is believed that intimations more or less positive have been conveyed to Mr. Cortelyou that his name had been considered.

Suitable.

"What would be a suitable birthday present for my little boy?" inquired the fond mother.

"Let me think," returned the star boarder, who occasionally liked to sleep late in the morning. Then, with the glad, confident smile of one who has solved a problem, he added, "How would a gag or a straitjacket do?"—Chicago Post.

Arousing the Lion.

If we want to educate that sturdy, stolid, unresponsive thing, the British public, a scheme has to be mildly diluted with pleasure, masked by brilliant pictures, like the bitter pill we hide in our children's jam. We have compulsory schooling, of course, but as a nation we are not and do not want to be educated.—London Bystander.

IMPROVE FACILITIES FOR GAINING STATISTICS

Dr. Davis Says New Rules Have Been Adopted.

Dr. T. Henry Davis, who is president of the Indiana State Board of Health, states that new rules have been adopted regulating the reporting of contagious diseases, births, deaths and quarantines. It is thought that this will greatly improve the facilities of securing the statistics of the state.

Bad Night For the Show.

Piloting an unknown show through a starving territory is no cinch, but I have thought out a good idea. In anticipation of each engagement I am going to call out the reserves and when they are out they will be invited in. That will help fill the house.

You have heard of the various excuses for light business—"because the night is so dark," etc. This is a hot one!

"Young man," said the local manager to the agent on his first tour, "why do you bring your troupe here on a Saturday night? Don't you know you won't do any trade?"

"What's the difference between Saturday night and any other night?" asked the agent.

"Because everybody's getting shaved."—New York World.

Too Easy.

The Union bank of St. Petersburg has its own police service. One night the director was sleepless. He wondered whether the bank police were really trustworthy. He concluded to make a trial. He disguised himself and rushed, pistol in hand, into the bank vault. The police were good for nothing. They looked on quietly, while the director pocketed 2,000,000 rubles and carried them away. Since then no one has seen the director.—Simplicissimus.

His Rush.

Boy (reading)—She threw herself into the river. Her husband, horror-stricken, rushed to the bank—Teacher cutting in—Why did the husband rush to the bank? Boy—Please, sir, to get the insurance money.—London Mail.

EARLHAM DONOR RETIRE FROM BANK

Morris M. White No Longer President of Cincinnati Institution.

BANKER OF OLD SCHOOL.

HE HAS HAD AN UNINTERRUPTED BUSINESS CAREER OF FIFTY YEARS, THIRTY OF WHICH HE WAS PRESIDENT OF BANK.

Local friends of Morris M. White, who is one of the largest donors to the Earlham college endowment have been apprised of his retirement from the presidency of the Fourth National bank of Cincinnati. Mr. White made way for Charles E. Wilson as president, he becoming chairman of the board of directors. This change is believed in Cincinnati banking circles to mean the actual retirement of Mr. White from active business, although it is expected that he will visit the bank and take a passive interest in its management as a means of occupying his mind.

The Cincinnati Enquirer says: "The retirement of Morris M. White, removes one of the few bankers of the 'old school,' as they are referred to in banking circles. In the affairs of his institution he was the bank, taking an active interest in the veriest details. He became connected with the bank in the capacity of vice president and cashier in 1872, and during the administration of Theodore Cook, as president. In 1878 he was elected president, which position he held until yesterday. Previous to becoming identified with the banking business Mr. White was engaged in the wholesale grocery business with his brother Frank, who died about a year ago. The first firm name was Wells, White & Co., which was later changed to White & Bro. The concern went out of business in 1878. Morris White becoming actively identified with the Fourth National bank and his brother Frank going East."

Mr. White's Statement.

"Mr. White issued this formal statement: After an uninterrupted business career of over 50 years, 30 of which I have been president of this bank, and owing to advancing years, I deem it best to decline a re-election as president. The present officers have long been in the service of the bank and are fully competent to carry on the business in the future as in the past. My holdings of the stock of the bank will remain as heretofore, and as chairman of the board I expect to be in frequent consultation with the officers, having my office in the bank."

Lord Clinton, whose coming of age has been celebrated at Cobham hall, Kent, England, is six feet seven inches high. His father, the Earl of Darnley, is six feet four inches, while their relatives, Noel Bligh, Arthur Bligh and E. V. Bligh, average six feet two and one half.
