

CITY JAIL MUCH
DISLIKED BY MAN

Made Second Attempt to Get Into County Bastile. But Goes to City Coop.

SMILED AS HE WAS FINED.

MURRAY, WHO LIKES TO SPEND WINTERS IN COUNTY JAIL, THOUGHT HE WOULD BE SENT THERE, BUT NOT SO.

"Much obliged Judge," Frank "Shooks" Murray, grinned expansively as he thanked Judge Converse in the city court this morning for fining him $1 and costs for intoxication. Murray's joy was turned to sadness when the court ordered that Murray should serve out his sentence in the city jail instead of the county jail.

"Your honor I would rather spend fifty days in the county jail than five days in the city jail," Murray moun-tainedly remarked. "That's the reason why I have ordered that you be confined in the city jail," answered Judge Converse.

Murray is a young negro who works hard in the summer time at his trade of hod carrying, but in the winter he finds work distasteful and does everything in his power to "break" into the county jail. To cure him of this habit Judge Converse recently had Murray placed in solitary confinement in the city jail. After being cooped up for four days in his narrow cell Murray was released on a promise of future good behavior. He speedily broke his pledge.

Judge Converse told Murray that if he was not careful sometime when intoxicated he would send something and would then get a penitentiary sentence. "You never did hear of me stealing and what's more you never will," said Murray. "That old penitentiary don't look good to me. All I want is the county jail."

COREYS STRANDED
IN NORTH ADAMS

Rich Mabelle Gilman Corey Refuses to Aid Owing To Feeling.

SISTER IN VAUDEVILLE.

North Adams, Mass., Jan. 20.—The father, sister and stepmother of Mabelle Gilman Corey, wife of the president of the United States steel corporation, are practically stranded here.
The mother is sick and the father is penitent. The Corays refuse to aid their relatives as they object to the younger girl appearing in vaudeville as "Sister of the Famous Mabelle Gilman Corey."

EIGHTEEN CHILDREN
MAKE DECISION

Result of Revival Services Being Held.

The meetings at the Second Presbyterian church were well attended yesterday. In the evening the auditorium was filled to overflowing. The interest, too, is manifestly greater. During the Sunday school hour, eighteen pupils made decisions, indirectly as a result of the meetings. In the morning service the pastor's subject was "Christ's Invitation." In the evening the sermon was on "The Prodigal Son," illustrated by the stereopticon. Practical application was made to the modern prodigal. There will be services each evening this week except Saturday, and afternoon meetings on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. Mr. Allen continues in charge of the music.

JAPANESE PREMIER

Emphasizes Amicable Relations With Powers.

Tokio, Jan. 20.—The Constitutionalists, at a general meeting today, passed resolutions supporting the Government measures to be submitted to the Diet. Marquis Salongi, the premier, in a speech, emphasized the amicable relations between Japan and the powers. He said that the immigration problem was practically settled with Canada and that he confidently expected a satisfactory understanding with the United States.

WELL KNOWN WOMAN
DIED ON SATURDAY

Mrs. Christine Holder Passed Away at Her Home West Of Hagerstown.

WAS SICK BUT TWO DAYS.

Hagerstown, Ind., Jan. 20.—Mrs.
Christine Holder, wife of David Holder, residing west of town, died Saturday night at a late hour after an illness of two days. Death was due to senility. The deceased was the daughter of John and Katherine Ulrich, deceased, and was born on the farm now owned by John Stonebraker and had been a resident of Jefferson township all her life. She was aged 82 years.
The deceased had been prominent in church work, having been a faithful member of the German Baptist church west of town, 55 years. According to the customs of that denomination, when it was thought she would not recover, the Rev. J. M. Thurston of Richmond was called here Saturday evening in consultation with Dr. E. H. Thurston.
Surviving members of the family are the husband, two daughters, Mrs. Will Stout and Mrs. D. O. Dilling and a stepson, Levi Holder. Mrs. Dilling

WEBSTER TOWNSHIP
MUST DO WORK

Commissioners Not Responsible for Condition of Road Complained About.

ONE PETITION POSTPONED.

At the meeting of the county commissioners today the consideration of a road petition that came up from Webster township was postponed and will come up at a later date. In the matter of the complaint by the postal department in reference to the condition of a road in Webster township, which is reported to be almost impassable at times, it was found that this is a township road and that the commissioners have no right to act.
It was referred to the trustee of Webster township, Charles Harris. Continuance of the rural delivery in Webster township is dependent upon the improvement of this road and it is expected that it will speedily be put into condition.

MODERN SURGERY.

Its Minute and Elaborate System of Sterilization.

The scene at an operating table in one of our hospitals now would make one of the old masters of surgery stare.
The operator himself and all his staff are dressed like the old holy priests of Solomon's temple, wearing white caps and gowns, and the nurses standing around like priestesses all in spotless white, while every one about the table has gone through as many ablutions as belts the occasion of a bloody sacrifice under the auspices of the immaculate goddess of cleanliness. A minute and elaborate ritual has been observed of sterilizing everything—towels, threads, needles, forceps, instruments and what not—while the floor itself is made of glass or glazed tiles rather than of wood. The surgeon himself does not venture to cut the victim till he has put on his sterilized gloves, because he cannot possibly clean his fingers enough. Should any onlooker take his hand out of his pocket to reach for the gaping wound he would be ejected instantly for spoiling the whole performance with his defiling touch.
The results of this vigilant war against microbes are simply marvelous and can be fully appreciated only by those who, like myself, can remember the surgery of former days in hospital wards and on the battlefield. Everybody's Magazine.

Ready to Appeal.

A criminal from the rural districts who had heard all about appeals to the supreme court and who had been convicted of a penitentiary offense was asked by the judge if he had anything to say. "I jest want ter ax one question, judge," He stooped down, picked up his slouch hat from the floor, as though ready to depart, and said, "Whar 'bout is this here supreme court at?"—San Francisco Argonaut.
