

THE DR. EMMONS THROAT AND LUNG HEALER CO.

Incorporated in Indianapolis
Last Saturday for $50,000.00.

The secret formula of the late Dr. Joshua Emmons of this city, who compounded a remedy for Throat and Lung Disease and used same in his private practice with great success, for twenty-six years, has been turned over to an Indianapolis Company, who will give the public the benefit of this wonderful remedy for Throat and Lung disease.

In cases where other remedies have failed and changes of climate are unable to check the progress of the disease, this wonderful medicine has conclusively proved its power to heal. People who have gone South, to California and Colorado for Lung disease, and not having received any benefit, have on their return been cured by Dr. Emmons' Throat and Lung Healer.

Mr. D. W. Bolen, president of the Indianapolis & Cairo Traction Co., is president of this new medicine company. L. M. Emmons of this city is also an officer of this company.

The company will sell the medicine with a guarantee, in any case it does not cure, the medicine will not cost the people using the treatment one cent.

The office of the company will be at 411 State Life Building until the laboratory and shipping department are ready for occupancy.

A large amount of stock in this company has already been subscribed for. The balance of the stock will be sold to those wishing a good investment, at $10.00 a share.

It is expected that this stock will pay a large dividend and that shares now selling at $10.00 will soon be worth $50.00 per share, as it is the intention of the company to advertise the medicine in newspapers and journals, covering all parts of the United States.

Any information regarding the same will be cheerfully given by calling at the office of the company, 411 State Life Building, Indianapolis, or The Ferguson Investment Company, of this City.

TACKS FISHER

MUCH WANTED

His Reputation as First Sacker
Has Spread.

Tacks Fisher, the southpaw pitcher who worked early in the 1907 season with South Bend and was farmer by Manager Grant to the Richmond club, developed into a first sacker of such class that he is wanted by Owner Clapper of the Sharon, Pa., club, to occupy the lead corner. The Sharon club signed Fisher, but Manager Grant had reserved him. It is said the Penn town owner would trade any one of his men for Tacks and a trade may result, for Sharon had three players of class, two of them infielders and one a gardener, whom Manager Grant may conclude to take in exchange.

Negotiations are under way between South Bend and the Newark, O., club by which a young outfielder may get on Owner Annis' pay roll.

ACTOR THOUGHT HE WAS WOUNDED

Paper Wad Hit Him and He Thought Himself Shot.

Marion, O., Jan. 19.—"My God, I am shot," cried W. B. Jefferson, who played the role of a banker in a thrilling burlesque scene of a blood and thunder melodrama at the opera house last night. To the audience in Lafayette Hall, the robber behind the footlights, it was all a part of the plot, but to Jefferson it was real. He fancied he could feel his lifeblood ebbing away, but lay quietly upon the floor until the curtain fell at the climax. A paper wad from the supposedly blank cartridge had penetrated his clothing and struck beneath his heart. His flesh was badly powder burnt.

BUTTER BY THE YARD.

The Way It Is Sold, Pure and Sweet,
In Cambridge, England.

In Cambridge, England, butter is sold by the yard. For generations it has been the practice of Cambridgeshire dairy folk to roll their butter into lengths, each length measuring a yard and weighing a pound. Deftly wrapped in strips of clean white cloth, the cylindrical rolls are packed in long, narrow baskets made for the purpose and thus conveyed to market. The butter women who, in white linen aprons and sleeves, preside over the stalls in the market have no need of weights or scales for dispensing their wares. Constant practice and experienced eyes enable them with a stroke of the knife to divide a yard of butter into halves or quarters with almost mathematical exactness.

The university people are the chief buyers of this curiosity shaped product. In addition to being famed for its purity and sweetness Cambridge "yard butter" is eminently adapted for being served to the students in the daily commons. Cut in conveniently sized pieces and accompanied by a loaf of the best wheat bread, a stated portion is sent round every morning to the rooms of the undergraduates for use at breakfast and tea.—Chicago Record-Herald.

BASEBALL MEN OF THE I.-O. LEAGUE NOW IN RICHMOND

Those Sportsmen Who Will Back Teams in Circuit Are
This Afternoon Considering Year's Plans.

BAD NEWS FROM ANDER-SON WAS RECEIVED.

Witt Has Been Boycotted
There and It Will Be Impossible for Him to Back a Team in That City.

Richmond is the mecca today for baseball men. Magnates of the I.-O. league began to gather here early this morning to attend a meeting which will be held at the Westcott hotel this afternoon. At this meeting the league will be reorganized with probably eight clubs in the circuit. Richmond is almost certain to cast its lot with the Indiana-Ohio organization.

There will be an election of officers at the meeting this afternoon and Frank Runyan of Bluffton appears to have a cinch on the presidency. Last year this office was filled by A. R. Kling, sporting editor of the Indianapolis Star, but Mr. Kling failed to take any interest in the affairs of the league, and as a result nearly all the circuit managers are opposing his reelection. Runyan is a thorough sportsman and at all times has the best interests of the league at heart. He also has the advantage of being a good business man and hustler. A secretary will also probably be elected.

Among the first arrivals this morning were Harry Hall, who is connected with the Union Traction company, and who represents Marion and Kokomo; also Frank Runyan, Jack Edmunds and Dan Lanigan, all of Bluffton. Manager Jessup acted as the reception committee.

Just one piece of bad news was sprung on the baseball men this morning. It was the receipt of a letter from Howard Witt, who holds the Anderson I.-O. league franchise, stating that recently he was boycotted by the musicians' union in that city and that a general boycott had now resulted. Because of this, Mr. Witt stated it would be impossible for him to place a team in Anderson this season. Anderson is wanted in the I.-O. league and an effort will be made to have some other party take the franchise.

Eating on the Train in Spain.

As even express trains seldom attain a higher rate of speed than twenty-five miles per hour (travel is slow and tedious, though fairly comfortable, and to enjoy Spain one must assume the leisurely indifference of the Spaniard to whom manana is always the chosen time. He is wise who carries his own luncheon, and never are dainty tea baskets more indispensable than on these long journeys. Spanish etiquette demands that the traveler before partaking of his food must politely offer it to those who share the compartment with him. It may either be graciously accepted or declined. In no country is it so difficult to travel and to secure information, as but little English is spoken even by important officials.—Travel Magazine.

Not Business.

Two highland farmers met on their way to church.
"Man," said Donald, "I was wonderin' what you will be askin' for your bit sheep over at your steadin'?"
"Man," replied Dougal, "I was thinkin' I wud be wantin' 50 shillin's for that sheep."
"I will tak' it at that," said Donald, "but, oh, man, Dougal, I am awful surprised at you doing business on the Sabbath."

"Business!" exclaimed Dougal. "Man, sellin' a sheep like that for 50 shillin's is not business at all. It's just charity."—Dundee Advertiser.

He Had the Name.

She had gone up the scales once, and then she had gone down the scales. Then she had done the same thing over again, after which some one asked:

"In what school of music were you taught?"

"Thereupon some one else interrupted in an undertone:

"Judging by the speed, I should say it was a riding school."

And there were many present who deemed the sentiment a good one.

Fair Share.

It was at a theater in Manchester. The king, aged and infirm, was blessed with two sons. He was pacing up and down the stage, with a worried, troubled look, exclaiming aloud, "On which of these my sons shall I bestow my crown?" Immediately came a voice from the gallery, "Why notarf a crown apiece, guv'nor?"—London Mail.

The Prodigal Son.

Prodigal—Father, I have come home to die!
"Confound you! Haven't you cost me enough already without adding the expense of a funeral?"—Life.

The Usual Way.

"Say, pop, what's a raffle?"
"A raffle, my son, is where I buy nineteen chances on a diamond ring and the fellow with one chance wins it."—Kansas City Star.

The hardest thing to win in the world is your own self respect.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

RICHMOND MEN TO THE RIVERS AND HARBORS CONGRESS

At Least Four Men Will Be Present When the First Session Begins in Indianapolis
Tuesday Morning.

WILL MARK BEGINNING OF NEW EPOCH FOR STATE.

As Planned, Indiana Will Have A Natural Waterway Connecting Lake Erie and Lake
Michigan—Much Interest.

A number of Richmond men, including Mayor Schillinger, Wilfred Jessup, Rev. T. H. Kuhn and Horace Starr, will attend the initial meeting of the Indiana Rivers and Harbors congress. The meeting of the Indiana branch, which opens in Indianapolis Tuesday of this week, will mark the beginning of a new epoch in Indiana's history. Preliminary steps will be taken to inaugurate a campaign for an annual appropriation from congress to construct new waterways and to improve the old ones throughout the country, thus establishing eventually a gigantic system of waterways as a means of cheaper transportation for all kinds of commodities. Indiana's future especially will be looked after in this respect, and an effort will be made to secure a large part of the appropriation for use in this state.

The Indiana branch is the first to meet and will be followed by those of the other states in turn. According to H. C. Riesenberger of Indianapolis, vice president for Indiana, it is the aim of the National Rivers and Harbors congress to secure from congress an annual appropriation of $50,000,000 for the construction and improvement of inland waterways.

"The congress," said Mr. Riesenberger, "fathers no particular project, but advocates the adoption by the government of a comprehensive policy of waterway improvement throughout the country."

It is the intention to form a permanent organization in each state from the unattached waterway bodies, combining them in one homogeneous organization. Indiana will be the first state to bring together these units. The members of the Indiana branch will devote their utmost endeavors to secure the improvement of the Ohio river, deepening its channel to an average depth of nine feet all the way from Pittsburgh, Pa., to Cairo, Ill., so as to accommodate deep draft boats. The Ohio river borders the State of Indiana for 325 miles and the deepening of the channel will mean much to this state.

Proposes Ship Canal.

Another object which the Indiana branch has in view is the construction of a ship canal from Ft. Wayne either to Indiana Harbor or to Gary and connecting with the Miami River at Ft. Wayne, thus establishing a waterway through Indiana from Lake Erie to Lake Michigan. Indianapolis will endeavor to secure a branch canal to connect this canal and White river. According to Mr. Riesenberger, it is the purpose also of the Indiana branch ultimately to improve both White river and the Wabash river. When this is done Indianapolis and some of Indiana's principal cities will have water access to Cincinnati, Louisville, Pittsburgh and St. Louis, and on down the Mississippi to the Gulf of Mexico.

The meeting of the Indiana branch will be attended by some 400 delegates from about seventy cities. It will open Tuesday morning in the assembly hall of the board of trade building.

A Monster Spring.

No state in the Union has larger or more numerous springs than Florida. Many of them form good sized streams from the start, and some of them are navigable. The largest spring in the state, and one of the largest and probably the best known in the United States, is Silver spring, which is located six miles east of Ocala. This spring forms the source of the Oklawaha river, a tributary of the St. Johns, and steamboats traversing the river enter the spring basin, which has an area of several acres. The water is from twenty-five to thirty feet deep and is wonderfully clear, appearing absolutely devoid of color.—Minneapolis Journal.

YOUNG GIRLS PLAY BASKET BALL

Milton Lassies Engage in a Close Game.

Milton, Ind., Jan. 20.—A group of young girls played a good game of basket ball Saturday afternoon with a score of 13 to 11 in favor of Lois McClung's side. The lineup was as follows:

Lois McClung, Capt., Ruby Moore, Helen Kuhns, guards; Pear Thornburg forward.

Fern Paxson, Capt., Inez Doddridge, Jessie Lantz, guards; Edna Wallace, forward.

THE MINE PACK BURRO.

Information Gleaned by the Newcomer In Camp.

He was a newcomer in the mining camp, and as everything he saw appeared novel and interesting he kept up a rapid fire of questions that seemed mighty foolish to the boys.
The placid little pack burros, mostly ears and voice, pleased him immensely, and he supposed they were kept as pets or else as camp scavengers to nibble the labels from old cans and eat stray newspapers. He came across one packing a wheelbarrow secured on its back with wheel and handles in the air.

"My good man," he asked the owner, "can you tell me why the little donkey is tied to the wheelbarrow in that odd fashion?"

"I shore can, stranger," replied that jassax has been acquired by old Walapai Huggins for a house pet at the Bully Boy mine, an' bein' as the animal is too dollycat to walk all the way over them rough trails, the old man drives him uphill an' at the summit jess naturally turns him down the other side. Yessir, it do come hard on old Walapai, but it's mighty restin' for the jassax."—Success Magazine.

The Sunrise Of Life.

Infants and children are constantly needing a laxative. It is important to know what to give them. Their stomachs and bowels are not strong enough for salts, purgative waters or cathartic pills, powders or tablets. Give them a mild, pleasant, gentle, laxative tonic like Dr. Cabell's Syrup Pepsin, which sells at the small sum of 50 cents or $1 at drug stores. It is the great remedy for you to have in the house to give children whenever need it.

THE DOLLAR.

Its Evolution From the One Time
Beast or Bellow.

The dollar took some rounding. Nor did it formerly ring true, but, much alive, simply gave a bleat or bellow. Cattle, among country folk, at one time constituted the dollar, while primitive man generally made use of any article sufficiently abundant for the standard payment of all merchandise.

Thus, in ancient Greece, a large bronze tripod had the value of a dozen oxen. A good hardworking woman, on the other hand, was given in exchange for only four such beasts. When metal took the place of money the dollar clung to its traditions, and coins were still called after live stock. Thus "pecunia," applied to metal money, derived its origin from "pecus" (cattle). From the custom of counting heads of cattle came the present designation of a sum in cash—capital or "capita" (heads). In Sanskrit rouspa (herd, flock) made rouspya or the Indian rupee, while lingots of electrum or admixture of gold and silver when first in use as money bore the impress of an ox or cow.

Not clumsy, but too fragile, were the shells in use as money by the negroes of Africa and throughout ancient Asia, where the natives, taken by its beauty, gave the shell a money value.—R. Hollox in Harper's Weekly.

FAUSTER FAMILY HOLDS REUNION

This Most Pleasant Occasion Was Sunday.

Sunday at the residence of Mrs. Parthenia Ferguson, 20 South Sixth street, was held a reunion of the Fauster family in honor of Mrs. Eliza Coggins, of Jefferson, Iowa, who is a sister.

The Fausters are among the very oldest residents of this city, having resided in Richmond about seventy years.

Jephtha Fauster and his wife, Martha, moved here from Ohio in 1829, or 1830, shortly after their marriage. Ten children were born to the couple, five boys and five girls. The girls are all living. Two of the boys are dead.

The members of the Fauster family present at the roll call of the reunion were: Mrs. Emeline Slaughter; Mr. and Mrs. Willis Carter; Mr. and Mrs. Eliza White; Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Cook; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Fauster and daughter; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Payne; Mrs. Hattie Smith and sons, Charles, Harry, Howard and Russell; Mr. Frank Fauster; Mr. Thomas Fauster and son Roy; Mr. and Mrs. William Cottman of Fountain City; Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Crawford; Mr. and Mrs. Glouster Garrett and children; Mrs. Harry Fauster and daughter Harue; Rev. D. E. Bass of Dayton, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Lon Epps and son Gilbert and Miss Bessie and Walter Burden. Rev. N. Wellington Williams, pastor of Bethel church of this city, was also present. Dinner and supper were served to the family and a delightful day was spent.

DANCING CLUB.

The Tuesday evening dancing club will meet at I. O. O. F. hall at 8 o'clock. As this is a private club, no visitors will be admitted.

"Here's a letter from the boss," said the machine leader's henchman. "He said you'd give me a job."
"But," protested the merchant, "I have absolutely nothing for you to do here."
"That's all right. I won't mind that so long's I git me pay reglar."
