

SUMMITVILLE PLAYS HERE FRIDAY NIGHT

Especially Interesting Surrounds
Match as That Team Has Defeated Richmond.

WON AT TIPTON LAST NIGHT

LOCAL AGGREGATION SECURED
THE BIGGER END OF A 10 TO 1 SCORE—MAN WAS SEVERELY INJURED.

Special interest attaches to the polo game that is to be played Wednesday night at the local rink when the Summitville-Marion aggregation will meet Richmond. Each team has won a game and this will be the "rubber." Summitville gave the best exhibition of playing of any visiting team this season and the contest is expected to be of the fastest sort. Preceding the big game the Kronos and Bealviews of the City League, will play a curtain raiser, beginning at 7:20 o'clock. The second game will start at 8:30. The lineup of the Summitville team will be as follows: First rush, Able; second rush, Martin; center, Farmer; half back, Martin; goal, Oldfield; extra, Thawley.

Last night the Richmond team played at Tipton, administering a crushing defeat to the Tipton county bunch. The score was 10 to 1. The local players found the Tipton rink anything but satisfactory. One of the Tipton players was severely injured.

ECONOMY TEAM WANTS BASKET BALL GAMES

Defeated Williamsburg Challenges Richmond Teams.

Economy, Ind., Jan. 28.—The Economy basketball team defeated Williamsburg by a score of 22 to 15. The Economy boys were handicapped by the smallness of the room in which the game was played. The Economy basketball team would like to arrange a game with any Richmond team to be played in Richmond. Address M. A. Lindsey, Mgr.

COIN MOTTOES.

Inscriptions That Were a Joy to the Gynics and Critics.
A collection of coin mottoes gathered by an Italian student, Amerigo Scarlatti, was published in Minerva, an Italian periodical. Scarlatti is of the opinion that the inscriptions, though not intended to be cynical, too often admit of such an interpretation through the irresistible habit of the public of ignoring the intention of the designer and applying the motto to the coin itself.

Two Sicilies, had engraved on his silver denari the Latin words "Unus non Solus," meaning "One is not enough." All the world insisted on forgetting that the king referred to a single scepter and enthusiastically agreed with him that one denar wasn't enough for any one.

On the contrary, a storm of ironical opposition was aroused when Louis de Bourbon, king of Sicily, in the early part of the last century inscribed "Videant Pauperes et Lacrimare" on his coins. The words mean "Let the poor see and weep," and of course every one wanted to know why a poor man should rejoice at merely seeing a piece of money.

On the papal coinage of 1573 bearing the arms of Gregory XIII, are the words "Ei Super Haec Petram" (And upon this rock). Of course the pope and the artist who designed the coin meant the words to refer to the papacy, but the evil minded applied them so maliciously to the coin itself that the issue was speedily stopped. A similar opportunity for evil tongues was afforded when the Knights of Malta coined an issue of dollars with the sign of their order, the Maltese cross, and their motto, "In Hoc Signo Vincimus" (In this sign we combat). The ribald affected to take it as a confession that with them money was truly the sinew of war.

A Venetian lira dated 1474 has the somewhat ambiguous motto "In Tibi Solo Gloria" (To thee alone the glory). A sequin coined by Cardinal Reagonico in 1744 bears the words "Veni Lumen Cordium," or "Come, thou light of hearts." Clement XI. issued a coin with an image of the Madonna, with the legend "Causa Nostrae Laetitiae" (Cause of our joy), and a Venetian piece with an allegorical figure of justice, with the words "Nostra in hac elicitas" (Our happiness in this). All of these inscriptions were irreverently diverted by contemporaries from their true object to the money itself.

The Rub Of The Body.
The organ around which all the other organs revolve, and upon which they are largely dependent for their welfare, is the stomach. When the functions of the stomach become impaired, the bowels and liver also become deranged. To cure a disease of the stomach, liver or bowels get a 50 cent or $1 bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at your druggist. It is the prompt relief for constipation and dyspepsia ever compounded.

NAME "RICHMOND" IS HOODOO TO NEW CITY LEAGUE BOWLING TEAM

Reorganizing and renaming does not seem to benefit the standing of the team in the City Bowling league which has held the tail-end position the entire season. Under the name of the "Richmonds" and with a new lineup it met the Entre Nous team last evening and was defeated three games. The scores were consistently poor for both teams with the exception of those in the first game.

However there is much good material in the new Richmond team and the members of it are not discouraged because of last evening's failure. It was the first attempt and with a little more practice together they expect to furnish opposition for the best of the teams. Summary:

ENTRE NOUS 286, 286, 286.
Lahrman 127, 124, 121
Liechtenfels 122, 147, 158

Affairs of the Sporting World

Billy Gilbert will have a formidable rival for the second base job in St. Louis in Charles, the Williamsport graduate. Gilbert will go to Hot Springs early next month to prepare for what promises to be a good season for him.

It has been settled that Dan McGinn is to be captain of the Boston Nationals. Joe Kelley thinks an infielder should have the job and he (Kelley) has assigned himself to the outfield.

The National commission has decided that the New York National league club must pay within a week the fine of $1,000 imposed upon it about two months ago for refusing to play a series of spring exhibition games as per agreement.

The four western clubs of the O. & P. league have agreed upon the withdrawal of the four eastern clubs—Akron, Youngstown, Sharon and New Castle.

There are three boys in England the public considers better than Owen Moran. They are Jim Driscoll, the real feather boss; "Spikie" Robson and Jim Bowker.

Indian Joe Gregg has at last been successful in getting Charley Neary to meet him in a 10-round bout before one of the clubs in Milwaukee this month. They will fight at 133 pounds, weigh in at 3 p. m.

Tommy Burns is doing the concert halls of London, and word comes from over the sea that he is hauling down something like $1,500 per week at the game with apparently many weeks ahead.

Billy Nolan, the former manager of Battling Nelson, is putting in the winter playing the races at the Oakland track. Nolan still believes that Nelson is the best lightweight, and says he, Britt, Messie and McFarland should fight it out for the honor.

JUST AFFAIRS OF RICHMOND HIGH SCHOOL

FROM A CO-ED'S VIEWPOINT

The program which was given yesterday afternoon by the senior and junior English classes was a most enjoyable one. It consisted of music and readings. One of the most interesting features was the violin solo by Miss Caroline Hutton. In it all the old Scotch airs were played. It is to be regretted that all the high school pupils could not attend. The program was as follows:

Song—"Scot Wile Mair W' Wallace."
Chorus
Reading—"Life of Burns" Mary Fisher
Song—"Ye Banks and Braes of Bonnie Doon"
Reading—"Epistle to a Young Friend"
Song—"O Wae! Thou in the Clouds"
Chorus
Violin solo—"Scotch Airs"
Chorus

Caroline Hutton
Solo—"Birds of Aberfeldy"
Ruth Harris
Violin Obligato
Caroline Hutton
Song—"Auld Lang Syne"
All the Classes
The chorus was composed of the following: Mary Dickinson, Jessie Mann, Ruth Harris, Caroline Hutton, Alice Schaefer, Mary Fisher, Ellen Knollenberg and Lucille Poiglaise.

There has been a change made in the commercial course of the high school. Pupils who desire to take this course will begin it in the Freshman year. There are no foreign languages required in the first two years but English grammar, arithmetic, physical geography and physiology have been substituted. Each of these subjects is taken only one term. Pupils having less than sixteen credits will not be permitted to take commercial subjects in the third year.

The Richmond high school will soon have a new teacher, Mr. B. J. Kelley who will probably assist in the history and science departments.

Miss Caroline Stahl is still ill and unable to be at school.

BASKET BALL HAS CENTER OF STAGE

Hagerstown Teams Are Now Active.

Hagerstown, Ind., Jan. 28.—Basket ball will be played here Wednesday between Cambridge City and Hagerstown high school teams. The "Knockers" are arranging for a game for the latter part of the week with a Franklin team.

A SUCCESSFUL HEATING APPARATUS.

The Gennett Theatre Flat Building has a Hot Water Heating Plant installed, which has been used each winter since the building was first occupied. Owing to its six divisions, or the total amount of Radiation installed this Heating Plant is probably the largest one of its kind in the city or county.

The owners are well pleased, and state, as an investment, the cost of heating this building is very economical in the use of fuel.

Hot Water Heating, for a flat or apartments, is much more preferred than steam. The Heating Contractor, Charles Johanning, states, that because of the unusual economy of this plant, a part of the credit must be attributed, or is due, to Mr. Bert Noerver, by whose good care and judgment the plant is skillfully operated.

Chicago passengers using C. & I. trains land at 12th street (Illinois Central) Station; most conveniently located. Remember this.

There are in the continental United States 1,300,947,000 acres of land.

ARE STILL STRIKING

Differences Between Traction Company and Employees Unsettled.

PATRONAGE IS REDUCED.

Muncie, Ind., Jan. 28.—There has been no abatement on the strike situation that has existed between the Indiana Union Traction company and the members of the Amalgamated Association of Street Railway Employees since New Year's day. The strikers are firmer in their contentions than ever before, and victory through legitimate and peaceful methods is their ultimate hope. Nothing that would indicate a change in the company's rigid stand against the Amalgamated Union has developed. It has granted no concessions and there has been no conference between the forces.

From a financial standpoint the Indiana Union Traction company has suffered the loss of an immense fortune and each day brings forth records of additional loss. The patronage of interurban cars at the present is less than the traffic was preceding the strained relations between the employer and employee. The declaration that the revenue on the cars of the various city lines falls short of the pay of the men who operate them, is generally heard all over the city.

City Cars Empty.
It is known that many cars do not carry a single passenger on some of their trips, and during a day the total number of passengers on some of the cars is so small that if it were to be told to a non-observer, the truth of the statement would be impugned, according to the strikers and their sympathizers.

Business men have been requested by the strikers to transact their freight business by the steam roads. Many of the organizations have adopted stringent resolutions imposing heavy fines, and in many instances expulsion to its members who ride on the Indiana Union Traction company cars.

Several men have equipped the city with hack and automobile lines. The hacks make regular trips on all the thoroughfares touched by the car lines and the automobiles deliver passengers to their homes.

FAIRIES IN IRELAND.

A Boatman's Story of the Antics of the Little People.

Here is a modern fairy story from Ireland: "One day about twenty years ago," writes a correspondent, "I was fishing from a boat on Lough Derg. I inquired of my boatmen if they had ever seen fairies. At first, fearing to be laughed at, they scouted the idea, but one of them told the following: "On a Sunday he was returning after mass and stood with a friend named Sullivan on the bridge of Killahee. Looking toward a potato field on the slope of the rising ground to the east of the town, a field which he was able to point out from the boat, he saw issuing from the lies a troop of little people, one being distinctly taller than the rest. At first they seemed rather blurred, then took distinct shapes and began to play the national game of hurley among the bare potato rigs. He called Sullivan's attention to them, but for some time his friend could not see them, then said he could, and they watched the game together for a time. Then the sun went in, and the fairies, moving toward the lies, as if returning to it, vanished. Lisses are rough places, sometimes hillocks, sometimes depressions, often bushy, but never cultivated. I have been told they are left as doorways for the fairies when visiting the earth's surface."—Chicago News.

Though the population of London's metropolitan district is 2,000,000 more than the population of New York city, the latter does a restaurant business one-fifth larger than the former.

WILL PROMPTED MRS. EDDY'S REMOVAL

She Desired to Be Near Scientists' Temple.

Boston, Mass., Jan. 28.—The spectacular removal of Mary Baker Eddy from Pleasant View, at Concord, N. H., to Brookline, Mass., was conceived and executed by the imperious will of the aged leader of Christian Science herself. It can be stated on good authority that it is Mrs. Eddy's own desire to visit at least once more and perhaps speak, in the magnificent mother church in Boston.

Soon after the wonderfully beautiful addition to the church had been completed Mrs. Eddy expressed to her cabinet the longing to see the monument to herself and her teachings with her own eyes. That desire ended in the complete removal of the household to Brookline.

In the new Mecca for Christian Scientists just established Mrs. Eddy occupies a room from which she can gaze to her heart's content upon the gilded dome and architectural beauties of the Christian Scientists' Temple and hear the chimes each Sunday morning.

Where It Doesn't Apply.
"Slow and sure," remarked the man with the quotation habit, "is a good motto."

"But," protested the thoughtful thinker, "there is one thing that can never be slow and sure."

"What's that?" queried the quotation dispenser.

"A watch," replied the t. t.—Kansas City Independent.

A woman's love is a paradox. You can't keep it unless you return it.—Philadelphia Record.
